we have attempted to protray adquately the activities of the Olean High School students. ¶ We have sought to reflect clearly and conscientiously those standards and those traditions which have given to the high school its distinctive character. ¶ In accomplishing this we have had the best of cooperation from the students, the faculty and the Olean Times Publishing Company not only in the Year Book but in our weekly publication, "THE CONGRESS" and to them we express our sincerest appreciation.

The Valedictory

RELATION OF ATHLETICS TO EDUCATION

For several years American educators have been asking the question: "Have athletics a definite relation to education?" Many prominent men have expressed opinions on this subject but the problem is still worthy of consideration. Men like President Roosevelt and President Wilson have been decidedly in favor of this new play ground movement. Far sighted educators are demanding more and better recreational centers for the youth of America, arguing that athletics benefit the participant morally, mentally, and physically. If one turns to history he finds that, during the forty years of the period of Pericles, Greece produced more great men than at any other period in her history. Sophocles, Aeschylus, and Euripides flourished in this period. Grecian drama rose to its peak in the plays of Sophocles and Aeschylus. This great period in Grecian History is directly traceable to her system of education. Educators saw that advantage of having a "sound mind in a sound body" and compelled the Greek boy to spend half his school time in participation in athletics. In a less decided and elaborate way England has a very complete system of physical education. Most of Englands great men have been, during their school days, participants in Athletics. Even in America many an athlete finds his way into "Who's Who." Theodore Roosevelt once said, "In life, as in a football game, the principle to follow is: Hit the line hard, don't foul and don't shirk, but hit the line hard." He believed that if the American boy would follow this principle he would become a good citizen. Athletics are built upon this principle and the athlete's sense of justice and fair play is sure to be developed. Athletics teach the boy how to lose as well as win. He learns always to give the other man a square deal. He learns to obey the rules of the game. He knows that he will be penalized for any violation of them. If this habit of obeying the laws of the game is inculcated in the youth, the laws of man are more likely to be obeyed when the youth becomes an adult citizen. There is need today of men who are law abiding, just, and public spirited. The United States needs men in office who have learned the lessons of cooperation and team work. There is no game which school boys play that does not require these two essentials. The work of Theodore Roosevelt is one of the best examples which can be cited in support of this statement. Throughout his whole political career he was known as one of the fairest, most public-spirited men ever holding an office in our country. He too had learned the lessons of fair play and cooperation from athletics.

Again, no matter what branch of sport the athlete participates in, he must be mentally and physically awake. When the fielder cathes a fly he must know at once where he is going to throw it. He has no time to stop and think things over. It is the same way many times in life. There comes a crisis where "he who hestitates is lost." He must act quickly or become involved in a great catastrophe. A negro soldier, one of the Rough Riders, during the advance on San Juan, was badly wounded. A comrade found him bleeding to death. The rest of the men were going forward. If the Rough Rider stayed with the dying man he would lose the fight, if he left him the man would die. He made a quick decision and stayed saving the negro soldier's life.

Theodore Roosevelt is one of the many examples we have of the physical benefits of athletics. A weakling as a boy he developed into a real man, a man who could stand hardships. If he had not been in good physical condition he could not have endured the strain of the Presidency. In the business of life, no matter what one profession or occupation, a man needs stamina and vigor, strength to meet the problems as they come. To develop all round good citizens is the primary duty of education to-day, but only the help of athletics can this purpose be accomplished.

To-morrow we the class of 1925 will step from school life into life's school. We have come to a place in our own lives where we are to face squarely the problems and responsibilities of life. In other words, we are just ready to begin the greatest game of all.

Four years have we spent in this building learning lessons, making life long friends, and getting ready for our life work. We shall never forget the happy days we have spent here and, in the years to come, we shall pause from our cares once in a while thoughtfully to cherish our High School Days.

As we leave our high school behind us to-night we would express our gratitude to the taxpayers of Olean for their generosity to the Members of the Board of Education for the gift of their time and to the Superintendent of Schools for his thoughtful supervision.

In a more intimate way, perhaps, we would thank Mr. Sackett and our teachers. You saw us enter this school four years ago as children from all the different schools of this city. You have watched us grow up, all the time, guiding, directing, cautioning and at times correcting us. We have looked to you as advisors, examples, and friends and as such we shall remember you.

We go our separate ways to play our part in the game of life. May we play well.

-Philip Hall-

Class Song

(To the tune of "O! Katharina)"

Verse:—

The time is drawing near when we are leaving, Yes, we're grieving, for we hate to go, To say goodbye, to all our pals. But those who leave us now, we'll meet again And reminisce about the good old times We used to have, in O. H. S. We want the faculty to know that they deserve a mention And when we go, we'll take the fondest thoughts of their attention, And we are glad, that we have had, An Education here.

Chorus:---

We are the Seniors, we are the Seniors, Hail to the Class of twenty-five, we Claim there are none who can surpass us. O. H. S. We love you! Yes! we do, we've Had lots of fun, much work have we done. So now we will strive to do our best. And where'ere we go, we'll always cheer for O. H. S.

Class Poem

- Four short years ago we wandered, Slowly up the campus green Here to work and win our laurels Striving daily as a team.
- II. We have fought, and we have conquered Every lesson hard and long, Now we're Seniors and we're ready To face the whole world with a song.
- III. Athletes! we have shown our mettle— Though we won not every game— Tackling, running, fighting bravely— Shown our spirit just the same.

- IV. We have tried in track and baseball Victory has been our goal Now that we have taken first place Joy and gladness fill our soul.
- V. Actors! Who can take our places? Lights not 'neath a bushel hid— Who will sing and dance and frolic As this class of Seniors did?
- VI. Music here has been a custom, Glee clubs, orchestras are ours; Now we have them, not forgetting Songs that issued from these doors.
- VII. Now the time has come to leave you Though we'd rather linger here. Dear H. S. we oft will long, too. For your corridors so dear.
- VIII. You have been a stepping stone To the greater things that come You have done your duty by us You have taught us one by one.
 - IX. When we're old and strength is going

We will walk down memorie's lane Dreaming of the old brick building And our school days once again.

X. Goodbye, School we'll not forget you Classmates, whom we leave to-night, May each rising memory dear Stir ambition to its height.

Class Prophecy

Place: Office of Raymond Sill, prominent lawyer, 103 Woolworth Bldg. Enter Evelyn Hutchings who has made a fortune in the hairpin industry accompanied by Ray Kamler, her close friend and advisor.

- E. H. I simply can't keep my finances straightened out and the lawyer is so busy. I told you that he would be out.
 - R. K. Well, let's sit down and wait. I understand he spends a good deal of his time trying to straighten out the affairs of the National Clothes Pin, Inc.
- E. H. Yes, and they say that Phil Baum, the President, was last seen on a fast freight bound for Canada.

R. K. Do you remember when we were all in school together? I wonder where the class of '25 has drifted to.

- E. H. (Picking up newspaper) "Listen to this: Philip Hall and his wife, formerly Ethel Knowlden, are spending a unique honeymoon in the wilds of South America.
- R. K. Let me see it. (Turns to next page) Why! what's this: The new coaching staff at Vassar College has been chosen for the coming year. John Eaton will be first in command. His staff consists of Jiggs Donohue, Mike Crowley, and Ed Huff, all former Olean young men. (Turn page) Major Earl Beard falls 5,000 feet into sea when parachute fails to open. He was rescued by Edward Bronold of the U. S. S. Michigan. The ship's surgeon, Dr. Wm. Mountain, says that he will recover.
- E. H. Let's tune in on the radio, we might get some dance music. (Voice) This is station WKEF Cheyenne, Wyoming. Francis Reese announcer. All those who have not had their radios inspected by Mr. Richard Andrews, Gov. Radio Inspector, please notify his private secretary, Miss Aileen Witherell, care station WZYX. Johnny Mountain, in the most sensational race ever featured on a Kentucky Derby track, brought Flying Fish up from third place to win over Black Baby.

Leslie Gueder, American tennis champion, is in danger of losing his crown. His latest challenger being none other than Jack Herrick, internationally known tennis champion and billiard shark.

R. K. Turn it off that's plenty. Say, listen to this advertisement:"

Why hello folks. Say, guess who I just met down the street? Dave Black. You know he's heartbroken since Midge Hernbloom married Laury Davis, and has taken up bachelor quarters at the Friar Club. He said that he had a letter the other day from Muy Cadwallader. Muy has just been appointed postmaster at Knapps Creek. It was just full of news. Connie McElligott runs a general store there, and Gertie Tapp has struck oil and is thinking of coming to New York to live. He also mentioned that he was in Olean the other day to speak to the high school and he met Celestine Gardiner directing the orchestra. E. H. Who is the new elevator girl, somehow her face looks familiar? R. K. Why that was Helen Atkins, wasn't it Ray?

R. S. Yes, and did you know that Doris English and Doris Field are running a style store in Pumpkin Center.

R. K. Well, I heard that you spent considerable time up that way.

- Exit R. S.—Evidently I hit a delicate subject. This radio is pretty nice. (Voice) This is station AHZ. We are very sorry to announce that Miss Lucille Van Dusen is suffering from an attack of tonsilitis and will not be able to sing tonight. We will, however, be entertained by Miss Dorothy Ring, the noted lecturer on the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals in Africa.
- E. H. Oh turn that thing off. Who cares about the animals in Africa? Enter R. S. (With Sat. Eve. Post) Say, look here, it says that Bob White's orchestra will broadcast from WKAR Thursday night next week. Gee! I'll bet the music will be good.
- K. K. Sit down Ray and let's see how many of the class of '25 we can account for. We have found 33 already, including ourselves. You first, Evelyn.
- E. H. I read in the paper the other day that Virginia Sheehan was playing as Norma Talmadge's twin and that Helen Guay was imitating Nazimova in "Don't Give Up," the new play under the control of the American Theatrical Corporation, which is controlled by Lucy and Bennie Bordonaro.
- R. K. Here's an ad for the circus. "Ap" Driscoll's famous circus will arrive in town Tuesday. Among the many attractions will be: Mabel Bates, the Mezzo soprano; Grace Beckman, the World's Greatest Tyte Rope Walker; Chet Carll, the Lion Tamer; and Helen Bunce, the Bare Back Rider. Bernard Gill and Genevieve Smith are advance agents. Tickets 75c. R. S. It looks as if there was going to be a close race for Governor. Marc Van Campen as editor of the Daily Star is using his influence for Cody Smith while J. E. Fitzgerald and Marc Kirchgasser and pulling for Helen Shankman through the Pleasant Valley News. And the best part of it is that John Ed's wife, Rita Rogers, is campaigning for "Cody."
- R. K. Yes and Janice Walker, Dorothy Walsh and Abigaile Yorke have joined the camp to elect Bob Stone and Nell Kemp to Congress and are walking delegates to the Anti-Tobacco Conference.

E. H. Time heals many wounds. Janet Humphrey has turned soap box orator for the Larkin Co. and is commanding a pretty fair salary.

R. K. (picks up paper, Sat. Eve. Post.) Well, I didn't notice this before Who do you think is cover artist for this magazine?

R. S. Who?

R. K. Madeline Becker.

R. S. Speaking of art, that reminds me. I met Vernon Travis in town at the furniture convention the other day. He owns half interest in Bradner's and has married Ivah Slinker. He said that Katherine Meyers, Josephine McCabe and Clara Montie were startling Chicago with their revelation in Ladies' latest hairdressing styles. It seems

15

- that he had a letter from Evelyn Andresen, who is starring in Grand Opera there.
- E. H. Didn't he say anything about any one else we know?
- R. S. Well, come to think of it he did say that Nadine Allen and Katherine Ryan were teaching at Portville, and Catherine Sullivan, the policewoman at Allegany, pinched Dick Murphy and Dick Page for speeding. You know that they bought out Joe McCarthy's chicken farm. Quite a place, I guess. They have Jim Thompson, Leo Sirdevan, and Gerald Thomas working for them.
- R. K. I met Hartwell VanDusen yesterday. He is director of the Regents board. According to his reports Mary Fitzgerald is teaching Virgil in Chipmonk and has the highest average of any teacher in the state. At the present time he is trying to introduce in the public schools a new book entitled "The Foolishness of Love," and who do you think the authors are?
- R. S. I'll bite, who are they.
- R. K. None other than Helen Sheahan and Helen Lundquist. Well Evelyn let's hear from you.
- E. H. I was down to the Beauty Parlor the other day that Leona Casey, Nina Harris and Gertrude Alger are running, while I was there, who should come in but Marie Schnell, Mary McAuliffe and Mary Loftus.

They are playing Basket ball for the women's corps of the J. B. Finance Co., which I might add is controlled by Marion Coburn and Agnes Johnson.

Do you all remember William Hasset? Well he is the official rent collector. Marie said that Flora Foster and Hazel Wood were working there until last week. It seems they vamped some college men and skipped out. Otis Cook married them. You know he is a minister now.
R. S. (Picking up papers) Here is an appealing ad.

"SPEND THE SUMMER" "ON THE TOP OF THE WORLD" CAVE INN SUMMER RESORT

Mildred Kamery and June Keller, Propr's.

What you won't read when you haven't got your glasses. That accounts for 90 of them if my count is correct. Here's something, Group of professors leave for Asia. "The noted professors on "Evolution," the Misses Alma Edmunds, Elizabeth Farwell and Messrs. Maurice Entwistle, Greydon Field and Willis Everhart left for Asia this morning in search of documents claimed to have been buried in the sands of Asia and to contain important data in the history of man."

R. K. It's funny how many people want to make monkeys out of men.

R. S. It says here that Jack Ewing drove his car like a veteran in the 500-

- mile handicap last night. Sport critics see the making of another De Paola. Henry Ford had the makings of another Lincoln.
- E. H. Why don't you look in the police court news?
- R. S. Here, you look, you might find the other 18.
- E. H. Just as I told you, listen to this; Lyman Fortner is acting as lawyer for defense in the greatest murder case ever had in the United States and Wendall Madison is counsel for the defense. The Judge, Harry Beabout, decided that Lyman Fortner won the case. Fortner used his new theory of law for which he has just won his fame.
- R. K. Well there certainly aren't any more. Let me see it. I'll look in the columns. As I thought, Fritz Garr, Jo Gaylor and Helen Maulbetsch, upon advice of Lois LeBar, editor of the column to "Lovelorn," have answered matrimonal ads. Don Morgan, the famous singer, has lost his voice and has retreated to his mountain home in an effort to recuperate. He took with him the famous comedians, Sophia Lipowski, Mary Sirriani and Dorothy Stowell, to provide him amusement in his lonesome hours. George Kelly, Carl Seivert Donald Kennedy, Myron Klink and Harold Bosler have applied to Washington for a patent on a perpetual motion machine they have just completed.
- R. S. Well, we have found them all but two.
- E. H. And here they are. Mary Fitzpatrick sailed for India in an effort to locate her long lost brother-in-law. Jim Forrest caused no little excitement today when his milk wagon tipped over. All the cats in Salamanca enjoyed the accident.

R. K. That is all of them, time makes many friends and many enemies.R. S. You're right, but we forgot some. We don't know what has become of those who so faithfully instructed us, yet let us hope that they have the good will of the succeeding classes and the respect, honor and prosperity which they so richly deserve. Let's go out to lunch.

Class History

Once upon a time, four years ago to be exact, the eighth grades of Olean united to form what was called the Freshman class of O. H. S. The first day we were all scared to death but Miss Fitzgerald soon helped us to get over our timidity. This was the year 1921, and the class was destined to be the largest and the BEST ever to graduate from the halls of the Crimson and Gold.

After three weeks of getting into the swing of high school life, we met on September 22, 1921 and organized our class, electing David Black, president; David Donohue, vice president; Josephine Gaylor, secretary; Julia Norton, treasurer; Margaret Braun. Council representative. Miss Fitzgerald was chosen as class advisor.

To prove our worth we easily won the competitive assembly over the Sophomores, much to the credit of "Ike" Norton who coached us. We entered a team in inter-class baseball and met with fair success, finishing third. This ended our activities for our Freshman year until June 3rd. On this date we held our picnic at Riverhurst. It was a huge success, despite a downpour of rain. Following the picnic supper, we enjoyed dancing, the music being furnished by Fitch's orchestra. This concluded our first year at O. H. S. .

After its summer vacation this fine class returned to school and met on September 19, 1922 to organize, electing David Donohue, president; Josephine Gaylor, vice president; Beatrice Sharp, secretary; Jack Ewing, treasurer; Alice Karl and Ray Sill student council members; Miss Oliver, faculty advisor.

This year was one of mental improvement and in addition we succeeded in having two acts in the inter-class entertainment which made a great hit with the audience.

Now we pass into our Junior year with ninety-six students, the largest Junior class in the history of the school. This time we wisely chose David Donohue, president; Evelyn Hutchings, vice president; Beatrice Sharp, secretary; Myron Cadwallader, treasurer; Helen Atkins, Jack Ewing, and David Black, student council members.

A committee was appointed to choose our Junior pins. The design was a gold shield with black and gold lettering.

We scored quite high in athletics in our Junior year, winning second place in basketball and in baseball we tied with the Sophomores and Seniors. Our class finished second this year in the inter-class track meet.

Our social activities included an enjoyable dance held in the gym October 29. In February we easily won the competitive assembly from the Senior class of 1924. On June 27 the Junior-Senior prom was held at the K. of C. hall. The Prom had always been held at Riverhurst but this year it was changed because the public demanded that such a dance be held at this place.

O. H. S. YEAR BOOK-	0.	H. S	YEAR	BOOK-	-1925

In October a dance was held in honor of Corning and the Juniors had charge of the refreshments and decorations of the "gym." This brought to a successful end our Junior year.

On September 5, 1924 we returned once more—for the last time—to meet our Senior year and what it had in store for us. This was the largest class ever assembled in the history of the High School to be organized.

On September 1924 the class was called together to select our officers. Myron Cadwallader was elected president; Evelyn Hutchings, vice president; Marcus Kirchgasser, treasurer; and Doris English, secretary. Miss Hobart was unanimously chosen faculty advisor. Our representatives in the student council were Raymond Kamler, Clarence Smith, Catherine Sullivan, and Marion coburn. Later in the year Clarence Smith left school and Conrath McElligott was appointed in his place. American beauty snap-dragons were selected as the class flower and the colors were American beauty and silver or white. Our class motto was "Tu ne cede malis, sed contra audentior ito, quam tua te Fortuna sinet!" which in English means not to fear evil but to meet it bravely. The standard seal was used for our class rings.

In athletics old '25 far surpassed any preceding years. This class supported all athletic activities to the utmost. The following Senior boys earned football letters during their school course: Basil Baker (1); James Driscoll (2); John Eaton (1); Edward Huff (2); Marcus Kirchgasser (1); Carl Seivert (2); Richard Murphy (3). In basketball John Eaton (1), Richard Murphy (1), Raymond Sill, Manager, (1), David Donohue, (2) earned the coveted "O". In track John Ed Fitzgerald, James Driscoll, Philip Baum, Manager and John Eaton each were awarded the round "O." Though baseball was a varsity sport only during our Junior year, the following earned "O's:" James Driscoll, John Eaton, James Forrest and David Donohue, Clarence Smith, Manager. In class athletics both girls' and boys' teams took active part in the different sports.

The first of our dramatic talent shown in our Senior year was the Thanksgiving play entitled "The Last of the Lowries," a touching play in one act.

A Christmas pageant was given shortly before Christmas vacation under the direction of Miss Wade of the faculty. This was a story of King Arthur's Round Table.

For the first time in history of the High School the Senior class won the competitive assembly. It was a one-act play entitled "Their Anniversary." David Black, Helen Guay, Aileen Witherell, Robert White, and Mary Fitzgerald and Raymond Sill made up the cast. They all took their parts in a creditable manner.

The Seniors held offices in practically every activity in O. H. S. Dorothy Walsh was president of the Girls' Glee Club; Raymond Kamler, president of the Boys' Glee Club; Raymond Kamler, president of the Student Council; David Donohue, president of Athletic Association; Doris Field president of Wayside; Raymond Sill, manager of basketball; Francis Reese, president of the Radio Club; Myron Cadwallader, editor-in-chief of Congress.

This year "Congress" was published weekly in the "Olean Evening Times" instead of in the usual book form which had previously been published about four times a year. Myron Cadwallader was editorinchief; David Black, Business manager; Marcus Kirchgasser, Advertising manager. Other Seniors were heads of minor departments.

The crowning feature of our Senior year was the Senior play, a clever comedy in three acts entitled, "The Charm School." This was a story of a young automobile salesman who inherited a girl's school from his aunt and endeavored to teach his pupils to be charming. Helen Guay, Mary Sirianni, Aileen Witherell, Helen Atkins, Mildred Hernbloom, Rita Rogers, Catherine Sullivan, Evelyn Hutchings, Helen Bunce, David Black, Robert White, Myron Cadwallader, Philip Baum, Conrath McElligott, Raymond Kamler made up the cast of characters. Each actor and actress deserves credit for his and her efforts.

As a culmination of all these social events came the Wayside dance which was held May 29 in the K of. C. Hall. Fitch's orchestra furnished the music. Refreshments were served by a committee.

This brings to a close the history of the Class of '25 as far as high school is concerned, but we all are going out into the world to make our own history and to see what there is in store for us in future years. We go with happy memories of our school days and with best wishes for the success of those following us.

Class Grinds

The mills of the gods grind slowly, but they grind exceedingly fine. So sayeth some sager ones of old. The mills of the high school grind exceedingly fast but the grist is rather gritty. So sayeth the grinders for:

Bunce ought to know that,

"Early to bed and early to rise

Makes a man—" win a place in the track meet!

In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns from thoughts of work-Phil Baum.

Do you know Johnny Eaton? Well, he's the source of the Wrigley fortunes.

Poets are born, not made; not so with "Marc" Van Campen.

You know we can't see why they picked Catherine Sullivan for the part of man-hater.

Have you seen Apollo with the discus? Oh, we beg your pardon, we meant "Mike" Crowley.

O. H. S. has a broadcasting station all its own (W) J. B. H.—Janet Humphrey.

We also have a powerful High School advocate for the increase of the use of "splendiferous" words in the person of Francis Reese.

Let us introduce to you our Siamese twins, Myron and "Connie." They both believe that it is "better late than never."

We have two more who are greatly "attached." Did you ever see Doris Field without Doris English? We doubt it.

Bet you've wondered where "Cel" Gardiner learned to play the "sax." Well, if you won't tell, "Al" Fromme is a frequent caller.

We present the bold facts in "Black" and "White."

Isn't it just a bit incongruous to have a "Hill" teaching two "Mountains" the law of Gravitation?

We're always hearing a "Klink" or a "Ring" or a very slight "Tapp." I don't know what it can "Beabout."

The two Irish "micks" Erickson and "Yonson." That girl "Walsh" couldn't "Phil" no "Hall." The fruit of the class, "apple" Driscoll.

We never saw "Kelly" with a green necktie so he can't be the one about whom the famous ditty was composed.

We certainly have a large class this year. There are Two "Mountains" in it. It is also rather wild with a "Forrest" and "Field" and a "Woods" to say nothing of the "Stone."

The grinders have ground their very best, You know it was done just for a jest.

Class Grumbles

We, the following, John Ed Fitzgerald, Mary Sirianni, and Myron Farwell, being of cantankerous and censorious dispositions and of superhypercritical natures do hereby submit and present these Grumbles of the class of '25 to the Board of Eudcation, the faculty of Olean High School, and the General Public for their candid perusal.

In so far as we disapprove of every thing in general and all things in particular; and Whereas there is a dark cloud for every silver lining, we shall proceed:

1st: We accuse the Board of Education of Olean with willful negler in not providing a dancing course for the boys. The girls, of course, do not need to be taught. Dancing is a part of their natures. But, they are willing to assist in this most important side of BOY'S education.

2nd: We charge the faculty with inhumanity in not allowing the students to chat and exchange jokes during class. The Seniors, especially, being on the brink of plunging into the cold, cold world need plenty of heart-easing mirth. Besides, the sight of our smiling faces ought to warm the hearts of our teachers.

3rd: We reproach the faculty for their injustice in complaining of the pupil's lack of interest in their studies. We wish to mention the fact that, in the near past, several members of a certain class came to school through deep snow at 7:30 in the morning to review the term's work of that particular class.

4th: We wish to complain of the familiarity of the Freshmen with their superiors, the Seniors, and of the sophistication of the Juniors. We also wish to call to the attention of the Sophomores the fact that the word Sophomore is derived from two Greek words meaning a smart fool.

5th: The Olean High School has labored under the pressing need of a baseball field. A good field is necessary for the pursuance of this sport.

6th: The Gym is inadequately equipped. Boxing gloves are needed for the exercising of youthful muscles and for building up the constitution. The students can there-by gain weight and will not need to be examined for underweight.

7th: We bewail the lack of seating room in school, making it necessary for students to wander about the halls. Cushioned seats should be placed in convenient places for the purpose of supplying this need.

8th: We strenuously object to the bars on the windows and the piano. They make school seem like a prison.

9th: The students of O. H. S. who have ever had the occasion of standing before the assembled school on the stage in the Senior Auditorium have patiently endured the dust which emanates from the rug. It seriously affects our olifactory senses and our glosso-pharyngeal nerves.

10th: It is unanimously suggested by the class that, in the future, Johnson's learned sock be presented for dramatic entertainments in place of the high-heeled buskin.

11th: The metallic clang of our school bell has that form of vibrational energy as the bells on freight-trains. We want a softer toned bell so that the sound may not affect our ear drums unpleasantly.

12th: The amount of chewing gum stuck on the bottom of desks and seats, occasions us to demand sanitary depositories for their amorphous substance.

13th: We object to this hot weather. In order to endure it better, we should have every desk in O. H. S. equipped with electric fans.

14th: We need a dog pond for the strange canines that visit S. S. H.

15th: The Freshmen are coming in smaller, younger and duller than ever. They should be kept from High School until they are older and more fit to assimilate the Knowledge that is given them to digest.

16th: The hard seats in S. S. H. make it difficult for the Seniors to relax, both in mind and body. Give us desks, a' la Morris for the exclusive 3 years of hard work.

17th: The Seniors have been greatly discomposed in the past year by the lack of a workable pencil-sharpener and by an insufficient supply of ink. We would suggest a well, full of ink for every desk and a good pencil-sharpener.

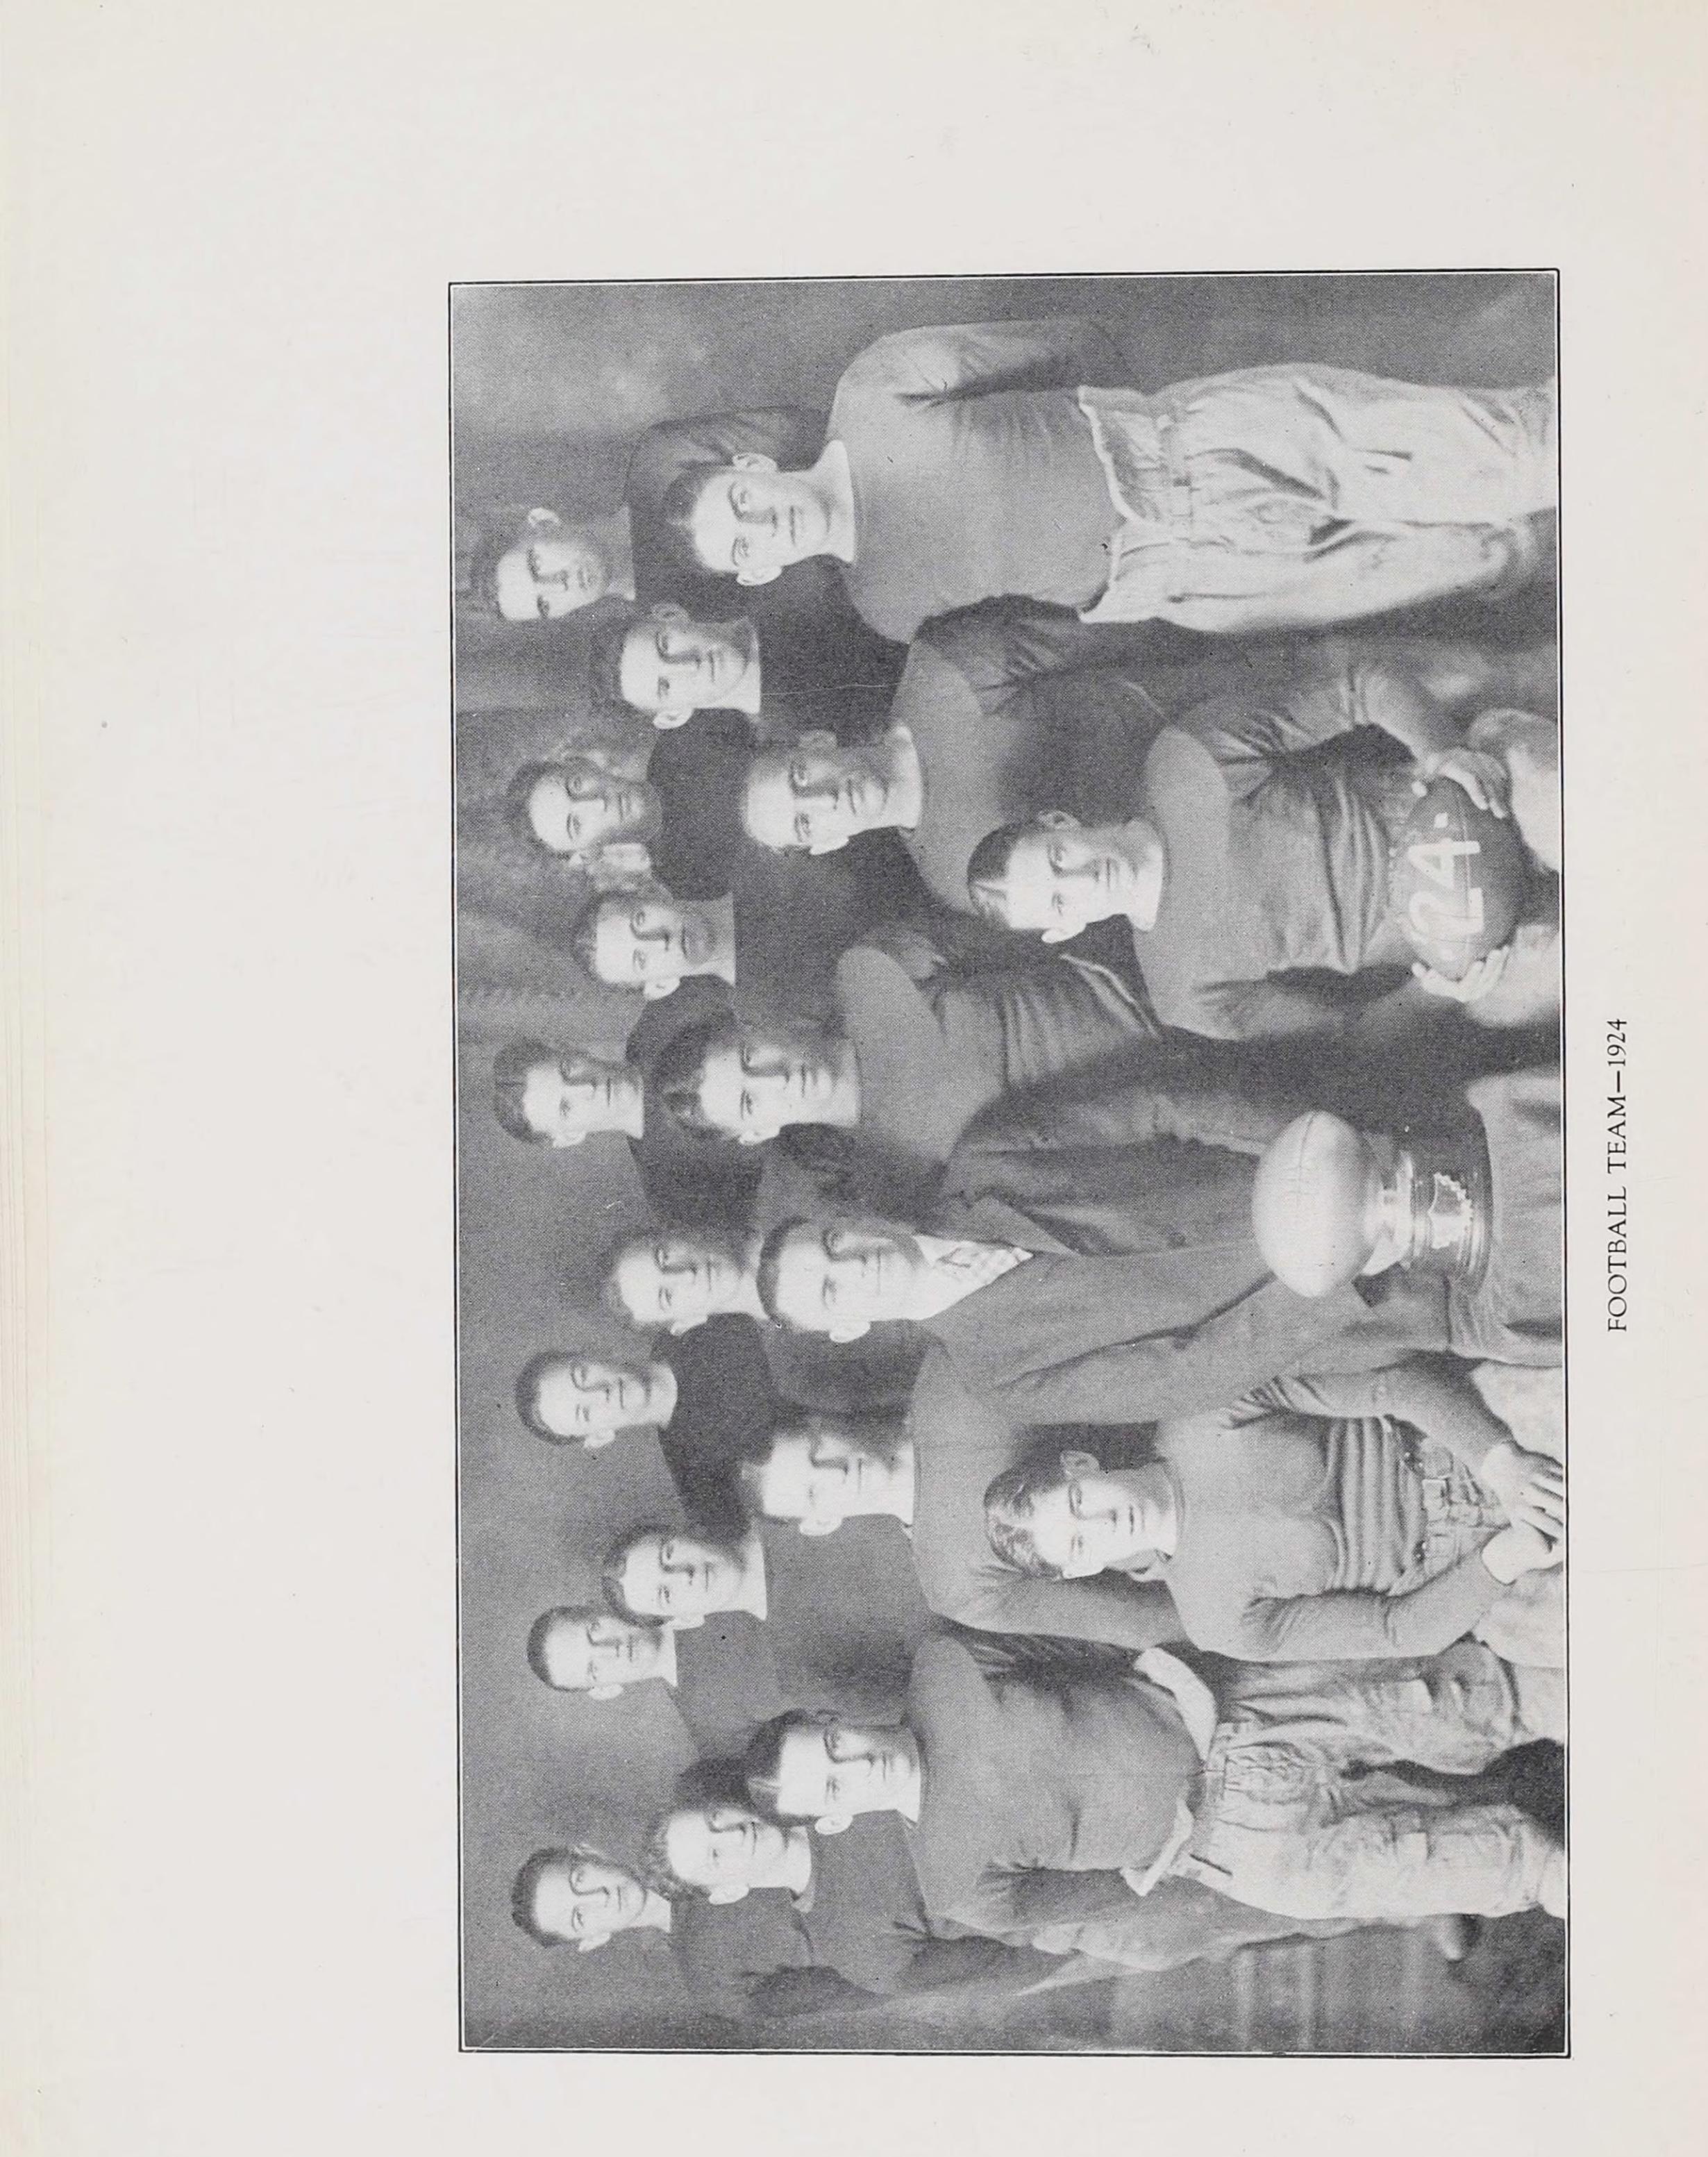

18th: We dislike having to hold our song books in assembly. The back of every seat should be equipped with a rack for holding the afore-mentioned books.

19th: We object to the color of the black-boards. They should be in harmony with the furnishings of the room and should have contrasting colored chalk. Our artistic sense would thus be improved.20th: Since the Board of Education has at last awakened to the truth of the Grumbles of former classes and is on the eve of redecorating this historic room we recommend that the Busts of famous men and women be given a thorough scrubbing.

And so muttering and grumbling we pass on our way.

John Ed. Fitzgerald Mary Sirianni Myron Farwell

Football

The football team was one of which we were all proud. From the first we knew it was going to be a world-beater. It is true that some games were lost but they were all games which left no disgrace upon our teams noble character.

The credit of such good teams this last season goes not alone to the players, but also to one who previous to the September semester was unknown to us, Coach Hartman.

Coach Hartman found the road pretty rough as the boys did not readily take to him, but before long the boys realized that he was working for their interests and with the coming of this new feeling and attitude we should have even much better teams next year.

Olean—0 Port Allegany—7

The Crimson and Gold opened their season against Port Allegany and after putting up a hard battle were defeated 7—0. Time after time the Olean warriors plunged through to what seemed victory only to be stopped in the shadow of the goal.

Olean—69 Bolivar—0

Bolivar proved to be easy meat for our boys and at no time did they threaten the goal. Ryan's open field running was the feature of the game. Time after time he broke away to run 70 or 80 yds. for a touchdown. Schieterlie and Morris were the other shining lights.

Olean—8 Dunkirk—20

Olean scored in the first few minutes of play and it looked like the 1 day. Dunkirk, however, not to be out-smarted began a series of end runs which spelled victory for them and defeat for us. Over 800 fans witnessed the encounter.

Olean—12 Coudersport—0

After playing eleven men and a referee for three-quarters, Morris turned a possible scoreless game into victory, in the form of a clever pass to Schieterliewho carried the ball across the line. In the next two plays Morris carried the ball over for a second touchdown.

Olean—44 Salamanca—0 The Crimson and Gold warriors unmercifully trampled all over Salamanca.

Nuff Sed.

27

Olean—44 Wellsville—7

Wellsville was completely outclassed and our boys walked away with them. They received their only touchdown on a fluke pass which Ferris intercepted and carried 80 yds. for a touchdown.

Olean—13 Corning—16

Although a Crimson and Gold has never beaten a Blue and White tear by score, they have out-played, out-guessed ,and out-witted, the Corning eleven through-out the entire game. Corning's captain presented the tootball to Captain Ryan with these words, "Although the score is in Corning's favor the victory really belongs to you. You really won the game. It was a moral victory."

Olean—10 Jamestown—22

The Crimson and Gold warriors went down to defeat fighting hard. Stecko received the first real injury of the season when he broke his nose although there have been some missing teeth and numerous charley-horses. Schieterlie was out of the game with a badly battered leg.

Olean—16 Bradford—13

This was the game of games. Gay colors flew from flag-poles in the street. As early as one o'clock the crowd began to gather. Bradford came over 500 strong. At 3 o'clock the whistle blew, over 4000 Olean fans rose to their feet and cheered in unison. An airplane flew low above the field, the ball was passed and Olean was off to victory.

28

The line plunged the backfield dove, squirmed and ran. Time after time "Ted" Ryan carried the ball through holes which the line made for him. "Jim" Kent carried it, "Ott" Schieterlie carried it, nothing could stop them. A mighty cheer, the ball was over and Olean was ahead 6-0.

The whistle blew, the men filed off the field for the half. The snow came down and the sky grew dark. Tony Kahn in his plane hovered overhead. Back they came, a perfect machine, and again the Bradford line fell before the onslaught. Another goal, a place kick and the score stood 13-0. Then Bradford rallied. Steadily down the field they came. Our line slowly gave, Then they held. Rizutti fumbled the ball and on a lucky pass they scored. The referee placed the ball in the center of the field.

How our boys held on the two yard line is an old story. The whistle blew. The game was over. Merle Havens then presented the silver trophy.

The football season was over. Eighteen men were awarded the coveted football "O" as follows:

Capt. Ryan, Capt. elect, Montie; Coburn, Kirchgasser, Kent, Stecko, Schieterlie, Huff, Seivert, Murphy, Rockwell, Driscoll, B. Baker, Morris, Weinman, Lundy, Schollenberger, McClellan.

Basketball

Athletics were not to have any rest however, and the following Monday found 70, scantil clad lads trying to throw a round leather ball through a round metal hoop fastened to the end wall.

For two weeks they passed the ball in effort to prove to K. B. that they were basketball players. On the following Monday the axe fell and only 18 remained to tell the story. This number was later reduced to 10 who composed our team.

Although our hoopsters were not as triumphant as the pigskin carriers they displayed the same fine spirit and sportsmen-ship to their opponents as did their predecessors. It may be truthfully said that they never lost a game where they did not meet a team unquestionably better than themselves.

Olean—26 Alumni—32

The Crimson and Gold opened their season against the Alumni on Jan. 2nd, Mark Hannon, who had been coaching the boys during the Christmas holidays used his whole squad in an effort to pick out material.

Olean—63 Bolivar—12 Our team met Bolivar on Jan. 10 and whitewashed them.

Olean—19 Jamestown—18 On Jan. 16th we played our first real game. Jamestown fought hard to down us but the eagle eye of Weinman and McLaughlin from the 15 foot line brought us out the victors.

Olean—33 Hornell—41

At the Maple City court we met our first real defeat in an extra five minutes of play. Eaton and Baker brought our boys up from behind but were unable to continue the terrific pace.

Olean—22 Bradford—21

With the winning of the Bradford game came another 1 point victory. A pass: Robertson to Eaton to McLaughlin in last 30 seconds of play told the story.

Olean—21 St. Bonas—20

On Feb. 5th we renewed our relations with St. Bonas. Those who saw the game will never forget how Shorty McLaughlin romped the floor to drop the ball in from all angles.

Beaten 14-6 in the first half our great comeback team came back to win by one point as in other games.

Olean—12 St. Bonas—20

St. Bonas met us on our own court the following week and evened things up. Our boys fought hard but could not seem to get an advantage.

Olean—17 Jamestown—38 The Crimson and Gold, fully recognized the political situation so prevalent in Europe, following this game.

Cuba—14 Olean—8 The fighting spirit was gone our boys again tasted defeat.

Hornell—14 Olean-0 We tried hard to break our losing streak but were unsuccessful.

Corning-44 Olean—27

On Mar. 7th the team journeyed to Corning determined to have blood. Sunday morning they returned home tired and beaten but not discouraged. They had played a great game against a better team and lost.

Olean—13 Schoolmasters-16 The schoolmasters filled in an open date and proved to the students that they were still capable of playing ball.

Olean—23 Allegany—22

On the evening of St. Patricks day the team went to Allegany with about 400 rooters. From the time the whistle blew, we knew that we would win. Why? After being out of the game for 4 weeks "Jiggs" was back again.

Olean—15 Bradford—16

This game is history, the kind that makes school athletics thrive. It was the best and cleanest game ever played by any team on a Bradford court in all it's history. "The kind of game you read about but very seldom see," was the comment of one of the local newspapers.

If you can imagine yourself in the place of our boys you will realize the strain under which they played and the reason that they broke down after that game and cried like children.

Basket Ball

The following basket ball men earned the much coveted "O": "Jiggs" Donohue, Captain; "Luke" Coburn, Captain-elect; "Shorty" McLaughlin; Basil Baker, "Lorny" Robertson; "Dick" Murphy and "Ray" Sill, Manager.

Track

The track team started training in four groups representing the various classes. It was not long, however, before Coach Hartman was able to pick a dozen or more men to represent the school.

The Inter-class track meet closed in glory for the Seniors who won over the nearest of the remaining three classes by over thirteen points.

Following the Inter-class meet, the Alumni challenged us. The tale is short and sweet, our boys worked hard and the Alumni never knew there was a track meet as far as points were concerned. This meet put the boys in fine shape for the Alfred meet and we went there confident of bringing home at least one medal.

The public opened their eyes after the Alfred meet, for which we only scored 2 1-3 points, which was more than Jamestown and Hornell together received.

Under the supervision of Coach Hartman and the training of Crosby Matthews (better known as "Matty") of the Y. M. C. A., the track team journeyed to Salamanca, spent the day in silent repose and returned home champions of Cattaraugus County.

Decoration Day dawned and only seven of our team were given the honor of attempting to carry their school to victory. Well, the story is short, the suspense was great. "Toby" carried us through to victory. we placed in every event we entered and "Jawn" Eaton got a trip to Ithaca. The boys came home laden with medals and another victory. Olean had won the state-sectional track meet.

Some of the boys are thinking of starting jewelry shops. They already have capital to the following extent:

Baseball

Baseball followed close on the heels of track, and although a minor sport, aroused more or less interest.

After the Seniors had again triumphed and tucked the Dr. Earley trophy away for safe keeping, attention was turned to the game with Bradford which turned out to be a slug-fest.. The O. H. S. was not to be downed and they emerged from the battle victor by a 13-12 score.

When this goes to press, the Bolivar game has not yet been played. Use your own judgement as we can only prophesy as to the final score. Of course the Crimson and Gold will come out on top.

The Class of '25 wishes to thank the students for their unceasing efforts and untiring support at all our athletic events. This, as much as anything, helps to spell v-i-c-t-o-r-y. Much credit also goes to the cheer leaders appointed and volunteers who helped to arouse the wonderful spirit commented upon by all, both at the game and at school.

A Parting Word

Many are the times that you have heard that age old adage, "A word to the Wise is sufficient." The Athletic teams in the past year have made for the school a considerable sum of money. Use this to an advantage but do not come to the conculsion that all your financial problems are settled. Many a man has let money lead him to destruction.

Every team should be well equipped, but equipment is not all. Your teams must have a place to play. Every High School student knows that we as a high school, Olean as a community and the public at large would benefit by the purchase of an Athletic field.

Save a little of the above capital mentioned until the time comes when you may be able to procure your own field. If it belongs to the School no one can take it away from you for purposes of his own.

Remember that the class of "25" as a unit will back you in the purchase of such. We would have no gymnasium today if it had not been for the persistency of the classes which preceded us.

Scenes of Play

Act I—Evening. The boy's room on the top floor of an old fashioned New York house.

Act II—The Main Hall of the School.

Scene 1-Noon.

Scene 2—About two weeks later.

Act III—The next morning.

The production of the play was under the general supervision of Miss Wade. The chairmen of the publicity committee were Miss Hobart and Miss Ball. The properties committee was in charge of Miss Spindler and Mr. Salisbury, Chairmen. Mr. Sackett, Evelyn Andresen and Donald Kennedy were at the head of the Finance Committee. Too much credit cannot be given to the director and to the above committees, for each in a large measure was responsible for the success of the production. In order to secure the best possible cast, "try-outs" were held, by which each candidate was given a chance to demonstrate his talent, thus the final cast was composed of those who showed the best ability to interpret their roles.

38

The High School Orchestra under the direction of Miss Roberts furnished the music for the presentation of the play.

The trouble began by Austin Bevans inheriting a young ladies boarding school from his aunt. His main object in life was up to the time of inheriting the school to attain fame and fortune as an automobile salesman.

David MacKenzie, a young lawyer, was not in favor with Austin's idea that he could manage the school as well as a woman could. He pleaded with him to give up the crazy idea but of no avail.

George Boyd, an accountant argued that he didn't want Bevans teaching his girl Else Benedotti who attended the Fairview School at that time. Sally Boyd, his sister, was also enrolled there. He sought the aid of Elise's uncle to discourage Austin.

Mr. John, the above mentioned uncle, had a mortgage of $35,000 on the Fairview School, which he claimed was more than the property was worth. He finally came to an agreement with Bevans to leave his money and his niece in the school on condition that he should not fall in love with any of the pupils and secondly, that he should retain Miss Hays, whom he thought very highly of, as second in command.

Jim Simpkins, a dancing instructor, was eager to have Austin put his ideas into effect in order that he might secure a position as a professor in the school. He declared that this was absolutely necessary as his dear parent had stopped his allowance.

Tim Simpkins, his Twin brother, decided that Jim's idea was not to be scoffed at, at least until "good old pop" should resume his former good will toward them in the way of an allowance.

Miss Hays, the official head of the school before Mrs. Bevans died, decided to let Mr. Bevans direct the school just as he pleased.

Miss Curtis, a very apt secretary, agreed with Mr. Bevans on all matters. She had absolute confidence in his judgment.

Elise Benedotti, Mr. John's niece, was president of the Senior class. Unlike her uncle she maintained that charm was an essential in the daily life of any young girl. She fell in love with Austin at first sight but had quite an exciting time convincing the young man of this unusual coincidence.

Sally Boyd, the life of the party, was among the first to decide to go home when the girls mistook Mr. John for Austin Bevans. Upon interviewing the new principal however, she decided to stay.

Muriel Doughty another active member in the Senior Strike also exercised a woman's greatest privilege, namely, that of changing her mind, when she caught a glimpse of the handsome owner.

Ethel Spelvin, Alix Mercier, Lillian Stafford and Madge Kent were also members of the Senior class. They played the roles of the "notoriously silly creatures" as all the school was classed in Mr. John's opinion.

Taking into consideration all the above mentioned there is no doubt in the minds of the Senior Class and the under classmen as to the success of "The Charm School."

The Student Council

The Student Council is composed of the following members:

Raymond Kamler, President; Marion Coburn, Vice-President; Catherine Sullivan, Secretary; Charles McGavern, Treasurer; Conrath McElligott, Edna Linborg, Margaret Cobb, Dorothy Morris, Richmond Holmes, Dorothy Otto.

The Student Council is an organization composed of representatives from each class, formed for the purpose of fostering student activities and bringing a better understanding among the leaders of these activities, the student body, and the school.

40

As in former years, the Council has promoted and maintained a general oversight over the carrying out of the Competitive Assembly programs. It has looked after the details of school celebrations and parades and other matter of general school interest.

In addition the Council of this year has been largely responsible for one innovation which, it is hoped will do much toward the promoting of a good school spirit as well as arousing interest in the various activities of the school. It has worked out a system of credits for the different school honors and participation in the several activities so that students may gain the right to wear a school letter by outstanding merit in lines other than athletic. Since athletics however count heavily in the attainment of points, this insignia will serve as a super "O" for special and all-round proficiency in athletics. The recommendation of the Council has been adopted by the student body, and the Council feels confident that a bit of real constructive work has been done this year.

Orchestra

The High School Orchestra is composed of the following members and officers:

Vernon Erickson	President
Loren Johnson	Vice President and Secretary
Evelyn Andresen	Treasurer and Business Manager
Ernest Cruse	Librarian

VIOLINS-Evelyn Andresen, Marie Keating, Magdalene Scheiterle, Marvin Adams, Lyle Hevenor, Gilbert White, Donald Stockwell, Lynn Sturm, Anna Barbaro, Alberta Loeffler, Charles Rosokoff, Mary O'Hara, Rosemary Quinlan.

42

Boys' Glee Club

The Boys' Glee Club organized in October, 1924 with the following members and officers: Harold Bosler, Irwin Chapell, Clarence Cobb, Kenneth Johnson, Raymond Kamler (President), Ory Luntz, Donald Morgan, De Alton Payne, (Vice-President and Secretary), John Seuling (Librarian), William Swartz, Arthur Wakelee (Treasurer and Business Manager), Robert White and Dana Willson.

During the year the club sang at several assemblies, at a D. A. R. meeting, for the Senior play and at the concert of the united musical clubs on May 1.

The Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs united in a chorus for Commencement.

Girls' Glee Club

The Girls' Glee Club composed of the following members and officers: Onnolee Austin, Anna Barbaro, Mary Barbaro, Lois Barnes, Marcia Barnes, Anna Bordonaro, Grace Beckman, Corabelle Bristol, Virginia Brown, Catherine Burdick, Catherine Butler, Helen Cady, Alice Carpenter, Freda Carter, Bethia Conrad, Doris Field, Margaret Fitzpatrick, Virginia Gilbert, Grace Hammer, Lorraine Hanson, Margaret Hickey, La Veta Houser (Librarian), Madeline Huff, Arline Inman, Ethel Knowlden, Maxine Lyke, Althea McCandless, Helen Norton, Frances O'Haire, Vivian Petty, Loraine Robinson, Rita Rogers (Business Manager), Doris Sill, Janice Walker, Dorothy Walsh (President), Olive Weatherell (Treasurer), Estelle White (Vice-President and Secretary), Evelyn Whitney.

During the past school year the club sang at several assemblies, assisted with the Christmas pageant, and gave selections at the P. T. A. convention. At the concert given by the united musical clubs on May 1 the club sang a very beautiful cantata "Fays of the Floating Islands."

Senior Girls Basket Ball Team '25

The members of the Girls Basket Ball Team of 1925 were Helen Shine and Marie Schnell, forwards, Evelyn Hutchings and Helen Bunce, guards, and Mary Loftus and Mary McAuliffe centers. In 1924 the team won the second place having been defeated in a very close game by the Sophomores. In 1925 the Senior first team came in third while the second Senior team won first place.

45

Senior Boys Basket Ball Team

The Senior Basket Ball Team cinched the second leg on the Trophy by defeating the Juniors 19-17. The playing of "Johnny" Mountain and "Mark" Kirchgasser featured. The former scored the winning basket, the latter held the forwards to a low score. The scores are as follows:

Reporter—What shall I say about the two peroxide blondes who made such a fuss at the game?

Editor—Why, just say the bleachers went wild.

Somebody said that exercise will kill all germs. But the trouble is to get the stubborn germs to exercise.

A Low One

"Was he on his knees when he proposed to you?" "No, I was."

Lady (at Times Square) -Boy, how do I get to Washington Square? Urchin—Aw, get the "L" downtown. Lady (hastily retreating)--Brat!

Correct

Upperclassman—And put a guest towel in the bathroom. Underclassman—A guest towel? What's a guest towel? Upper—"A clean towel, sap!"

Phil—How old are you?

Ethel—Why I am eighteen, Phil.

Phil—Eighteen! Why you told me that five years ago.

Ethel-Well, I'm not one of those people that say one thing one day and another the next.

Crimson O (at basket ball game)-Why do they cheer so when any of the boys are hurt?

Gold O—So the girls can't hear what he is saying. "Pa, what is a bigamist?"

"A bigamist, my son, is a superoptimist."

Cody-I see they have begun excavations for the new building.

Jiggs-No, that's the campus golf course.

Ray—Shall we tango?

Doris-It's all the same to me.

Sheik—Yes, I noticed that.

Helen—I hear something nice about you today.

Lucille—Yes?

46

Helen—A friend of ours said you resembled me.

"You can tell a Senior as far away as you can see him, but you can't tell a Junior anything."

Miss Oliver—"So, Caesar was cut off from refreshments."

Invite to Prom—Shall I bring a tuxedo?

Senior-This is a ball, not a smoker.

Mope-Why do you call your car, "Paul Revere?"

"Titchie"—Oh! just because of the midnight rides.

"Jack" Herrick—Did you say that you flunked French? Why, I can't understand it.

"Dick" Murphy—Same here. That's why I flunked.

Miss Hobart—(to tardy student)—What are you late for? "Muy" (sleepily)—Er—class, I suppose.

"A woman without curiosity is a curiosity."

Dave—Which side would a photographer take in a debate? Bob—The negative, of course. Connie—Are you positive of that? Bob—Sure, I have proofs for it. Aileen—What is a hug? 47

Midge—Energy gone to waist. Barber—Do you want a haircut? Bill—No, you fool, cut then all.

High-landers

Miss Wombough—What people are scattered all over the earth? Class (in chorus)—Pedestrians.

Something New

Customer—What's the newest thing in furniture? Dealer—Antiques.

Wife—Each Turkish soldier has four or five wives.

Fast—moving Husband—So that's why they're such wonderful fighters.

Helen Guay—What are you thinking of?

Mary Sirianni—The same thing you are.

Helen Guay-If you do I'll scream.

She—Are you a freshman?

He (confused)—I try to be.

Phil Baum—Shakespeare was born in England near the end of the month of April.

Mark K—Did you ever hear the story of the bowl of milk? Mark V—No.

Mark K—It's the cat's.

Mr. Lowry-I'll give you just one day to hand in that paper!

"Titchie"—All right. How about the Fourth of July?

Dick—Every time I have an argument with my girl I enter it in a small diary.

King—Oh, yes—you keep a scrap book.

Freshie—You know more than I do.

Soph—Of course.

Frosh-You know, and I know you.

Edith—Are you fond of outdoor sports? Max—Yes, if they have cars.

"Jawn"-Did you ever take chloroform?

"Hank"-Naw, what period does it come?

Miss Hill—Donald, describe a battery cell.

Don Morgan—Well, it's no relation at all to the padded cell.

"Luke"-Last night at target practice I did not make a single hit. If I do it again, what shall I do? Captain—Fix your bayonet and charge the target. Catherine Sullivan—Are those eggs fresh? Grocer—They haven't said anything to me yet. Mother—Did you sweep under the davenport? Dot—Yes; everything.

48

When the Boys Come Home from School—

-the colleges and prep schools, you'll see them wearing correctly cut and styled suits, the new wedge shape coats with their wide shoulders, two and three button fronts, low set pockets; trousers wide, loose, straight cut; in fact identical styles as you young fellows in High School will find in great variety in our Clothing Department. Some of these suits have two pairs of trousers; all are extraordinary values at $28 to $38.

THE PRINTING PRESS Voice of All Progress and World Thought

Much hath printing wrought for thy well-being and for all mankind. To movable types thou art debtor for thy knowledge, thy liberty, and thy prosperity or thy hope of prosperity. The foremost human benefactor is John Gutenberg. Four centuries ago his printing types first pierced that darkness of superstition and dense ignorance which prevailed through the many cycles of centuries. Those types of Gutenberg are now as ever the pillars of fire leading us toward a universal civilization that is sure to come when mental and moral darkness shall be no more.

Printing is the dynamo that will move your business on to greater success. It is just as necessary to a healthy, growing business as the electric juice is to the motors that move the world's machinery
