O. H. S. CAMPUS

Foreword

AFTER many weeks of grilling, yet pleasant, labor, the Staff presents THE 1929 OLEANDER. This year we have tried to depart from the conventional style of the book. We hope that you will like the results of our labors. The Staff takes this opportunity to extend its thanks to those who have so willingly lent their aid. Especial credit is due the typists and the members of the drawing classes. It is our belief that the material in this issue is complete and correct. However, there is always a chance that some omission might have occurred or some error crept in. If such has been the case, you will, we hope, remember the many duties of the Staff and not judge too harshly. Our sincerest hope is that this issue of THE OLEANDER may, to the Class of '29, remain as a memorial to the many good times in our Alma Mater,
Olean High School.

Who died in service
October 17, 1928

*"But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God,
And no torment shall touch them,
In the eyes of the foolish they seem to have died;
And their departure was accounted to be their hurt,
And their journeying away from us to be their ruin;
But they are in peace."*

Class Colors

BLUE AND WHITE

ALLEN, BEULAH

"Boots" is a modest, unassuming girl with a fondness for mathematics. We wish you lots of luck!

AUSTIN, FREDERICK

Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4.)

Just study this photograph for a moment and you can see why we concede "Fat" to be the jolliest fellow in the class. With his perpetual smile, he has made a host of friends.

AUSTIN, HOWARD

Competitive Assembly (1); Vice Pres. Hi-y (1); Treasurer Hi-Y (2); Boys' Glee Club (2, 3, 4); President Glee Club (4); Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Christmas Pageant (2, 4); Drum Major Band (3, 4); Senior Play Cast; Chairman Finance Committee for Spring Concert (4).

If you've ever heard a steam calliope, you've heard a mild imitation of "Howdy" (he's usually heard before he's seen). And how the girls do envy that permanent wave! Believe it or not, he can be serious at times.

BAKER, WALTER

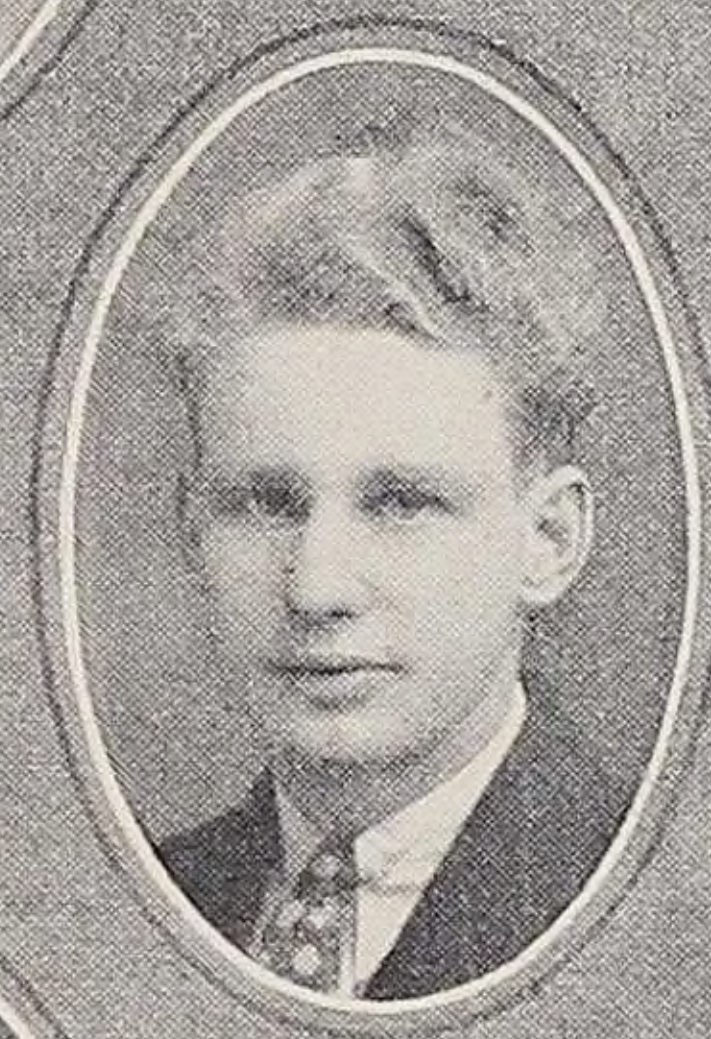

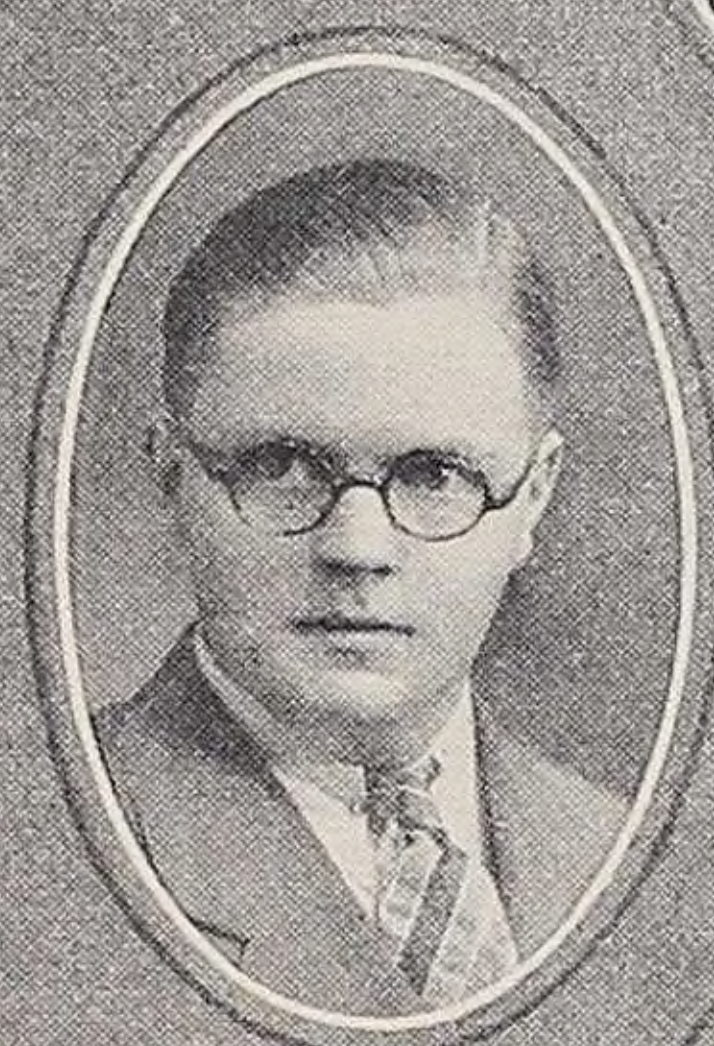

Athletic Association (3, 4); Class Basketball (4); Congress Board (4).

"Walt" was wafted into our midst in his junior year. The dry humor and good nature which he brought was a loss to Ithaca, a gain to us.

BARNARD, MARGARET

Wayside (3, 4); Athletic Association (2, 3, 4); Finance Committee, Senior Play.

Full of laughter and merry-making, and well liked by her classmates, "Marg" is sweet-tempered, obedient, and a good student.

O·H·S·1929

O·H·S·1929

BARRY, EDWARD

Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Competitive Assembly (2); Committee for Freshman Party; Class Basketball (1, 2); Orchestra (2, 3); Finance Committee, Senior Play.

That self-conscious attitude doesn't bluff us. "Ed", for that mischievous grin warns us that some prank is in the air. But regardless of whom the joke's on, he or she can't help but like you.

BATES, LUCILE

Competitive Assembly (1); Athletic Association (1); Glee Club (3, 4); Basketball (4); Wayside (3, 4); Vice Pres. Wayside (4); Business Manager of Glee Club; Reception Committee for Wayside Dance (4).

How shall we analyze Lucile? She affects a bluff of shyness but her eyes give her away. She is sly, peppy, and mischievous. Most certainly! And she is a perfect master of syncopation. Oh! can't you see we thought a lot of you, Lucile.

BEAR, JOSEPH

Orchestra (1).

"Joe" is so different from anyone we know that we hardly know how to describe him. On the surface merely a happy-go-lucky fellow, but he who grows a beard shows intelligence.

BECKER, DONALD

Assistant Football Manager (3); Football Manager (4); Track Squad (2); Athletic Association (1, 4); Senior Play Cast; Christmas Pageant (3); Radio Club (2); Class Basketball (4); Lettermen's Club.

"Polly" is a jovial fellow with a happy grin. He may be little but remember, fellows, "Good things come in small packages."

"Capacious" describes her whole personality—her sunny disposition, her capability, love for sports, her musical and dramatic talent and her ability to make friends.

BOGARD, JULIANA

Wayside (4).

A gentle maiden so meek and mild—that is she. We marvel at her quietness and calmness in this age of hectic life.

BRADFORD, CURTIS

Orchestra (3, 4); Christmas Pageant (3, 4); Senior Competitive Assembly; Congress Staff (4); New York State Honor and Scholarship Society; Dramatic Club (4); Athletic Association (3, 4); Year Book Staff, Cumulative Letter.

"Brad" is our intellectual genius. He truly has a noble profile and his abilities are widespread. Whatever he undertakes he does and does well. You are on the road to success so take heed and don't detour, Curt.

BRENNAN, LUCY

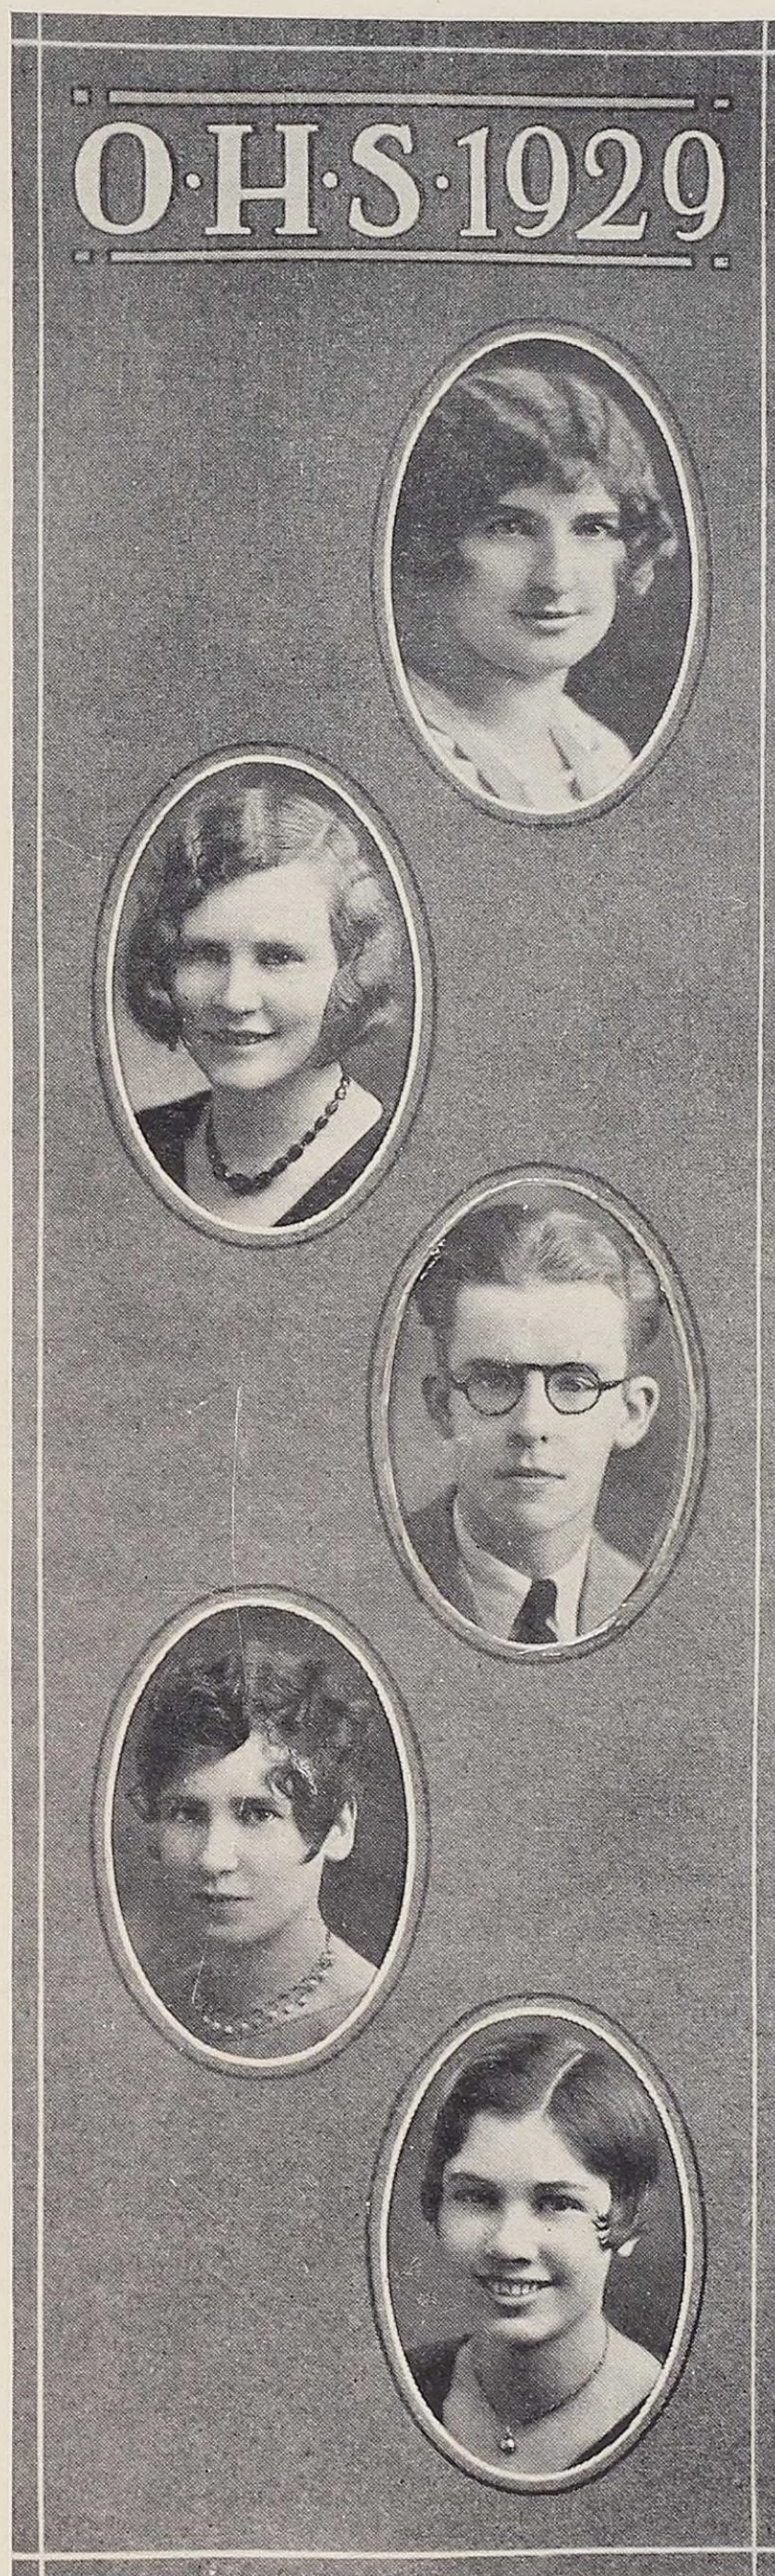

Wayside (3, 4); French Club (4).

"Curly" is little but oh my! She has that "it" that appeals to men. Her sunny disposition has won many friends for her in high school and will win many more for her in the years to come. May you have the best of luck!

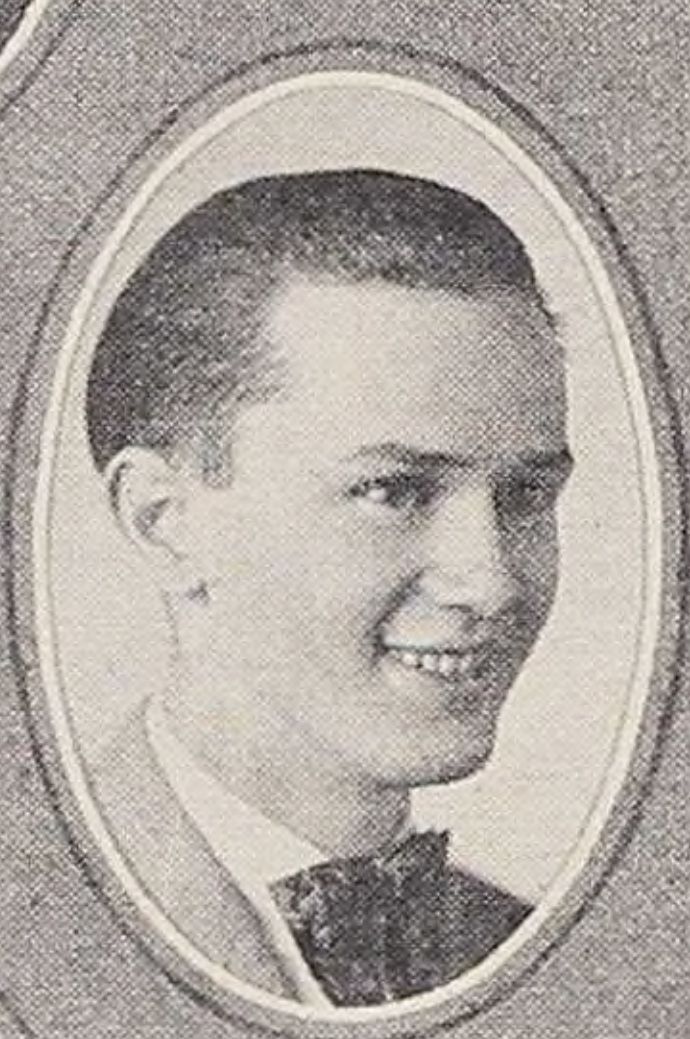

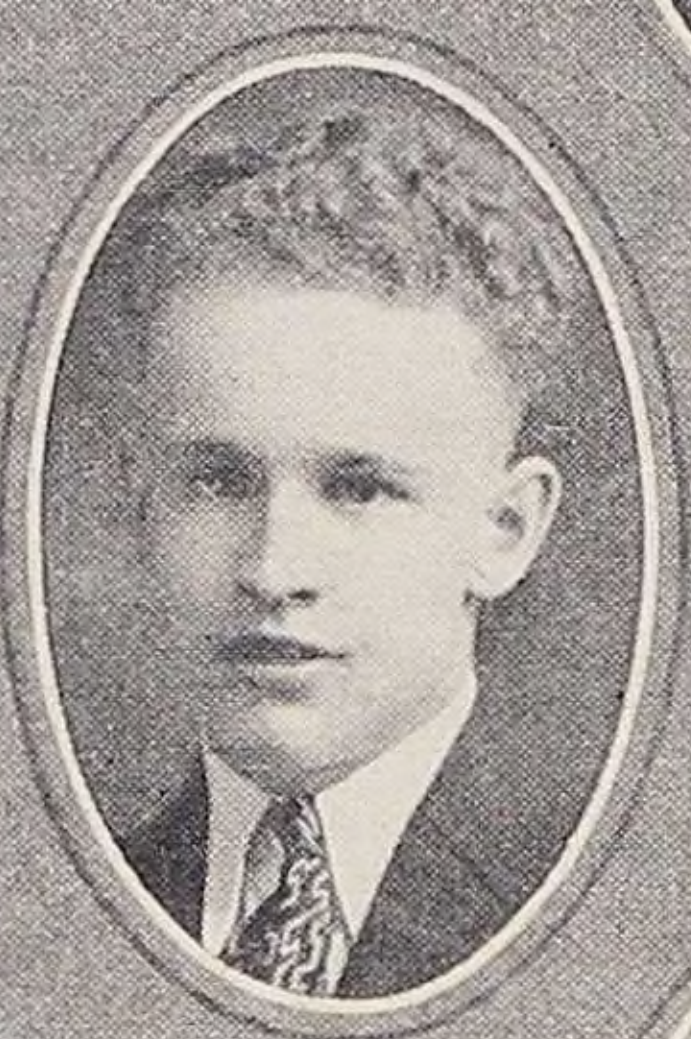

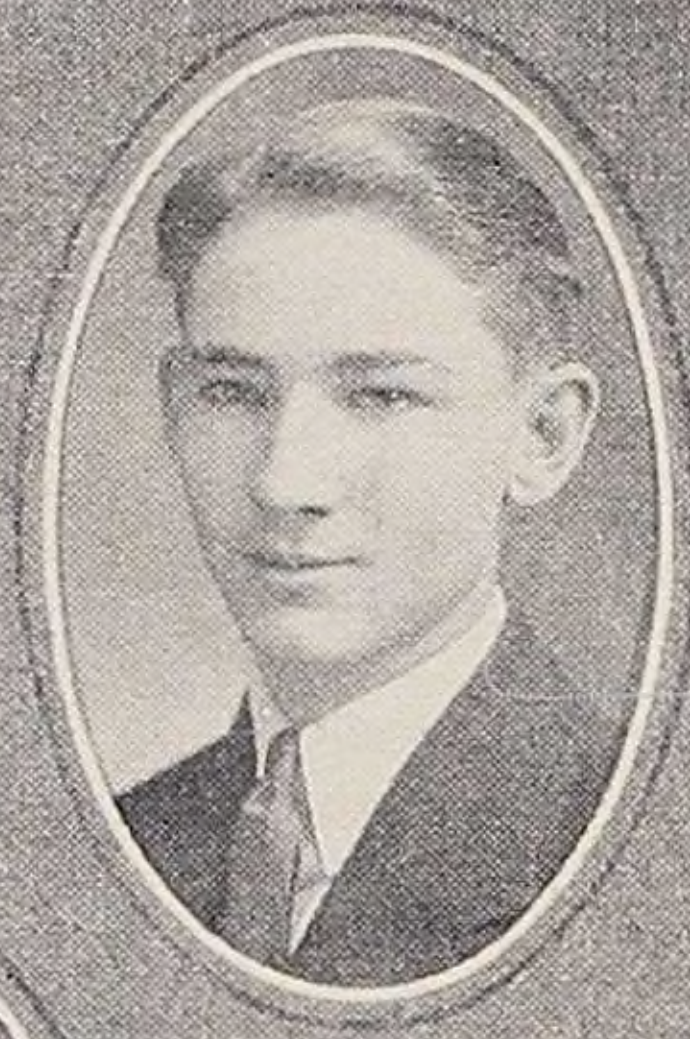

BRONOLD, IONE

"Swoop" a human whirlwind. She surely has the pep and ginger to put anything across. Her enthusiasm has helped her in girls' sports as well as in studies. Don't lose your pep, Ione, it's an asset!

O·H·S·1929

BRONOLD, JOSEPH

Orchestra (1, 2, 3); Football (3, 4); Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Congress Staff (4); Year Book Staff; Finance Committee Senior Play; Decoration Committee Football Dance (4).

Methinks he has the undefinable "it." Joe has been very popular during his four years both with girls and boys. At one time he was a Spanish shark! You've got the line, Joe, so get going!

BRUNDAGE, WARNER

Band (2, 3, 4); Orchestra (1, 2, 3, 4); Athletic Association (4); All Class Entertainment (1); Treasurer of Orchestra (2); Executive Board of Music Clubs (4); Finance Committee, Senior Play.

"Curly" well deserves his nickname for any girl would be proud to have his ringlets. He also is one of the rare boys of today who can blush. Later on that ability may aid you, "Curly", so don't lose it!

BURT, WILLIAM

Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Student Police (3, 4); New York State Honor and Scholarship Society.

"Bill" has both eyes of coal and heart to match. We often look upon him and sigh, "Oh, some poor maiden."

BUTLER, ERMA

Her mind and heart are in the right place. Her mind is on her studies and her heart—oh, why bother with that?

CAIN, HARRIET

Wayside (3, 4); Athletic Association (2, 3, 4); Treasurer Junior Class; French Club (4); Competitive Assemblies (3, 4); Invitation Committee for Junior-Senior Prom (3); Invitation Committee for Wayside (4); Basketball (3, 4); Volleyball (4); Baseball (4).

"Harri," a dainty, bashful maiden is she. So shy and so demure! We wonder if she has ever spoken in the presence of talkative people?

CARLSON, VIVIAN

Wayside (3); French Club (4); Senior Play Cast (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"Vee", our "Scandinavian Gal". But for all that name, she's as quiet and sweet-tempered as a little angel and the best of all she does her lessons. Good old "Vee."

CASE, GLADYS

Basketball (1, 2, 3, 4); Competitive Assembly (2); Hiking Club (4); Volley Ball (4); Baseball (4); Athletic Association (1, 2, 3); Tennis Team (4).

"Gaggie." Dancing Daughters! Music's in her feet. We verily believe she thrives on it. How about it, Gladys?

Football (3, 4); Football Letterman (4); Track (2, 3); Senior Play (4); Band (2, 3); Lettermen's Club (4); Class Basketball (2, 4); Spring Concert (2); Student Police (4).

Lo, a cool man appears on the horizon. John's abilities are not limited to any one line. Besides a football letter to his credit, he has played class basketball and gone in somewhat for forensics. We wish him the best of luck.

CHAMBERLAIN, BEULAH

Athletic Association (2); Wayside (4).

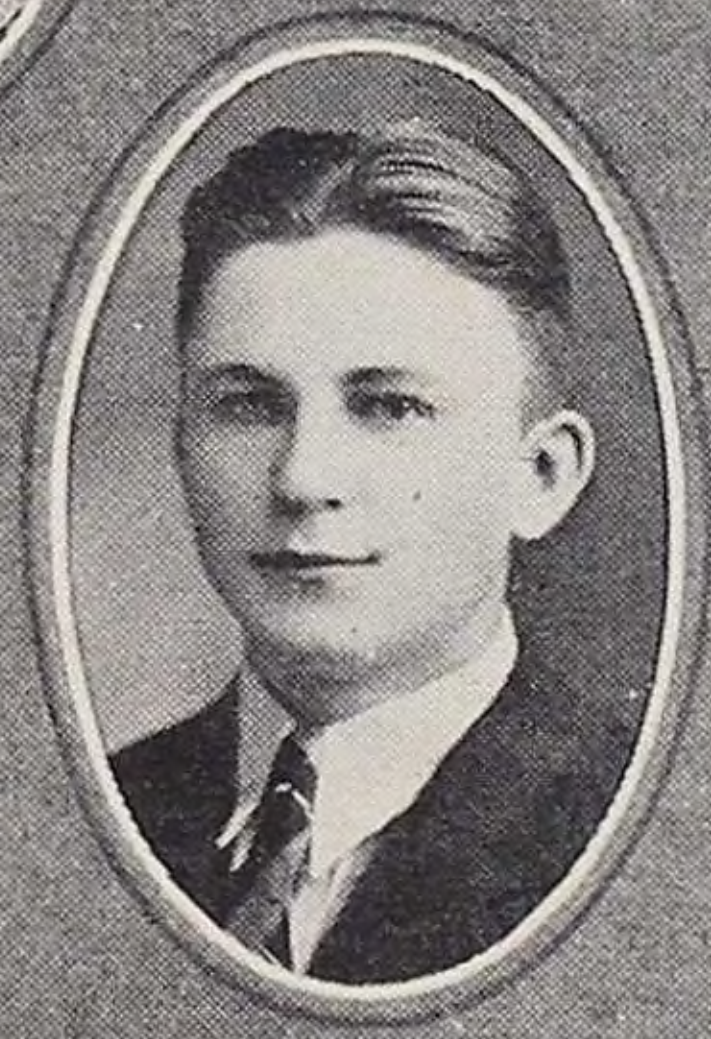

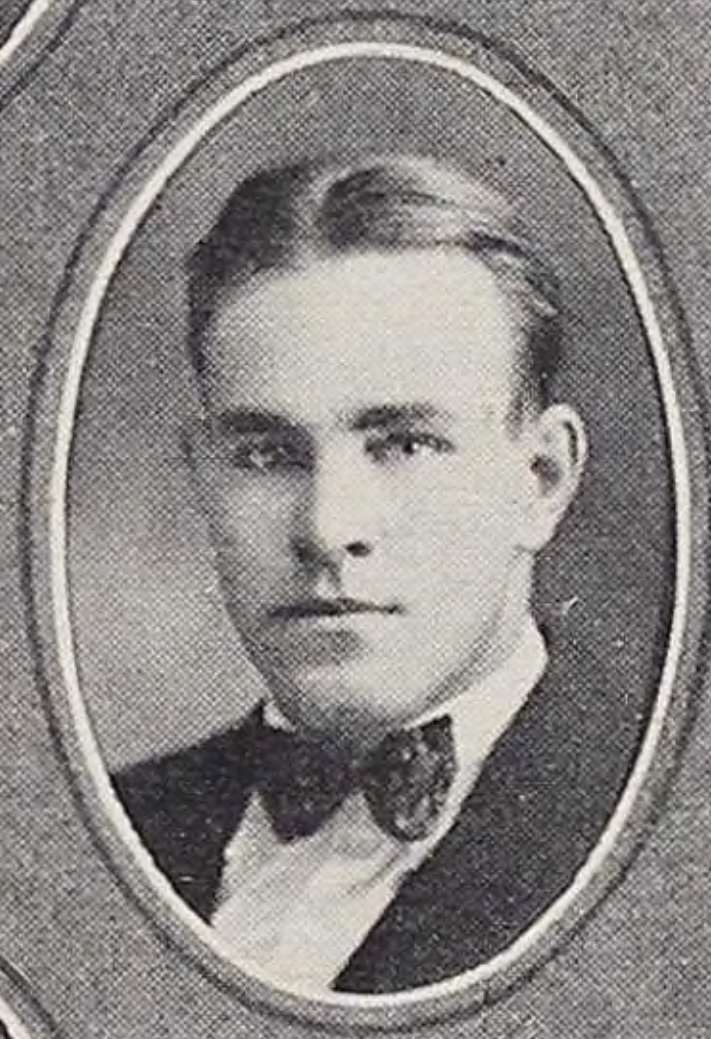

If you like a quiet girl with a sense of humor, don't overlook Beulah. Faithful to her friends and studies, she will no doubt make her mark in the world.

"Teddy" Chyzan is not without honor in his own land. His classmates best remember him by his exploits on the stadium skating rink. Whatever his failings, being a pants-stopper isn't one of them; he is well known to be one of the hardest-hitting tackles on the squad.

O·H·S·1929

O·H·S·1929

CONKLIN, CHARLES

Athletic Association (1, 2, 3); Football (2).

"Fat" has the proverbial good-natured disposition accompanying avoirdupois. This, everyone will agree is a jewel of great price. His persevering nature will no doubt land him on the heap much to the chagrin of those beneath him.

CONSEDINE, WILLIAM

Varsity Basketball (2, 3, 4); Varsity Football (3, 4); Lettermen's Club (3, 4); President (3); Chairman Junior Senior Prom (3); Decorating Committee Football Dance (2); Coach of Junior Basketball Champions (3); Student Police (2); Junior Pin Committee; Junior Competitive Assembly; Congress Staff (4); Student Police (3); Committee Lettermen's Banquet; Athletic Association.

"Bud" our dashing caballero, has dashed away with more O's than most of us dream of. Besides athletics "Bud" has been very successful as a woman's home companion. "Consedine's Can" is the latest well known addition to the O. H. S. puddle leapers.

COUGHLIN, PAUL

Orchestra (1, 2, 3, 4); Student Police (4).

A very handsome fellow and well liked by all his classmates. He is always ready for fun and very popular with the fair sex.

CRAWFORD, MILDRED

Glee Club (1, 2); Wayside (3, 4); Athletic Association (2, 3, 4); Thanksgiving Pageant (4).

"Midge". Her quiet and sweet ways have won her many friends. She takes an interest in her studies and in school activities. We all wish "Midge" a hearty success.

CREGO, RAYMOND

Radio Club; Treas. Radio Club; Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Stage Mgr. Senior Play.

"Zip's" curly hair has made him famous among his classmates. Very humorous and liked wherever he goes. The senior class wishes him success in whatever he undertakes.

CUSH, HELEN

Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Christmas Pageant (4); Refreshment Committee for Wayside Dance; Wayside (3, 4).

Helen is our member with musical tendencies; she was a member of the Girls' Glee Club during her four years in high school. We envy her ability to be happy and cheerful in the face of difficulties. She seems to be always bubbling with song and laughter. That's the way to face the world.

DASH, GERALDINE

Athletic Association (2, 4); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3, 4); Class Volley Ball (4); Class Baseball (4); Wayside (3, 4); Varsity Letter.

DECKMAN, RUTH

"Decky", a very jolly girl. Her winning personality has won her many friends and made her famous among her classmates.

DERX, DONALD

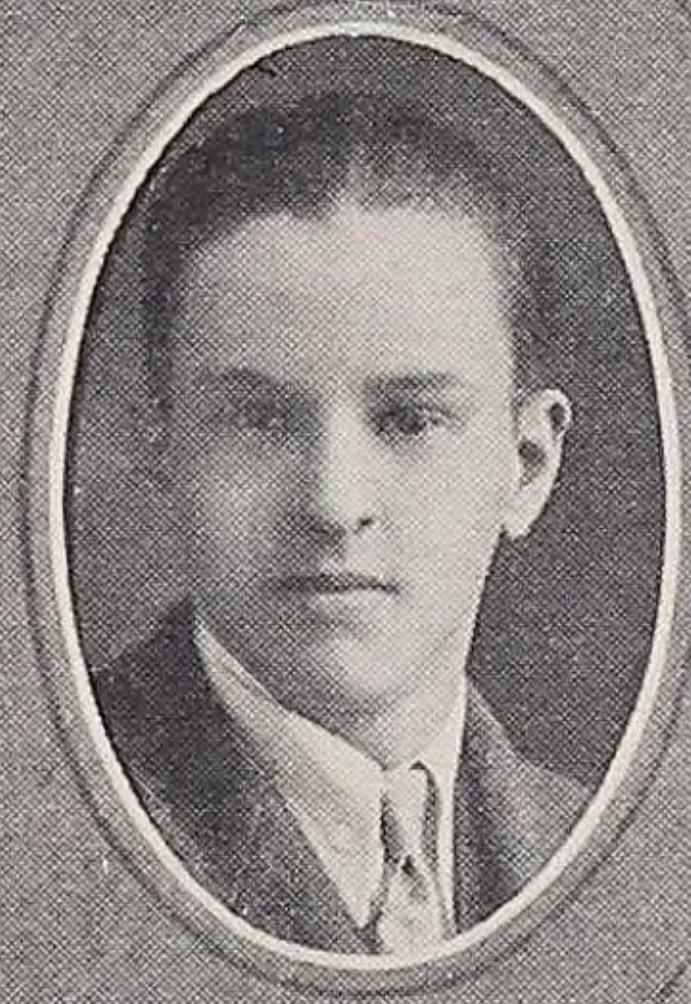

After four short years in the Olean High, "Don" is leaving to seek higher learning. "Dex" had considerable trouble in overthrowing the famous Roman, Julius Caesar, but his determination could not be beaten. Whatever you do, "Don", remember—the best wishes of the Senior Class follow you.

DI CAPUA, LUCY

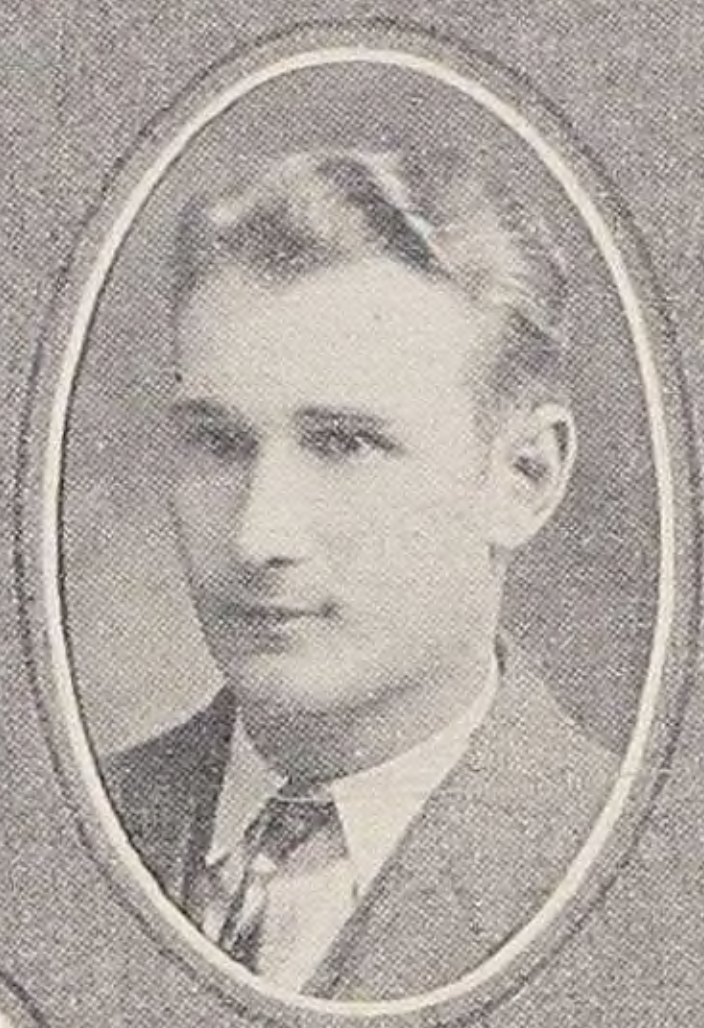

Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Basketball (1);

The storm has passed and the ship has arrived safely in the harbor, bringing with it Lucy. Of a quiet, studious nature, she has won innumerable friends in her four high school years, and the entire school joins in wishing her success in whatever line of endeavor she may pursue.

O·H·S·1929

O·H·S·1929

DITTRICH, RICHARD

Varsity Football (2, 3, 4), Captain (3); Secretary Junior Class; Letterman's Club (2, 3, 4); President (4).

After four (or is it five?) years of hard (?) work, "Dites" has decided to forsake the school in quest of higher learning. "Dites" has been quite an athlete, getting three football letters and captaining the team in his Junior year. In the course of two or three years "Dites'" name will probably be an unanimous choice for All-American honors.

ELLING, MARGARET

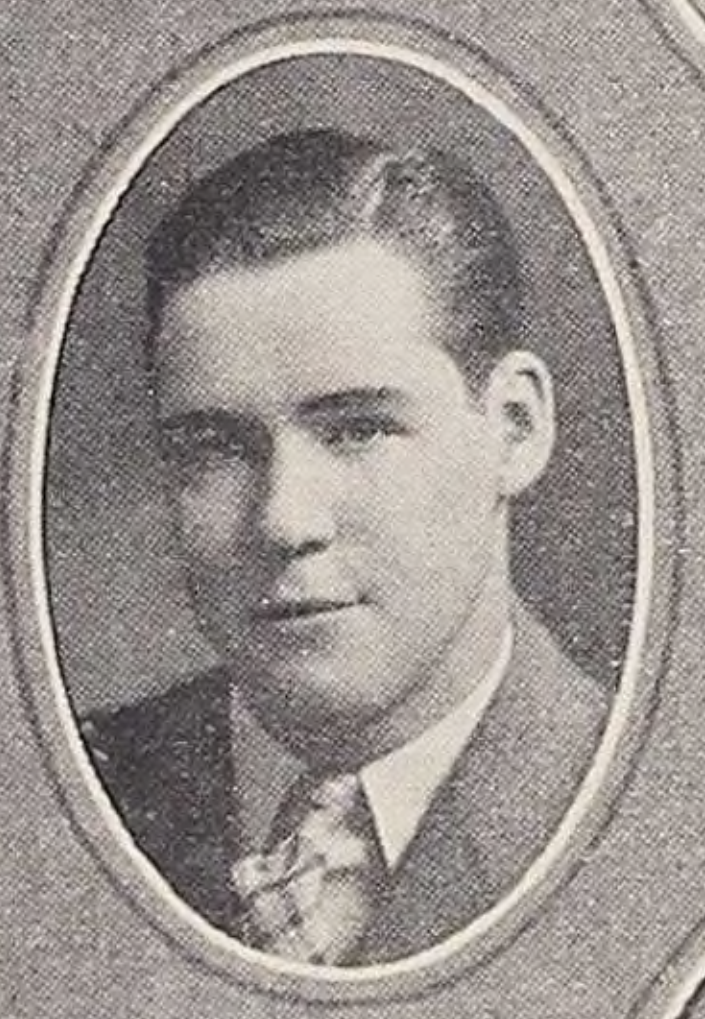

Wayside (3, 4); Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Tennis (4).

"Marg" is quiet and good-natured. She is always ready to greet us with a smile and to lend a helping hand to those in trouble. She takes a great interest in her studies and we are sure she will do something to make this old world better.

FAULKNER, GORDON

Although quiet and reserved in his manner, Gordon has made many friends during his time in high school. He is somewhat shy towards girls but nevertheless he is not a woman hater. He possesses a sense of humor as well as sincerity of purpose.

FOSTER, GERALD

Glee Club (1); Competitive Assembly (1).
Club; Hi-Y (2, 3).

A prince of good fellows. Well known by his ready wit and strange bits of philosophy. He can be depended upon to keep the reputation of our class above 90 per cent.

FOX, MABEL

Wayside (3, 4); Congress; Basketball; Year Book Staff.

Among the rest of our rushing, shouting mob, the sight of a quiet, reserved girl like Mabel is a pleasing contrast. Behind that calm smile, who knows what thoughts are passing? For "Still waters run deep."

FRASE, DOROTHEA

Athletic Association (1, 2).

Quiet and unassuming, Dorothea impresses those with whom she becomes acquainted with her genuine simplicity and fineness of character.

FROST, IVAH

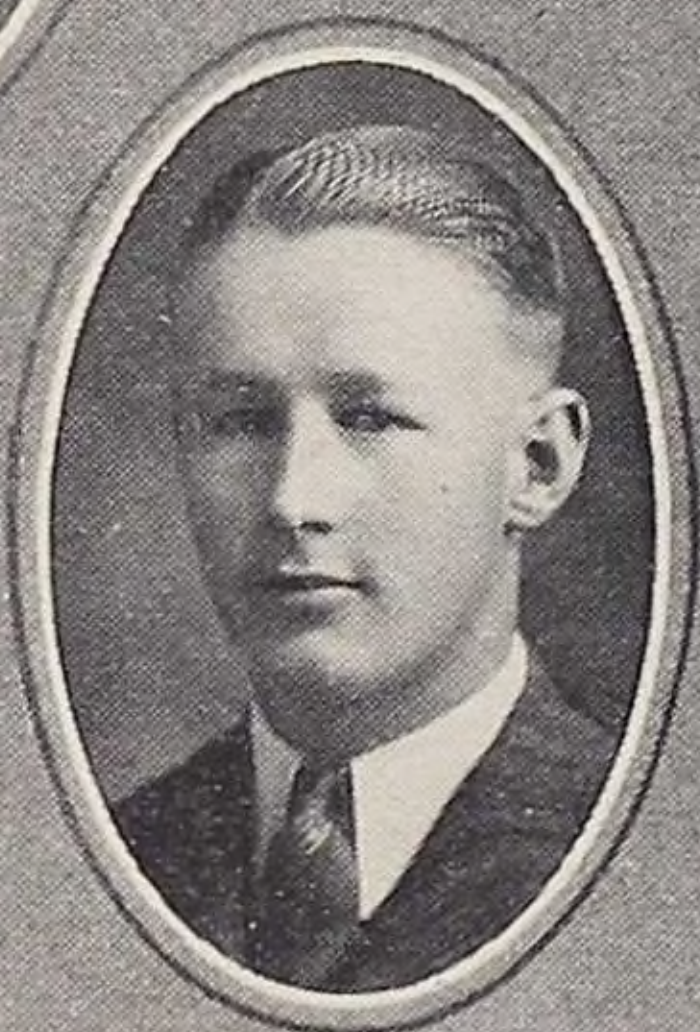

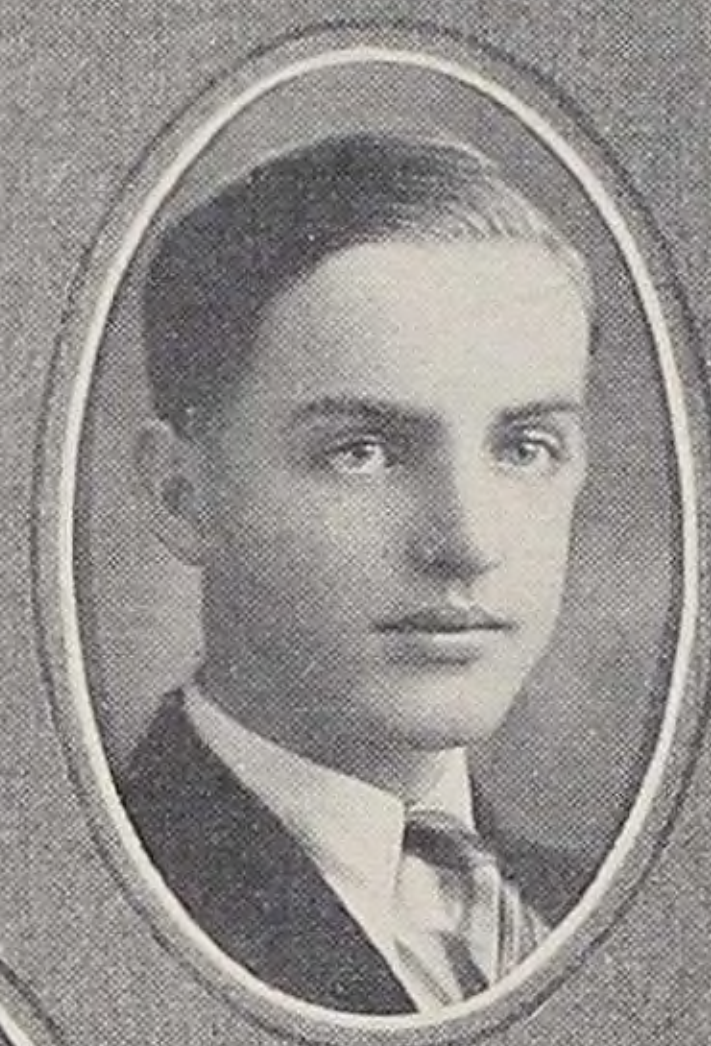

Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Senior Play Cast (4); Athletic Association (1, 2, 4); Wayside Dance Committee.

"Iver" is one of those rarely-found girls of today who have retained the ideals and good sense of the girl of yesterday. To have won her friendship is to have gained a real and lasting friend.

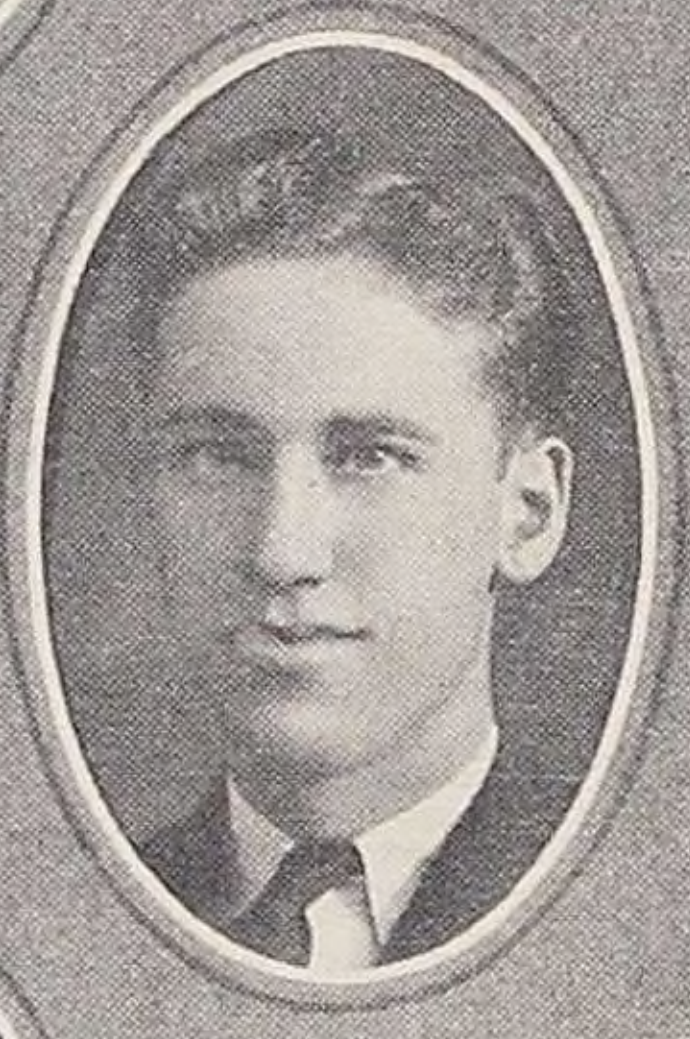

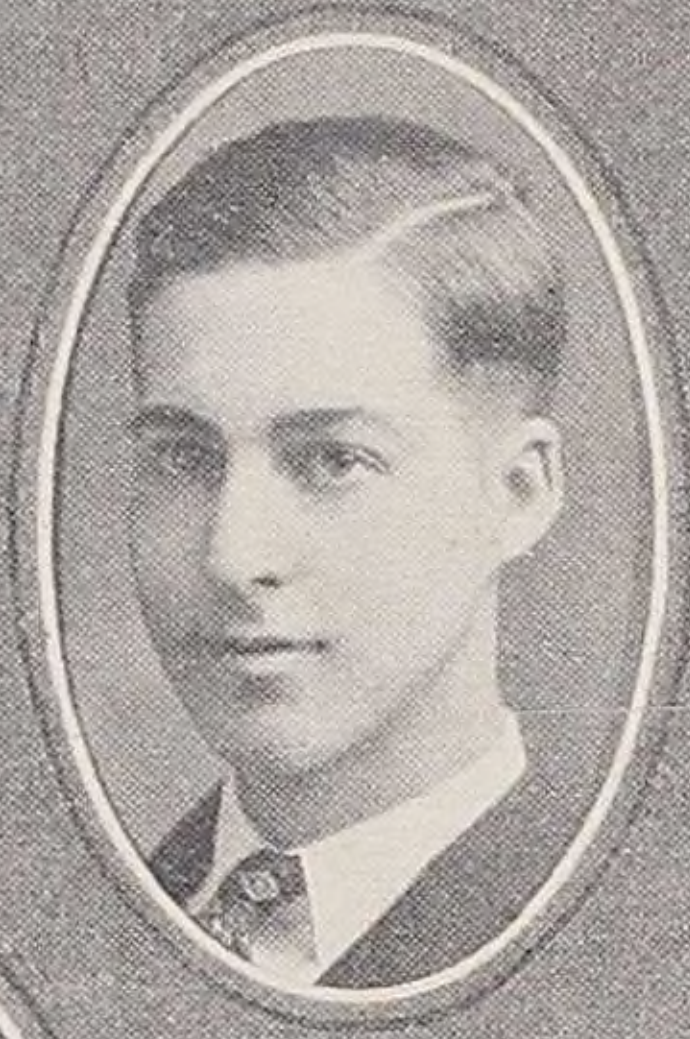

GEUDER, EARLE

Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Competitive Assembly (2, 3, 4); Thanksgiving Program (4); Head Cheer Leader (3); Decoration Committee for Football Dance (4); Senior Play Cast; Dramatic Club (4).

GOOLD, MARGARET

Competitive Assemblies (2, 3); All-Class Program (2); Athletic Association (2, 3, 4); Band (2, 3, 4); Vice-President of Band (3); Sec'y. Student Council (4); Committee for Wayside Dance (4); Virgil Banquet; Year Book Staff; Congress (4); Salutatorian; New York State Honor and Scholarship Society; Cumulative Letter.

Wisdom is the keynote of Margaret's character. Her beauty and popularity plus her excellent scholarship have made her a credit to the school.

HARBERT, RUTH

Congress Staff, (4); Athletic Association, (3, 4); basketball, (4); Year Book Staff; Virgil Banquet; Advertising Committee for Senior Play.

HERRON, ROBERT

Varsity Football, (3, 4); Track Squad (3); Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Vice President Lettermen's Club (4).

Olean remembers "Bobby" as a very aggressive little battler, whose laurels came as a reward of loyalty and perseverance. With his keen, shrewd decisiveness in business and sport, went the philosophy of laughing and playing the game.

HIRLIMAN, MARCELLUS

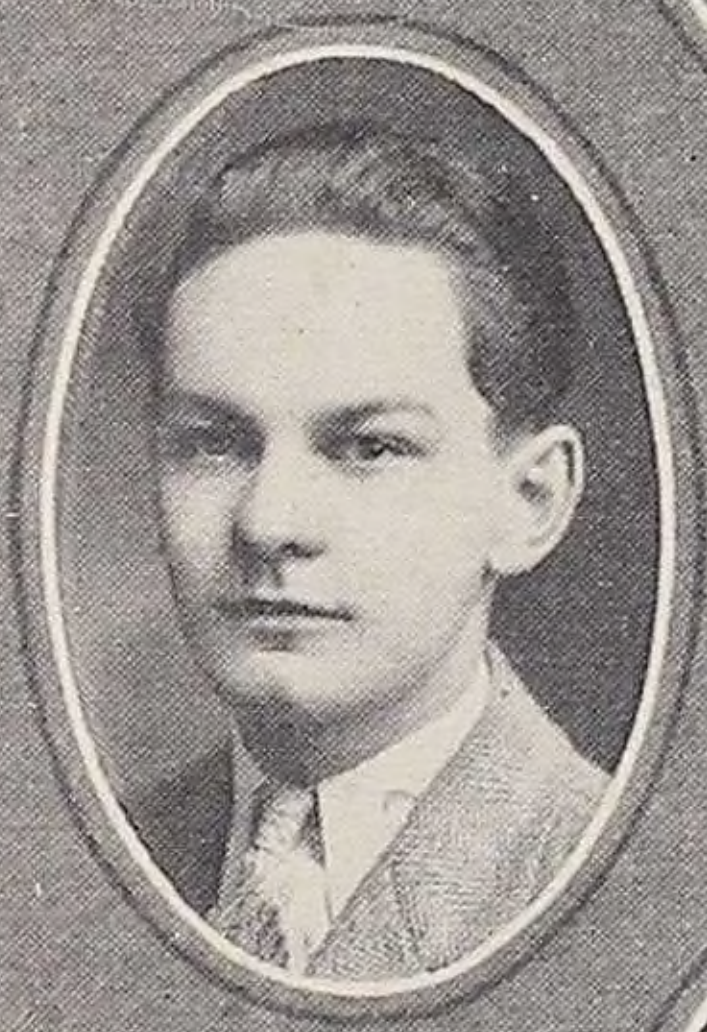

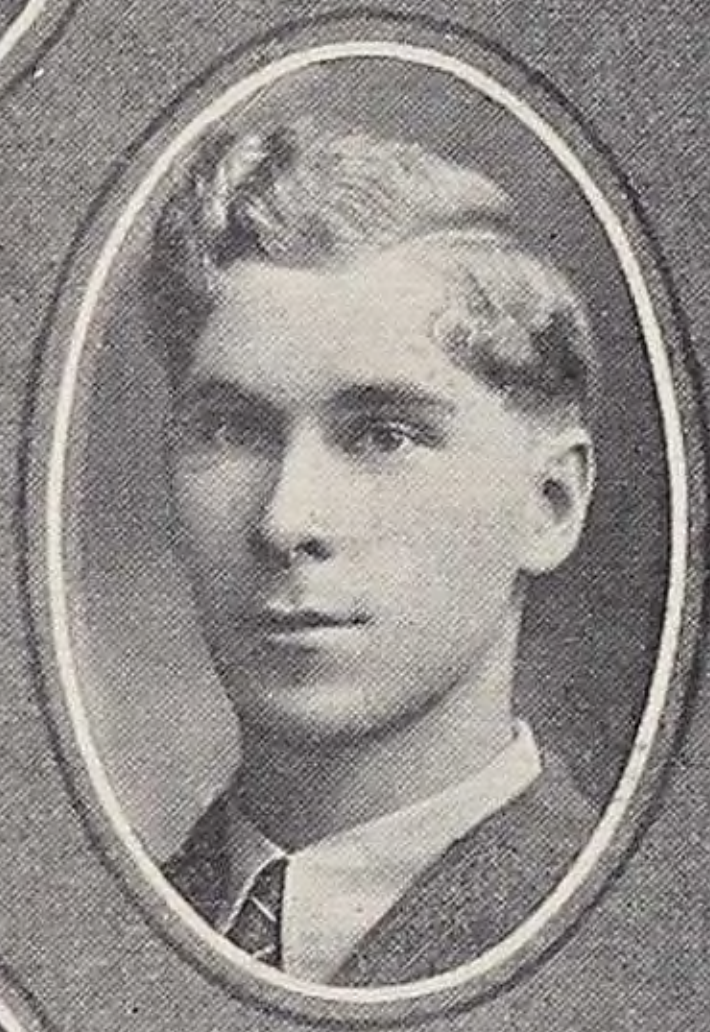

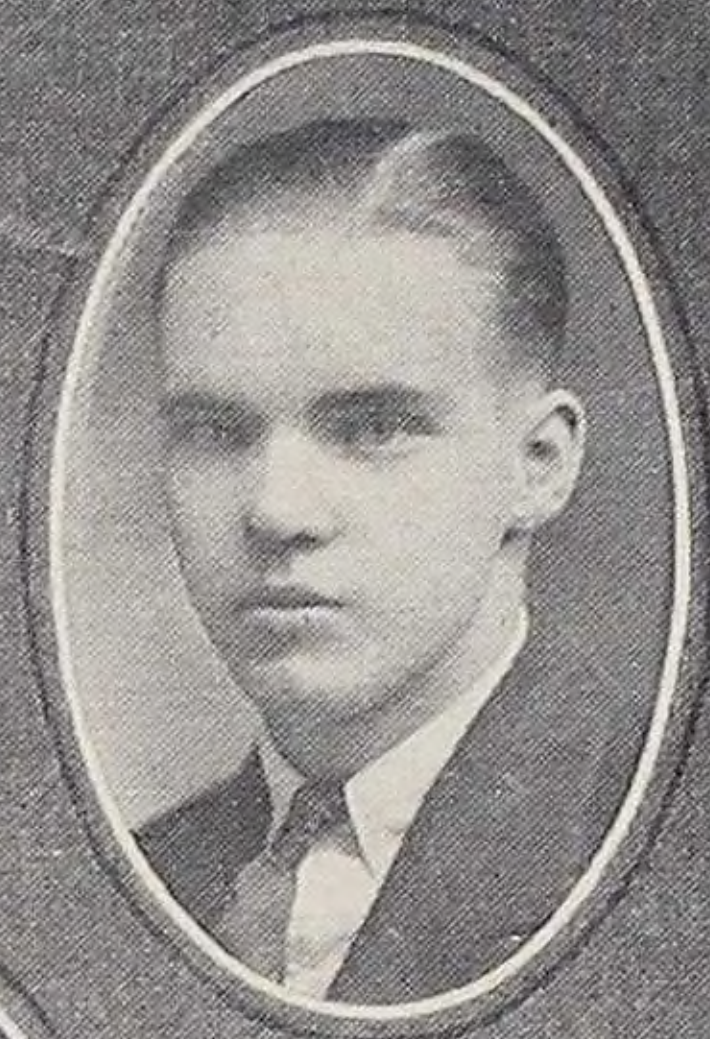

Virgil Banquet (4); New York State Honor and Scholarship Society.

Like a character from Dickens, Marcellus seems to step out of an old delightfully printed page. His time at Olean High School has been a period of conscientious labor mingled with judicious pleasure.

HOUTE, MAXINE

Wayside (3, 4); Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); All Class (2); Competitive Assembly (2); Basketball (4); Baseball (4); Tennis (4); Congress Staff; Wayside Dance Committee (4); Year Book Staff; Finance Committee Senior Play.

When "Max" entered O. H. S. she was one of those shy, demure, maidens who think that woman's place is in the home. Four years have effected a metamorphosis. Her shyness has given way to open heartedness, which has led countless names to her scope of friendships.

O·H·S·1929

O·H·S·1929

JACKSON, VIRGINIA

Wayside (3, 4); Basketball (2); Competitive Assembly (4); Reception Committee, Wayside; Senior Play Cast.

JOHNSON, CLEO

Wayside (3, 4); Orchestra (3, 4); Athletic Association (4); Glee Club (3, 4).

During her high school days Cleo has made many friends among both boys and girls. She has one ability which many girls envy. She surely can dance! Cleo also played the flute in the orchestra. You'll succeed, Cleo!

But she is always ready for fun
And from her duty has never swerved.

JONES, RUSSELL

Class Basketball (1, 2, 3); Junior Varsity (3); Congress (3); Year Book Staff; Inter-Class Track Meet (2); Athletic Association (3).

Back in 1926 when Seniors were Seniors and Freshmen were jokes, "Russ" pulled in from the wilds of School 10. "Russ" has a tendency for argumentation, as his English class will agree, and we expect to someday see his name compared with that of Webster. Good luck, "Russ"!

KARL, DOROTHY

Glee Club (1); Spring Concert (1); Wayside (4).

Dot, whose winning smile and charming personality is well known to her school friends, has high hopes for the future. Her sunny nature has won her many friends and will continue to do so.

KARST, MILDRED

Girls Glee Club (1); Competitive Assembly (1, 2); Pianist in Junior Assembly (1).

We wonder how so much pep and jollity can be crowded into such a small amount of space. Her beautiful curls are the envy of every girl in school and seem to hide some deviltry which lurks in her blue eyes.

KEATING, JOHN

Christmas Play (2); Competitive Assembly (3); Athletic Association (2, 3, 4); Track Squad (2, 4).

John is happy-go-lucky, and very careful is he. He is always singing a song so this proves his jollity.

"Jen" is one of the most popular girls of the class of "29." She is very considerate of others and is always willing to lend a helping hand to her classmates.

MAZICK, WILLIAM

Bill is one of the fellows who brings up the average of a class with his gravity and sincerity. His conscientiousness also causes him to do his home work, thereby doing the good old school another good turn, by passing his paper around.

McCANDLESS, ALTHEA

Wayside (3, 4); Glee Club (1, 2); Sophomore Competitive Assembly; Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4).

A girl of wide understanding. She has written a play which was put on by the high school and liked very much by the students. She, moreover is very brilliant and possesses a clever personality.

Class Prophecy

The year one thousand nine hundred and forty-five has wrought great changes in the mode of traveling. Air navigation has been so perfected that there is practically no danger in flying.

The new dirigible, the "Dash", which has been named for the wife of the great philanthropist, Leo McCartan, left the airport of Butler & DiCapua, Inc. Monday morning to begin its journey to the Continent. Among those taken were Jane Petz, Maxine Houte, Mary Krott, Beulah Derr and Juliana Bogard who are returning to France to continue their studies as proprietresses in their modiste shops which they had been obliged to leave in order to journey to the United States to witness the election of Lucille Shields as governor and Ellen Sutter as lieutenant-governor of Grossville, named for Ellis Gross whose donations were responsible for the founding of this city.

An exclusive group of five were traveling together to hear the the opera which was written by Curtis Bradford and whose title role was acted and sung by Helen Cush, unanimously conceded to be the world's greatest songbird. Warner Brundage, Dorothea Waters, Paul Coughlin, Beatrice Phillips and Margaret Goold formed this party of musicians.

The trip is expected to be very successful as much time was spent in planning for it. It was postponed from September last until now so that its route would cross that of the Witherell Brothers, Murphy and Kenny Combined Circus which travels by plane. The tourists were unusually interested to witness this circus because of the wide publicity and praise given it. It is said that the Sturm & Pike duo have one of the best acts ever seen on trapeze and that Ione Bronold, assisted by John Griffin and Everett Graham, has a novel surprise in store for circus-goers in the form of new stunts while riding bare-back. This circus has a very complete menagerie and this is perhaps due to the fine care which Joseph Bear, Raymond Crego, Harold Seidler, Donald Becker and William Mazick take of the animals. The collection of freaks is greater this year than ever before. Among them are to be seen Harriet Cain—the fat lady, Ruth Deckman—tall lady, John Case—strong man, Winona Marshall and Edith St. John with their sister act of fire-eating. Evelyn Weldy—small lady, and Burdell Sutter and Ernest Thompson—the "Small" brothers.

Among the many points of interest to be seen, the guide of the dirigible, Earl Geuder, is not the least. Vivian Carlson is aboard bound for Scandinavia and Althea McCandless, Beulah Chamberlain, Dorothea Frase, Myrtle Muir, Georganna Matteson, Mildred Crawford, Crystal Reynolds and Jane Studholme are bound for Rome to visit the Vatican.

The Longnecker Stock Co., is traveling to Austria where it is scheduled to run in Margaret Elling's and Max Shoff's new theatre, the "Ward," named for Eileen Ward who has been the featured attraction there for some time. The Stock Co. is comprised of Alice Bennett, Jane Mayer, Genevieve Toohey, Charles Millard, Mary Testi, Margaret Mitchell, Jay Witter, Betty White, Merrill Phillips, Henrietta Sherman and Robert Street.

The crew of the "Dash" consists of Gerald Foster, Frederick

Austin, Russell Jones, John Weber, Harold Schoelles; and among the young ladies who are aboard as maids are Beulah Allen, Lucy Brennan, Margaret Barnard, Ivah Frost, Marion Schussle, Mabel Fox and Mary Briem, all of whom are taking this trip for the experience to be gained.

The zeppelin is constantly being watched from the lookouts situated at the Ostrander and Conklin airport from which the blimp started and also at the airport run by Walter Baker and Herman Odell. Photos of the dirigible may be seen in the windows of Weise's five and ten cent stores, in Helen Shira's grocery store, and in Faulkner's garage. Reports have already been received that it was sighted over Sandy Hook by Donald Stone and Richard Dittrich from their lighthouse.

When the "Dash" arrives on the Continent, there will probably be a mad rush to Ava Randall's shop in Cologne where she is selling man bait to "It"-less girls although reports have been circulated by Beulah Sterling that she does not practice what she preaches. Joseph Bronold and Howard Austin are bound for Spain to acquire a background before they start to teach Spanish, and Marion Borst will soon be probing in the ruins at Cumae so that when she succeeds Miss Oliver who has taught Latin faithfully these past years, she may have a thorough knowledge of her topic. Hazel Parker delights in seeing historical sites in order to furnish her English class with material for themes. William Burt and Gladys Case have signed a contract to dance in Irene Vena's night club on the Rialto.

Lucille Bates, Dorothy Wolfe and Lois Porsch have recently opened a flower shop in Naples where they are becoming successful, due perhaps to the fact that Robert Herron is their delivery boy.

When the zeppelin returns, it is expected that it will bring back a number of Americans who have been sojourning in Europe, among them Harry Ramsey, Margaret McDonnell, Ruth Harbert—the famous artist, Frederick Peterson and William Consedine—well-known comedians, Jean Smith who has been studying interior decorating, and Mildred Karst who scored such a triumph in her portrayal of Eva in Uncle Tom's Cabin. George Luther and Douglas Petty, who have gained honors for themselves in the sporting world are returning and also Bernard Fitzpatrick, whose masterful voice was strained when he spoke in Congress against the passing of the bill admitting Mary Mishanec and Dorothy Karl as Senators of New York State.

Anna Flaim will return after a successful campaign for the establishment of a spinster's home in Derxville, and John Keating and James Strong will incorporate their beauty parlors for the preservation of that schoolboy complexion. Dorothy Johnson and Edward Barry have been studying the art of designing clothes and will soon be showing what the well-dressed aviatrix and aviator will wear. Marion Ordway has been studying in Austria and plans to tour the States giving concerts. Teddy Chrzan and Harold O'Donnell, who have established a ladies' beauty parlor next door to Alan Geuder's hot dog stand, are eagerly awaiting the arrival of Madame Cleo Johnson from Paris who will assist them in their beauty work.

It is hoped that the trip will be a pleasant one and an early arrival on the Continent is predicted.

CLASS ACTIVITIES

The Class of '30 has had an active part in all the school activities during the past year.

It has made a good record in basketball, track and football. The Junior Girls came in second in the Inter-class Basketball League.

The Competitive Assembly which was held the 8th of March proved very successful. The musical number, negro spirituals, was presented March 15th, at the first All Class Entertainment and the one act play, "The Kelly Kid" and the "Sailors' Hornpipe Dance," were presented on March 22nd at the second All Class Entertainment.

CLASS ACTIVITIES

The Class of '31 has been outstanding in school activities this year. I say outstanding because we have been honored on different occasions through the efforts of our class members. We have been well represented in all athletics. The girls were the winners in both the Basketball and Volleyball Leagues for the season. In basketball we were presented with a trophy. We have been well represented in musical activities throughout the year. Taking part in the "Competitive Assemblies", we again reached the "goal" by winning over our opponents, the Freshman. In the contest for "Better Homes" prizes were won by Elizabeth Mazza and Mary E. Finn. Under the able direction of our class advisor, Miss Herzog, we had charge of a "Parent Teachers" meeting.

FRESHMAN CLASS

The class of 1932 was organized in September, 1928 at a meeting presided over by Mr. Sackett. The contest for officers was spirited, and after several votes the successful candidates were announced as follows:

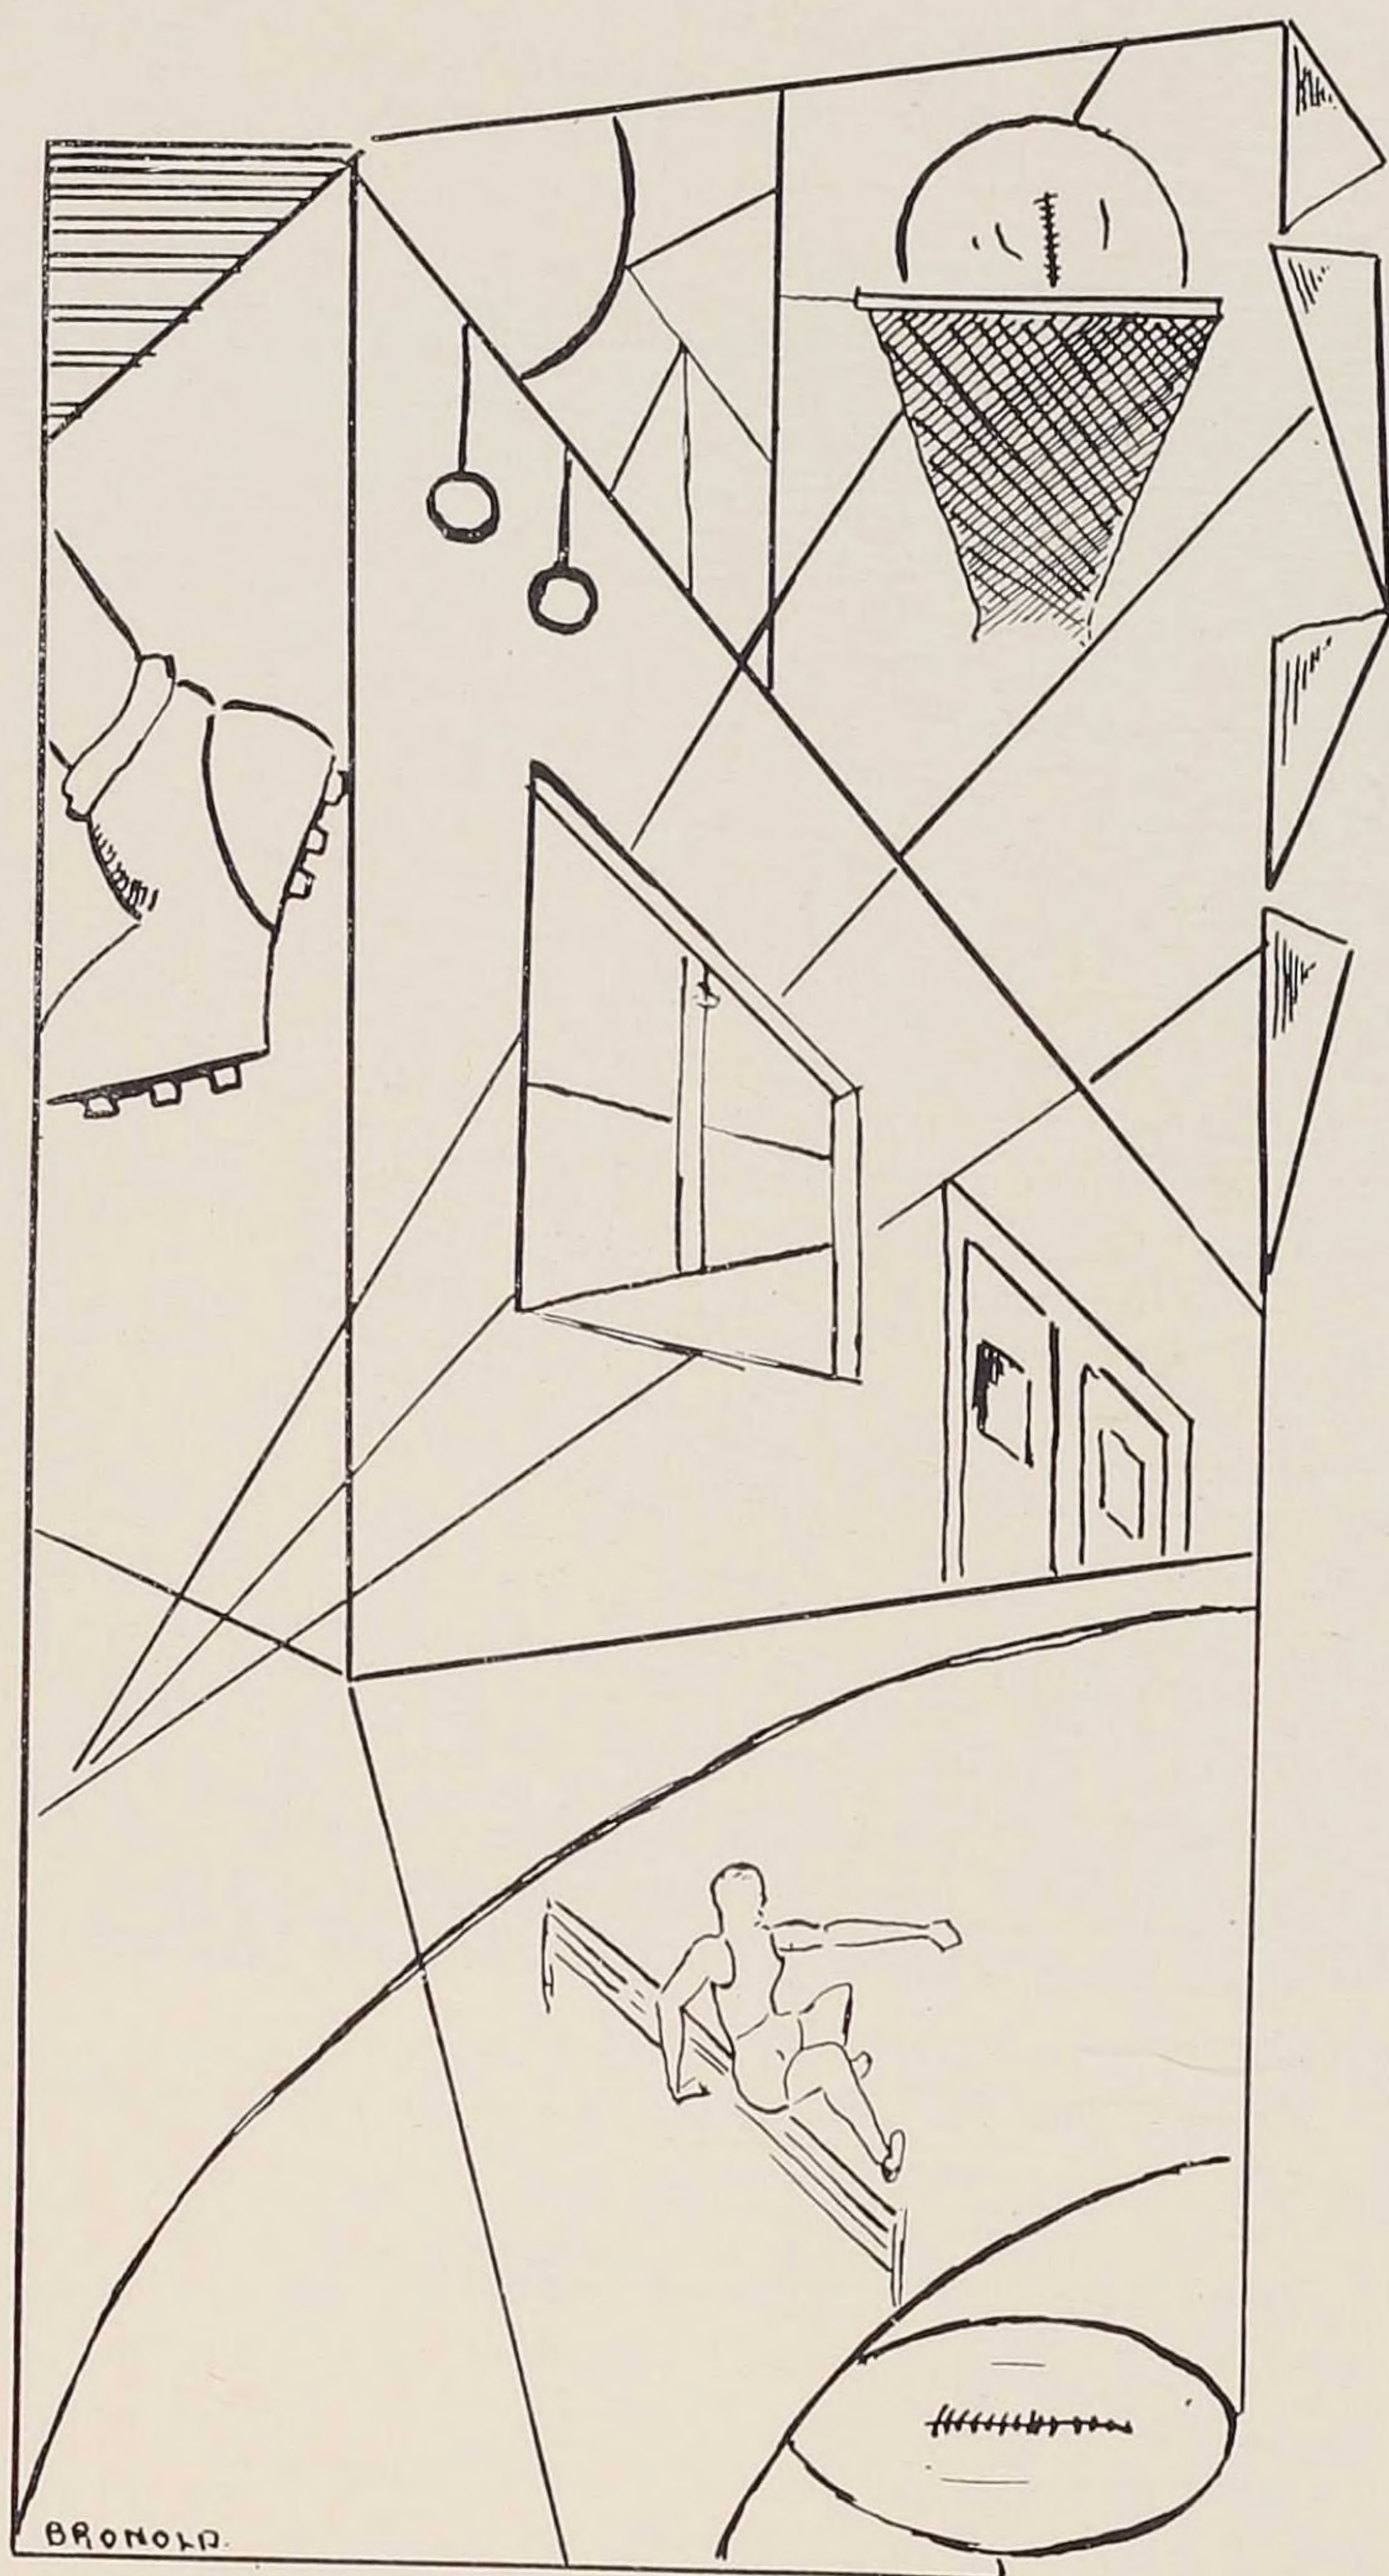

OFFICERS

President	EARL HENRY
Vice President	BETTY HANNIGAN
Secretary	JANET LA DUE
Treasurer	WM. O'REILLEY
Student Council Representative	MAX TILLER
Class Advisor	MISS FITZGERALD

Mr. Sackett appointed Miss Fitzgerald, class advisor, and the meeting was adjourned.

The school year opened with a freshman class of about 280 regular first year pupils, nearly 150 of whom were new members of high school, promoted from the grammar schools on the June preliminary certificates.

During the typhoid epidemic several members of the class were ill from the disease and one, Dorothy Story, died. She was greatly loved by her classmates, and her loss was a great grief to all the group.

ATHLETICS

Second Row—Coach Frey, Luther, Sackett, Lowry, Becker

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

The athletic program of the Olean High School originates with and is carried on by the Athletic Council. This consists of three student members, elected annually,—namely, the president, vice-president, and secretary, respectively, of the athletic association.

In addition to these, there are permanent and ex-officio members as follows: the principal of the high school, the supervisor of physical education, the faculty treasurer of the athletic association, the coach of athletic teams, and the manager of whatever athletic team may then be in season.

After organization in September, the athletic council holds executive meetings each Wednesday. At these meetings, all routine business of the association is conducted. Recommendations of the coach covering equipment and supplies are brought before the council for approval. Reports of managers are received, bills are audited, varsity letters are awarded by this group. Membership in the council becomes, therefore, a matter of real responsibility and is so regarded by both student and faculty representatives.

Fourth Row—Petty, Case, Millard, Tapp, Sturm, Biehler, Peterson, Fitzpatrick

FOOTBALL

Captain	ROLAND LOLLAR
Coach	FRANCIS F. FREY
Assistant Coach	EARL K. JAMES
Manager	DONALD BECKER
Assistant Manager	RUSSELL CASE

Following in the wake of the immortal team of the 1926 football season, this year's team did not seem so good but considering the loss of material by graduation and the size of the students coming in, Coach Frey brought out a strong eleven with a record that cannot be marred by the Bradford defeat.

On September 11 the candidates donned their moleskins and entered the stadium for their first practice at 2:30 o'clock. At 6:00 they left, via the stretchers and crutches, but that is what made them able to take punishment later on in the season. The next day showed an improvement and also a decrease in the number of candidates.

About a week after the season opened, the typhoid epidemic broke out and Little Valley and Hornell immediately cancelled, leaving dates that could not be filled upon such short notice. This same reason also served to keep down the attendance at the games.

Olean opened the season by giving Cuba a trouncing to the tune of 50-0.

The next opponent of the Crimson and Gold, Depew, proved to be a fairly tough assignment but the team succeeded in putting them down to defeat.

Then along came Dunkirk who last year upset the dope of the scribes and beat us, but this year it was different, we beat them 12-0.

Salamanca's Indians were the next victims going down beneath the fearful onslaught of our line; this game crippled our team, though, and thereby caused future defeats.

Jamestown was the stumbling block for the team. In a sea of mud and a heavy rain they sent the Yeomen back home with a 6 to 0 defeat.

When Olean went to North Tonawanda it was just too sad. They hit probably the best team in Western New York and this probably accounts for the defeat.

The Bradford game this year was a disappointment; for after having beaten teams that Bradford couldn't, the team was trounced 6 to 0 before a record crowd in the Bradner Stadium.

The scores are as follows:

Cuba 0	Olean 59
Little Valley	Cancelled
Depew 6	Olean 12
Dunkirk 0	Olean 12
Hornell	Cancelled
Salamanca 6	Olean 12
Jamestown 6	Olean 0
North Tonawanda 37	Olean 0

Varsity Basketball

The varsity basketball team had a very successful season during 1928-29, and succeeded in recapturing the County Championship. The schedule for the year was unusually difficult, but the fine spirit and co-operation of both players and students made possible a majority of victories. Much credit should be given Coach "Hookey" Frey for his tireless efforts in making the team what it was.

A brief review of the season follows:

December 7—The basketball season was opened with a decisive victory over Ten Broeck Academy at Franklinville. The final score in this first league encounter was 20-13.

December 14—The Freymen received their first setback in the league when Allegany invaded Olean to take a 30-21 victory.

January 5—In the first non-league contest on the schedule, East Aurora downed the Crimson and Gold 27-26 in a hectic battle.

January 12—Although favored to win, the Alfred University Freshmen proved easy and the Yeomen annexed a 20-14 victory.

January 19—The next team Olean encountered was Fredonia. The lake shore school had a fine aggregation, but the Freymen were superior. The score was 25-15.

January 26—Playing a stellar brand of ball, Olean was invincible and Delevan was humbled 28-13.

February 1—In a contest which was both fast and rough, Warren succeeded in turning back the Freymen by an 18-14 score.

February 2—Franklinville put up a strong battle the next night, but the Ten Broeck five was subdued 34-23 in an exciting game.

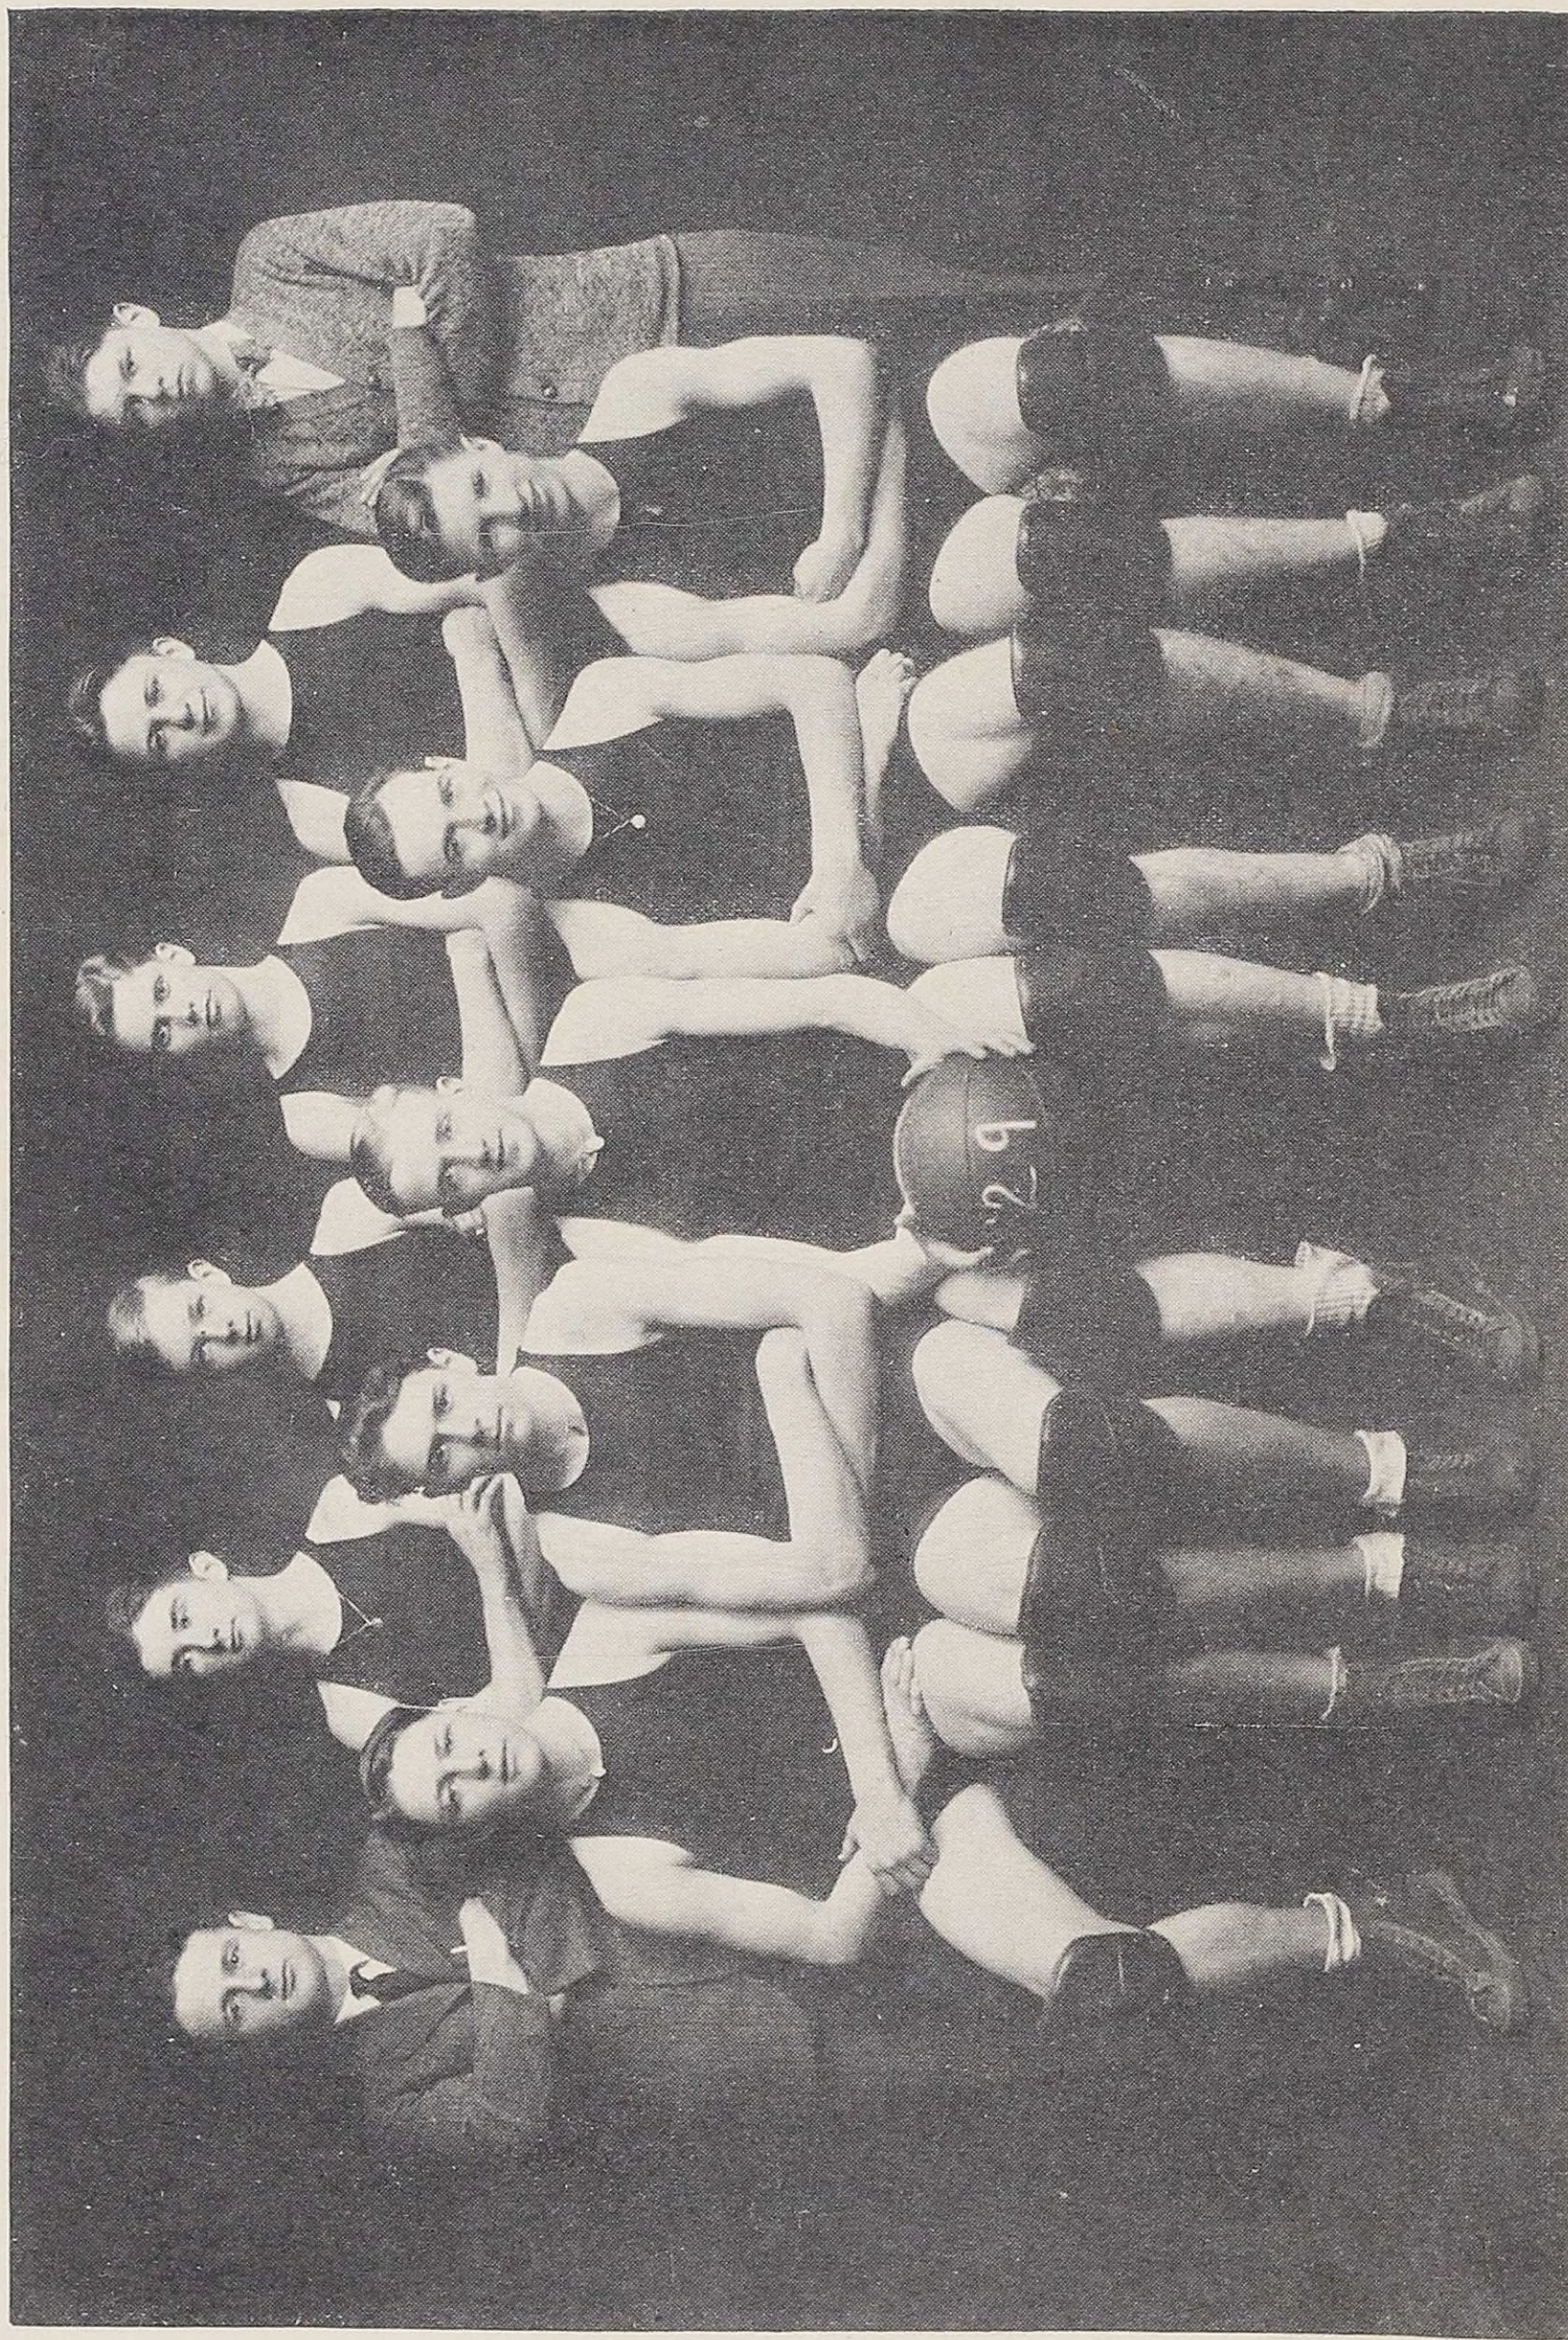

February 8—With a spotless record in the league loop, Allegany appeared unbeatable on their own court. After a thrilling encounter, Olean returned home with a 14-12 victory.

February 15—Portville was the next opponent. In a listless contest, Olean outscored that quintet, 43-16.

February 16—Jamestown High was fine and had a wonderful group of basketeters. In a majestic court battle Olean was conquered 30-18.

February 22—Fredonia, the first school Olean encountered on a two day trip, proved superior and the Freymen were turned back 24-20.

February 23—From Fredonia the Yeomen journeyed to Erie and met Erie Central. The Crimson and Gold five put up a great fight but were defeated, 36-21.

March 1—The Freymen concluded their league schedule in a blaze of glory by defeating Delevan 28-19 in an exciting contest.

March 2—Bradford, our ancient rival, provided the opposition for the most thrilling encounter of the season. The Red and Black quintet fought hard in the closing minutes of play in an effort to overcome Olean's lead. When the whistle blew, Olean was leading by the narrow margin of one point. The final score was 22-21.

March 5—In the first round of elimination in determining the Cattaraugus County Championship, Olean defeated Salamanca by a 12-11 score in the local armory. Salamanca had a great quintet but the Yeomen were a little bit better.

March 7—Allegany, winner of the Class B championship, and Olean, winner of the class A championship, met on the armory floor to decide the County Championship and the right to represent this section at the sectional tournament in Buffalo. The Freymen staged a brilliant exhibition of basketball and after the first half, the result was never in doubt. When the final gun sounded, the Yeomen were leading 19-9.

March 9—Olean met Jamestown in the first game of the sectional tournament. The Freymen were leading until the last few minutes of play, but the Red and Green quintet spurted ahead to take a 19-16 victory.

March 13—Olean closed a very successful season at Bradford. The Red and Black five was superior on its own court and Olean was defeated 23-14.

Basketball letters were presented to the following men: Captain Douglas Petty, Manager Herbert L. Sackett, Jr., William Consedine, Harold O'Donnell, Eugene Lee, Harry Ramsey, Claire Odell and George Luther.

JUNIOR VARSITY

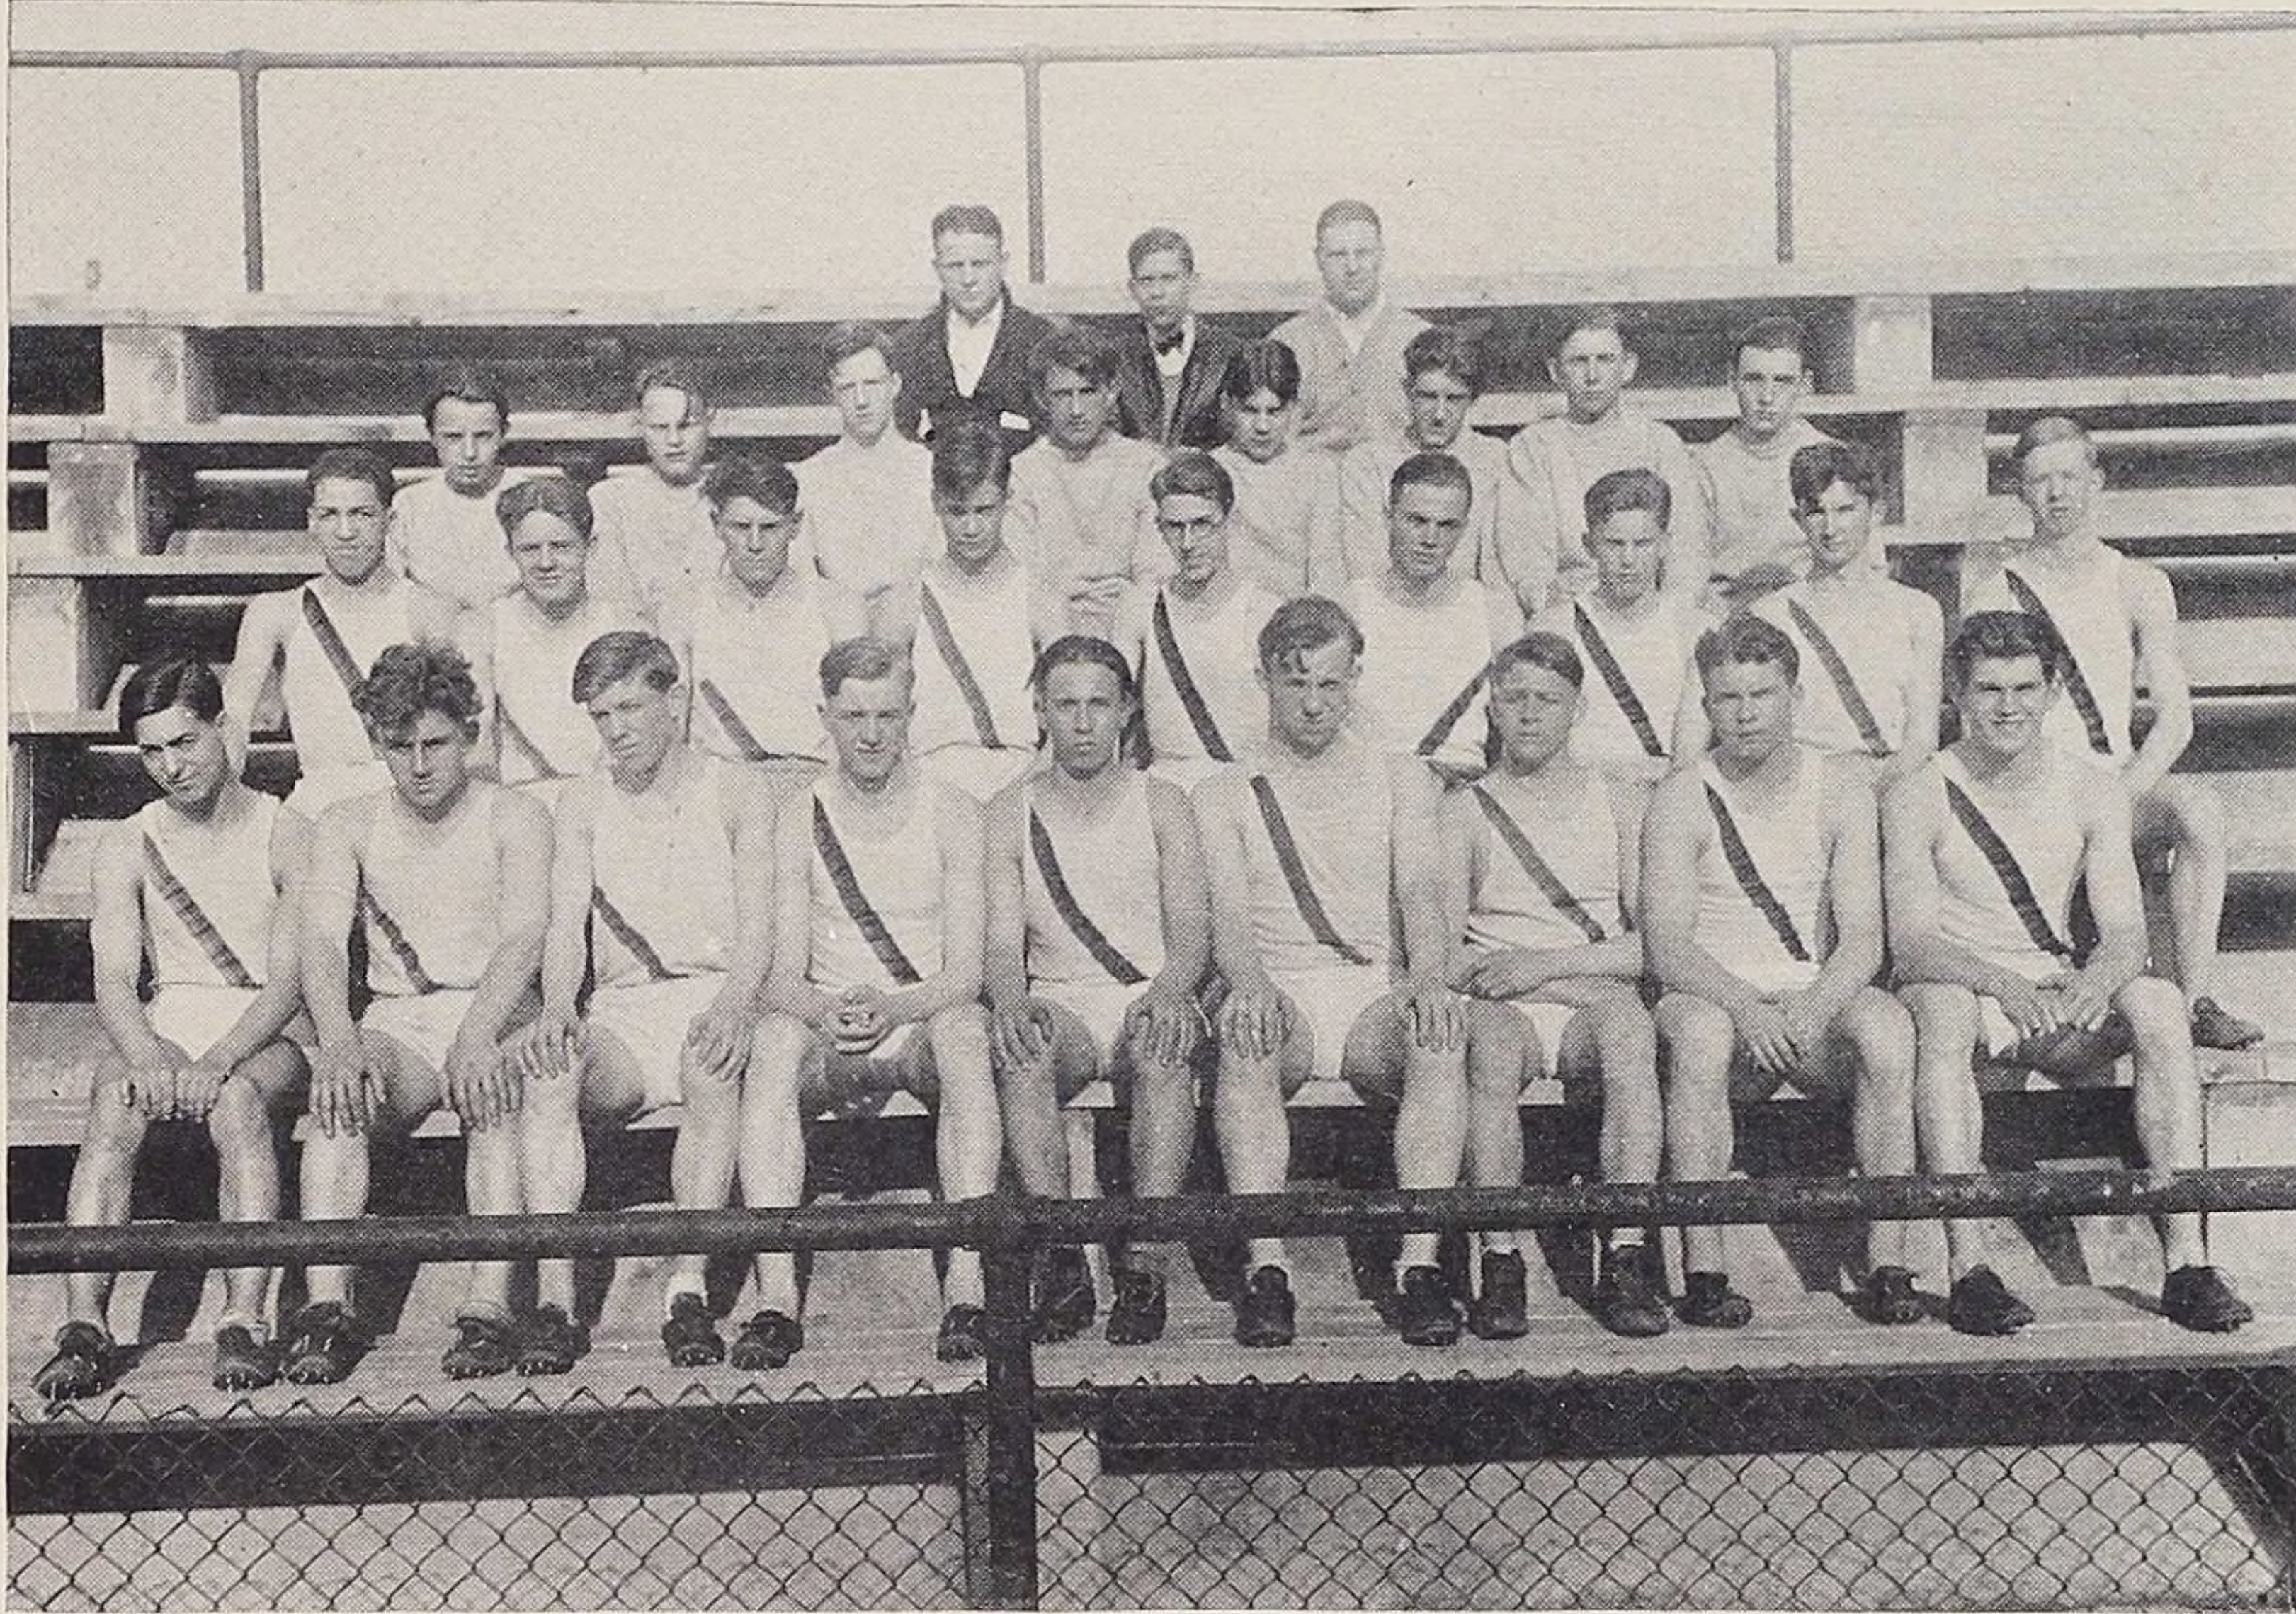

Coach Earle K. James
Manager Havens Atwood
Captain Russell Jones

At the opening of the 1928-29 basketball season, Coach Frey announced that the school would be represented on the court by two varsities.

The Junior was composed of members of the Freshman, Sophomore and Junior classes. In this way the coaching staff believed that the Junior Varsity would be able to supply experienced candidates to the Senior Varsity and fill the positions left vacant each year by graduation.

The jayvee got away to a poor start, but finally hit a fast stride. However, due to the ineligibility of three regulars and the promotion of another to the Senior Varsity, this fast pace was short in extent.

Coach James proceeded to round out another team from the remaining material, and by the end of the season he had moulded a stellar, hard fighting group of courtsters.

At the first call for candidates for track about 35 men reported for practice. Of the thirty-five, only three lettermen, Petty, Tapp, and W. Swartz, returned to aid Coach Frey in moulding a team worthy of Olean traditions. With so small a nucleus about which to build, Coach Frey was greatly handicapped. This year's team was probably the weakest aggregation in Crimson and Gold history. For the first time in the annals of the sport, Olean failed to send a representative to the State Meet. Although the squad was conquered in every meet, the athletes practiced faithfully until the conclusion of the season, and this fact, in the light of the disastrous season, is a fitting tribute to the perseverance of the men.

The season was inaugurated on May 8, when the Inter-Class Meet was held in Bradner Stadium. The Seniors, composed of Geuder, Phillips, Sturm, Petty, Odell, Ramsey, Luther and Millard, captured a majority of the events and walked off with 41 points to win first place. The Juniors were second with 20 points, while the post-graduates, represented by Tapp, took third with 13 points.

On May 11 the Crimson and Gold fell before the strong Bradford team in a meet which was held on the Senior High School Field in Bradford. The final score was 58 1-2 to 36 1-2. Tapp starred for the Yeomen taking firsts in the 440 and 880 yard runs. Lyons, Phillips, and Heberlee did commendable work for the Freymen.

In the County Meet which was held at Salamanca on May 25, Olean finished third following Salamanca and Gowanda, who took first and second, respectively. "Toddy" Tapp again starred for the Yeomen by taking first place in both the 440 and 880.

In the final meet of the season, the State Sectional, held in Bradner Stadium on June 1, the Freymen took sixth place. Tapp was second in the 440, Phillips was third in the high jump, and the relay team, composed of W. Swartz, Lee, Phillips, and Petty, took fourth place to give Olean her only points.

The following men were awarded the track letter at the close of the season: Theodore Tapp, Merrill Phillips, Logan Heberle, Lawrence Lyons and Manager George Luther.

SENIOR CLASS BASKETBALL TEAM

Coach Claire Odell
 Captain Herman Odell

After one of the hardest fights in inter-class history, the Seniors, winning the last eight games, won the inter-class basketball championship. Led by Herman Odell, the leading scorer of the league, who was supported by "Red" Gross, the dazzling forward, the Seniors won the first few games with comparative ease. After January the games became closer, and, at the end of the season, they were trying ones. In these final games, Merrill Phillips proved his ability to jump center, and while he was doing his bit, Jones, Korns, and Sutter were holding the opponents practically scoreless. Millard and Witter also contributed their share of points toward winning the numerals.

Throughout the basketball season the Sophs played hard and well-fought games. Katherine Cobb was the captain and under her excellent leadership the team gained the top of the league loop.

JUNIOR BASKETBALL

Teams "G" and "H" constitute the Junior basketball teams. Those on the first team, "G," are Gretchen Bennett, guard, Geraldine Cobb, forward, Bernice Snyder, center, Genevieve Dash, side center, Betty Gleason, forward, and Nellie Taylor, guard.

Betty Gleason headed the Juniors who played excellent basketball. They won five games and lost three. Geraldine Cobb was high scorer for the Juniors, having caged forty-seven points when the final whistle blew.

SENIOR GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Because of the number of candidates, two teams, called "I" and "J", were formed. "I", the first team, was composed of Alice Bennett, captain and forward, Geraldine Dash, forward, Gladys Case, center, Dorothea Waters, side center, Marion Borst, guard, Genevieve Toohey, side center, Gertrude McCready, guard.

Although the Seniors had the highest scorer on their team, (Geraldine Dash made fifty-three points in the eight games played), they did not win the championship. It was not through lack of spirit that the first place was lost, however, since the margin of defeat was narrow.

The Senior team wishes the Juniors the best of luck in the coming basketball season.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

Last but not least come our Freshies. Although new to the game, they strove to win themselves a place in the league, but only succeeded in winning one game and losing four.

The Freshmen had four teams, "A", "B", "C", and "D", "A" being the first team. Those on team "A" were Muriel Wright, captain and forward, Lois Lange, forward, Genevieve Nichols, center, Alice McCue, center, Laura La-Cavera, side center, Belle Job, guard, and Derah Waldeck, guard. The high scorer for the Freshmen was Muriel Wright, who netted thirteen points.

Well, Freshies, we wish you better luck next time.

Girls' Sports

VOLLEYBALL

Although the girls' volleyball league was formed for the first time this year, many girls came out for the teams and every game was exciting for the spectators as well as the players. The Senior girls were captained by Gladys Case and although they played good ball they were unable to defeat the Sophomores, headed by Katherine Cobb. The "Sophs" won their way to victory by also defeating the Freshmen, whose captain was Belle Job, and the Juniors, whose leader was Geraldine Cobb. The girls took a real interest in the games and showed ability in tipping the ball over the net. The Senior girls are sorry that they won't be back to play the game next year and are grateful to Miss Schiff for her coaching.

BASEBALL

Baseball was added to the list of girls' athletics this year for the first time. Since it was new this year there were not so many candidates as there were for the well established sports; however, enough girls came out to form a team for each class. The captains were Senior, Gladys Case; Junior, Gretchen Bennett; Sophomore, Betty Gleason; Freshman, Belle Job.

The girls showed good sportsmanship and ability in playing and also proved that their voices were perfect during the exciting games. We hope more girls will play next year and enjoy it as much.

TENNIS

A large number of girls helped wear away the School 5 tennis courts this year, playing in the tennis league. Many of them displayed their aces and back-hand to advantage during the games which were always exciting even if it was hot. Often the games had to be postponed on account of rain but the girls kept their enthusiasm and on dry days eagerly hurried over to the courts to play the game. We hope the sport is continued for each year to come and that it gains many more followers.

GIRLS' HIKING CLUB

The Girls' Hiking Club was organized under Miss Schiff, the girls' physical director. At the first meeting, Ione Bronold was elected President, Ava Randle was treasurer during the term of '28 and Katherine Geise during the term of '29, and Betty Gleason, secretary. The class managers chosen were Gladys Case, Senior; Clare Donnelly, Junior; Madge Kime, Sophomore; Margaret Steele, Freshman.

The club was organized to give the girls a chance to earn a part toward the "Girls' Varsity Letter." The Hiking Club not only provides them with a form of entertainment but it gives them better physical development.

The girls from all four classes have responded to the Club with enthusiasm. We only hope it is as successful in the coming years as it has been during the school year 1928-'29.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

After having been left in the dusk for the past two years, due to the inactivity of its members, the 'Lettermen's Club' once more became an active social organization in school activities. Under the able guidance of Coach Hookey Frey, faculty advisor, the members once more held their regular meeting and took steps towards initiating the new members and starting a round of activities.

The first meeting of the Club saw a very interesting talk by "Hookey" who outlined the benefits of such an organization and read its principles to the members. The next meeting, Richard Dittrich, was elected to the President's chair. Robert Herron shared honors in the post of Vice President and Thomas O'Haire was elected Secretary and Treasurer. From this time on the club blossomed and spread out into a field of social events. Many more meetings were held and each proved to be more enjoyable than the one preceeding. The members all took a new interest, and now that the club has been founded and its principles set, the graduating members hope that those remaining and the new ones to come will carry on its present standing.

As a conclusion to its year of activity and as a tribute to its graduating members, the Club held its annual banquet at the Olean House on June sixth with an inspiring talk on Athletics by Mr. W. Campbell, Director of Athletics and Physical Culture at the University of Rochester.

HI-Y CLUB

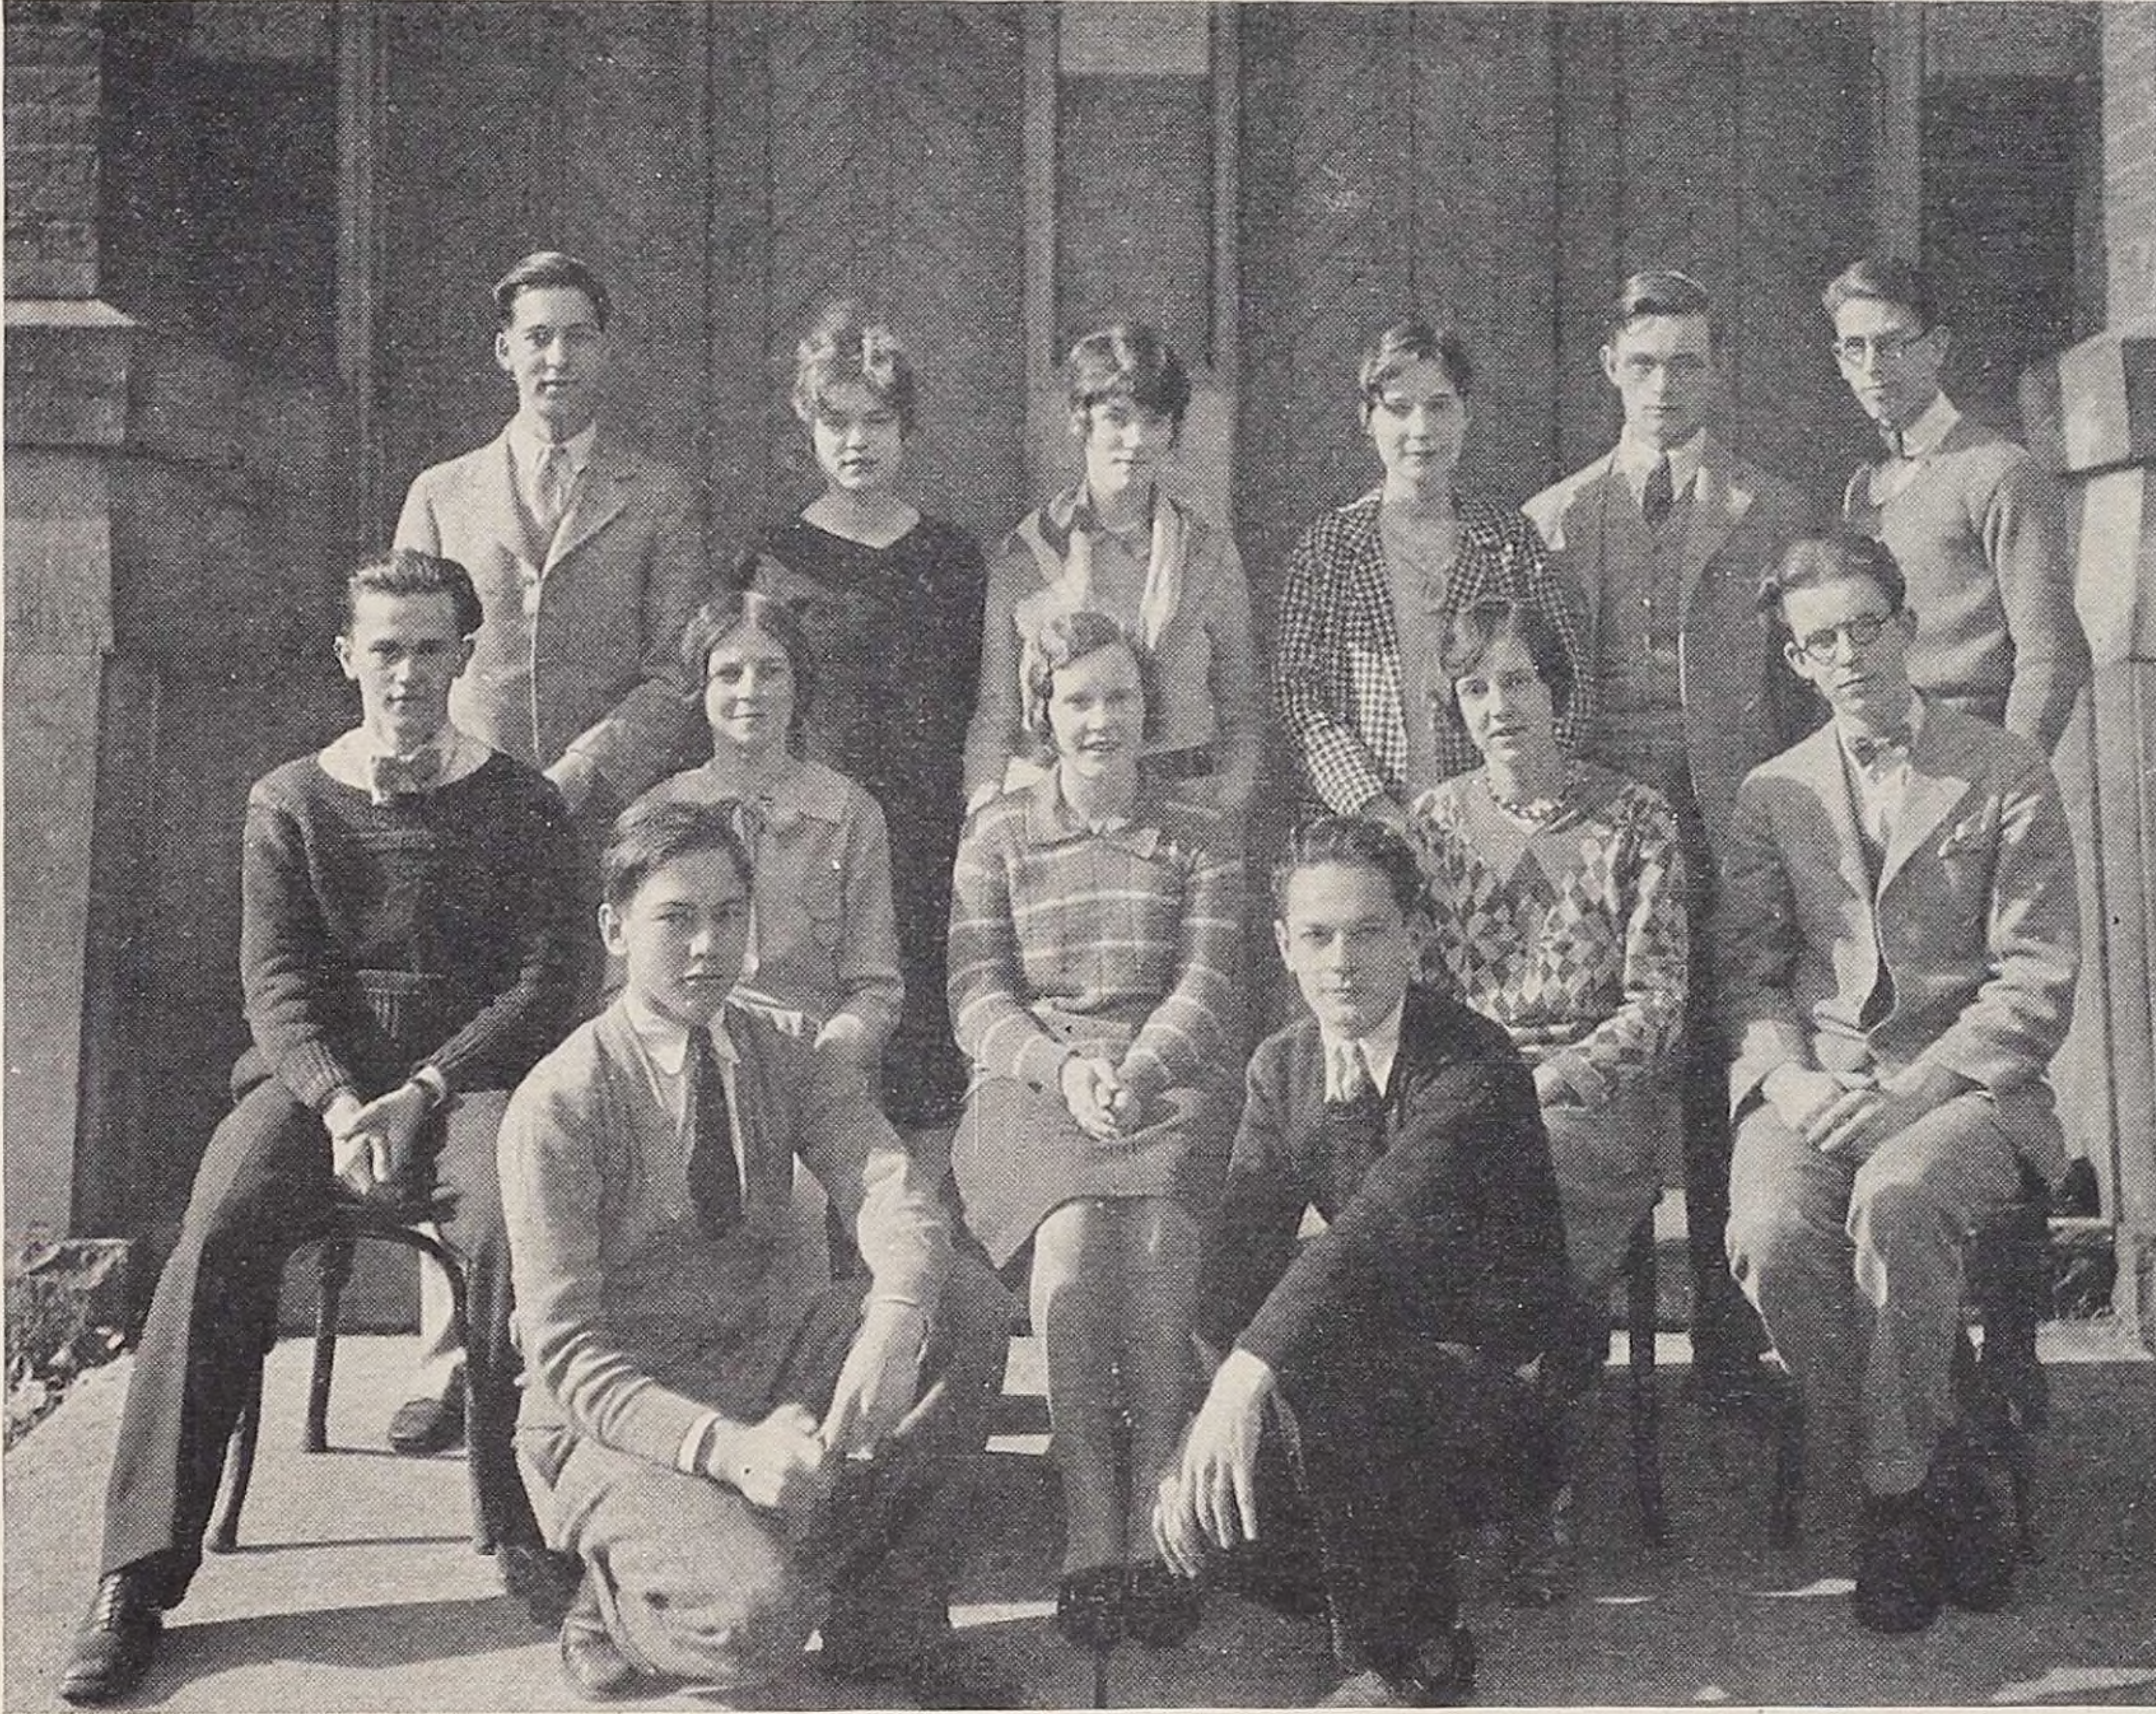

Founded in January, 1927, the Hi-Y Club has grown speedily until it embraced a membership of twenty during the past term. Under the leadership of Mr. Alfred E. Schaumleffel, the organization experienced the best year in its history.

The sessions of the club have been devoted to business meetings, Bible study and social meetings.

The year's activities have been varied. In September the club was represented at the annual meeting of the Western and Central New York Hi-Y Council. Later in the term the club sent a delegate to the first annual New York State Hi-Y Congress. Schedules for the 1928 football season were distributed to the students. The Gospel Team had complete charge of three church services. This profitable and enjoyable Hi-Y year was concluded with the annual banquet held at the "Y" in the latter part of May.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

This year a club for those students sufficiently advanced in the study of French was organized by Miss Dann, the French teacher. This club is believed to be the first of its kind in the history of the school. Its purpose is to bring the French students together at least once a month for a better understanding and appreciation of the French people and their language. All business at these meetings is carried on in French.

OFFICERS

President	George Luther
Vice-President	Genevieve Toohey
Treasurer	Harry Ramsey
Secretary	Dorotha Waters

The club meets every month. French games are played and stories are given in that language. At one meeting Mrs. Raub, who is a native of France, talked to us in French and gave us many interesting facts. The students have learned the French National Anthem "La Marseillaise." Here's to the next year's French Club! "May they further carry on the purpose of Le Cercle!"

GENERAL MUSICAL ORGANIZATION

Organized last fall, the General Organization has established its worth in uniting the musical societies under one head. Just as the Student Council is the legislative body for the four classes, so the General Musical Organization serves that purpose for the four musical clubs.

The organization has sponsored only one activity during the year, the annual musical clubs' party in the gym, but the success with which this function was carried on proves the value of this new society.

Following are the members of the executive committee of the organization:

President	Dorotha Waters
Vice-President	Merrill C. Phillips
Secretary and Treasurer	Beatrice Collins
Boys' Glee Club Representative	Howard Austin
Girls' Glee Club Representative	Jane Mayer

■ DRAMATICS

THE DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatic Club of the Olean High School was formed to provide a body of reserves from which to draw in emergency, to offer a way by which students interested in public speech could identify themselves with the work, and to offer means for instruction to eliminate crudities of voice and manner.

Seventy-five pupils signified their desire to become members of such an organization. There was no attempt at organization beyond appointing a spokesman who made announcements or acted as master of ceremonies when required. Meetings were held regularly on Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock, when exercises in melody, range, volume, and placement of voice were given.

When the two pageants, Thanksgiving and Christmas, were in process of preparation, the regular meeting was resolved into rehearsal periods. Twenty-one pupils participated in the Thanksgiving production, and twenty-eight pupils, besides a chorus of mixed voices took part in the Christmas Pageant. By the close of the year eleven pupils will have finished twenty-one readings for assembly. It is hoped that further development of the work will result in some original writing and producing in the realm of pageantry.

Acknowledgments

In conclusion we wish to thank all those who have been instrumental in making this book a success. We wish to pay especial tribute to Marcellus Hirliman and Georganna Matteson, who have so earnestly helped us in preparing the copy for the printers.

The best merchants of Olean are represented in the advertising section of this book, and it is through their courtesy that this book has been made a possibility. Every one of these merchants has been most courteous to the school and its activities and it is only just that the students repay this courtesy with their patronage.

Without these benefactors we could have done nothing. As it is, we have tried to make this book a true reflection of the ideals of the school, and we trust that these pages will, in future years, recall to mind pleasant memories of those glorious years spent in Olean High School.

BRYANT & STRATTON COLLEGE

It Pays To Attend A Good School

The University of Buffalo

SCHOOL OF DENTISTRY

Announcement

THE Council of the University of Buffalo announce the adoption of the four-quarter plan of instruction in the teaching of dentistry. The first session will begin July 1st, 1929. The course is continuous and consists of twelve quarters of eleven weeks each with vacation periods of two weeks between the quarters.

The curriculum consists of a basic and a specialized course of instruction. The basic course considers dentistry, as a branch of medicine and in conjunction with the faculty of the School of Medicine, courses are offered in the fundamental subjects with credit toward the medical degree. The future contact of the medical and dental practitioners is secured through this common basic training. It is imperative in the conservation of human life that these two great professions of health service should have a common ground for the interchange of ideas. The object of the basic instruction is to gain a higher and broader interpretation of the relation which dentistry bears toward the cause and treatment of systemic disease.

The course of dental specialization is to teach the student to become a creative, independent practitioner. It consists of fundamental instruction in technical procedures which constantly alternate with infirmary schedules. Students are allowed to progress as fast as they may demonstrate their ability. They are given every opportunity for clinical experience in independent practice by the various assignments at the hospital wards and clinics.

The economic feature of this course is appealing to the average student who wishes to enter dental practice at the earliest opportunity, as it reduces the dental course of six years to one of five years (two years of pre-professional and three years of medico-dental study.) Unparalleled opportunities are offered at the hospitals to determine through study and research the interdependence of medicine and dentistry in cooperative diagnosis.

Professional study requires a type of education commensurate with the responsibilities of professional practice. In view of the recent advance in both the theoretical and clinical work, valuable time may be saved by utilizing the long summer vacation period. More constant contact with the professional curriculum results inevitably in a greater breadth of knowledge and a higher accomplishment in technical skill.

Dentistry offers unusual opportunities to those who wish to specialize in surgery, orthodontia, technical and scientific fields, and in general health education.

The classes are limited in numbers.

The next college term opens July 1st, 1929. Catalog on request.

"Know Thyself"

Know your country; know your city

LEAN is your city and its splendid educational facilities are helping to make it a greater city. The fact that our boys and girls can be educated at home from the kindergarden to the university is attracting substantial citizens. A comparative study discloses the fact that Olean is first among the cities of the state, outside the metropolitan district, in percentage of population increase; occupies a position of leadership in the matter of public improvements and has the lowest city tax rate of them all. Let us learn and proclaim all the good things about Olean and help to make better the things that are not so good. Thus we'll help build our own city, promote our own happiness and add to the value of our own property.

Printing

PRINTING is the light that dispelled the darkness and put to flight the hosts of ignorance and superstition. It has penetrated through the centuries, flooding the recesses of the human mind and awakening dormant powers to further the ideals of an insatiable civilization. Its beams radiate knowledge, truth and power; unconsciously it is shaping and directing the intellectual and the material life of all mankind—a stimulus to the creative mind, an uplifting influence to the dullard. Printing is the art of enlightenment of all arts, as truly as an art preservative. It reflects and disseminates in true colors, without distortion or stinted reservation, truth that is stranger than fiction, guiding with a strong hand the destinies of the thoughtful world. Nearly three hundred years ago there was urged with lively zeal the establishment of a college of learned men who should bring together in one book the sum total of human wisdom, expressed so as to meet the needs of present and later generations
