NINETEEN FIFTY-SEVEN

happened this way..

Foreword . . .

The CONGRESS Staff hope that they have succeeded in making this year's Book an outstanding record of the events and people who made 1957 such a memorable year in Olean High School.

When school began in September, some twelve hundred students settled down to the usual routine of classroom and books . . . Only 180 days to go!

Classes elected officers, football practice began, the CONGRESS staff met, and the year was under way — a year of records, scholastic and athletic, a year of wonderful, challenging events.

IT HAPPENED THIS WAY

Dedication

The Class of 1957 has been most fortunate in having three very fine advisors.

Through their encouragement and hard work, the Group has completed four eventful and successful years, highlighted by the Junior and Senior Proms and Plays. In planning these events, as well as at many other times, these teachers gave their time unstintingly both to earn the confidence of their Class and promote its spirit.

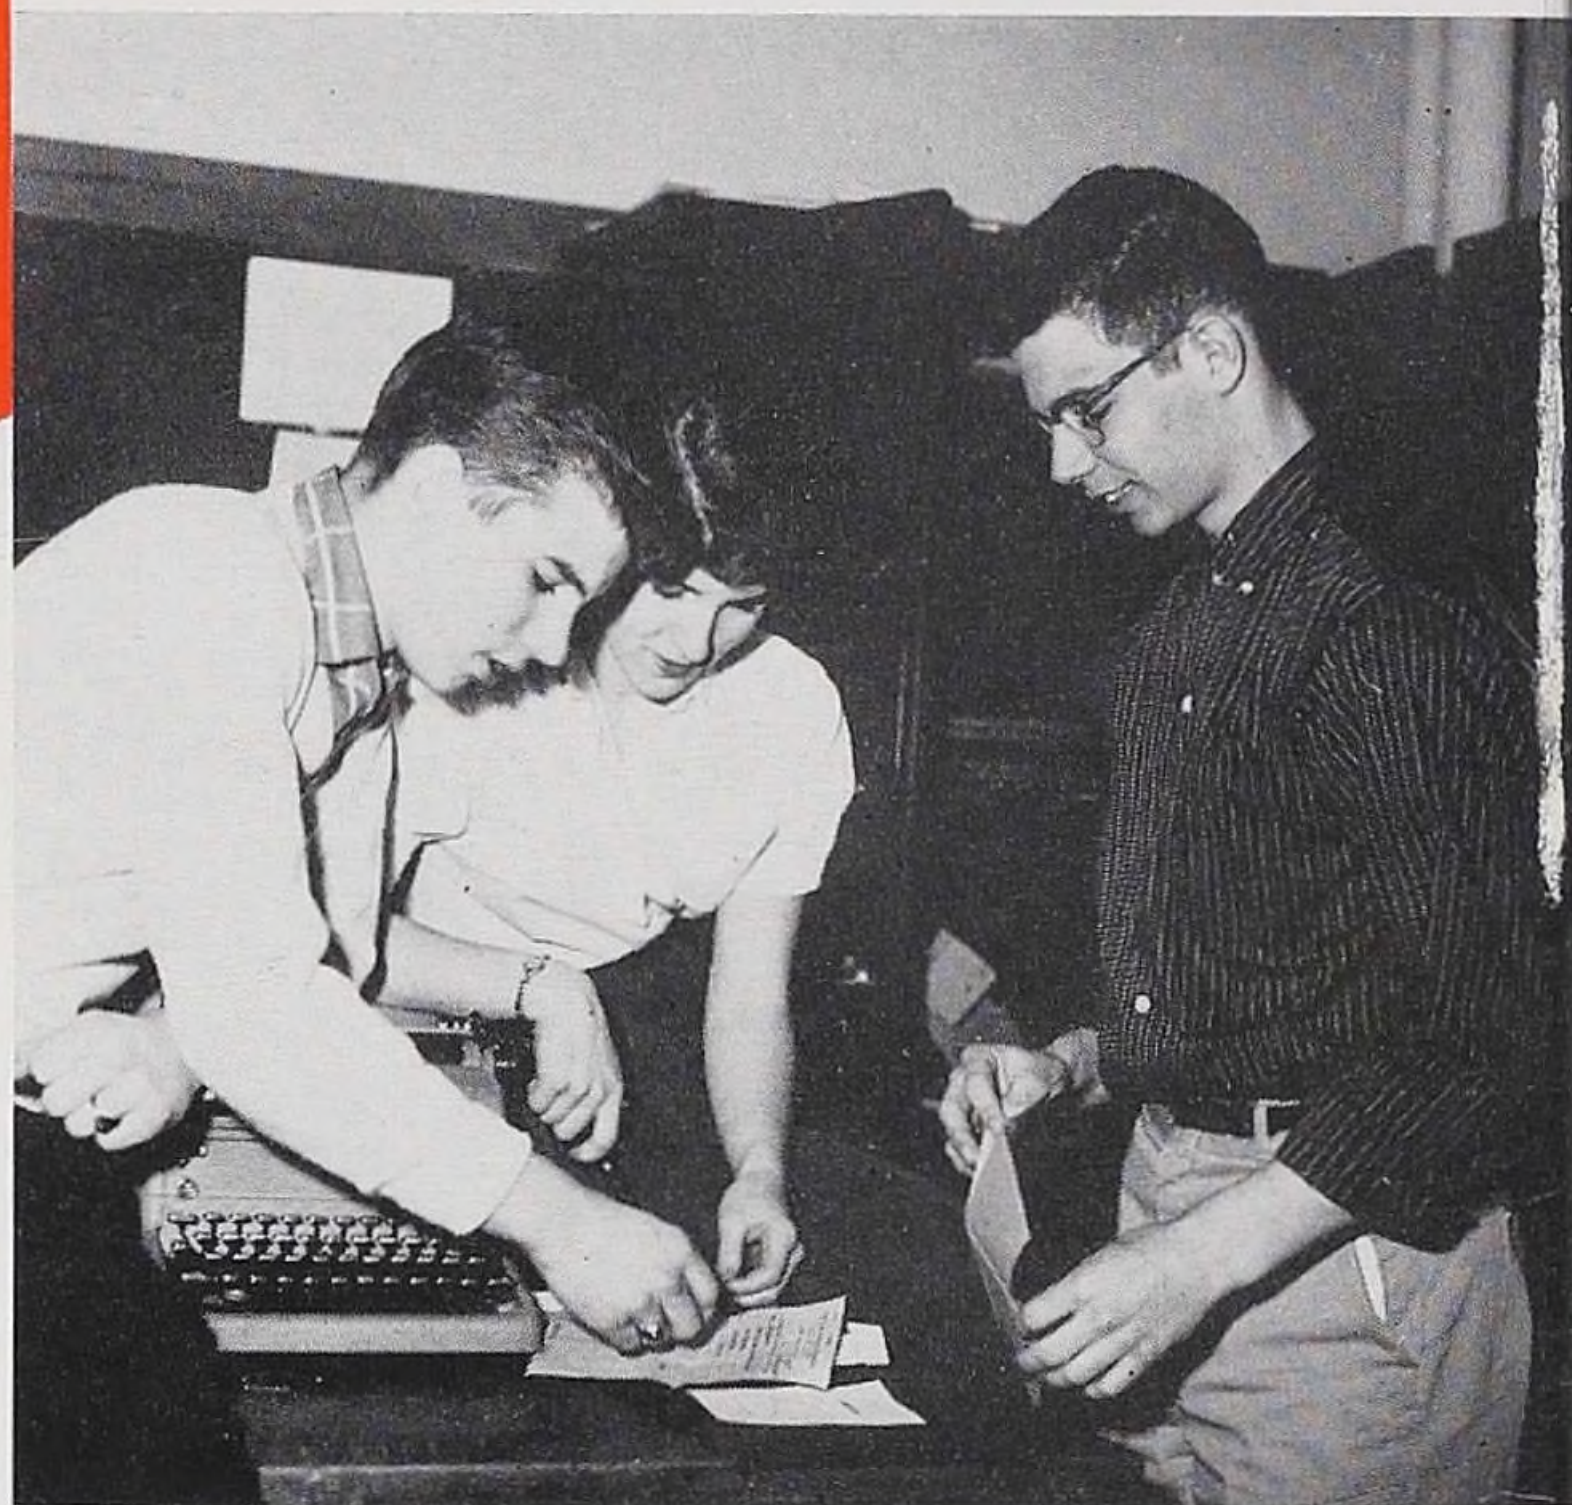

As a small measure of our sincere appreciation, we, the Editors of this 1957 CONGRESS, gratefully dedicate the book to our advisors, Miss Regina Corrigan, Miss Signe Johnson, and Mr. Thomas Dunn.

Board of Education

Dear Seniors:

Perhaps one of the most gratifying compensations that comes to the public servant is the knowledge that his efforts have been of service to his fellow citizens.

Today, on the occasion of your graduation, I would like to offer congratulations on a task well done, and extend my best wishes in the years ahead.

May I assure you that the Board of Education shares with your parents and you in the satisfaction of this occasion.

Sincerely,

BERNARD P. GILL, President

Superintendent

Dear Seniors:

Some unknown author once wrote: "Yesterday is a canceled check. Tomorrow is a promissory note. Your only ready cash is today."

As seniors, your canceled checks have purchased for you an estate of enduring value—your graduation from high school. The promise of tomorrow is brighter because of that investment.

Promises, however, are translated into accomplishments only to the extent that we take advantage of the opportunities of today.

May I congratulate you on this, your graduation, and wish you every success in the years to come.

Sincerely,

W. CECIL DAVIS

Principal

If the dynamic approach to problems which characterizes this Class prevails as the Class takes up its responsibilities in American society, the Olean High School will have made another significant contribution to our free society. To members of the staff and myself, the progress evidenced in your four years has been gratifying. You now emerge as young Americans to assume your share of adult responsibility when such responsibilities for young men and women are more important than ever before. May the lessons you have learned and the attitudes you have adopted be the best approach to the solution of your individual problems.

M. W. SMITH

Vice-Principal

This year, Miss Elizabeth Herzog moved from the guidance office to the middle office to assume her new duties as vice - principal.

Boys' Guidance

Students always found Mr. John Wallace ready to help them with any problem. He helped formulate the four-year program of members of the Class of 1960, and patiently discussed the future with all senior boys.

Girls' Guidance

This year, a new face was seen in the Girls' Guidance Office, that of Miss Katherine Karl. Miss Karl ably took over the duties of guidance director, lending a helping hand to all girls in planning their futures as well as their schedules.

Secretaries

The office staff of the 1956-57 school season was increased by the addition of Delores Kosidlo, who worked along side of Ilse Hock in the outer office. Miss Hock also increased her tasks, as she worked in the Guidance Office. Mary Witchert continued her duties in the inner office, primarily assisting Miss Herzog.

Sophomores

The Sophomore Class, sponsored by Mr. Adams and Miss Fay, contributed a great deal to Olean High School during the '56-57 season.

The group held a skating party early in November, which was followed by a sport dance in mid-December. Another skating party was held in March.

January marked a bake sale at the A and P, while February and March included two fudge sales sponsored by the class.

The climax of the year was the addition of seventy-five dollars to the treasury, the first place prize for musical ticket sales.

Class Advisors

Miss Fay and Mr. Adams leaf through a few magazines searching for ideas for the Class of 1959.

Sophomores Dave McKenzie, Karen Nelson, Barb DeLucio, and Kay Crease laugh together, knowing that they had won the contest between classes concerning musical ticket sales.

Kay Savage points out to Jane Barclay the hook on which she had hung her missing jacket. Onlookers Neil MacDonald and Joe Schoessler smile knowingly.

Officers

Freshmen

The first year at Olean High School for the Class of 1960 was highlighted by a series of activities.

Under the guidance of the able class advisors, Mr. Whitehill, Mr. DiMarino, and Miss Grace, the Freshmen came up with an original idea for making money, and held a pizza sale in January.

Fudge sales sponsored by the group were scattered throughout the season, while the Easter vacation was climaxed with a skating party.

In a close race, the Freshmen placed third in the sale of tickets for the annual student festival.

A Friday night sport dance drew to a close a year of many events.

Class Advisors

MR. WHITEHILL, MISS GRACE, MR. DI MARINO, the three advisors of the second largest class in the school, discuss the "strategy" of the class.

FIRST ROW: TOM DAVISON, JOYCE JULIAN, SUE NUTT, MARY KAY NEUSCHEL;
SECOND ROW: BEV GALLOWAY, FRITZ GRAM, KAY FISH, DAVE MASON, KAY MARKERT, AND KATHIE WOODS.

The Senior Tell-O-Scope is published by Mr. McLaughlin's Journalism class. It comes out weekly, appearing every Thursday evening in the Olean Times Herald. The editorship rotates around the class.

Junior Tell-O-Scope

The Junior Tell-O-Scope is written by underclassmen, giving them the preparation necessary for publishing the Senior Tell-O-Scope in their last year in school. It has senior editors, however, this year consisting of Bev Galloway, editor-in-chief; George Baker, news; and Fred Gram, sports. Through the able photography of Corky Burt, a picture page was added as a special feature in each issue.

Homeroom Senate

Officers

PRESIDENT	KATHLEEN WOODS
VICE - PRESIDENT	ROBERT MOSZAK
TREASURER	JOSEPH KAYES
SECRETARY	PEGGY WHIPPLE

This year the Student Senate was extremely active. With the Student Council, it jointly sponsored the Homecoming Weekend, and helped with the Science Congress and the refreshment stand at the football games. One of its important fund-raising projects was selling programs at the football games. The group meets weekly with a representative from each homeroom present.

PEGGY WHIPPLE, JOSEPH KAYES, KATHIE WOODS, and BOB MOSZAK discuss plans for the Homecoming weekend.

The National Honor Society has twenty-eight members, ten Juniors and eighteen Seniors. Eligibility for election to the society requires a Junior to have an average of at least ninety per cent, and a Senior, an average of at least eighty-five per cent.

The four key words of the organization are: Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service.

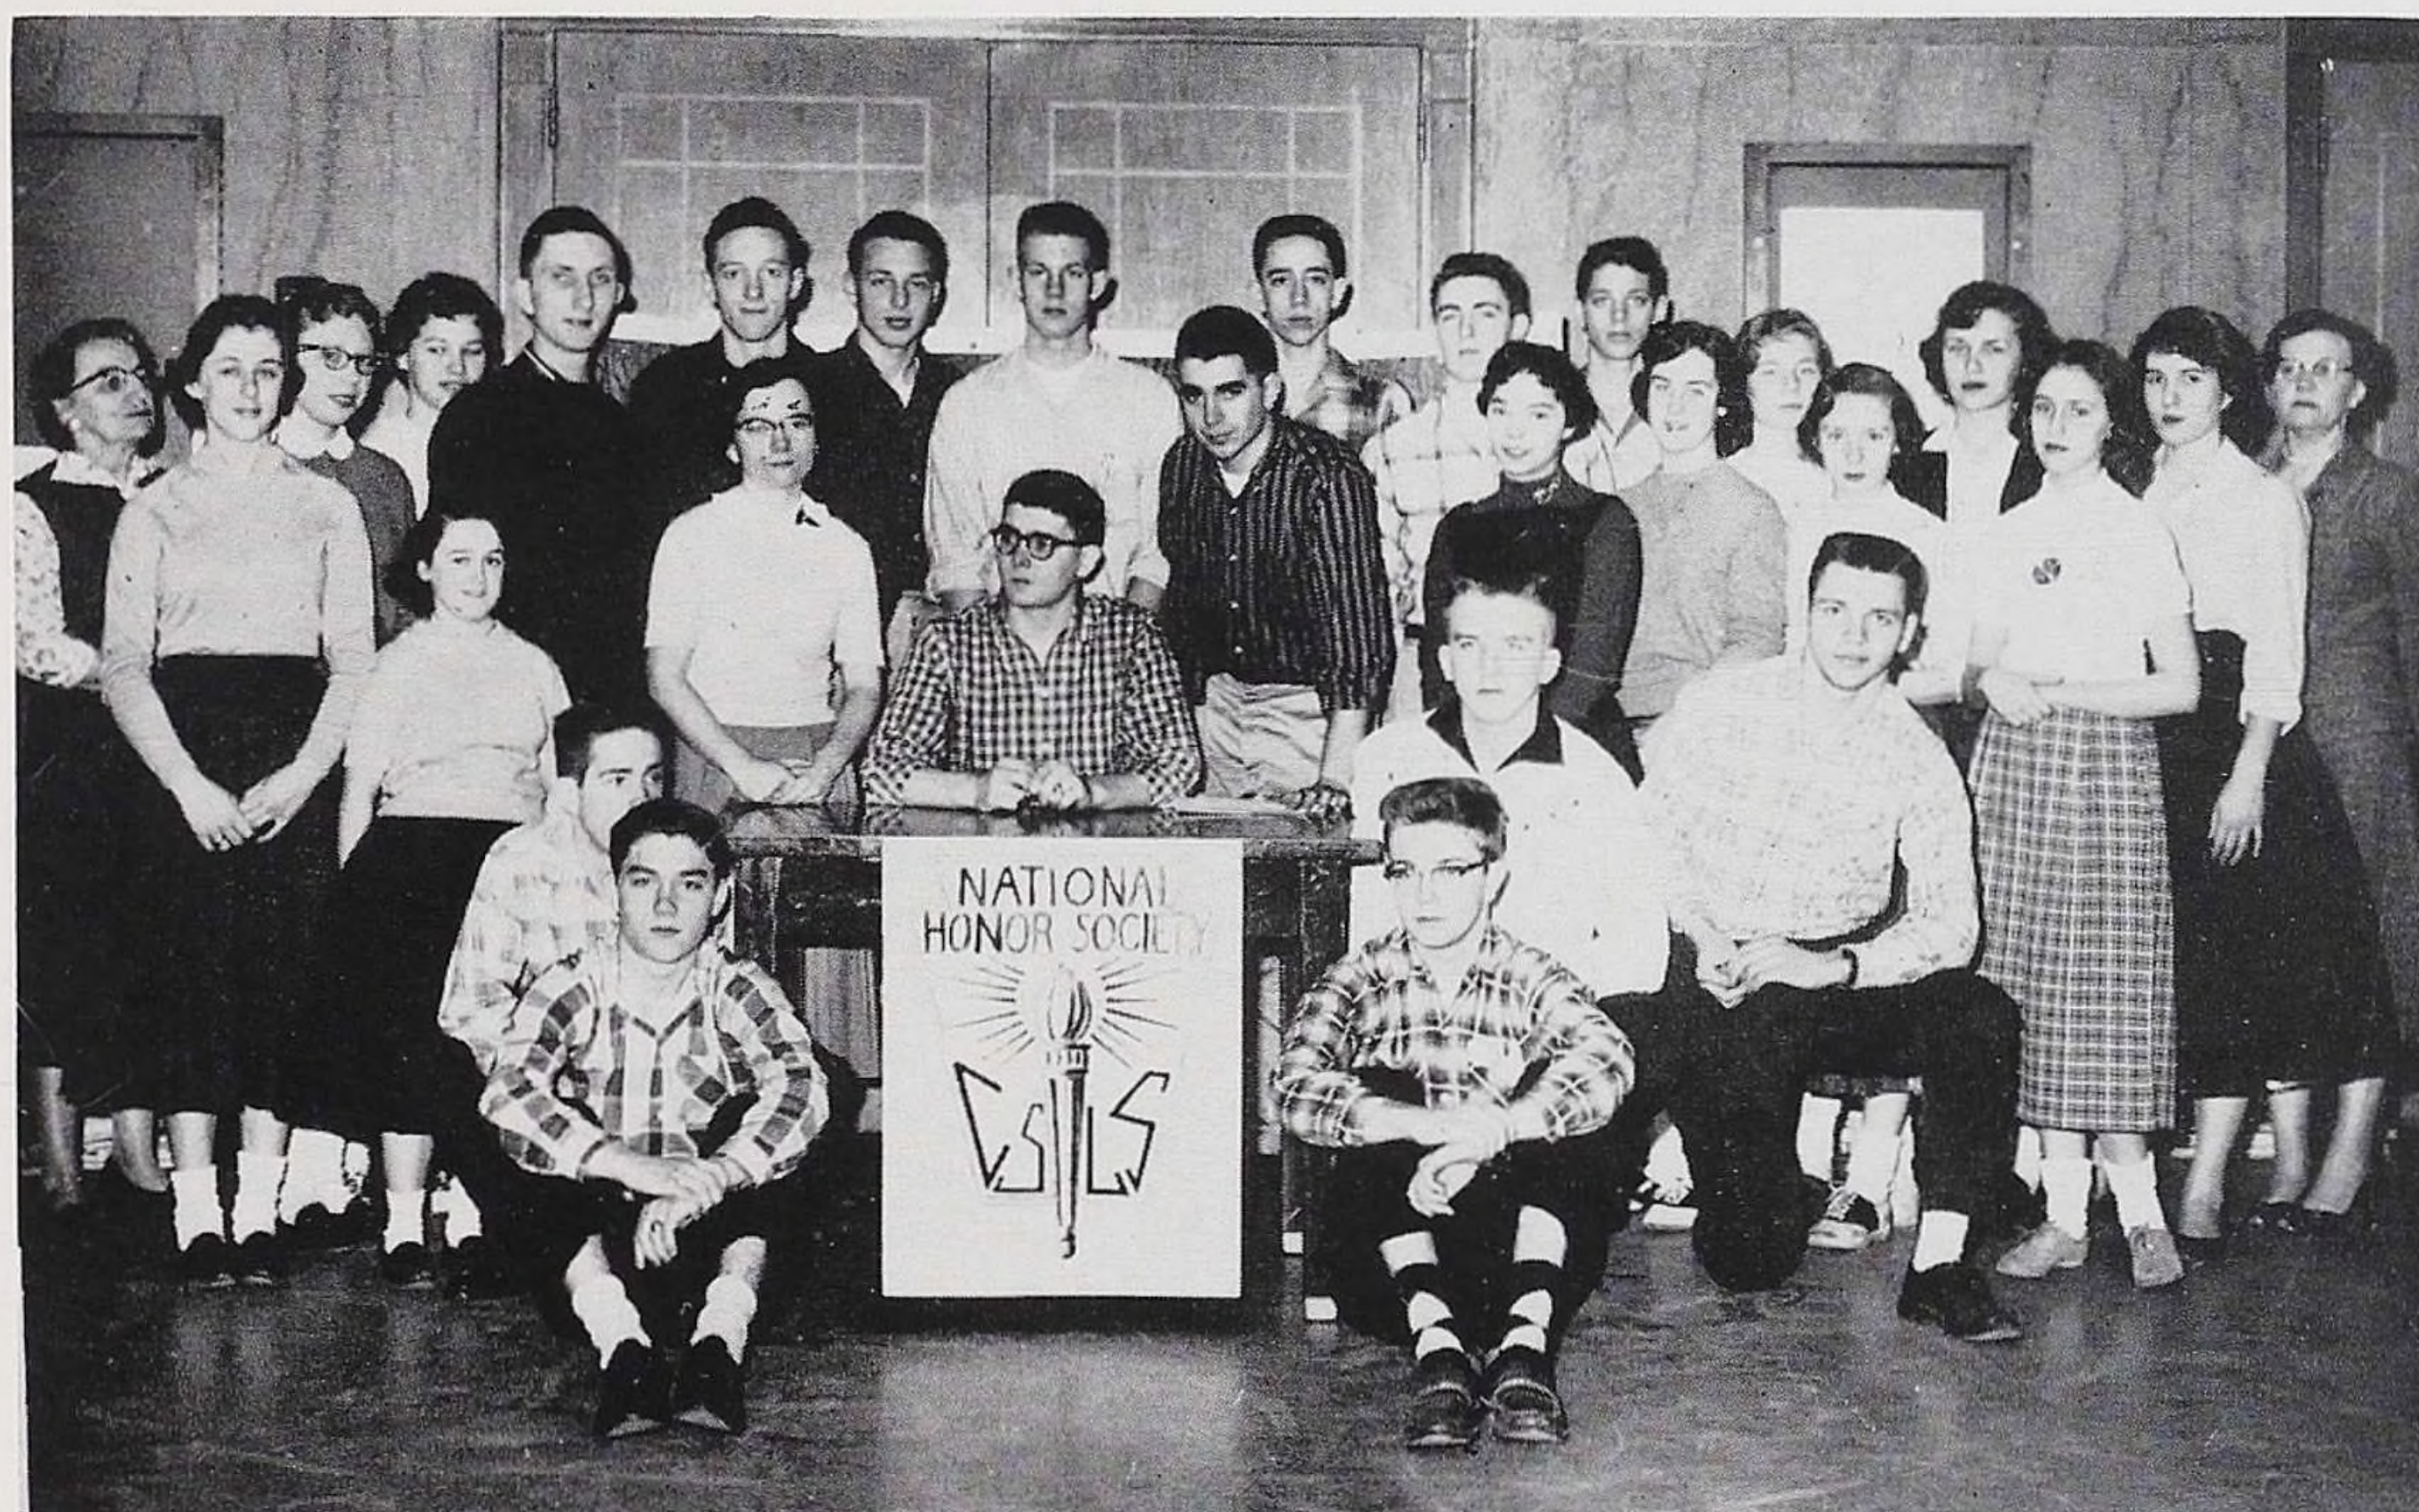

This year the group has carried on various fund raising projects, such as operating check-rooms and selling school stationery. They have raised over one hundred and fifty dollars.

The members also held their annual banquet to which all alumni are invited.

The following students belong to this organization:

George Baker
Richard Bentley
Cortland Burt
Archie Bush
Janice Castilone
Ronald Crandall

Library

Many students worked as library aides during the year. Some have done this as part of their business education, and others volunteered just for enjoyment. These assistants help the pupils find reference books, use the card catalogue, and, in general, use the library to their best advantage. Needless to say, they are invaluable, both to their advisor, Miss Gould, and to the students here in O. H. S.

The Classical Club had a full year of activities. In January one of the members brought colorful slides of his visit in Greece and Italy. Every other week, the students meet to participate in such pastimes as playing "What's My Line", all in Latin, of course. Any member will readily agree that his knowledge of Rome and the ancient Romans has been greatly increased through the enjoyable activities of the Classical Club.

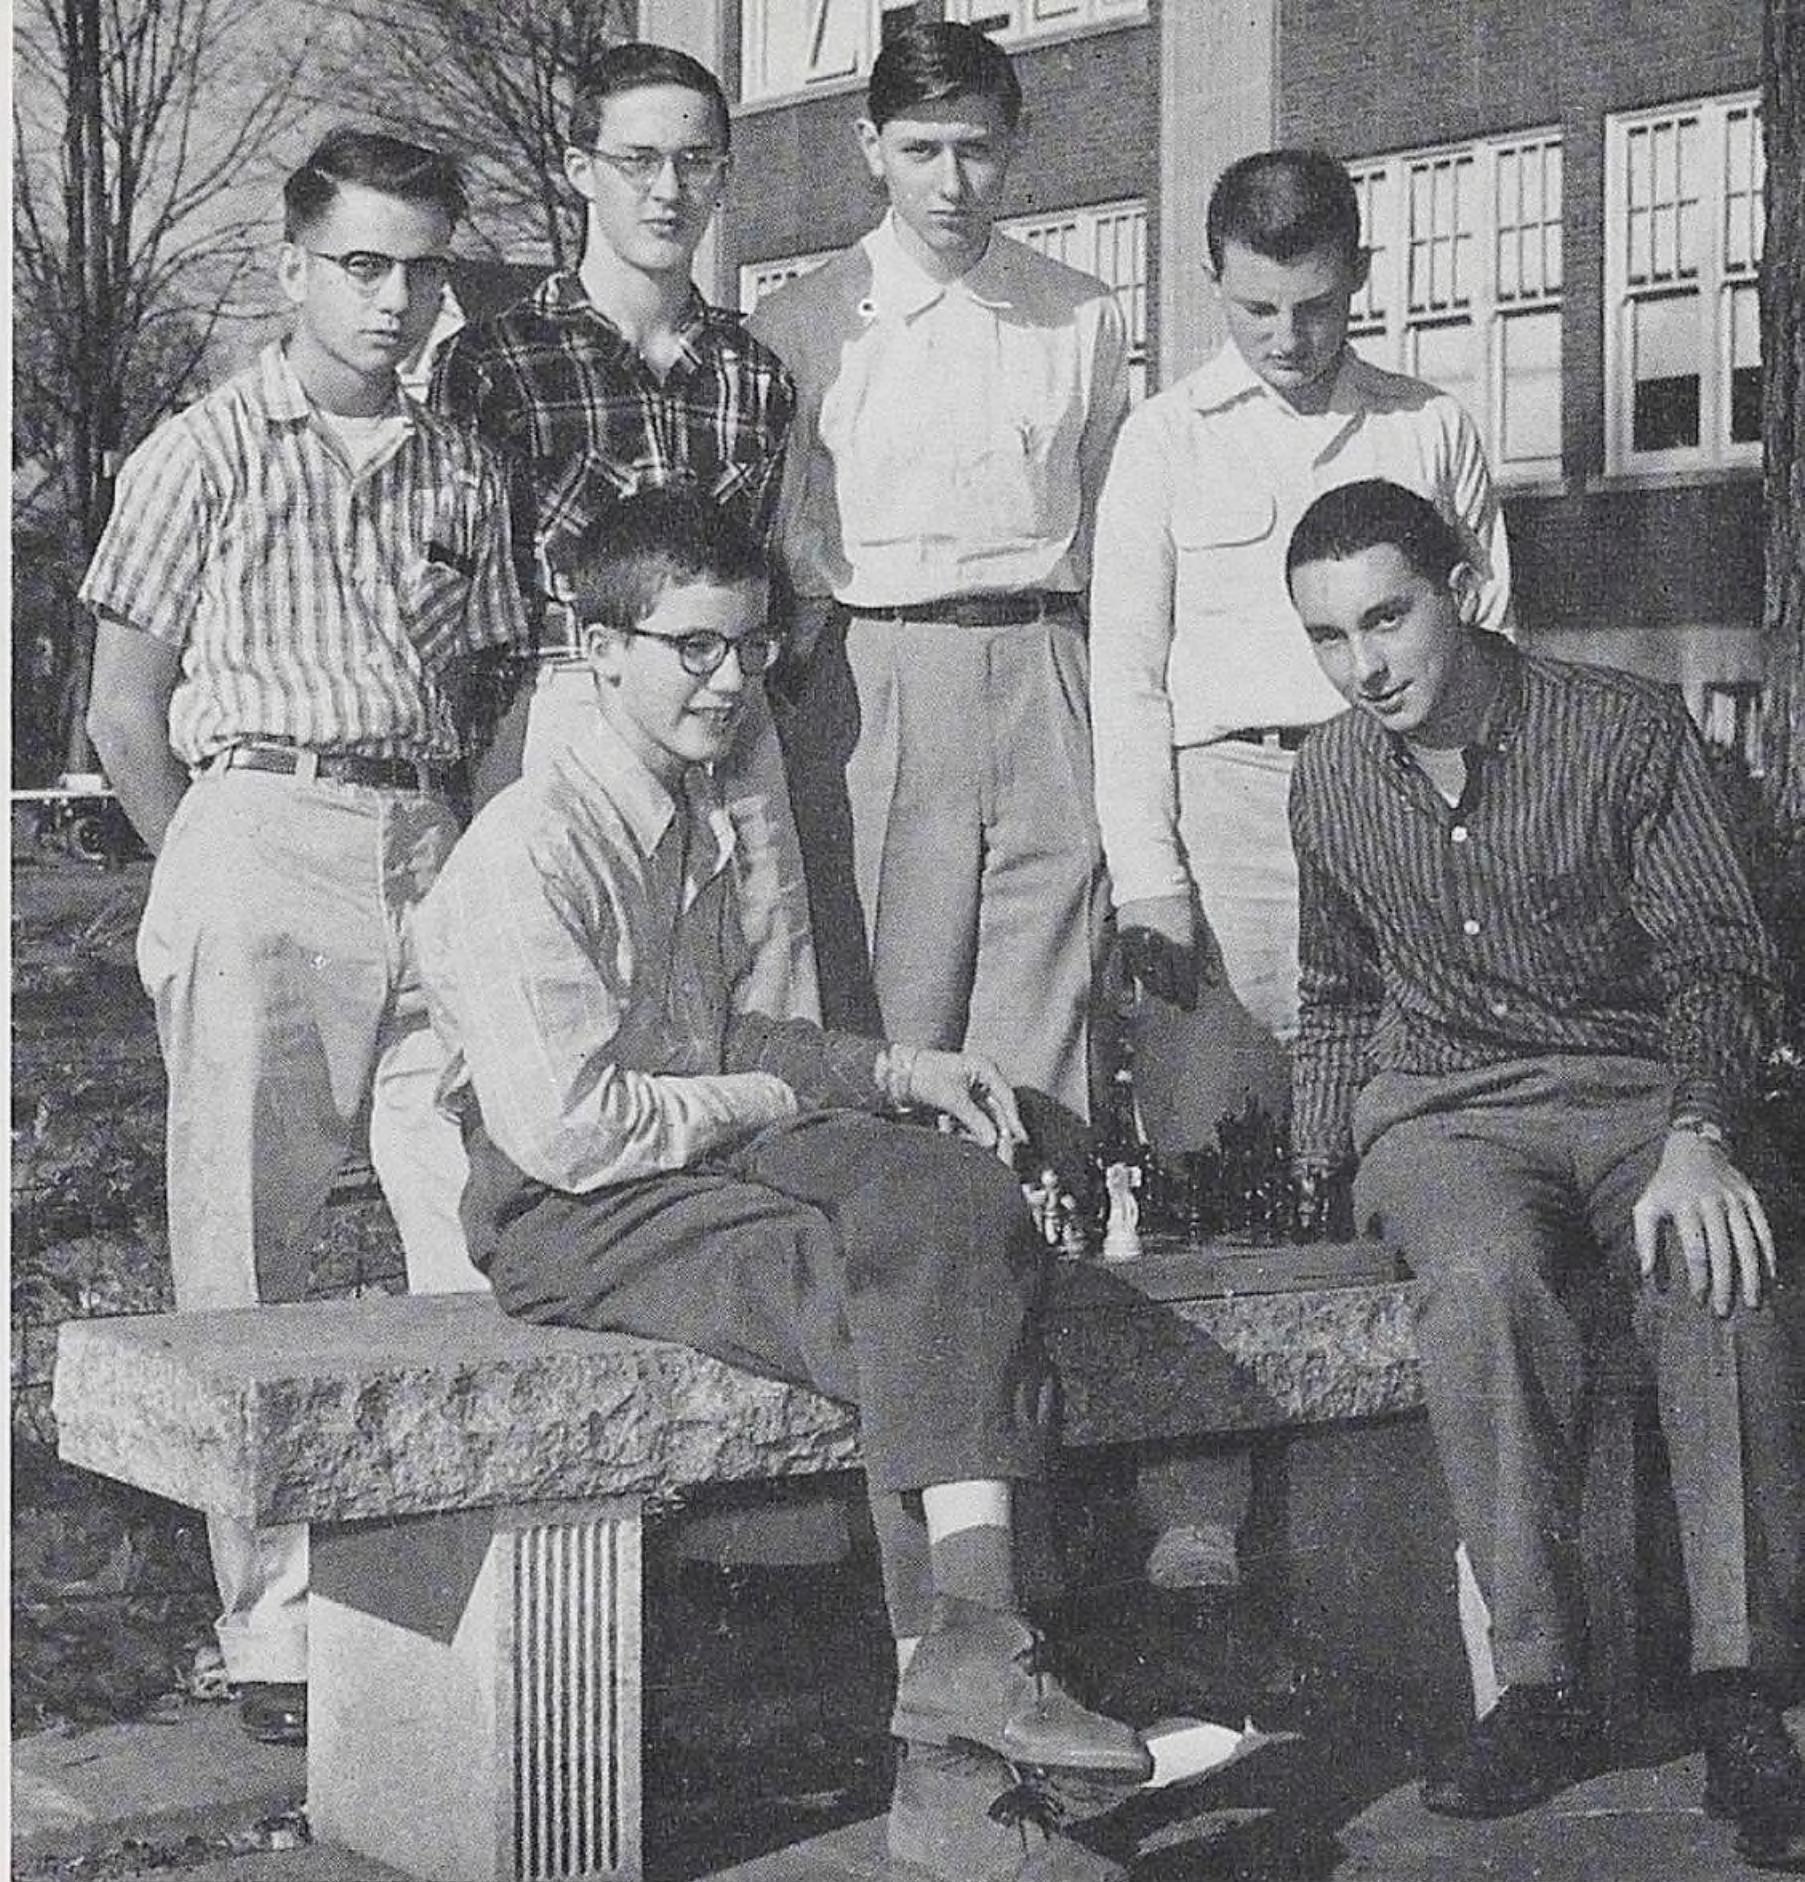

JIM SHAFFER, EMILY FOLLETT, and PAT YAHN study a map of Italy in the time of Caesar and Cicero.

Chess Club

Although the King's Men Chess Club is one of the smaller organizations in Olean High School, it is undoubtedly one of the most enthusiastic. The club highlighted its year with a Championship Tournament and the annual banquet, which was attended by alumni of the club from the time of its formation in 1954.

Le Cercle Francais has provided French students with an informal and pleasant way to learn the customs and languages of the French people.

At their meetings, they have seen films and slides, and have had several interesting guest speakers. The students, too, are given an opportunity to participate actively by presenting short skits at the meetings.

This year for the first time, a genuine French dinner was held at the Olean House. French chefs prepared exquisite French delicacies which all the students enjoyed tremendously. The dinner will probably become a yearly event.

SECRETARY	KAY VAN ZILE
TREASURER	SUSAN GABLER
ADVISOR	MISS WILSON

The officers of the Junior Red Cross discuss the annual membership drive sponsored by the organization.

This year, as usual, the Junior Red Cross made tremendous strides. It made favors for the Bath veterans at both Christmas and Easter, prepared the annual Schol Chest, sold wrapping paper to raise funds, and composed a correspondence album to be sent to Switzerland. In addition to these usual projects, the members also made stuffed animals for the children's wards of local hospitals. In these and many other ways, the Junioir Red Cross proved itself a most worthwhile and charitable organization.

Ushers Club

An organization devoted to service, not only to Olean High School, but also to our community, is an appropriate definition for the Ushers Club. Membership in this organization is voluntary, and, under the advisorship of Miss Herzog, the group serves at functions of the Civic Music, Barbershoppers, School music organizations, and Junior and Senior plays.

The girls are instructed in the seating arrangement of the auditorium, program distribution and collections. It is not a regularly organized group, however, and so has no elected officers.

A few of the orchestra students in the string section intently follow the music.

Under the baton of Mr. Keene, the orchestra performed on the night of the Junior Play, played for the National Honor Society Assembly, competed in the solo contests, and gave performances in the annual Christmas and Spring concerts.

Sharon Riggs, Paul Dahar, Jim Bischalaney and Doug Pedersen take time out to check the music in Room 106. These four are Senior members of the Band this year.

The O. H. S. Band, under the direction of Mr. Robert Grant, completed a very active program this year. Their engagements included playing for the football games and pep rallies, assembly programs, two Olean-Portville joint concerts, solo contests in Hinsdale, the NYSSMA Contest, two assemblies with Hinsdale, and the Commencement exercises. They gave an annual spring concert and marched in the Memorial Day parade. A number of band members also attended the state festivals in Jamestown and Syracuse.

Majorettes

The majorette squad this year was composed of five members. The girls were seen performing during the halves of the football games and also leading the pep parades of football supporters. Their sparkling gold uniforms along with their enthusiasm aroused the crowd to cheer. Although the girls practice a good deal of the year, their main activities are concluded late in the fall.

On the night of November 20, 1956, the "Sycamore family" took over the auditorium, when the Class of '58 presented its play, "You Can't Take It With You", a very funny three-act comedy. Miss Wright was the general director, and the hard work put in at rehearsals was evident from the fine performances turned in by all the cast members. The play well warranted all the success it gained.

Marcia Anastasia and Norene Smith, who had the two feminine leads in "You Can't Take It With You", are snapped during one of their scenes in the play.

Senior Play

(Sitting) PENNY SHANER, Mama; ARTHUR YAHN, Papa.

Everyone seemed to agree that this year's Senior Play, "Papa Is All" was "vonderful good". Under the excellent direction of Miss Wright, along with the help of promptress Carol Schemerhorn, both casts did a commendable job in giving the performance a spark not often equaled by amateurs.

The main characters included Papa Aukamp, the tyrannical father of a backward Pennsylvania family; Mama Aukamp, the soothing wife and understanding mother; Emma, the daughter who was deprived of any social life; Jake, the son whose ambitions were prevented from taking form; Mrs. Yoder, the talkative neighbor, and Brendel, the State Trooper.

Another success was credited to the Class of Fifty-Seven.

(Sitting) KATHY KEENER, Mama; MARY HEISTER, Emma.

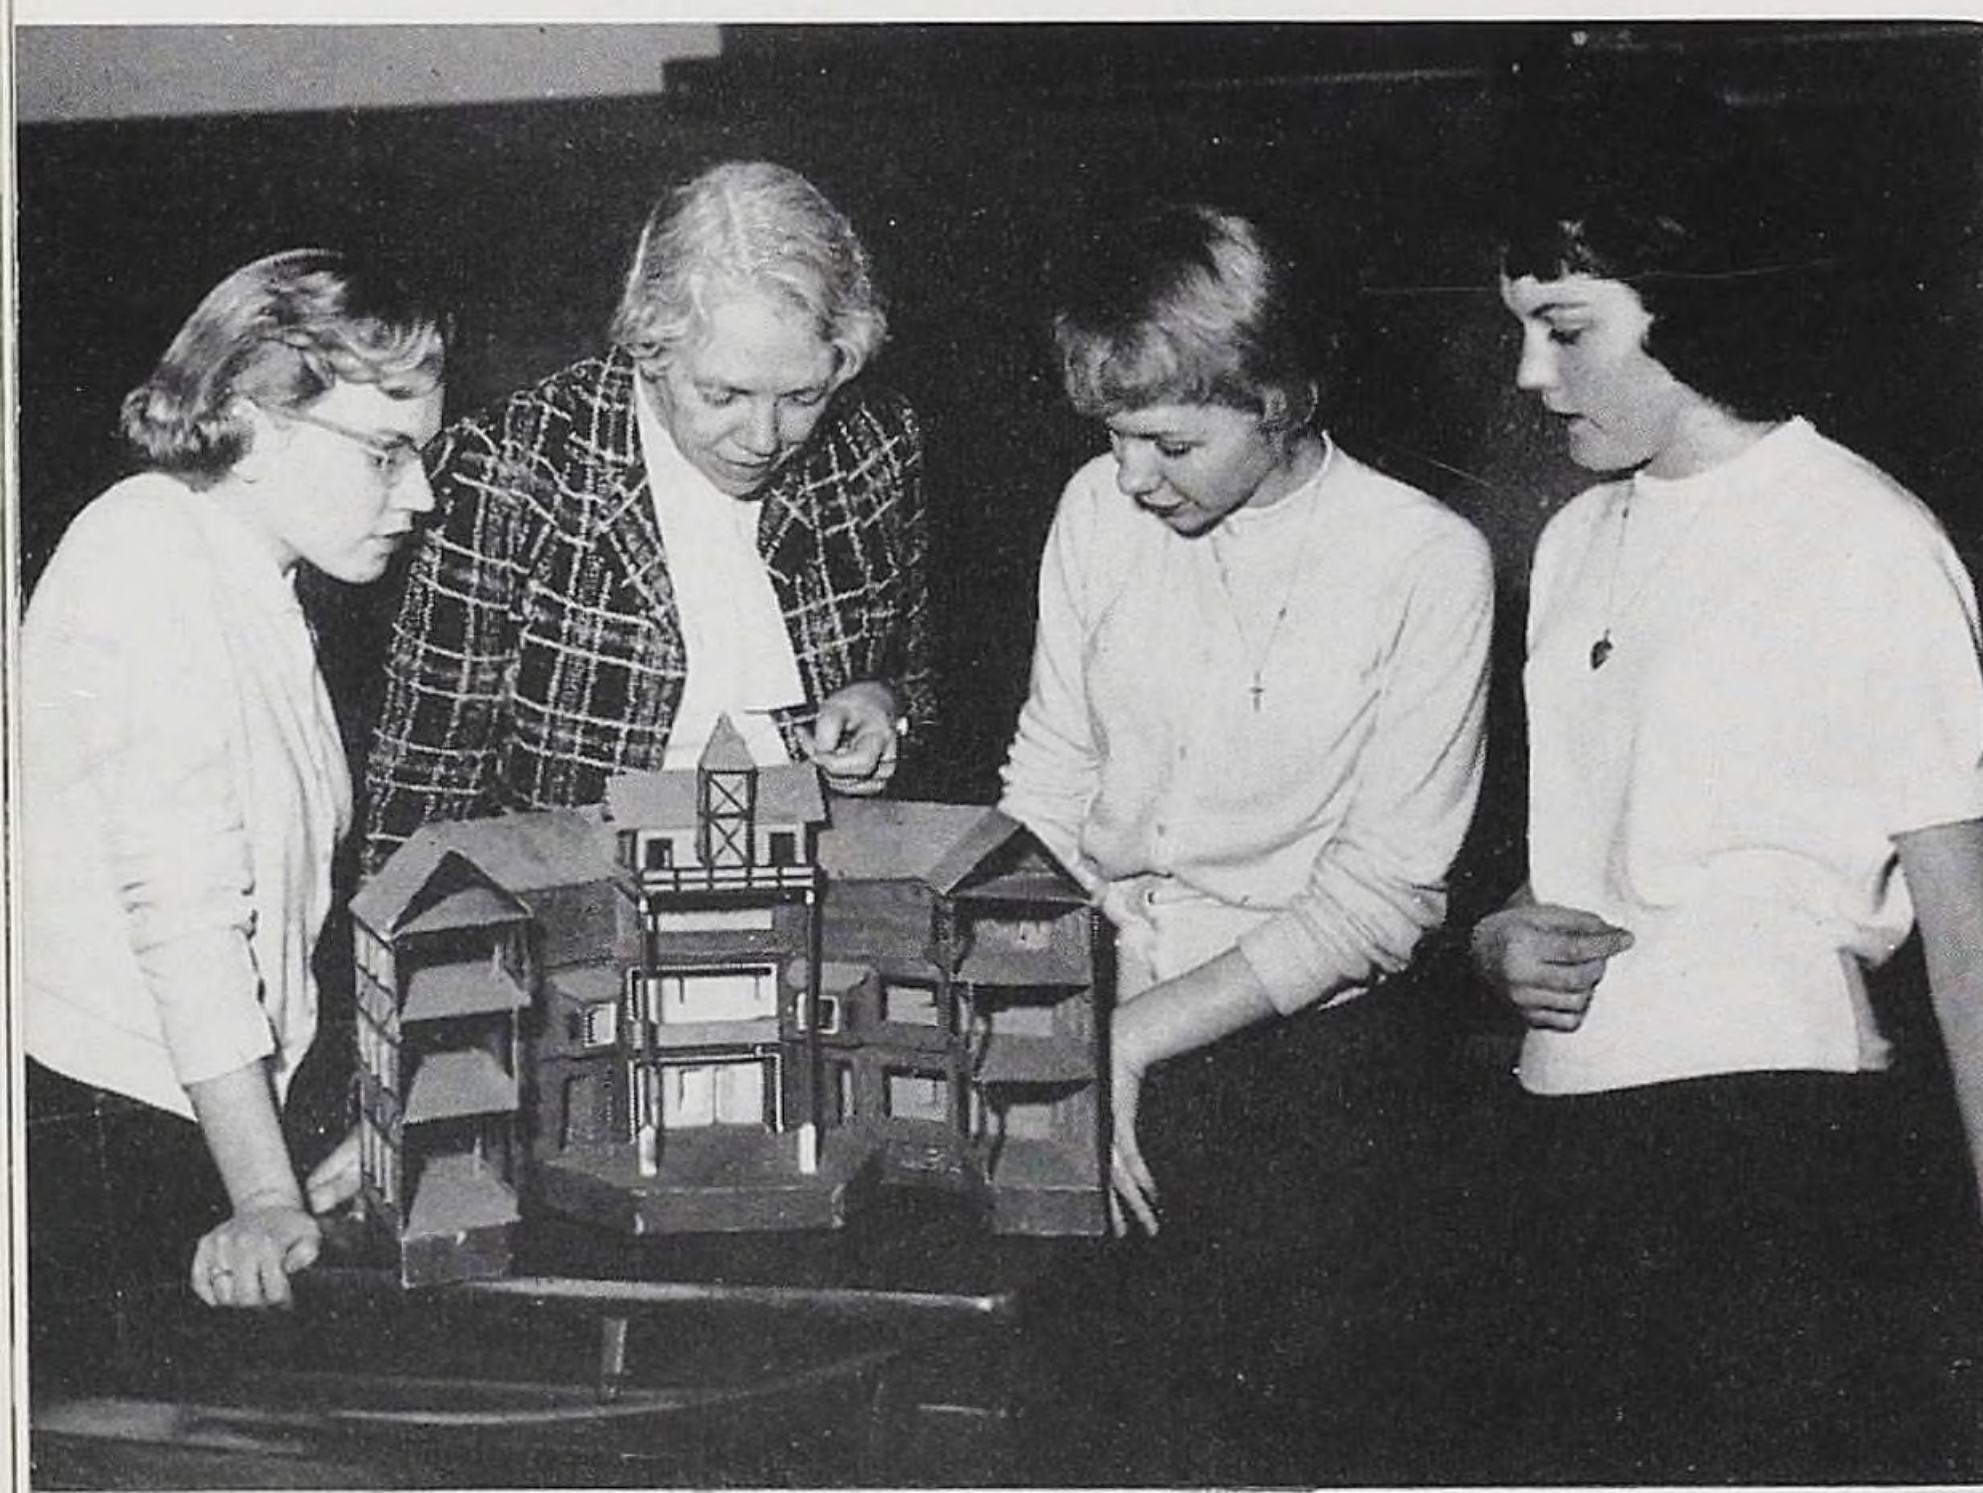

"Papa Is All"

Dramatic Club

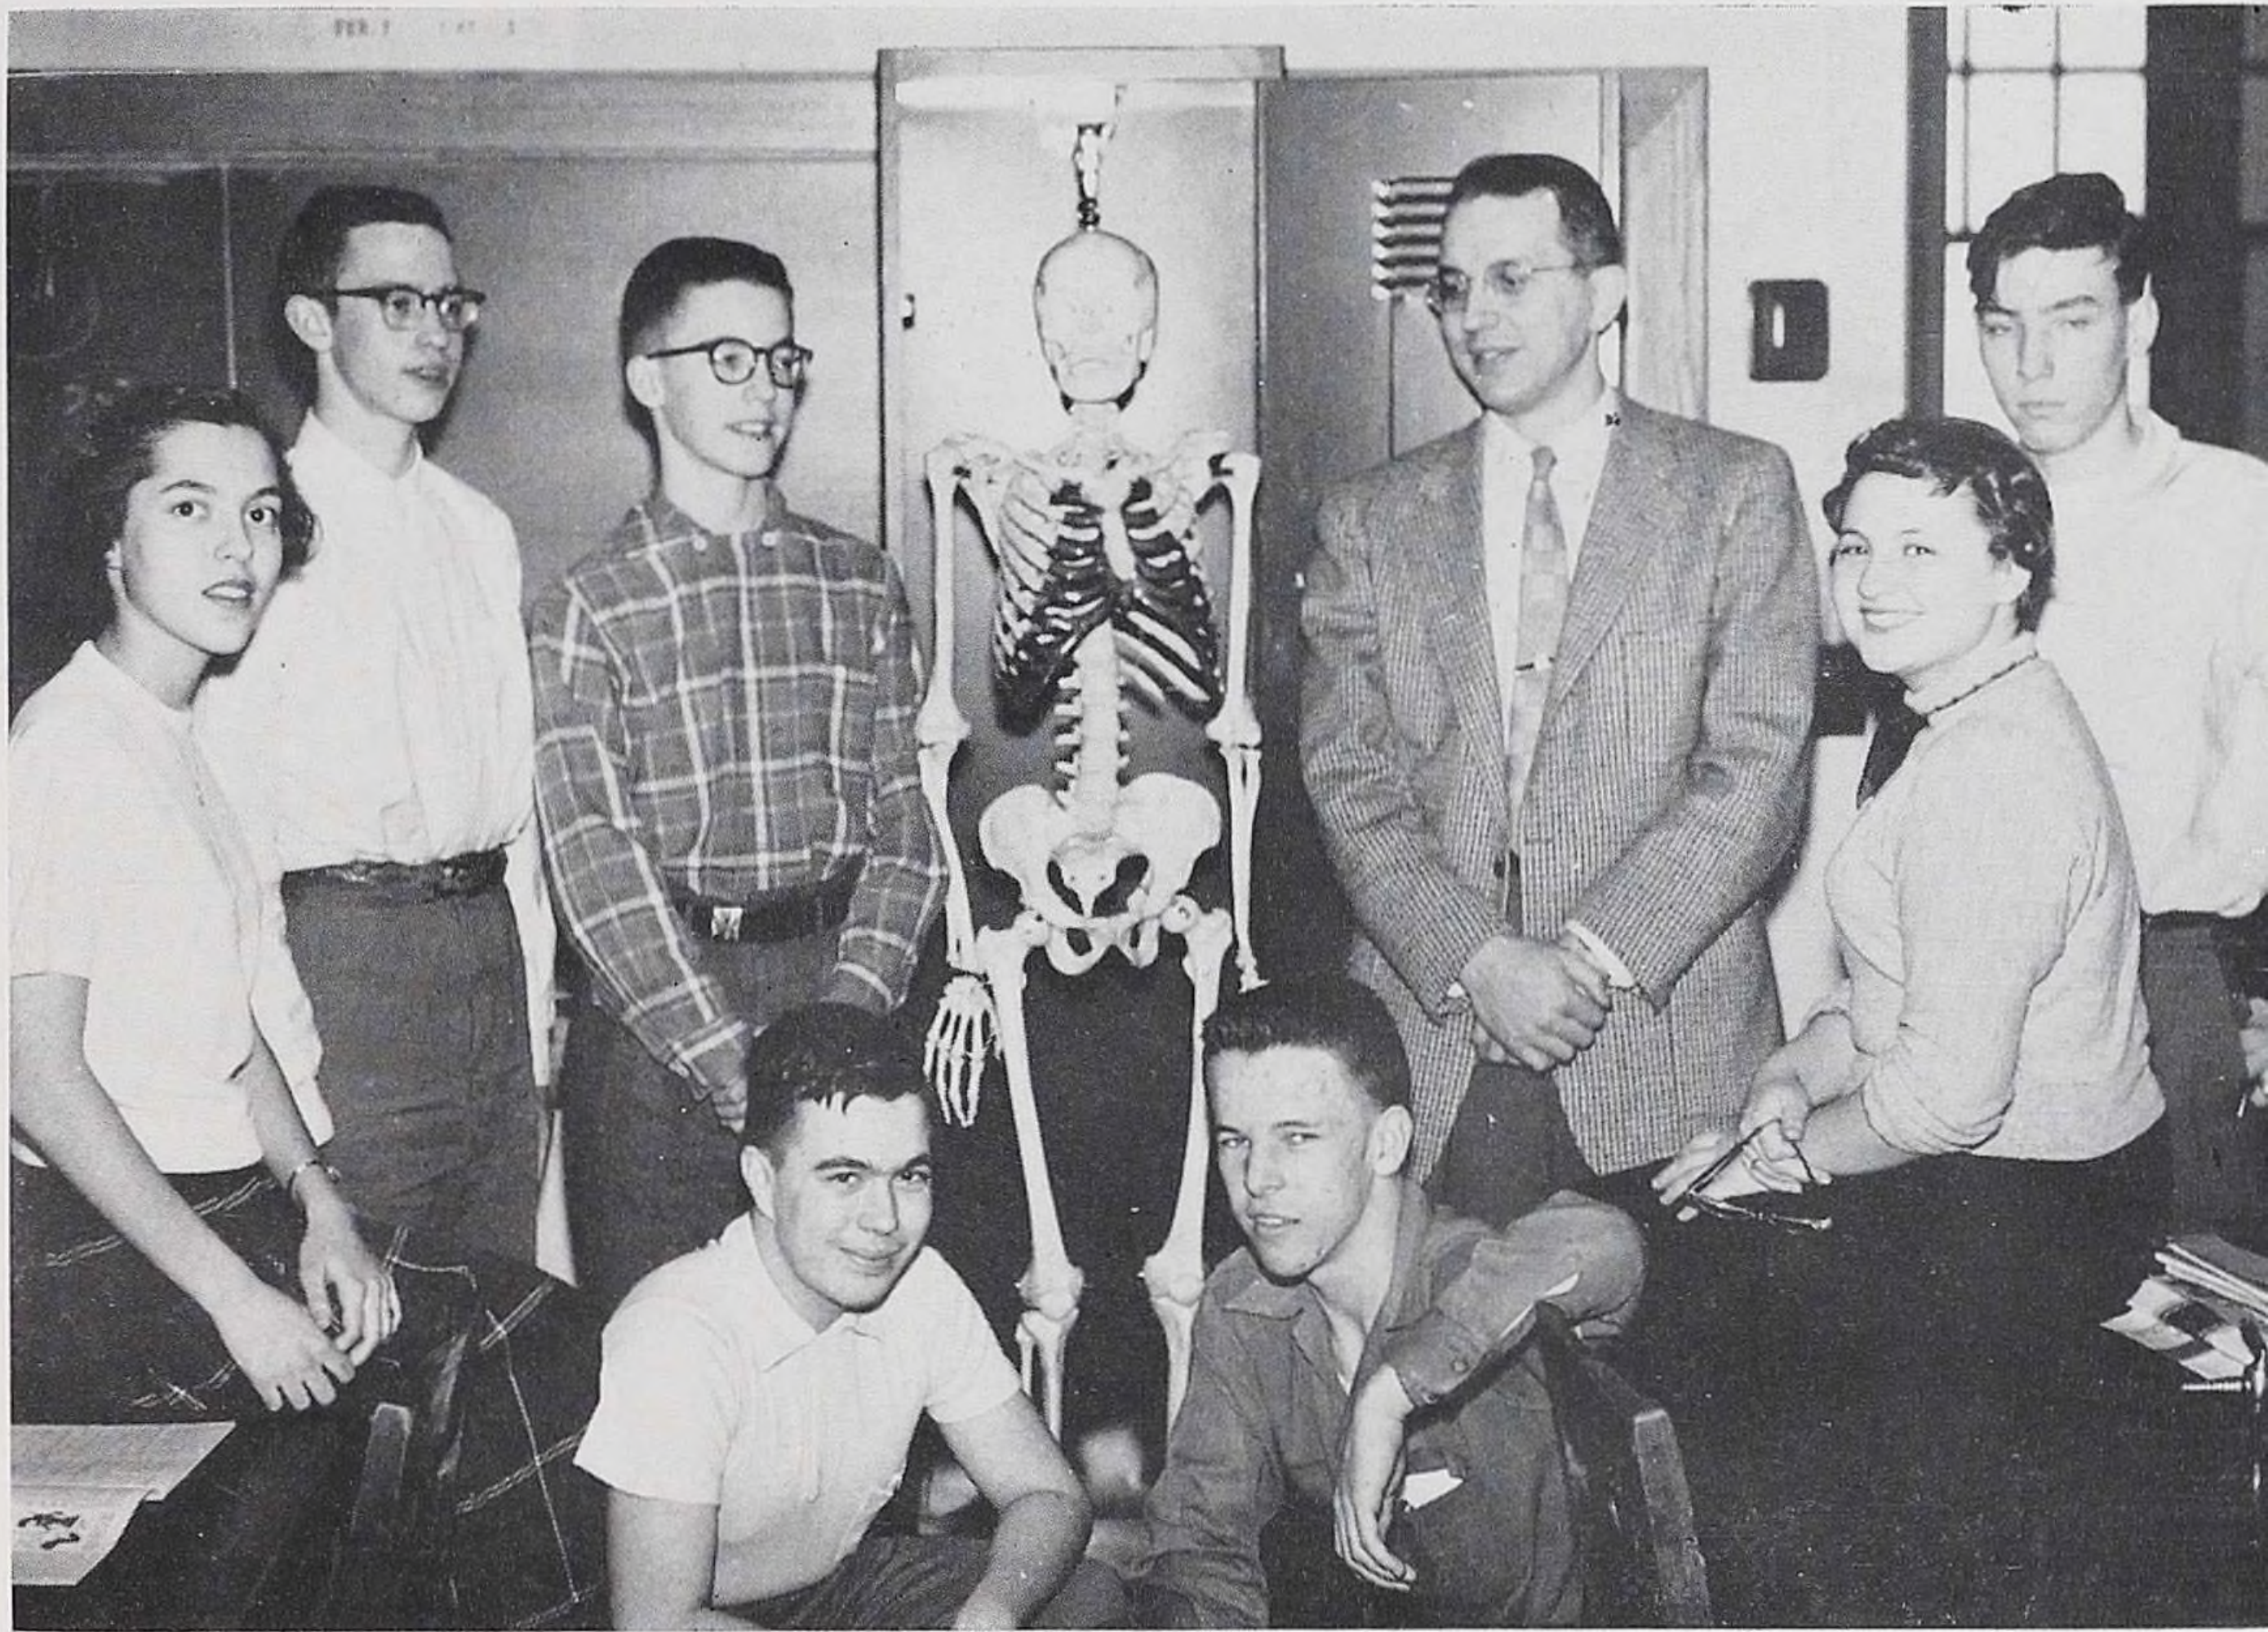

"To develop the imagination, to create situations and scenes from real life, to develop the individual by participation, and to arouse interest in the theatre" are the expressed purposes of the Dramatic Club. This year, members received lessons in make-up and pantomime, and attended the Fredonia Dramatic Festival. They also enjoyed presenting plays at the regular meetings.

The Huskies under Coach Tony Iacavino got off to a slow start, losing their first five games of the 1956-57 season. Their lack of height showed throughout the season and was one of the primary reasons for the final 7 won - 12 lost record.

Gary Weber did not have help on the boards, but he did a fine solo job in grabbing the rebounds. Backcourt men, Jon Baker and Jerry Lynch, also had good seasons. Managers were Joe Martino and Gary "Casey" Jones.

Seated: MANAGERS, TOM HULL, JERRY BUTLER, MIKE STEVENS, AND CHRIS MCCARTHY.

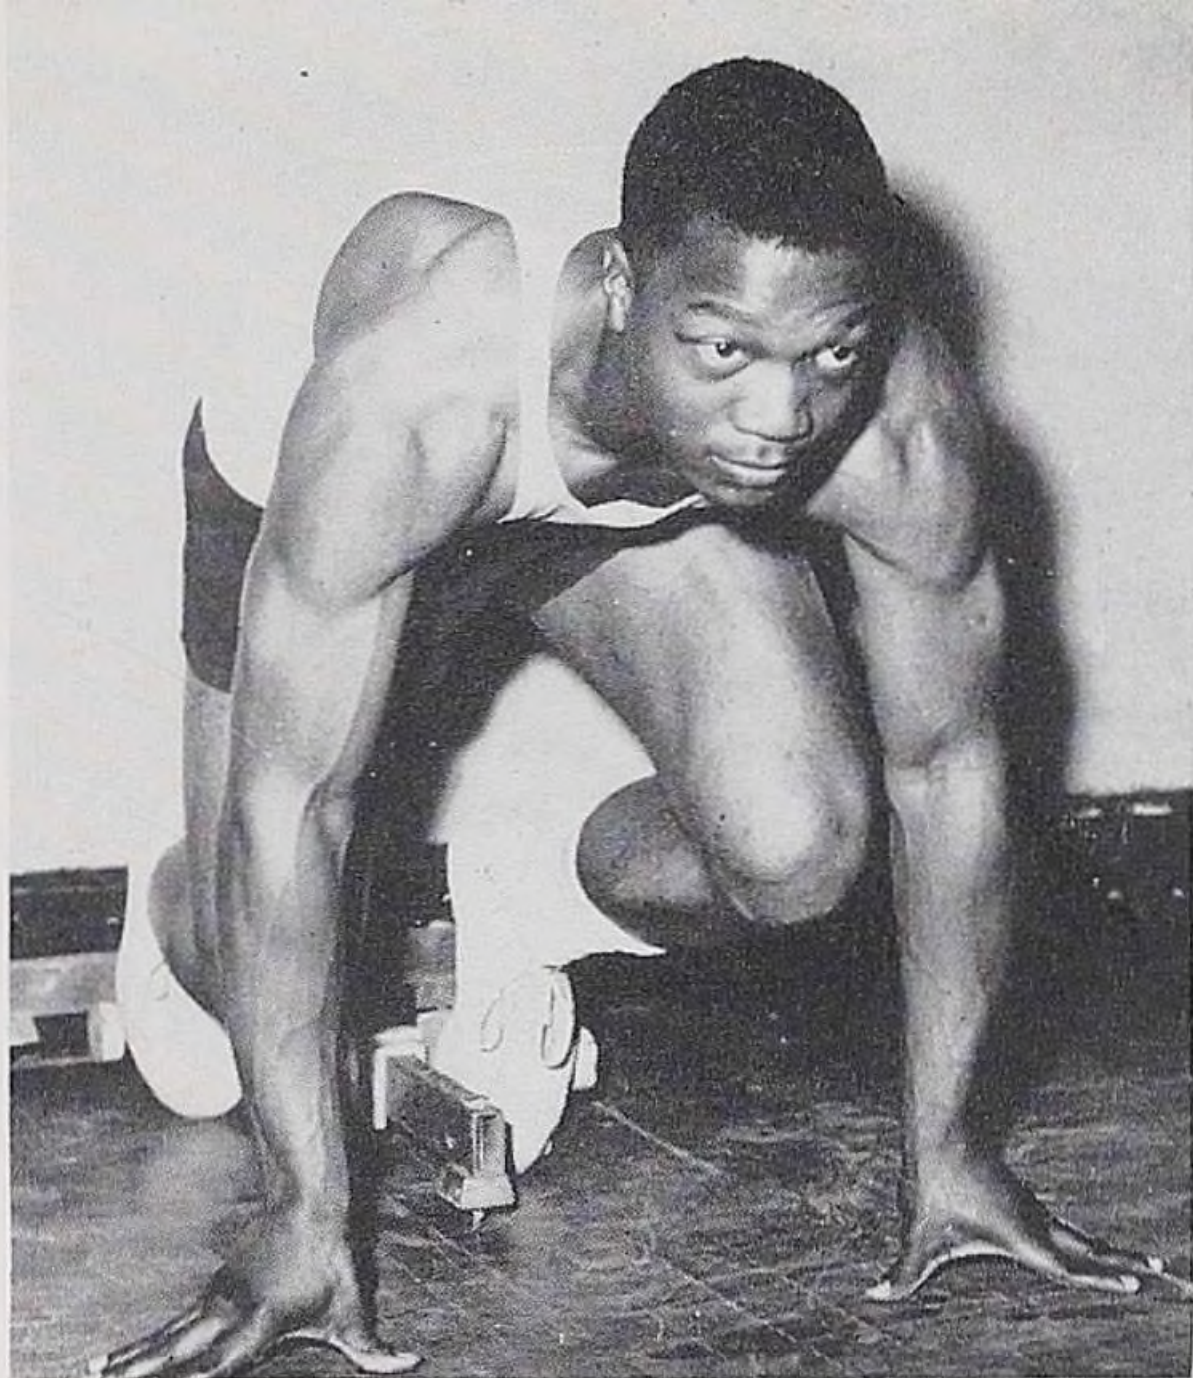

The Junior Varsity Basketball team, under Coach Matt Conte, lacked height, and as a result had a rather poor season. Spirit was not lacking in any of the games, however, and both wins and losses were taken in good grace by the squad.

Freshman Basketball

Freshman Basketball was coached by MR. DI-MARINO this year, and the following boys won their numerals:

Track

Sprinter RONNIE DOCKERY works out on the starting blocks.

The 1956 track team had a hard luck season but turned in a good record. The Huskies dropped two close meets to Amherst and Nichols. They beat Bradford, Hornell, and Jamestown, and placed first in both the County Meet and the Sectionals. In the first annual relay carnival, held in Bradner Stadium, O. H. S. placed second, behind Kane.

Cross Country

Led by Mike Droney, the O. H. S. Harriers won all three of their dual meets in 1956 cross country competition. Coach McLaughlin's team could not find itself in the in the invitational meets and did not fulfill expectations at Baldwinsville, East Aurora, or Brighton. Olean placed second in the Section 6 AAA meet; Droney was the individual winner and Bill Sweet ran a close third.

Varsity Baseball

Coach Kunkle's 1956 baseball squad lacked the experience and older members necessary for a successful season, and, as a result, it turned in a final record of 7 wins and 7 losses.

In 1957, most of the same team returned. A much better record was compiled behind the pitching of Lou Woodgie and Jim Coss, and the hitting of Jon Baker, Bob Kockler, and Aldo Ranallo.

Golf

The O. H. S. golf team, coached by Hertel Fluent, compiled a won 9 - lost 5 record in 1956. The seniors on the squad who were lost through graduation were Fritz Williams, Bob Skrzypczak, and Carl Augustine. Back for the 1957 season were Tom Johnston, Jon Sheeser, and Dewey Gram.

FIRST ROW: CARL AUGOSTINE, JON SHEESER, AND DEWEY GRAM; SECOND ROW: MR. FLUENT, FRITZ WILLIAMS, BOB SKRZYPCZAK, AND TOM JOHNSTON.
