Administration

My Dear Seniors:

Sincere congratulations on your graduation! This achievement has been made possible by your initiative and hard work, together with the fine, dedicated work of your good teachers and parents, and the support of the community in which you live.

You are bringing to a successful close one phase of your life, and embarking on a new one. You will no doubt view this change with mixed emotions. The old friends and pattern of life will be replaced, in part, by new friends and new challenges as you go on to further education or immediately seek your place in the business world.

In any event, you will find that learning does not cease with the completion of your formal education. In your formal education, you have been taught to absorb facts, theories, and ideas. Be eager to continue to learn! It is so necessary in this ever changing world.

Best wishes for health, happiness, and every success. May we always be as proud of you as we are today!

William H. Nixdorf, President
Board of Education

Mr. W. Cecil Davis
Superintendent of Schools

Dear Seniors:

"Slavery was a good life, if you had a good master. Just eat and sleep and play and take care of a small part of the farm." These words, spoken by Dan Hughes, an ex-slave, at the age of 112, have their social analogy in the fabrics of contemporary society.

The peoples of the world are now engaged in an ideological struggle in which the statement of Dan Hughes, with its far-reaching social implications, is being examined.

The decision that we shall reach will be dependent upon the kind and quality of education that you and the graduates of 10,000 other high schools throughout our nation shall have received.

Merely "To eat and sleep and play and take care of a small part of the farm" is to stifle the human soul, and remove from man the compensation of hope and the thrill of adventure, making of him but an impersonal robot.

Your education is soon to be placed on trial!

To each and everyone of you, I extend my best wishes for a rewarding and happy life.

W. Cecil Davis
Superintendent of Schools

LETTER TO SENIORS:

The class of 1960 has been a most active and vigorous class in the prosecution of its plans during its four years here. One has a feeling of great confidence in a class which demonstrates this ability to move forward according to a well organized program. This class promises to be another group joining the other graduates of the Olean High School in shaping the destinies of their own generation as well as passing on to future generations those elements of American life which we are always happy to perpetuate. We have faith and confidence that you will leave in sharp relief your mark upon the world.

Senior Class Advisors

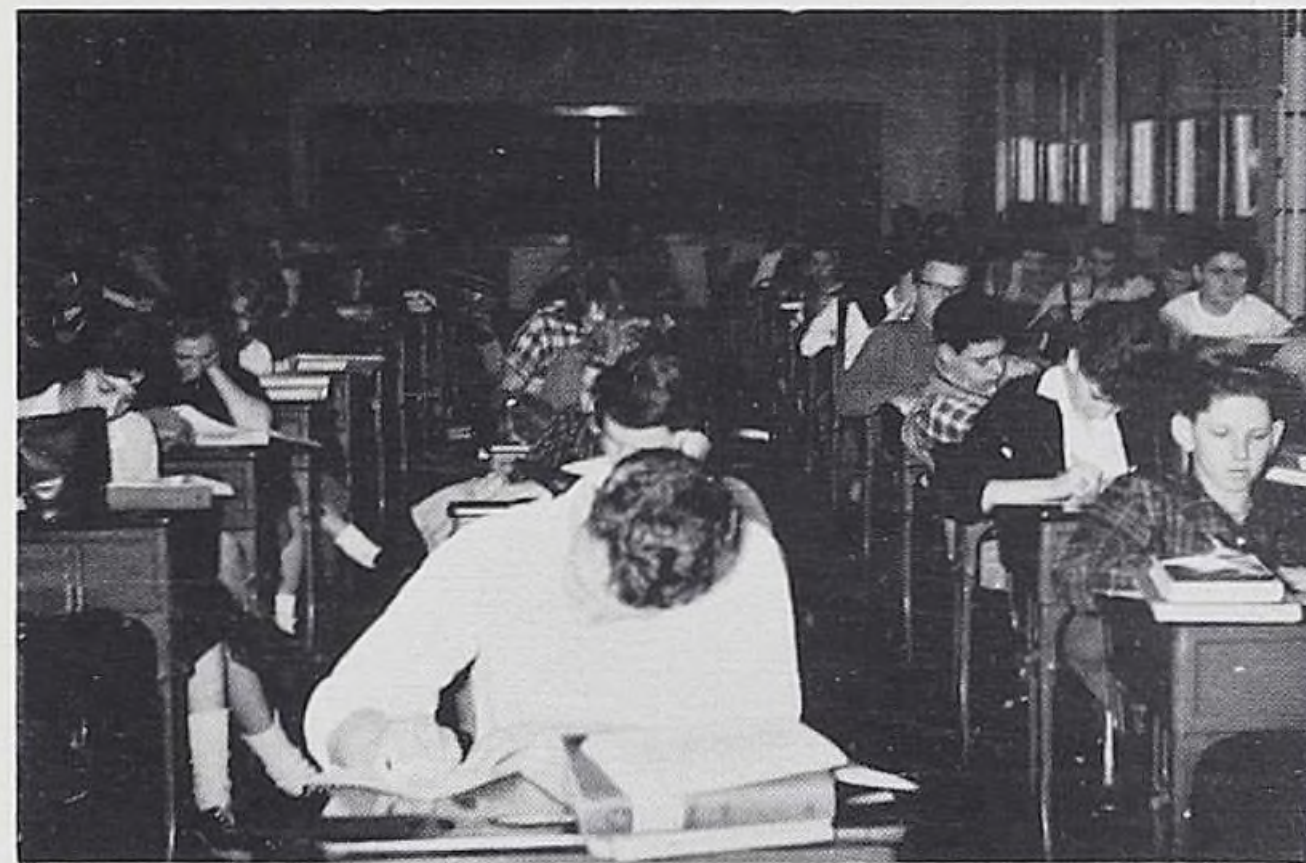

Our Senior year concludes a series of many wonderful memories starting upon our arrival as Freshmen. Through these years, various activities have taken place. Among the most important are our Junior and Senior Play and Junior and Senior Prom. The Class of 1960 has been very fortunate in having Miss Grace and Mr. Middleton as advisors. Without their guidance and cooperation our projects would not have been as successful. The Senior Class wishes to extend our sincere gratitude for all the time and patience our advisors have devoted to us. Also a vote of thanks goes to Mr. Whitehill who helped us during our Freshman and Sophomore years.

Our Senior Class Advisors: Miss Grace and Mr. Middleton.

Senior dilemma or freshman daze?

Report card time near?

The pause that refreshes.

What's the ratio?

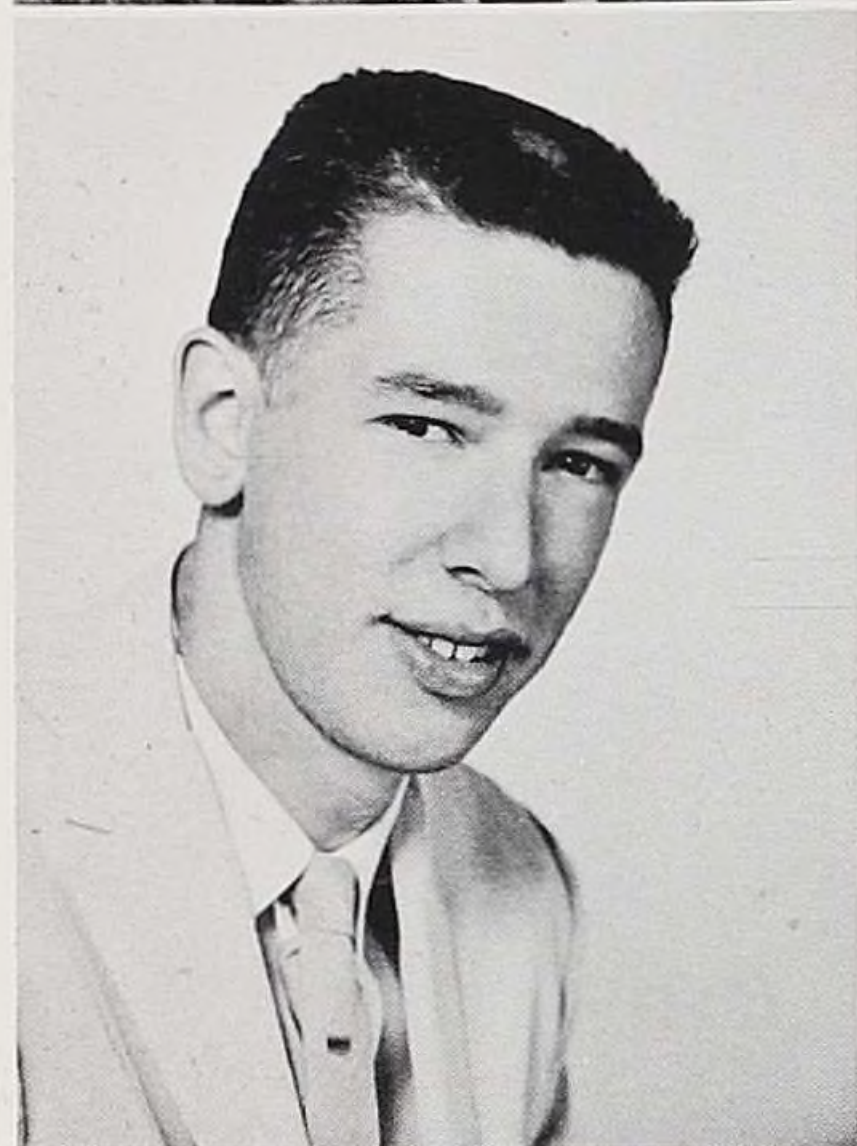

Cheers to 'ya'!

Sophomore Class Advisors

We, the class of '62, have so far been successful with all the activities which we have attempted. Some of our achievements last year were our Freshman dance, winning second prize in P.T.S.A. drive, and also a prize in the ticket sales for the musical.

None of these achievements could have been accomplished without the aid and advice of our capable class advisors, Mr. Perry, and Mr. Geuder. We hope they will be as faithful and helpful in our remaining years at O.H.S. as they have been these first two years.

SOPHOMORE CLASS ADVISORS—Mr. Clarence Geuder and Mr. Wendell Perry.

Olean High School's Varsity team, which was led by Co-captains Jim Gates and Dick Lindermer, possessed a young and determined spirit during the '59-60 season. With Senior quarterback and Co-captain, Dick Lindermer sidelined for many of the games with injuries, Olean found that a young sophomore, John Daniels, could also do a terrific job at the quarterback position. To be congratulated in his efforts was Lloyd Bennett, a junior, who excelled in the running attack.

As a group, the Olean High School team is to be congratulated for its efforts and determination throughout the season.

John Ksionzyk, ably assisted by Brent Steurwald, deserves to be commended for leadership of the football team. With many good holdovers from this year's team and additional material from the J.V. and Freshmen squad, next year should produce a good season for Olean.

J.V. Football

The Junior Varsity Football team, composed of freshmen and sophomores, showed promise of contributing to the Varsity Team in years to come. George Matlock and "Willy" Nash ably coached the team and deserve praise for a job well done.

Freshmen Football

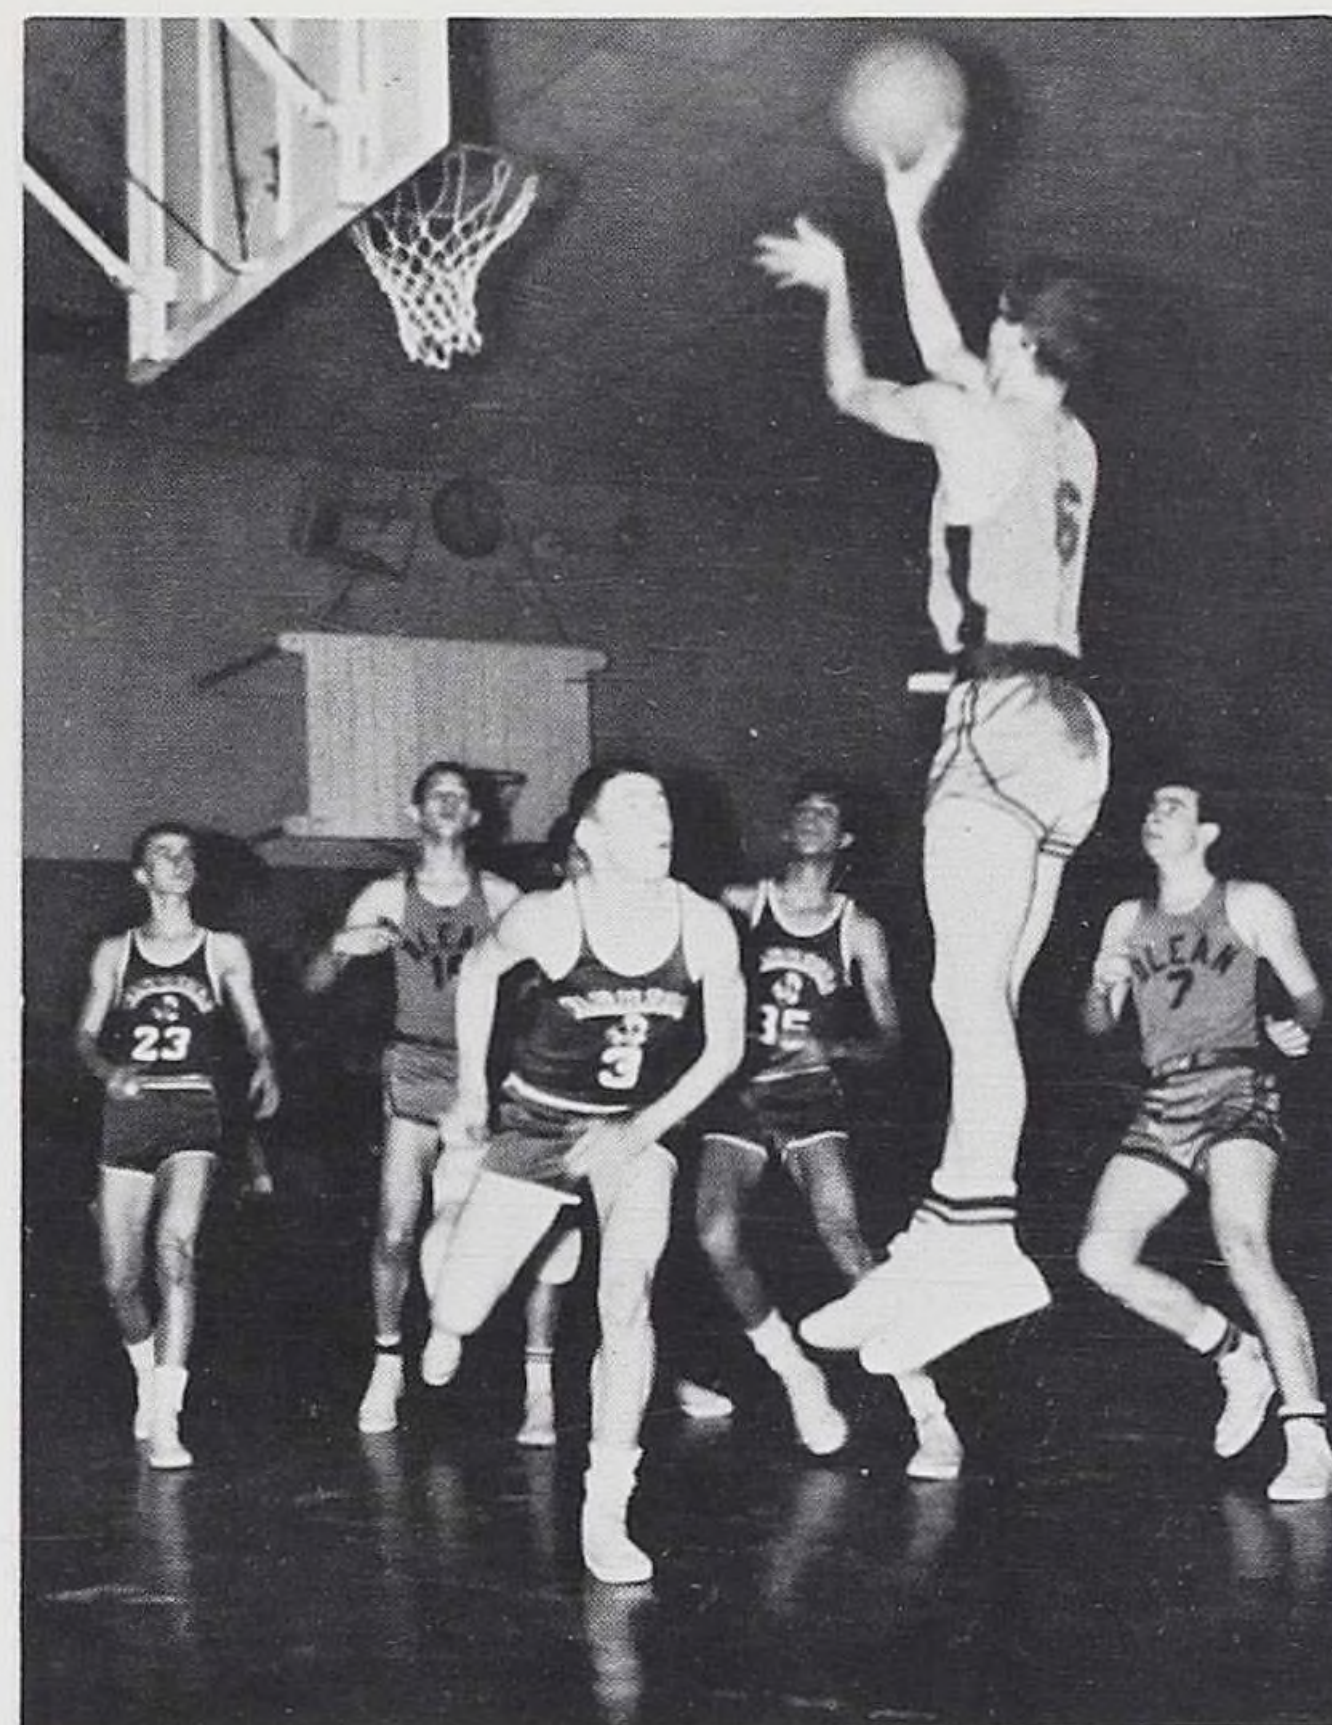

The freshmen, fielding a team for the first time in several seasons, won all their games. The team's members will no doubt see action in years to come on the Junior Varsity or Varsity football teams.

Norm Utecht piloted the team and through his untiring efforts saw them go undefeated this season.

Varsity

Basketball

This year the Olean High School Varsity team had a wonderful record. Tom Wallon, one of the area's top scorers, led the team in win after win. The boys worked together in all their games showing team work and good spirit. Mr. Tony Iacovino coached the team in the best season Olean has had in years.

The Student Council is an organization of class representatives whose purposes are to work as an executive body to make decisions regarding certain school functions on behalf of the entire school.

The president and vice-president are elected by the four classes in the spring. The following school year each class elects its determined number of representatives. The Senior class is allotted five, the Juniors four, the Sophomores three, and the Freshmen two. An election is held among these to decide upon a secretary, treasurer, and a sergeant-at-arms.

This year the Student Council, supervised by the principal, Wesley M. Smith, has been particularly active. Such jobs as running the Concession Stand at football games, aiding the P.T.S.A. in the annual drive, obtaining busses for out of town games, selecting assemblies for the following year, and making necessary arrangements for the Homecoming celebrations were undertaken by the Council.

One of the most interesting and rewarding experiences for this year's Student Council was that of presenting a mock meeting at a P.T.S.A. meeting. Here the parents and teachers were able to see for themselves just how the Council worked and also the Student Council members witnessed a typical P. T. S. A. meeting to understand its purposes and functions.

Seated: Jerry Ostarch, President; Kathy Kent, Vice-President; Standing: Connie Wright, Secretary; Paul Mountain, Sergeant-at-arms; Barb Miller, Treasurer.

"Three Jolly Coachmen"

This has been a very successful year for the Mixed Chorus.

Our first program of the year was held at the Christmas season. Together with the Choraliers, we presented a cantata entitled "The Song of Christmas" which was accompanied by a pageant. This year's program was considered by many to be one of the best presentations to be given at this season.

Our second highlight of the year was participation in the Spring Concert. Not only did we sing our own selections, but for a grand finale we again combined with the Choraliers to sing the last selection of the program.

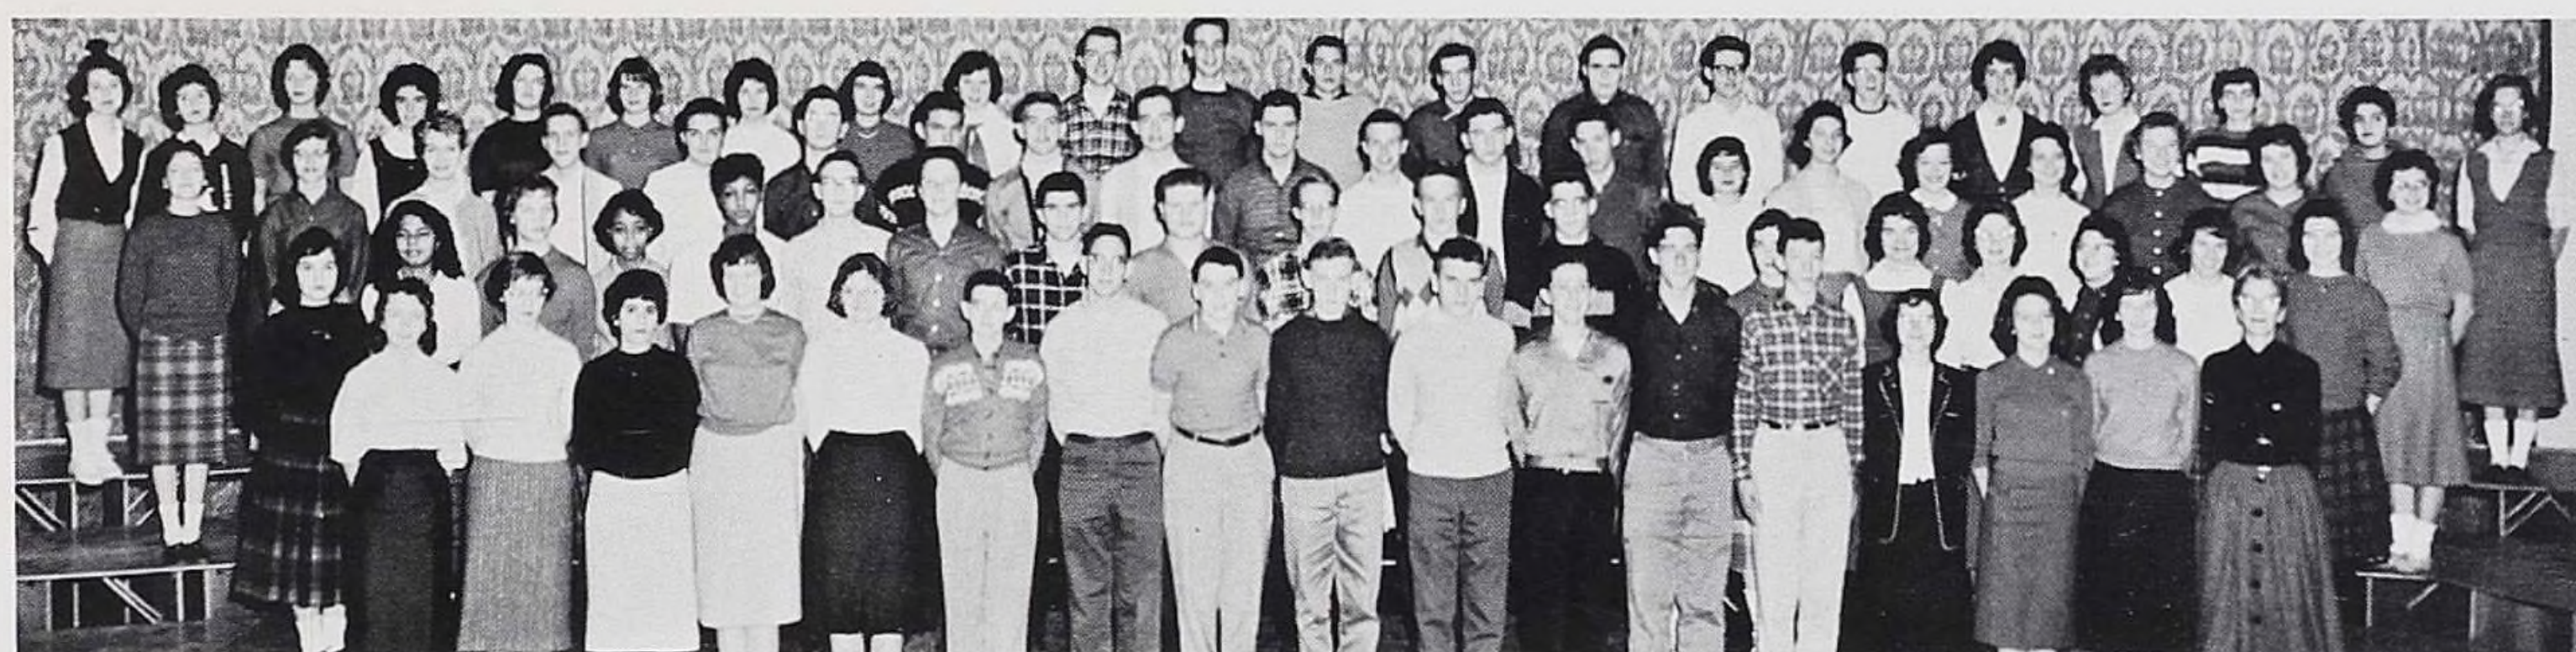

The officers for this year were: President, Richard Arnold; Vice President, Nancy Follett; Secretary-Treasurer, Helen Strauss; Librarians, Elaine Bush and Susan Gabler; Robe Managers, Vivian McElroy and Bill Schemerhorn.
