DEDICATION

to

Mr. Kenneth B. Van De Mark
Vice-Principal of Olean High School

In every school there are those who add to its character, prestige and dignity.

Bearing this in mind, we of the 1961 Congress Staff humbly dedicate this memorabilia of Olean High School to Mr. Kenneth B. Van De Mark in grateful recognition of his leadership and wisdom.

For more than a decade and a half he has been an integral part of this educational institution. We who know him either as a distinguished scholar, esteemed teacher or worthy advisor, are truly appreciative of his unending, faithful service to our school.

It is with this deepest pleasure we honor Mr. Van De Mark who has been to us a teacher, but more important, a friend.

... Give To You

Our Heart Filled Thanks . . .

DR. DAVIS, Superintendent of Schools

In times when young people are required to exhibit the judgment of mature individuals, our society places great responsibility on our graduating students. When we as educators can, by and large, say that our Seniors "measure up" and that we have confidence that they can meet the demanding challenges of a new age, we have little fear from the uncertainties of the future. We cannot give you all the skills and knowledges required, but we can and have given you opportunities to solve problems, enjoy experiences and establish for yourselves a climate for investigating all the problems attendant to our times. These are the things which form the basis of your high school education. We have watched you enter into the spirit of learning, of investigating, and of establishing your own social climate. We can say "well done." Once again, we release you Seniors with full confidence that you will join the ever increasing number of The Olean High School graduates who have contributed in significant ways to the world leadership and the cultural climate of the United States. The times make this your destiny. We are confident you will not fail.

Sincerely,
M. Westley Smith
Principal

My dear Seniors:

Each year, I am privileged to write a letter of greetings and congratulations to the members of the graduating class and, as I reflect over the past ten years, I find that on each occasion world climate has been characterized by an uneasy concern as to man's ability to resolve his problems and compose his differences through reason.

The year 1961 is no exception. The battle lines for the minds of men are sharply drawn. The weapons employed are ideas. The one weapon against which there can be no successful defense is truth. Ultimately, objective truth shall prevail.

The intellectual soldiers who employ it, however, must possess the discipline necessary for the development and recognition of truth, and knowledge and courage to use it effectively. These are not achieved by accident.

They are the products of education—and education that encompasses the whole of man.

Social evolution results from the fact that man is a rational, volitional and spiritual animal, capable of evaluating his experience intelligently, and within keeping of serving his ever present goal of temporal and spiritual happiness.

Yours is now the challenge of contributing to the achievement of a better world where individual worth and human dignity founded upon truth and justice may prevail. It shall remain for history to record how effectively these lessons have been taught.

Sincerely,
W. Cecil Davis
Superintendent of Schools

MR. SMITH, Principal

Sitting: Dr. James A. Doucette; William H. Nixdorf, Pres.; Robert Adams. Standing: Orin E. Crandall; William Wasson; Glenn A. Reitz; Leo E. Keenan; Arthur E. Yahn; Waldo Burdick.

My dear Seniors:

Sincere congratulations on your graduation. This achievement has been made possible by your initiative and hard work, together with the fine, dedicated work of your good teachers and parents, and the support of the community in which you live.

You are bringing to a successful conclusion one chapter of your life, and embarking on a new one. You will, no doubt, view this change with mixed emotions. The old friends, and routine will be replaced, in part, by new friends and new challenges as you go on to further education or to seek your place in the business world.

Thus far, your progress has been guided by your parents and your teachers, and has been assisted by the material things provided for you. Responsibility for your further progress now rests more directly on you. You have been taught to absorb facts, theories, and ideas. You have been taught to think. Learning does not stop with graduation. Learning is a continuum. Be eager to continue to learn. Your future, the future of your Country, and the future of the World itself is in your hands. It is a responsibility you must now accept.

Best wishes for health, happiness, and every success. May we always be as proud of you as we are today!

Our Coaches . . .

VARSITY FOOTBALL

This year's Huskies, led by Co-Captains Tom Hirst and Chester Suda are to be congratulated for a thrilling season. The dark shadows of early season defeats were practically unnoticed in the shining light of late season victories. Determination possessed the squad; with the reduction of mistakes and valiant team effort late-season foes were overcome. Behind Junior Quarterback, John Daniels the Huskies ground attack, sparked by the fine running of Seniors Dave Altman and Albie Anastasia, moved well; also high praise goes to the defensive unit which did a superb job this year as the opponents ran into such bulwarks as Captain Tom Hirst and Seniors Bill Keenan and Sam Veno.

Coach John Ksionzyk and his assistant Brent Steurwald are to be commended for the production of this one of the finest Huskie teams for a few years. Although many members will graduate this year, next years prospects are good with the experienced linemen Dick Pepin, John Godfrey, Mike Micholjyck, and Denny Hall returning.

Library Aids

Volunteer Students and those requiring library work as part of their business education make up the Library Club of the "Library Aides." Anyone whose schedule allows it may join this club by applying to Miss Ida Gould, our school librarian. In return for their work, they learn the "ins" and "outs" of the library trade.

Due to the schools undertaking of the advanced program, students have come to use the library and the services of the library more and more. The "library aids" help all students with their problems in book searching or finding much needed reference materials.

Biology Club

This year's Biology Club experienced an extremely active year under its capable advisors and officers. The club, as a unit, has gone on an early field trip to the Gargoyle Park, and has attended two Science Open Houses at Houghton and Cornell. At the latter events scientific demonstrations and lectures have provided the programs.

Approximately forty students have attended each excursion.

Meetings of the Biology Club are held weekly. Dissections of calves and other such animals have been part of the meeting's program. Funds for the club's treasury are raised through candy sales, bake sales, and nominal monthly dues.

National Honor Society

Character, leadership, and service—the student's chief goals—have been obtained by all members of this organization.

During the school year the Olean Chapter of the National Honor Society has been extremely active. Olean High School stationery was sold by its members to raise funds necessary to buy pins and membership cards for those new members who were inducted in late February.

These new members were selected for this honor through a new system set up by the older members under the guidance of Mr. Kenneth Van de Mark. The newly selected members received their pins and membership cards at the March meeting held in the Olean House.

The very first meeting of the Student Council was held on September 20, 1960—following a week of adjusting to new courses, teachers, and fellow classmates. It was conducted by Jeanne Sherman the acting Vice President. At this meeting the Student Council forged into the work which lie ahead such as, the problem of securing buses for out of town games, the acceptance of the code of conduct, the selling of programs during the football games, organization of concession stand for the football games, and a regular weekly meeting on Friday.

It was a good beginning only to find better things to follow. The Student Council was given charge of the seating of homerooms in the assemblies, of having a radio in auditorium for the World Series and, under the guidance of Mr. Smith, the Student Council joined the New York State Assoc. of Student Councils.

The football Homecoming proved a success under the carefully planned program of Linda Lipman and Phillip Toohey, the co-chairmen of the event. The Student Participation Assembly was presented in February, under the direction of Angela DaPolito.

Every year at the beginning of the school year, each home-room elects one representative to represent them in the Student Senate and another member as an alternate.

The Student Senate works in conjunction with the Student Council and the student body for the betterment of their school. Students from their Freshman through their Senior year work hand in hand with this organization. All work such as the selling of tickets for different school activities, candy, the setting up of dances, and the voting for measures or people is done through the Student Senate as a whole or through the four class divisions which make it up.

This Year's Student Senate, under the leadership of Jeanne Sherman, Vice President of Student Council, has done many projects to help the student along to a happier school life.

Besides the publishing of the weekly school news edited by Carol Gluck for the Olean Times Herald, the "Whisperer" a new school magazine has been added. This edition is carefully and expertly put out under the student supervision of Jim Burr and Buddy Allen. The "Whisperer" contains jokes, puzzles, feature stories, song titles, and the "Kook" columns. These two publications play a large role in informing the students of past, present, and future school activities.

The presence of such an organization in Olean High School offers to all students, who are interested, a chance to obtain improvement and experience in the field of journalism.

The Classical Club meetings are held every other Thursday in Room 102 with Miss Peterson as our advisor. The officers this year are; Consul, Paula Hagen; Pro-Consul, Marla Smith; Scribo, Pam Fluent; and Aerarii Praefectus, Margaret Fulmer.

At one of our meetings we saw slides of Rome shown by Miss Marra. At another meeting we played games in Latin.

We are making plans for a Roman banquet and would also like to have some group projects.

We've already held a fudge sale to pay for the yearbook picture.

So far our activities this year have proved very interesting and promise us a fascinating future.

French Club

The bi-monthly meetings of the French Club offer programs including skits, films, games and guest speakers.

Le Cercle français a donné pendant beaucoup d'années aux étudiants français une meilleure compréhension de la France et sa langue. Cette connaissance est présentée d'une manière agréable et sans cérémonie, en faisant plaisir à tous les deux, aux consillères, Mlle. Trenkle et Mme. Cruse. La réunion bimestrielle du Cercle français offre les programmes, compris les saynètes, les films, les jeux, et les conférenciers.

The French Club has for many years given French students a better understanding of France and her language. This knowledge is provided in a pleasant, informal manner, pleasing to both the students and supervisors, Miss Trenkle and Mrs. Cruse.

The Junior Red Cross under the direction of Miss Mabel Wilson and Miss Finch is an organization composed of many high school students whose chief purpose is to carry out humane projects for the less fortunate everywhere. Some of the most notable projects are the making of tray favors for local hospitals at the holiday times such as Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter; and the annual sending of a school chest to a less fortunate school in a foreign country filled with all the basic school necessities.

The selling of Christmas wrapping paper helps raise the club's treasury, needed to furnish such worthy services.

The Junior Red Cross lends a working hand to the local community Red Cross by helping whenever they're asked.

Chess Club

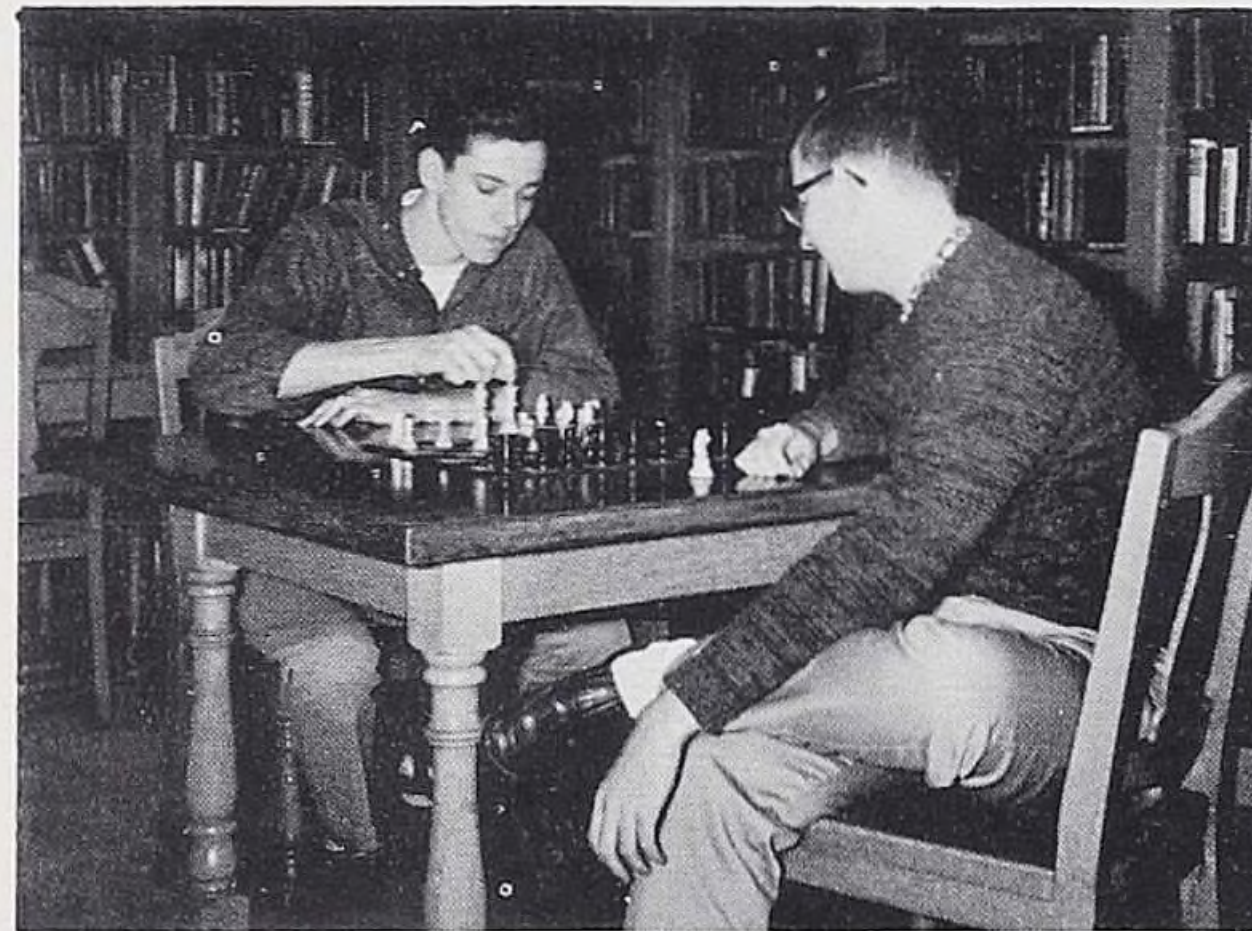

Checkmate, stalemate, pawn, queen, king—all mean more to the player of chess and the members of Chess Club. This year the organization is under the supervision of Miss Corrigan.

Also this year the Chess Club has been extremely active. Tournaments have been held within the club between Junior and Senior members. The only distinction between the Junior and Senior members is that of experience, not that of age. Another inter-club match is Potz. This is a rapid game played at fifteen second intervals.

Noteworthy outside tournaments were with Bishop Walsh and the faculty.

This late spring, a banquet was held for the club. Trophies were given to those members particularly excelling in chess.

The club's treasury is raised through dues and fudge sales.

OFFICERS—D. Scotty, R. Comfort, M. Fulmer.

The Drama Club under the sponsorship of Miss JoAnne Marra has been active again this year. A trip was made to Alfred to view a play and to participate in dramatic activities there. An educational play was put on for a local community P.T.A. The Third Annual Penny Drama Festival was presented for all students interested in dramatics. The Co-Chairmen of this event were William Keenan and Nanci Tabashneck under the guidance of Mrs. William Payne.

For the fourth year the Drama club has presented a "Harvey" award and three "Pooka" awards to club members who have done outstanding work in acting, staging, directing, and make-up. These awards are presented at the "Harvey" Banquet open to drama club members and its alumni.

Outlook

Sitting: J. Westling. Standing: S. Stinger, B. Longnecker, M. Heenan, B. Swartz, M. Greene.

Outlook is a school magazine open to writers and all those interested in journalism. This year's editor, Jerry Westling, and his capable staff of students have put out a very informative and interesting series of papers dealing with many various subjects. Poems, short stories, and essays are the magazine's specialties. All articles are read with only the best appearing in the magazine. Artistic sketches accompany the articles.

As Outlook is open to all four classes, the underclassmen have the opportunity to become further acquainted with journalism which will continually show its advantage in the high school years ahead.

Debate Club

The Olean High School Debate Club under the supervision of Mr. McLaughlin has, in its three year's history, become a member of the Southern Tier Debate League. This membership was active during the second semester only, with the club winning a vast majority of the contests entered.

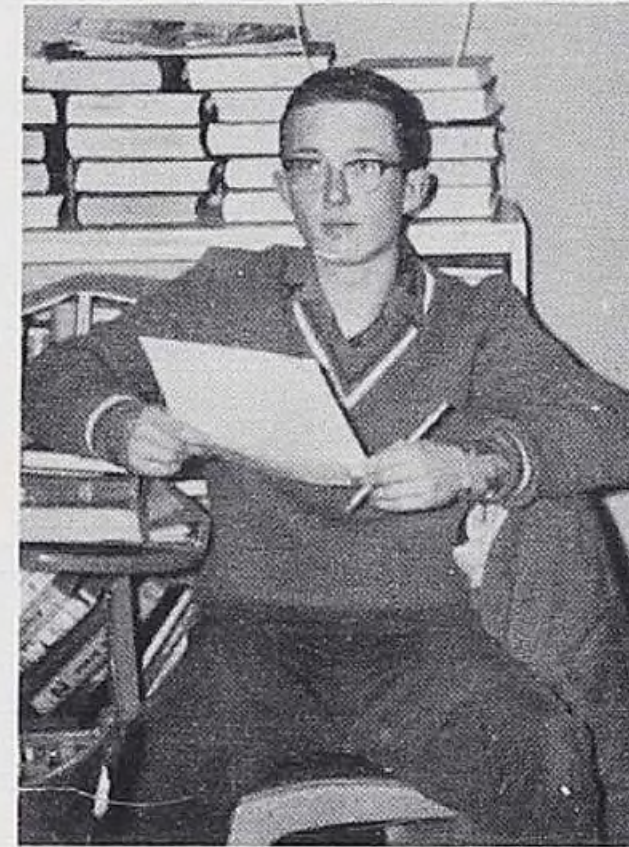

During this year's membership the Debate Club has debated seventeen times on current controversial subjects and has entered the Western New York State Debate Competition. A school bookstore has been set up under the student leadership of Jerry Brown. Popular and school books are sold to teachers and students alike. Through this new project the club has raised funds necessary to buy debating materials.

Christmas Pageant

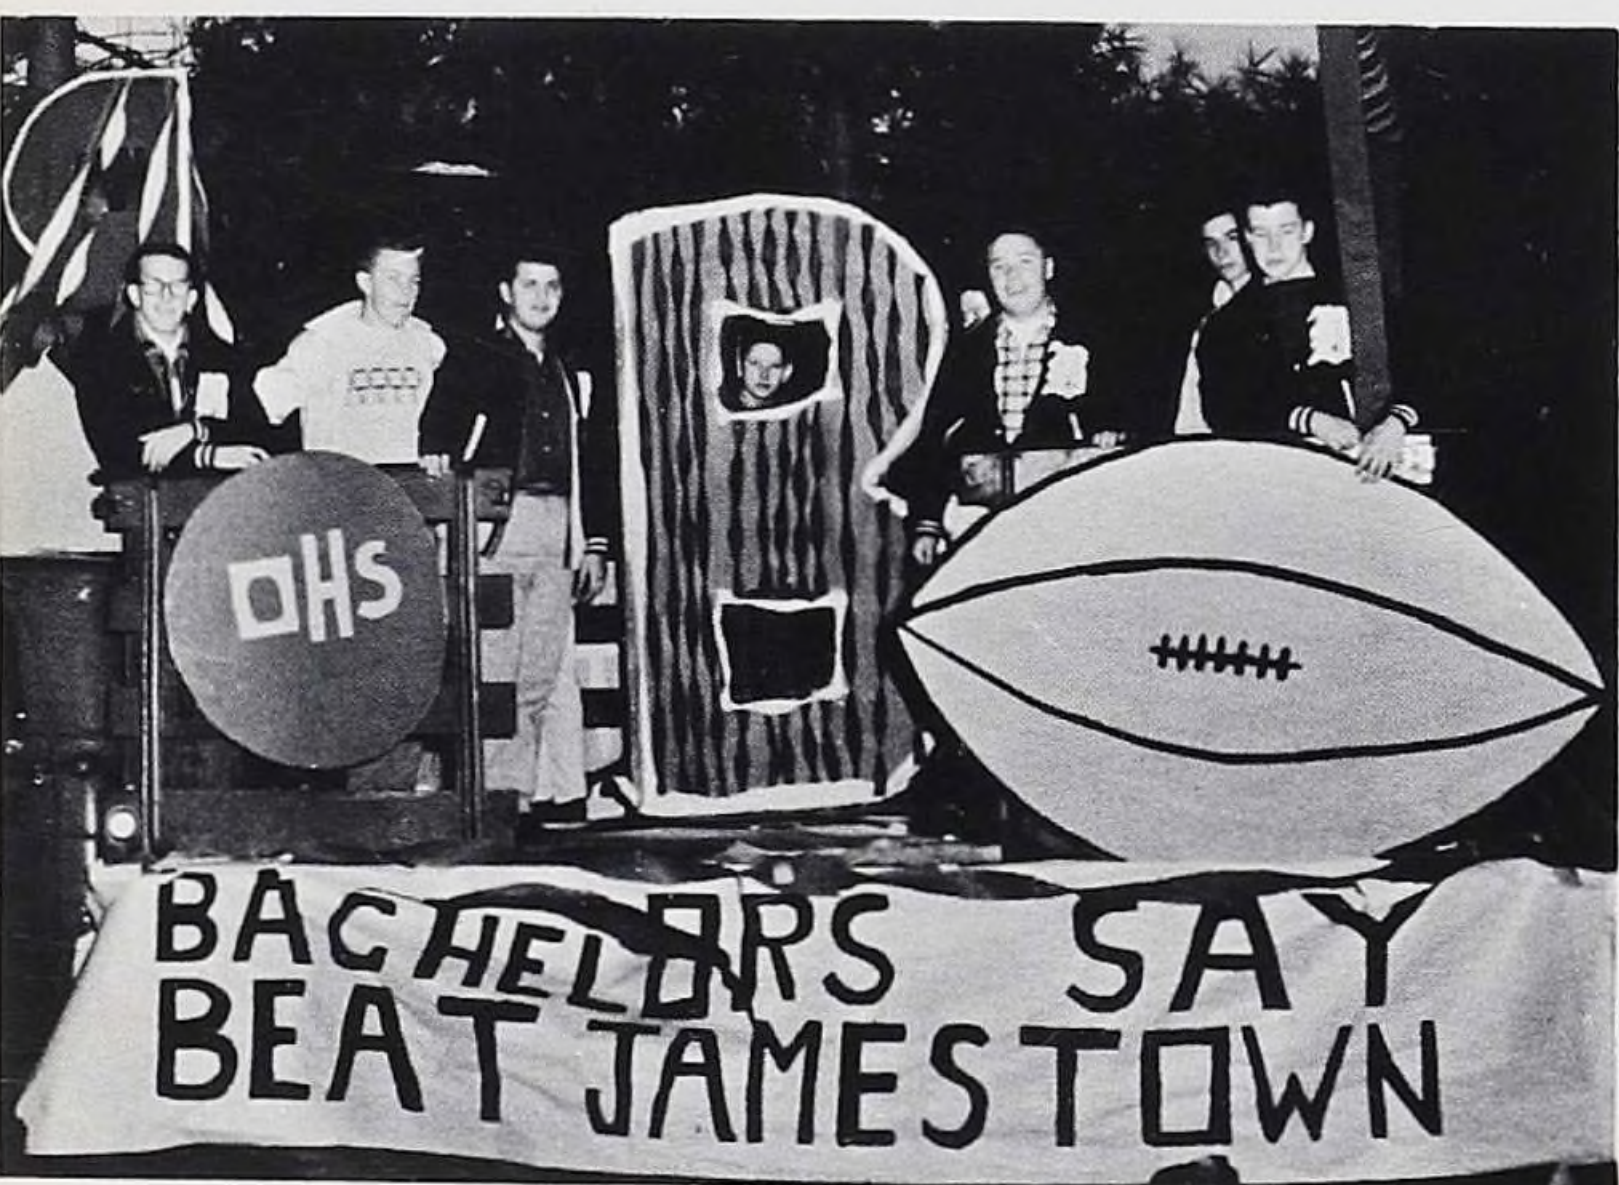

... We Students

The Christmas Concert was given on Wednesday, December 21, 1960 at 8 P.M. in the Olean High School Auditorium. The program began with the band which played three selections under the direction of Mr. John Lefquist. The Girls Glee Club then presented four numbers directed by Miss Questa.

The pageant, "The Story of the First Christmas," followed and proved to be the highlight of the evening. It consisted of nine tableaux under the direction of Miss Fay and Mr. DeLorenzo which depicted the birth of the Christ Child. The pageant was narrated by Jerry Brown and the organ accompanist was Linda Lipman. The main characters of the pageant were Sandy Jandrew as Mary, David Murray as Joseph, Dick Pepin as Gabriel and Jim Keener, Bill Easley, and Bob Wood as the Three Kings.

... Participation

This year's student participation assembly was held on February 16th under the student advisoryship of Angela DaPolito. The theme of the morning program was the Olean High School Soda Shop, cafe style. The school was well represented by its student talent; with the high school dance band making its debut before the entire student body and the faculty.

Twelve different acts participated in the hour and one-half show. The various acts included the gossip column of Flipent Flora, the rock and roll of the Aerovones and the Twilighters, the music of the Kingston Trio by the Debonaires, other musical talent, and a skit portraying a Russian chance show, "You Have To Beat The Clock." This year's assembly was a tremendous success with the entire student body.

Winter Carnival

The first Winter Carnival ever presented at Olean High School took place February 10 and 11. After much planning, the Student Council, under the chairmanship of Sue Wright, began the carnival and its long train of events with a pep assembly. A float parade followed that night. Saturday morning the school lawn was transfigured into a showplace of art, revealing breath-taking snow sculptures. An exciting game of basketball between the victorious Syracuse and All Stars followed an afternoon of dancing and testing of skills in the various booths in the gym. The dance that night climaxed the entire week-end. Altogether it was a fabulous fun-filled week-end and a deserving success for our Student Council.

As in all previous years, a section of the 1961 Congress has been set aside for the sole purpose of paying tribute to the members of the faculty.

During the student's four years of study at Olean High School, he becomes greatly indebted to his teachers. As he steadily progresses and as graduation rapidly approaches, the student finally is ready to take his adult position in the world as an employee or a college student. During the student's four years of high school the teachers of the various departments offer him a well-rounded education, thus training him to become a better person, student, and citizen.

So again this year the members of the Congress Staff and the student body sincerely say "Thank you" to the teachers of Olean High School.
