MOTION

Life is a sea of experience, and the sea is always in motion. Over, around, through; fast, slow, irresistible—all motion. Throughout our senior year we have seen a lot of motion: from "Beanie" on a 37-slant to Judie Balcerzak doing deep knee bends, from "Scoochie" leaping for a Mike Driscoll pass to Sue Crandall running around like the proverbial headless chicken, from Scott Murray singing the Hump to Valerie Eade dancing it, from Skeeter squealing his tires to Peggy Karuch walking down the hall, from Bill Fitzpatrick doing a parallel Christie to Glenda Grossman doing arm flinging exercises to get in shape, from Mr. Utecht lecturing a glophead to well . . . would you believe . . .

FAREWELL TO SENIORS

The end of the year is a time for Seniors to look back regretfully and then to look ahead enthusiastically.

The forty months of senior high school have, perhaps, seemed like a lifetime to many of you. In reality, this period with its activities—and, yes, with its hard work, too—will eventually be realized as some of your greatest years.

We hope that each of you is ready for the challenges of adult life. The effort of obtaining further education and job training, the demands of establishing homes, and the complexities of modern society will require strength, vigor, enthusiasm, and sense of humor. It is our fond hope that your years in Olean High School have provided you with an adequate background for these individual needs.

Congratulations to each graduating senior, best wishes for future success.

"May there be no strangers in your lives, only friends that you haven't met."

*Harold L. Hawkins
Superintendent of Schools*

My dear Seniors:

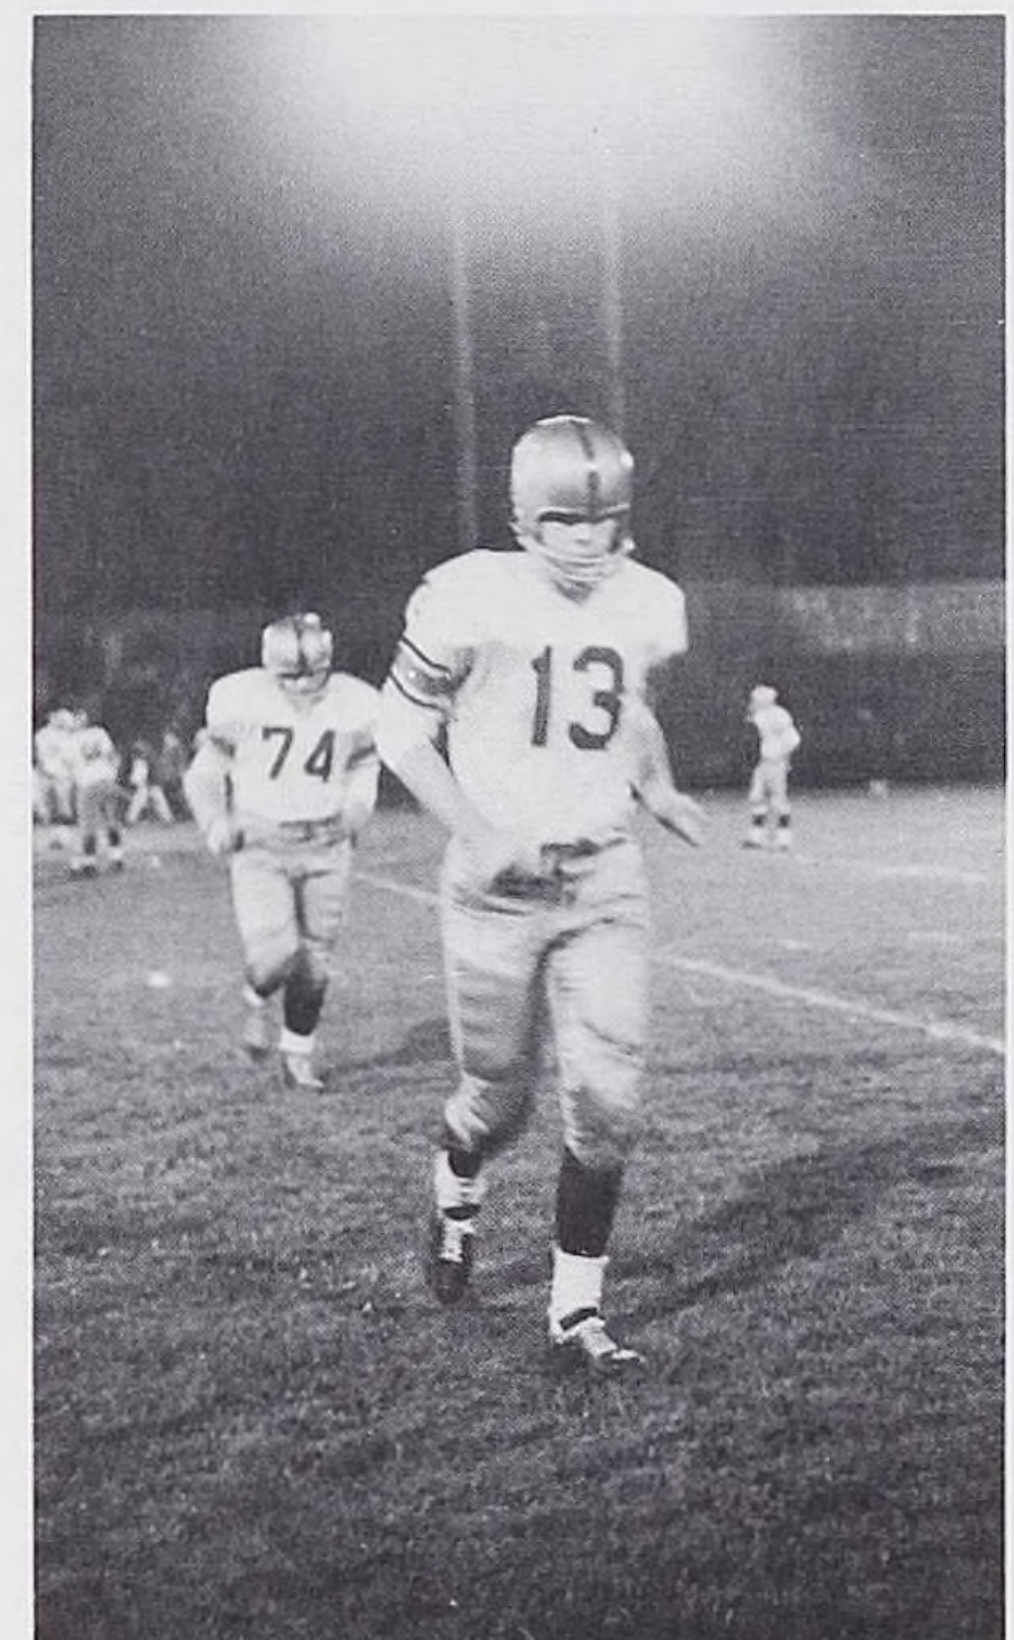

Congratulations on the occasion of this very important personal achievement represented by the completion of the high school program of your choice.

If you review your personal school history since 1963, you will, I am sure, take pride in the success represented by these years; you will, also, recognize the lessons of those small failures experienced in these years of growing toward maturity. In closing this portion of your educational life, you will come to recognize that each achievement is a beginning rather than an end since the processes of learning are, and must be, a continuing lifelong effort. As high school freshmen, you were confronted with a new horizon; an educational picture that changed daily and with each successive year; a horizon presenting a challenge which you have met with success. Graduation now represents a new challenge which I am certain you will meet with the self-assurance acquired from the knowledge of a job well done.

It has been my great pleasure to work with you during these years; to share your problems, to observe your achievements and to assist you in reaching the goals of your choice. With a personal knowledge of your accomplishment, I have every confidence in your success for the future. Best wishes.

Sincerely,

*Kenneth B. Van de Mark
Principal
Olean Senior High School*

The Volcano Irazú is a famous landmark in Costa Rica, the home of our foreign exchange student, Rosibel Mora.

The American Field Service selected Joel Greene, an Olean High School student, to represent them for a summer in Sweden. Joel and his Swedish "brother" traveled to Russia where they were photographed in front of the Kremlin in Moscow.

O.H.S. EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Our exchange student from Costa Rica, Rosibel Mora, spent a year in Olean with Marilyn Wright and her family.

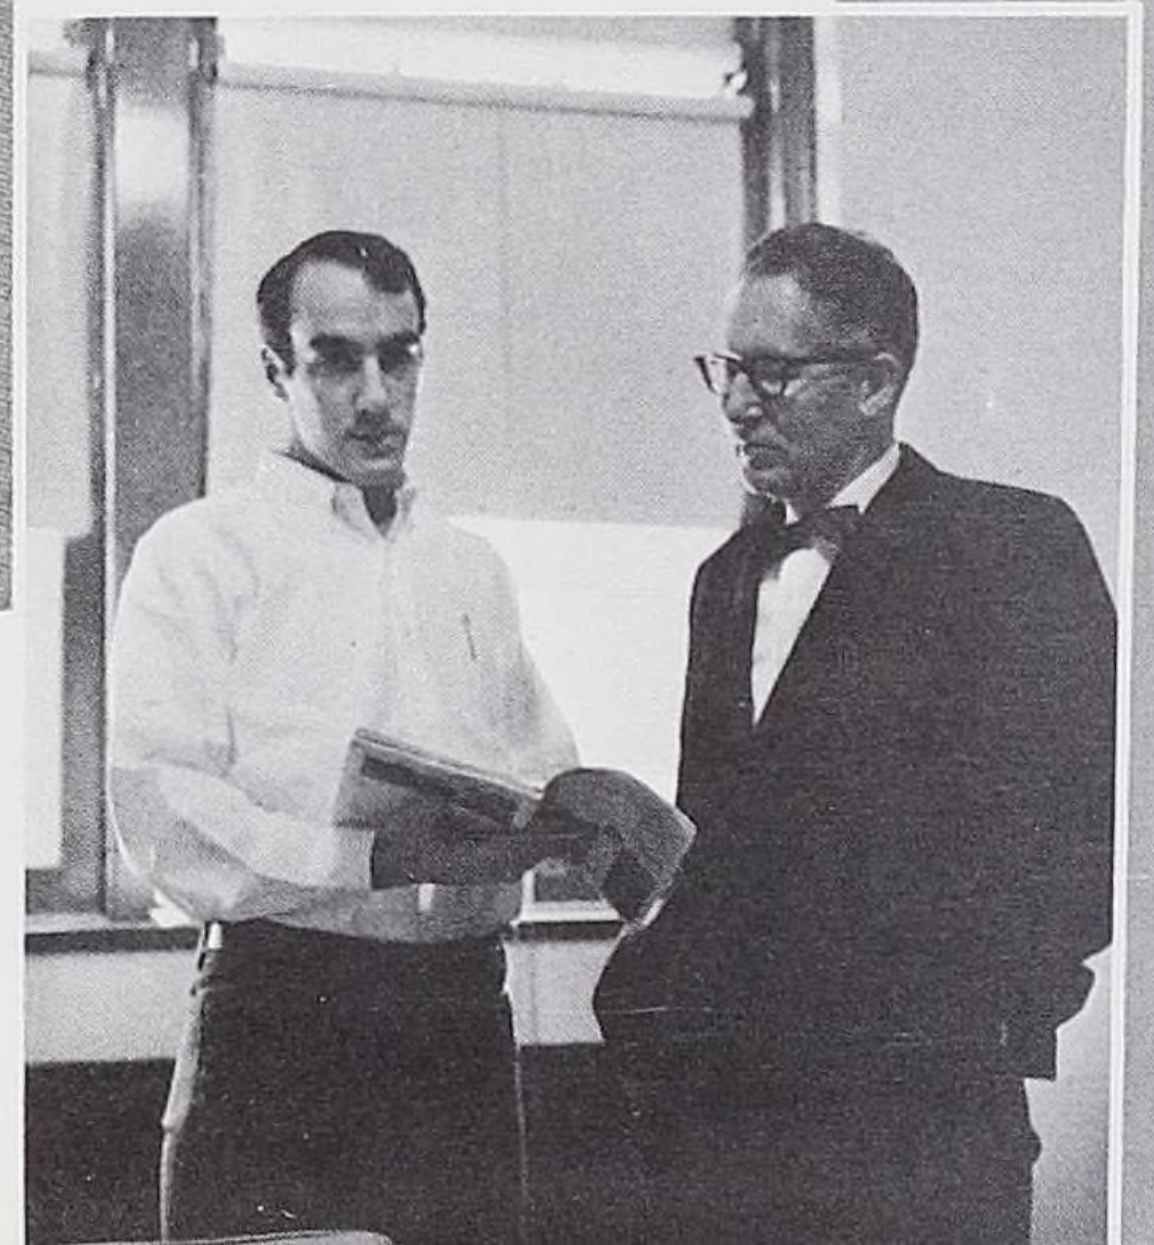

Throughout her stay here she made many friends and obtained the guidance of many faculty members such as the advisor of the American Field Service Club, Mr. Hertel Fluent.

Although many thousands of miles will soon be between Rosi and her American friends, we would like to wish her much success in her future endeavors.

During the summer of 1966, Joel Green, a Senior at Olean High, traveled to Sweden under the American Field Service program.

Joel has given several lectures and shown his many interesting slides to a number of school groups and community clubs. He too has received the aid and advice of Mr. Fluent, who had donated his time to working with members of the A.F.S. Club.

om Salamanca--

At '23'

Olean High School brought Salamanca's winning streak of 23 games without defeat to an unexpected close in the freezing winds of Bradner Stadium.

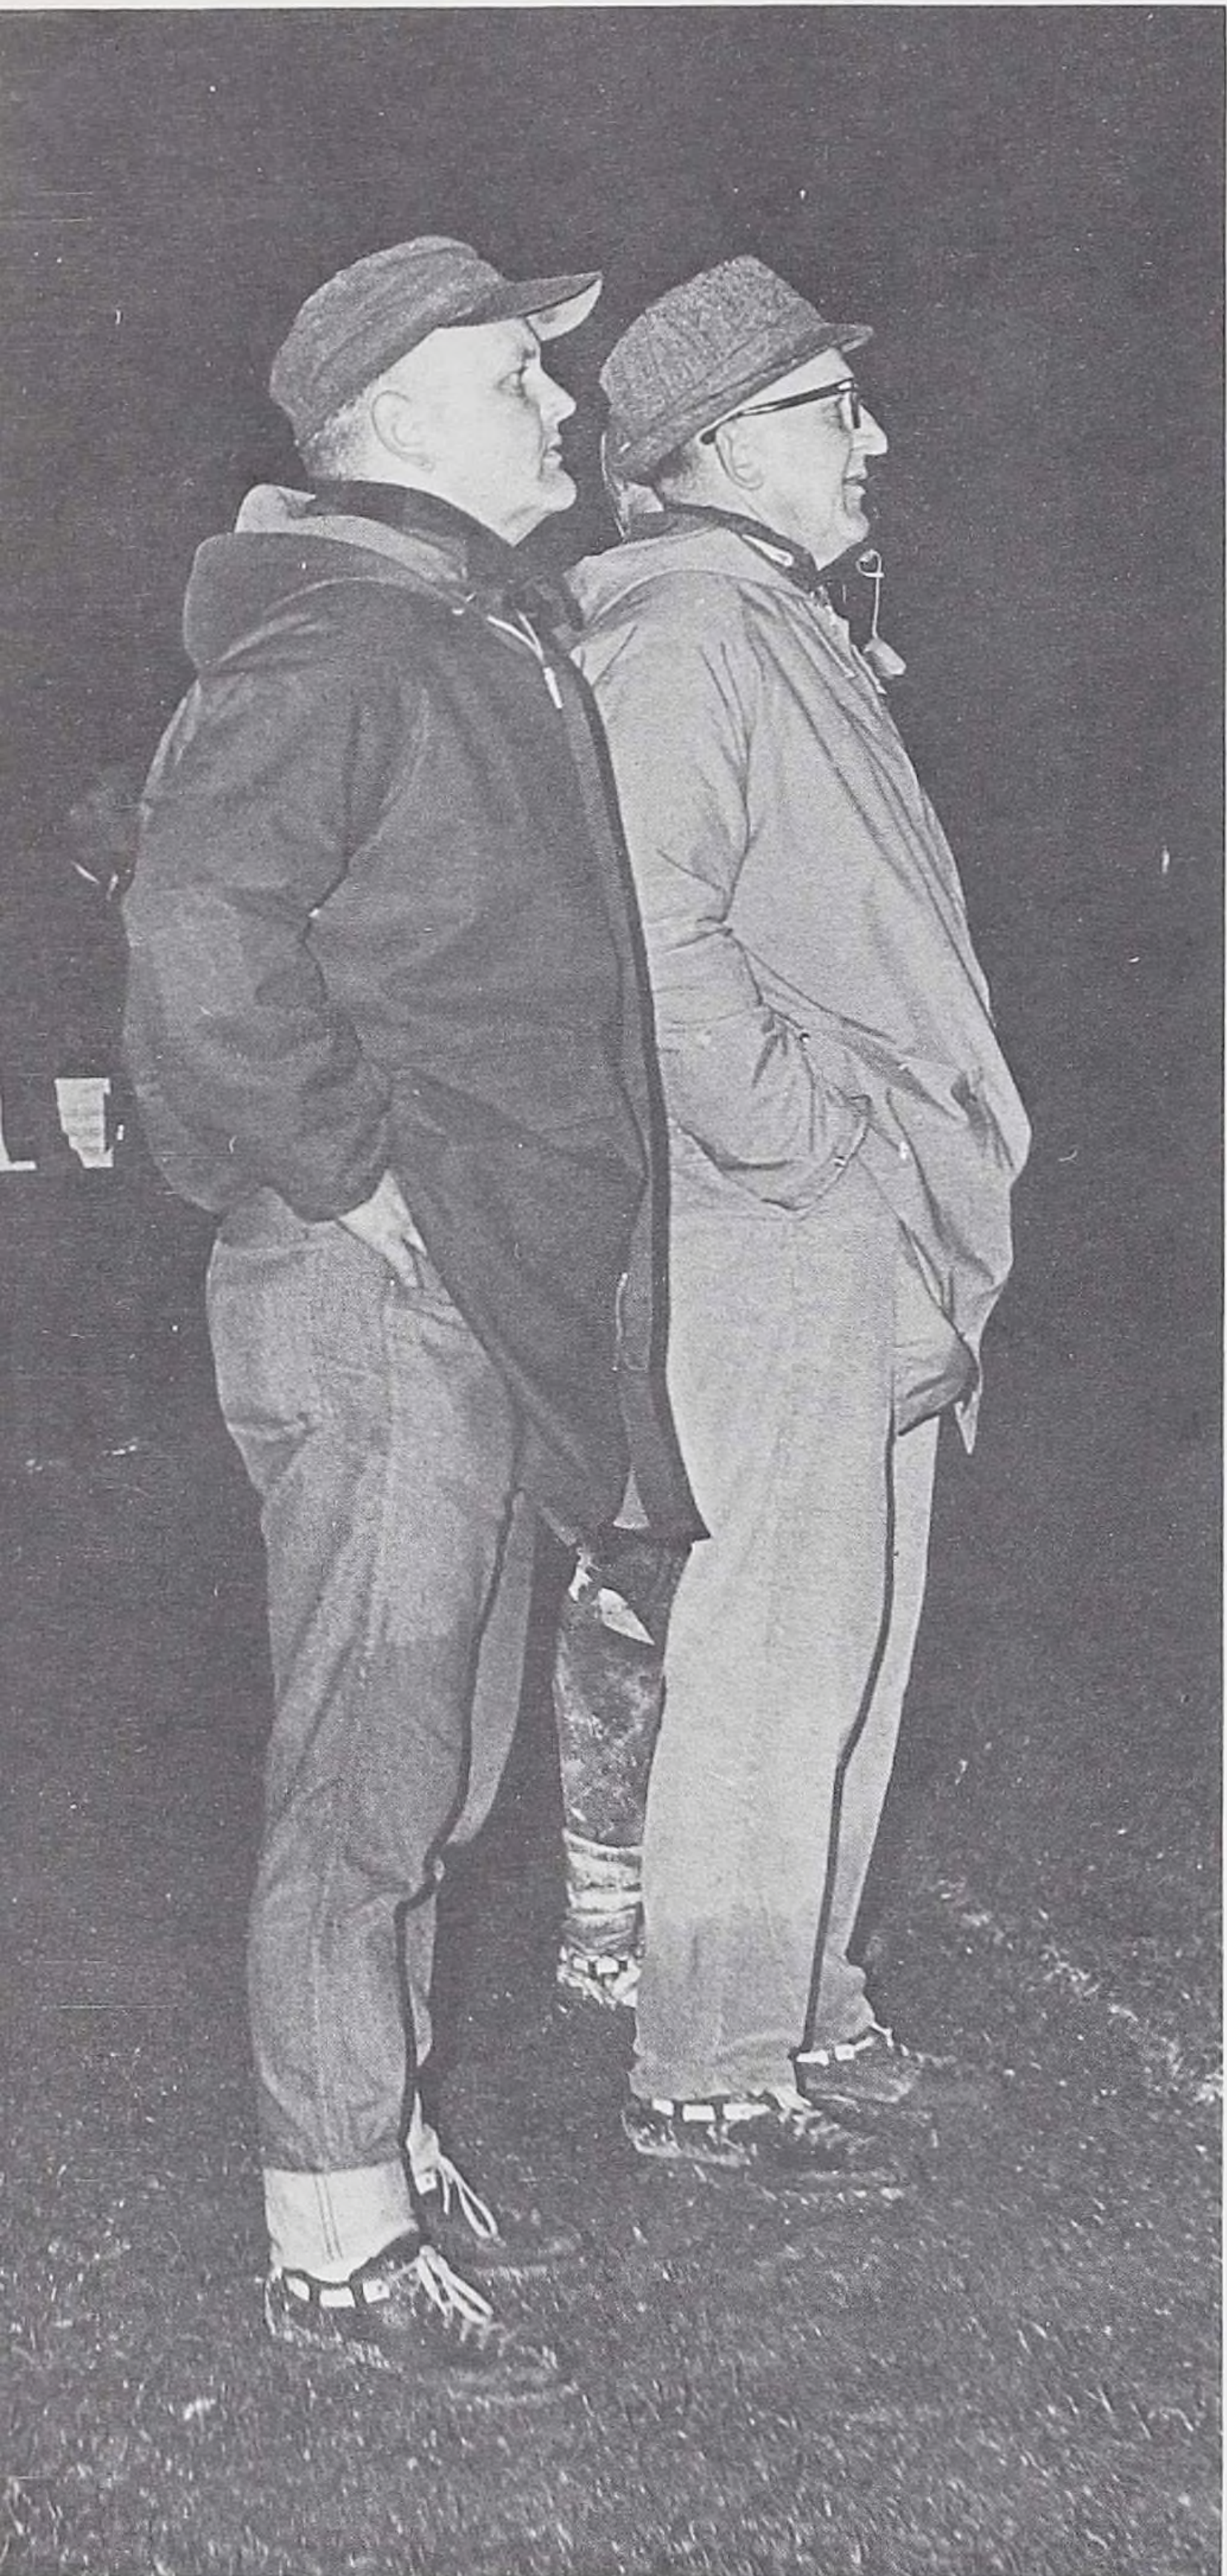

A frozen crowd of nearly 5,000 watched as Olean slammed into Salamanca's Warriors. In the first minute of the game Salamanca relayed a setback that would have caused most teams to collapse yet Olean gained a monumental victory.

Because Olean didn't collapse and bounced back instead, we ended The Warriors' third straight unbeaten season.

MANAGERS

John Dwaileebe
Mike Kolata

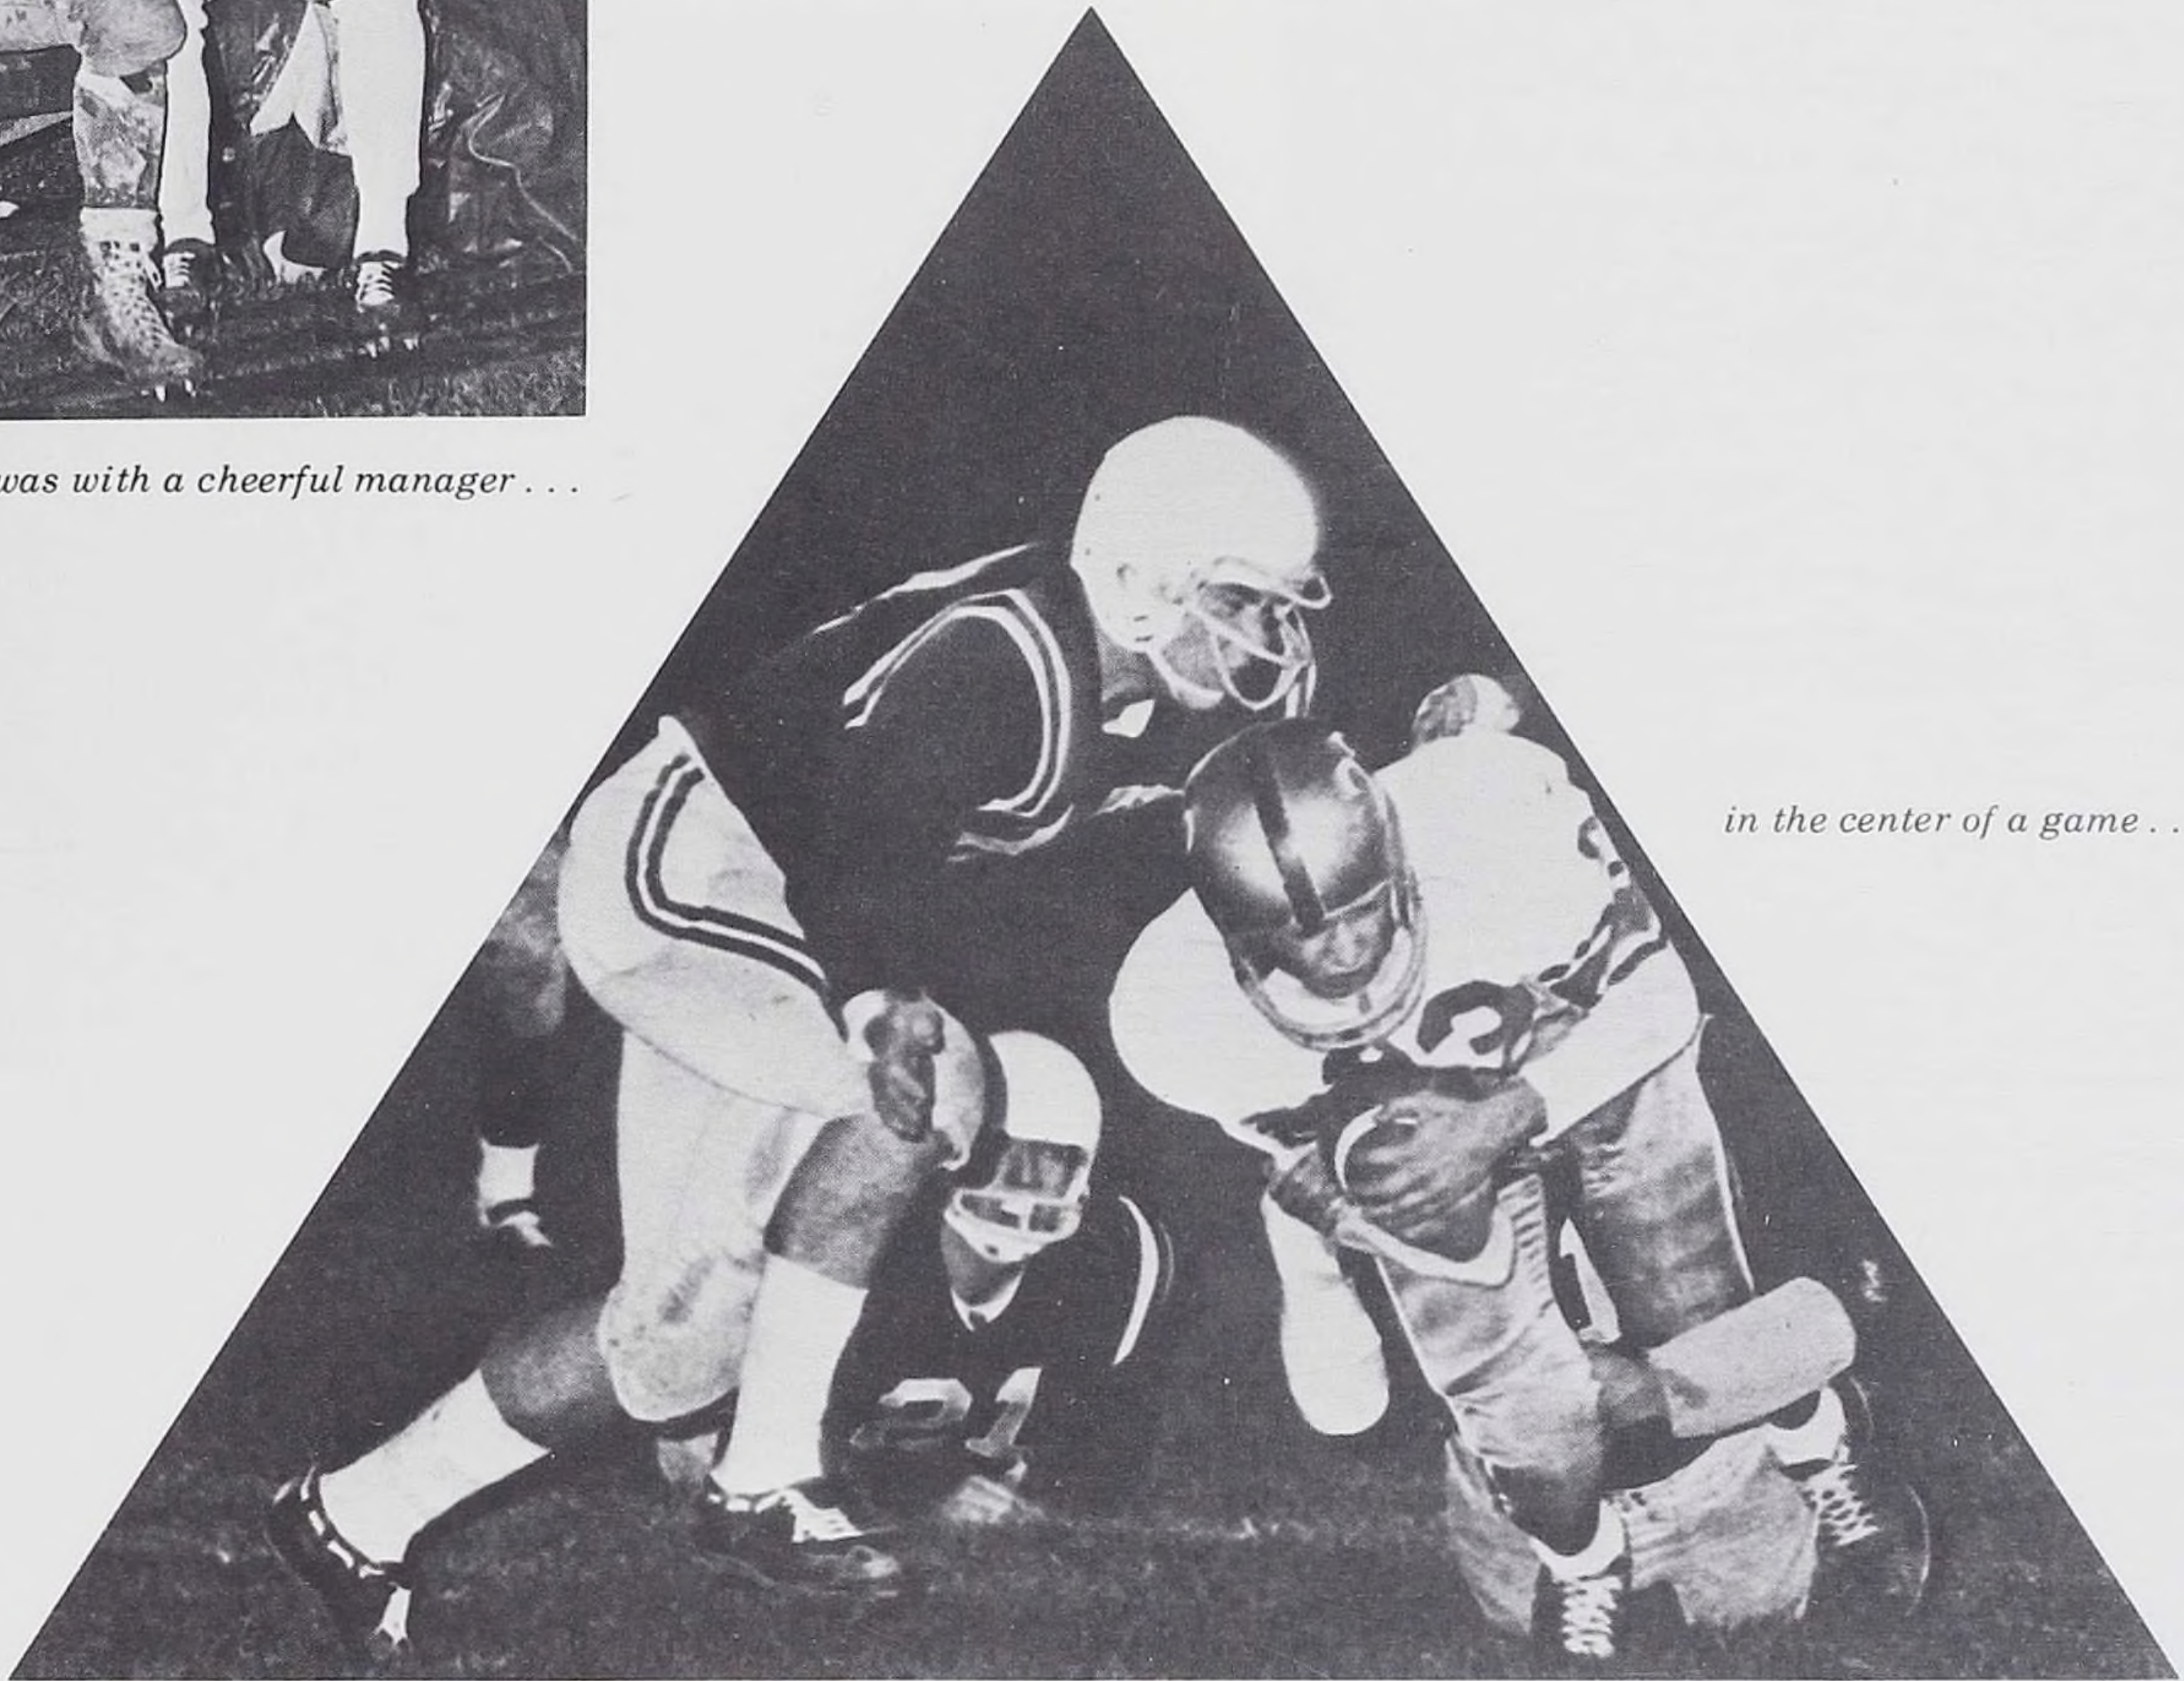

Bob Bennett
Ronald Moore

Our Huskie team members were seldom alone . . .

whether it was with a cheerful manager . . .

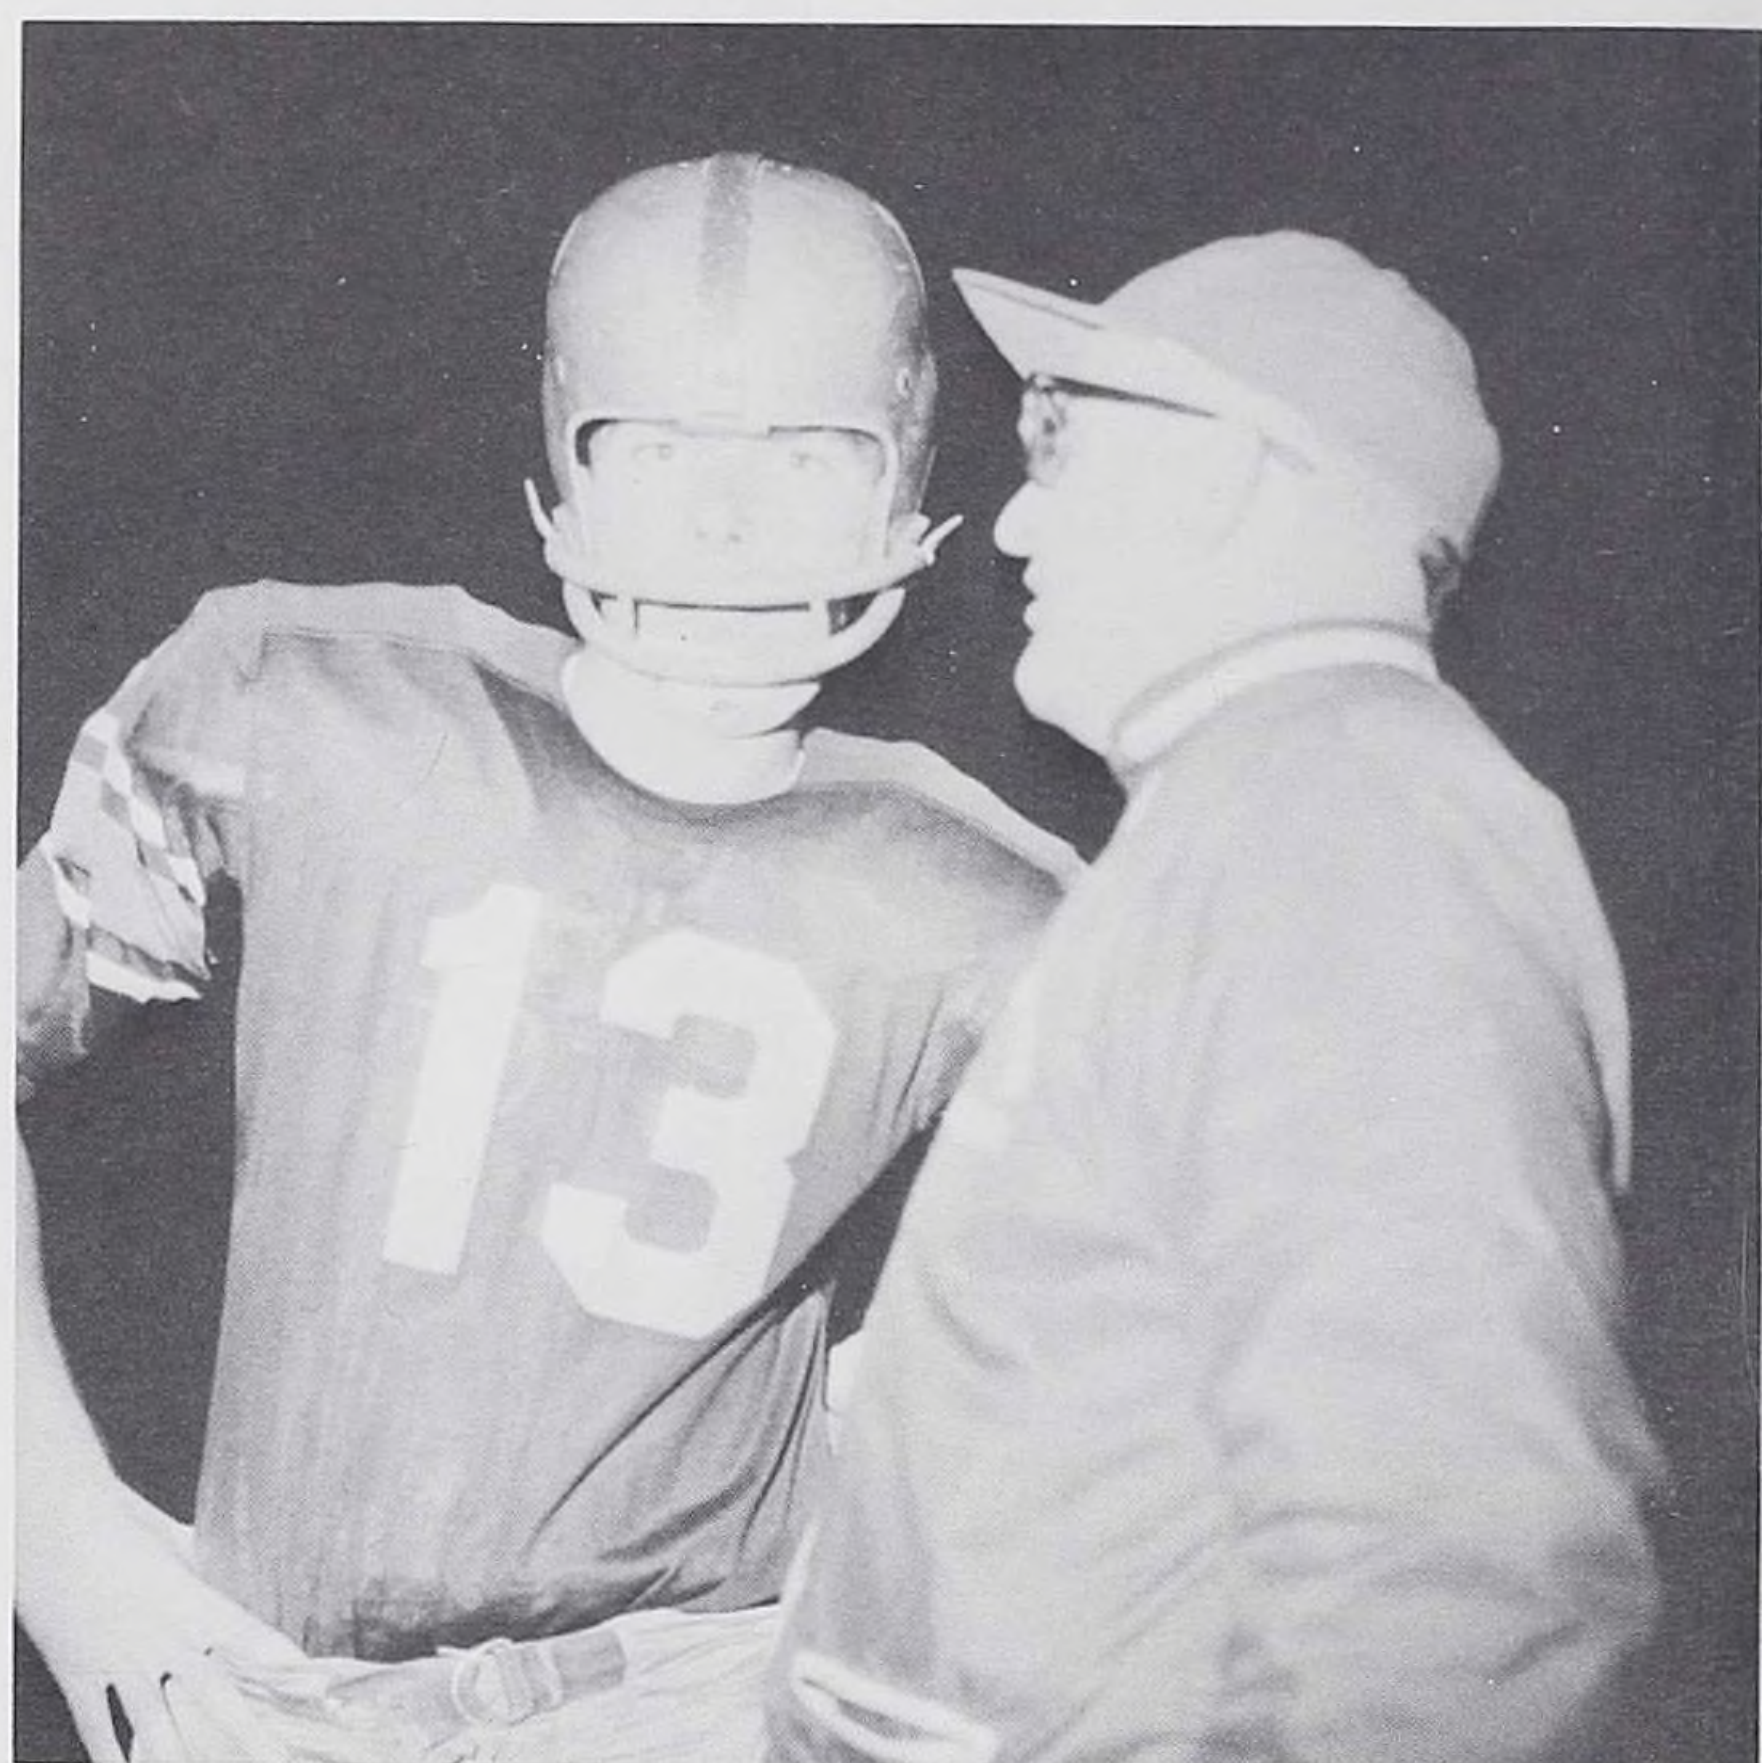

in the center of a game . . .

or with one special person.

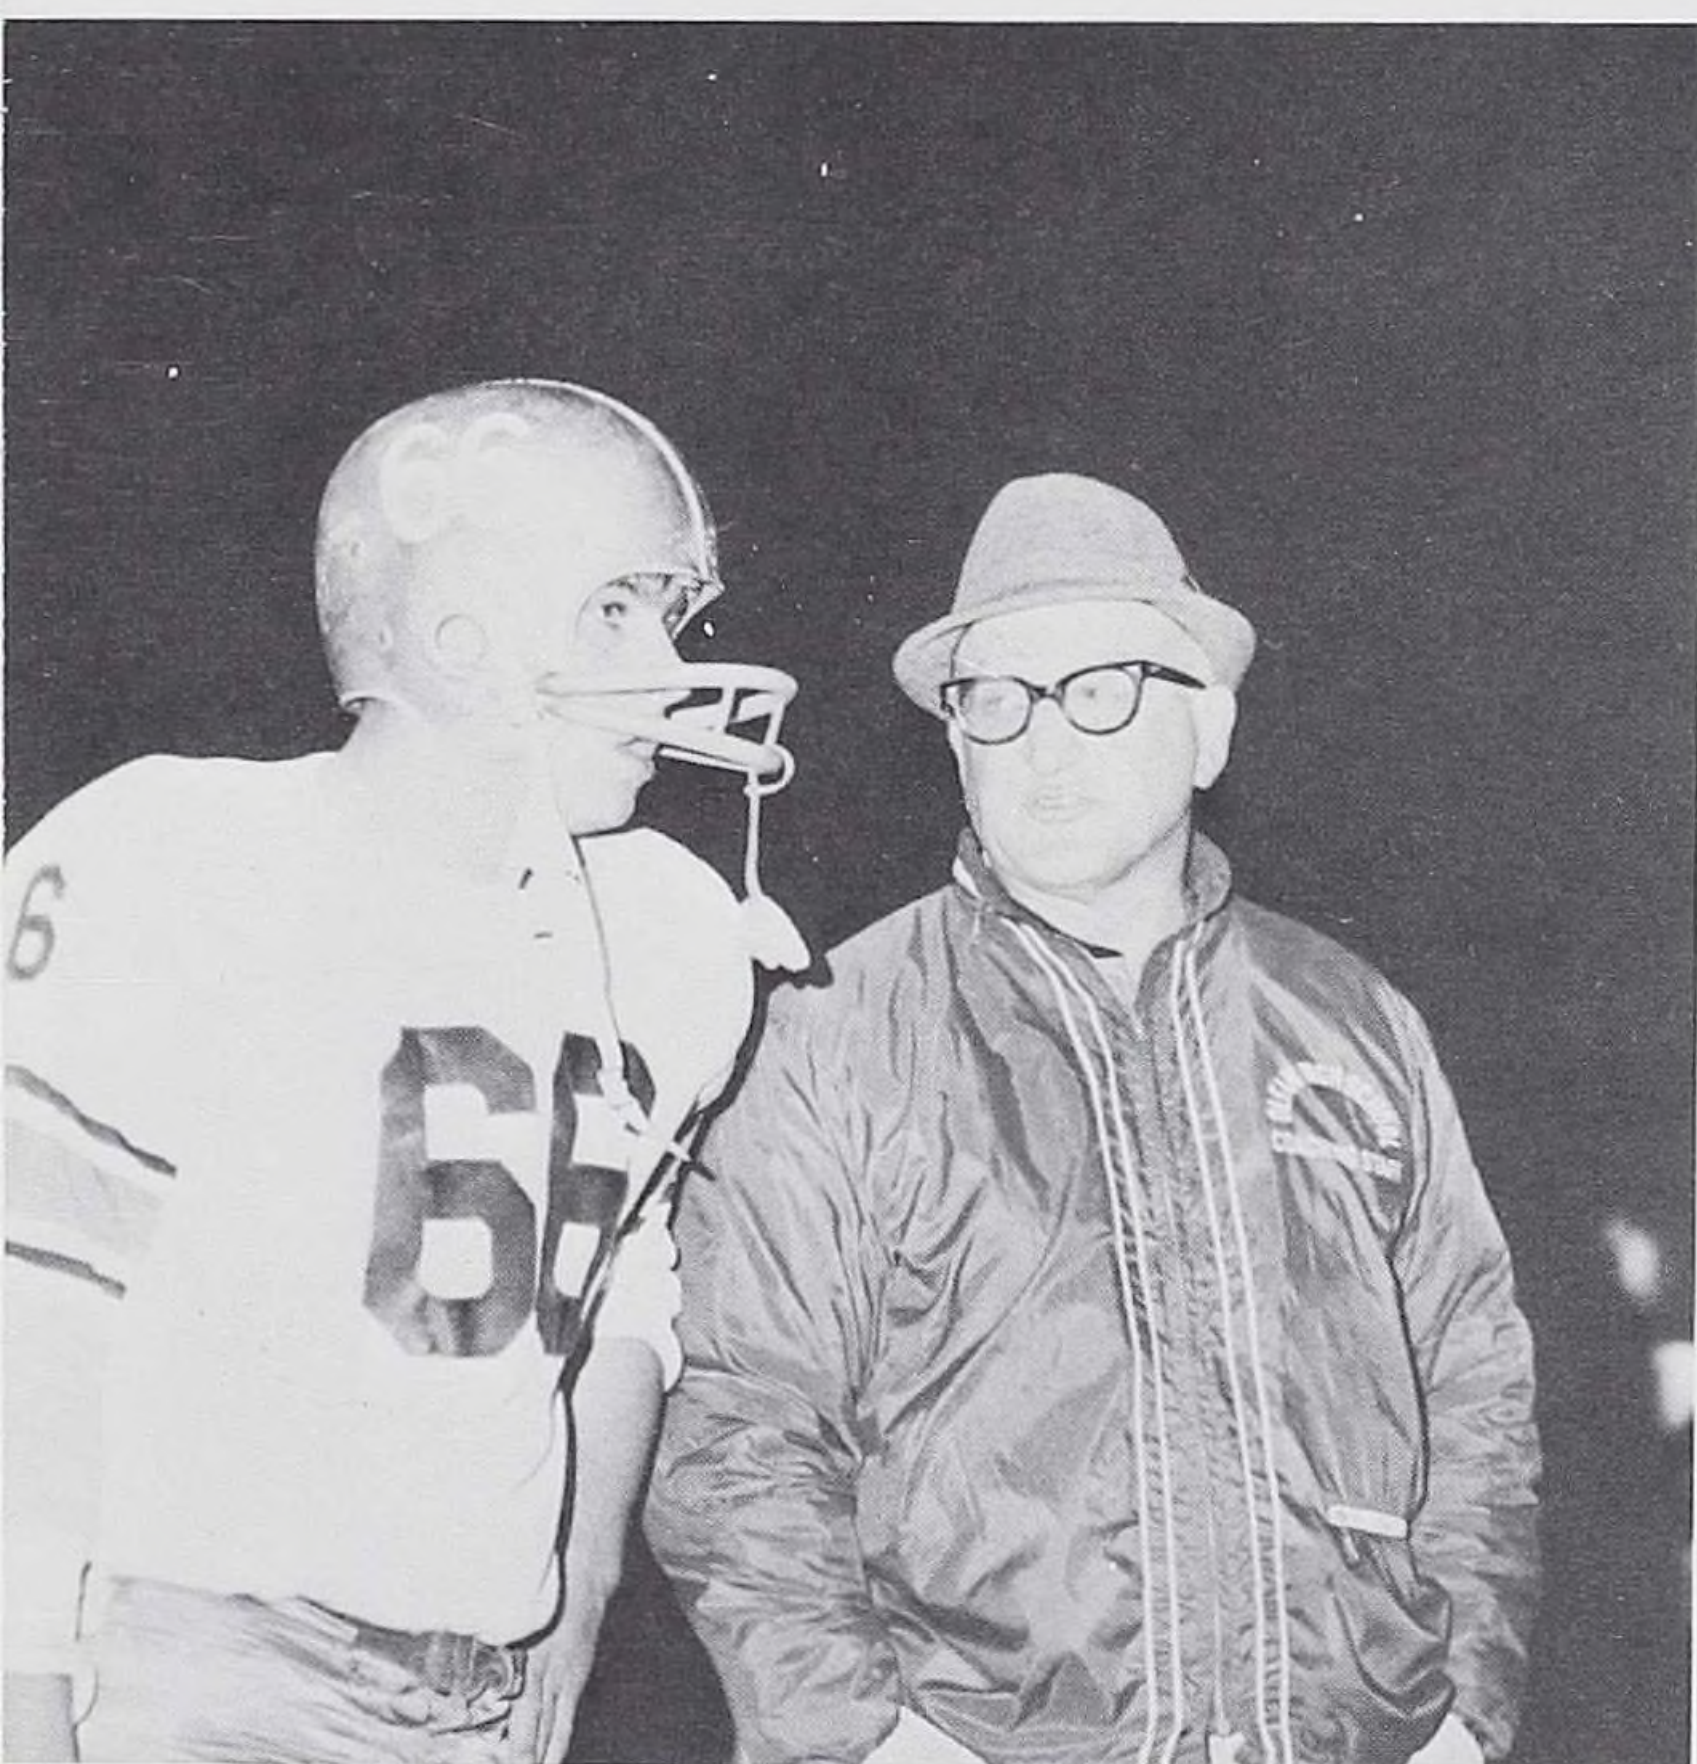

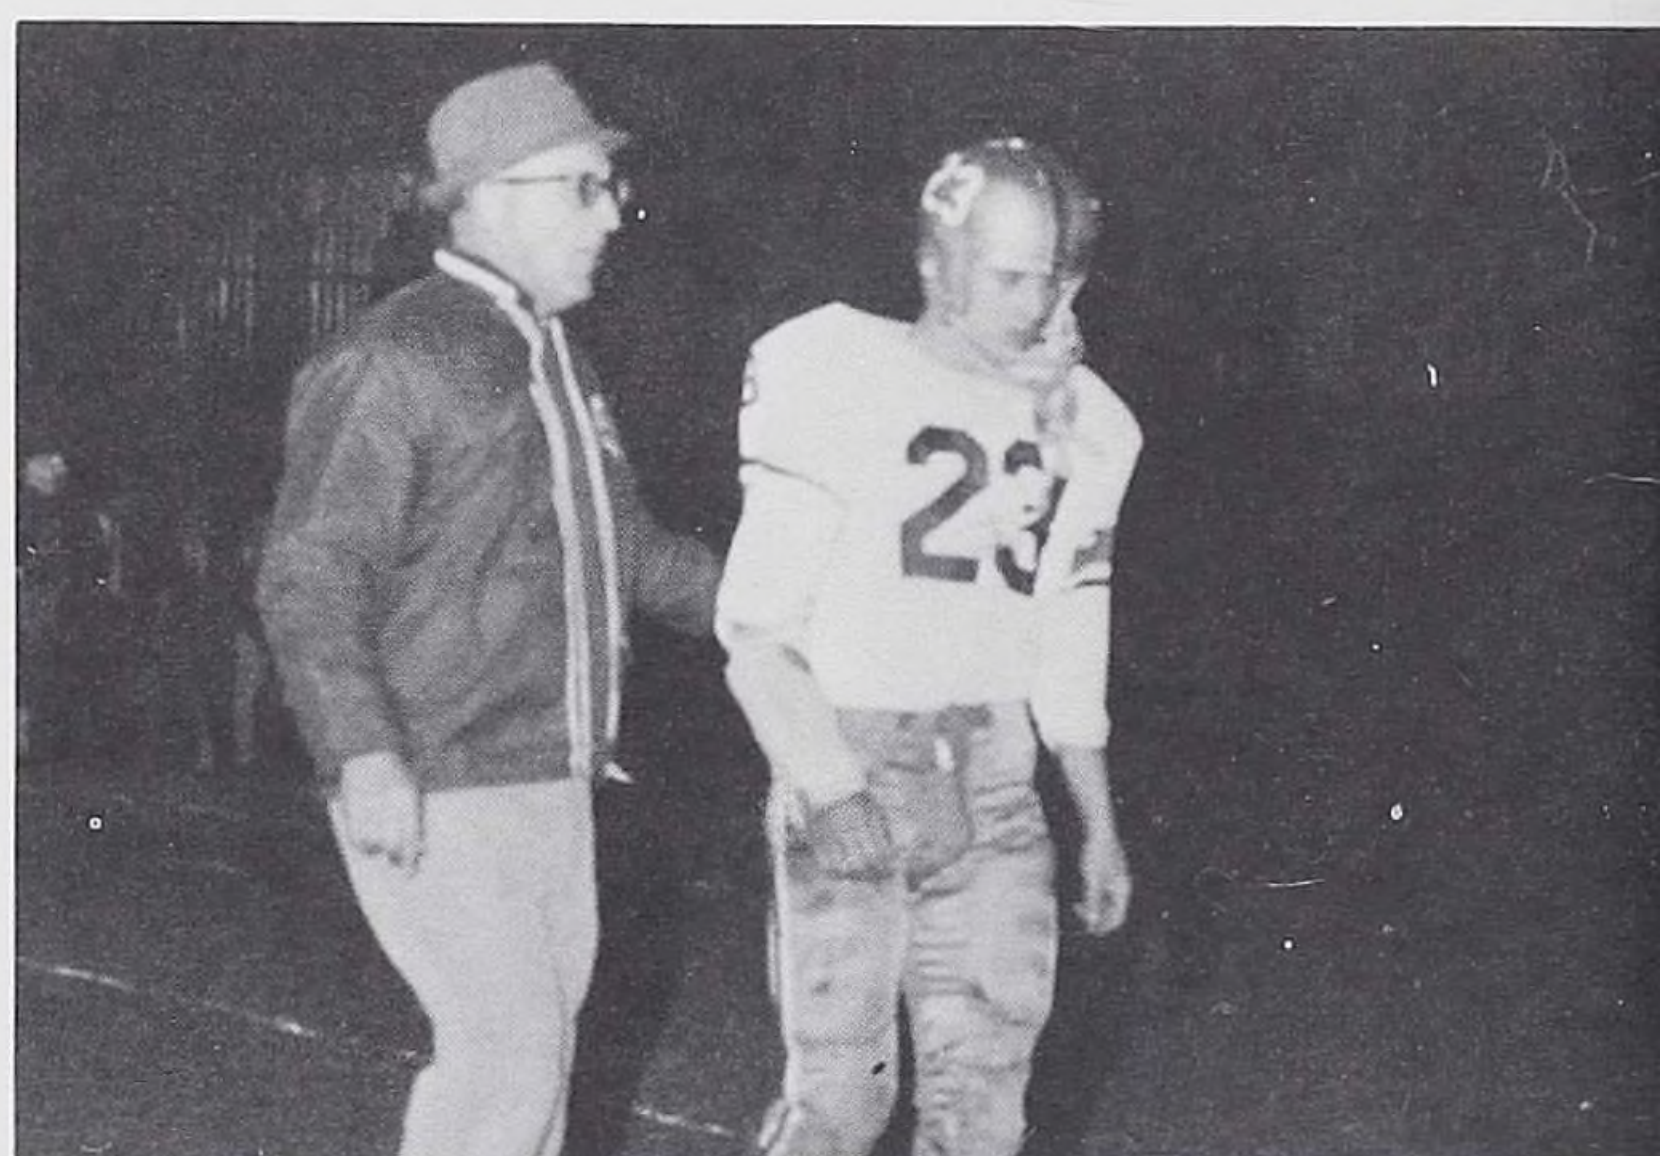

Our coaches were always ready to defend their boys.

The teamwork between team members and Mr. Ksionzyk were hard to top.

At the end of the games Mr. Ksionzyk could be found either giving someone words to "try harder" or "congratulations on a great game".

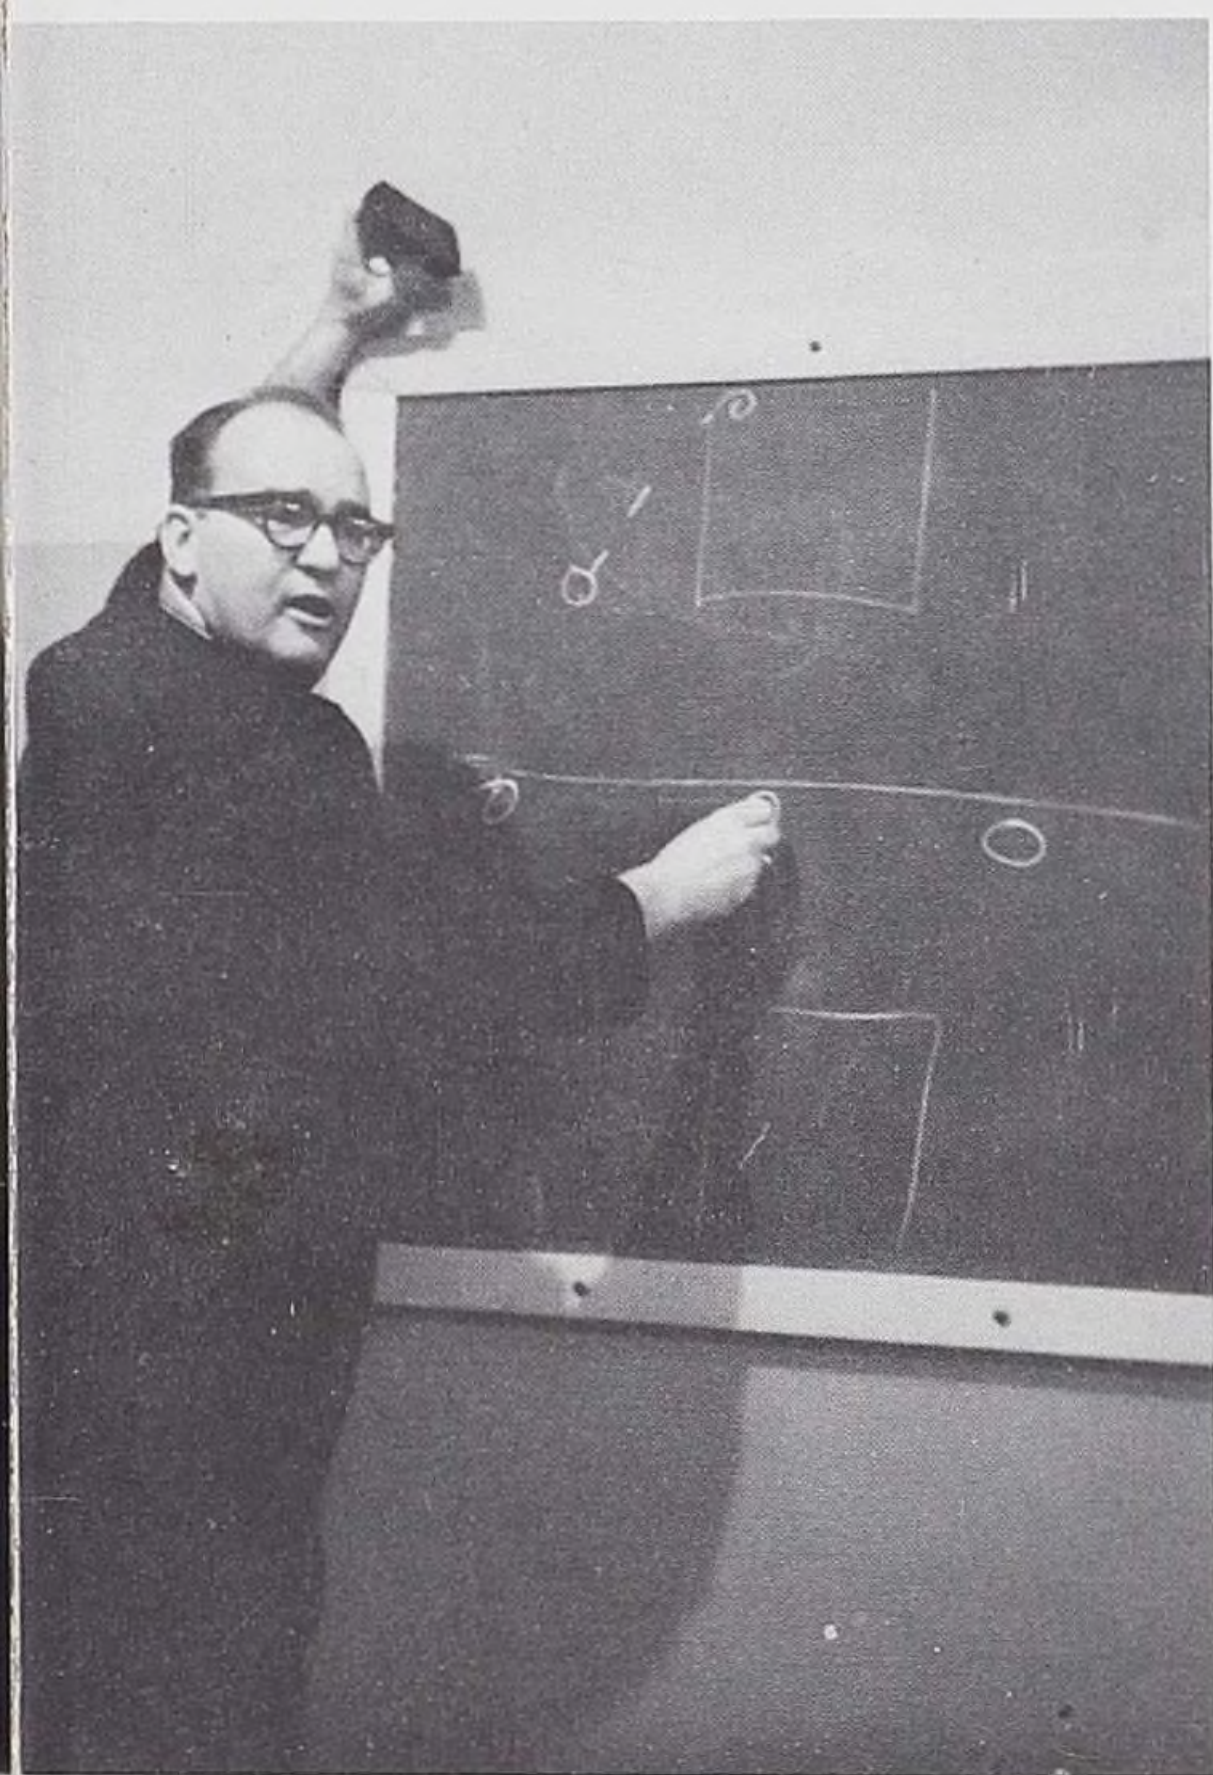

The coach pointed out our boys' mistakes and encouraged them to try new and better plays.

THE COACHES

Mr. Sassone went over all of the basketball plays before each game and tried to ease any last minute doubts.

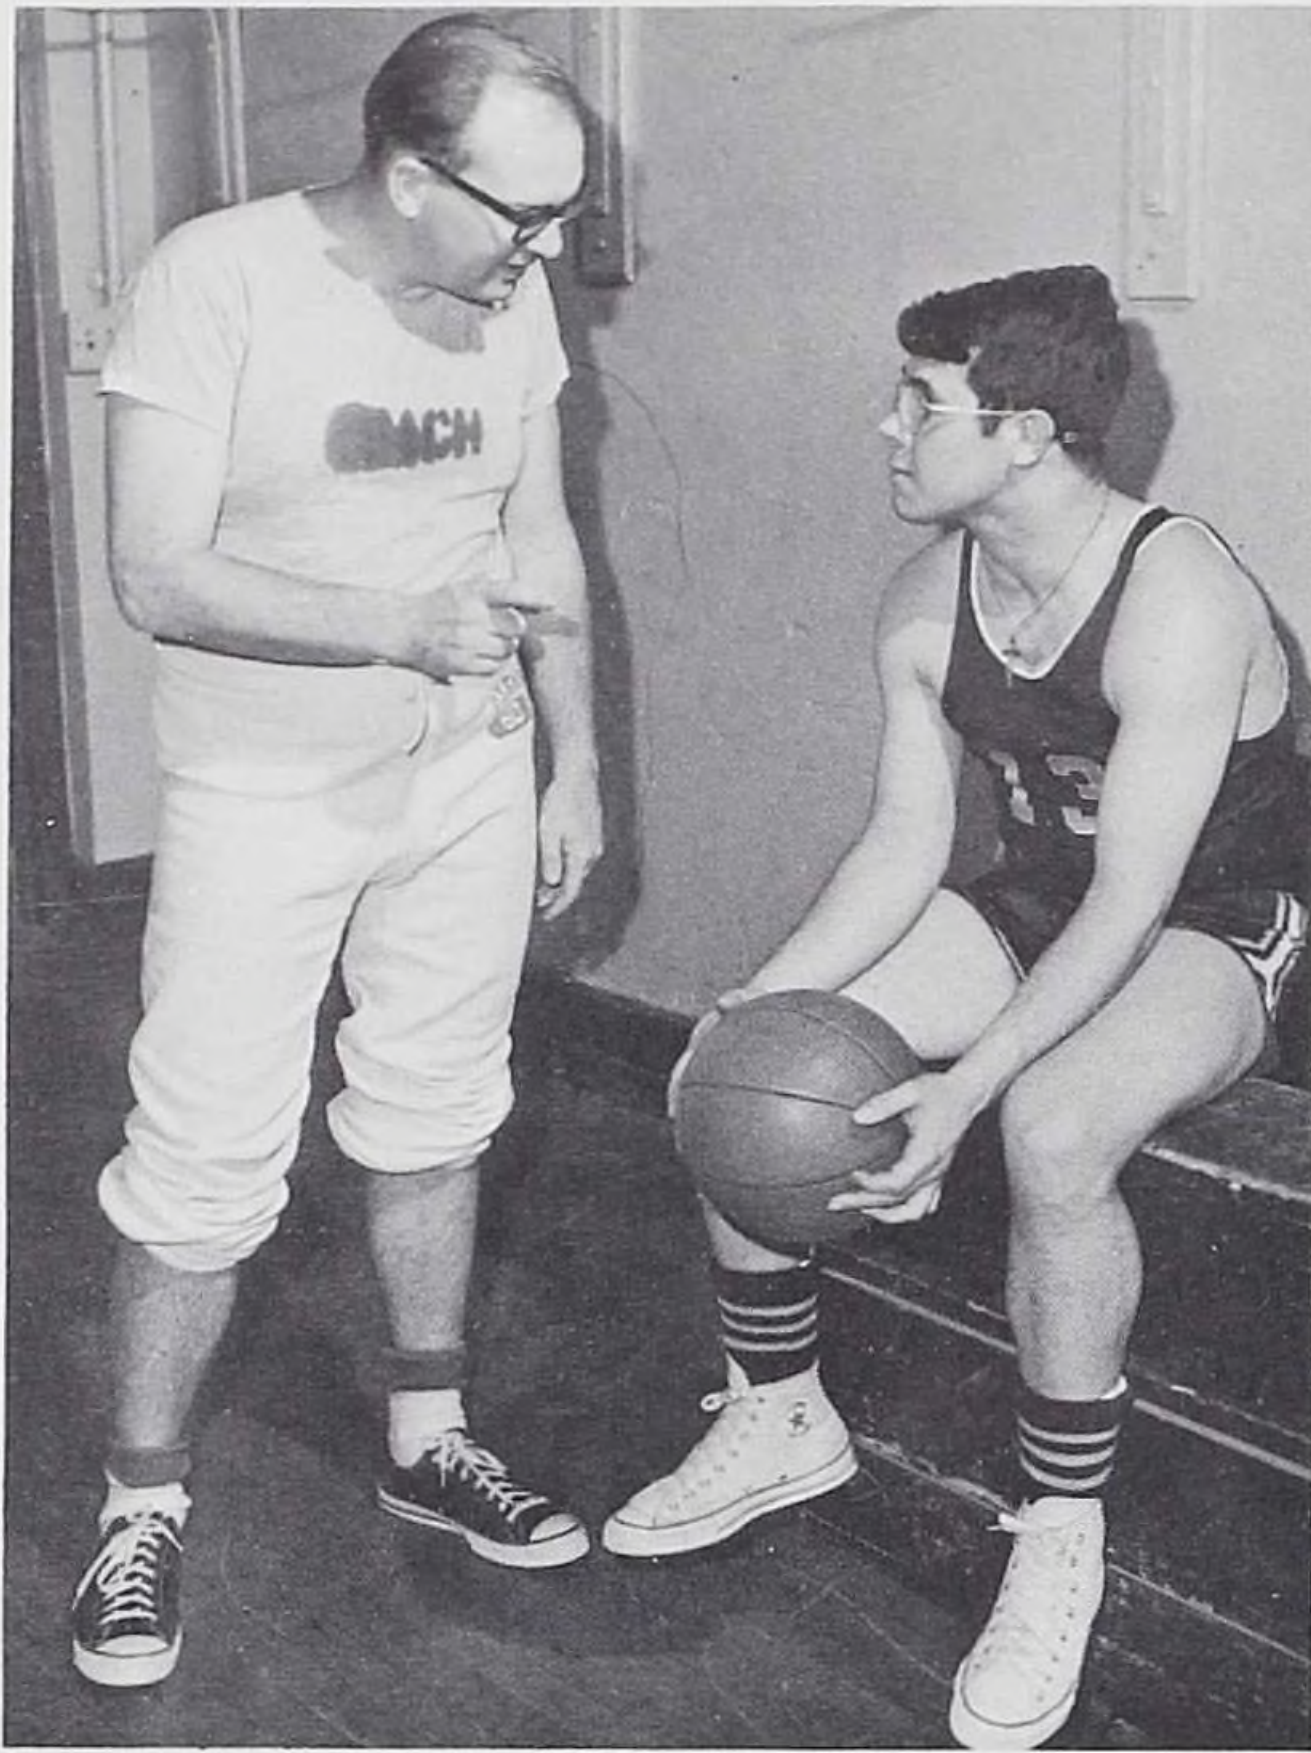

During the half times, "Sass" could always be found at the blackboard going over the plays again.

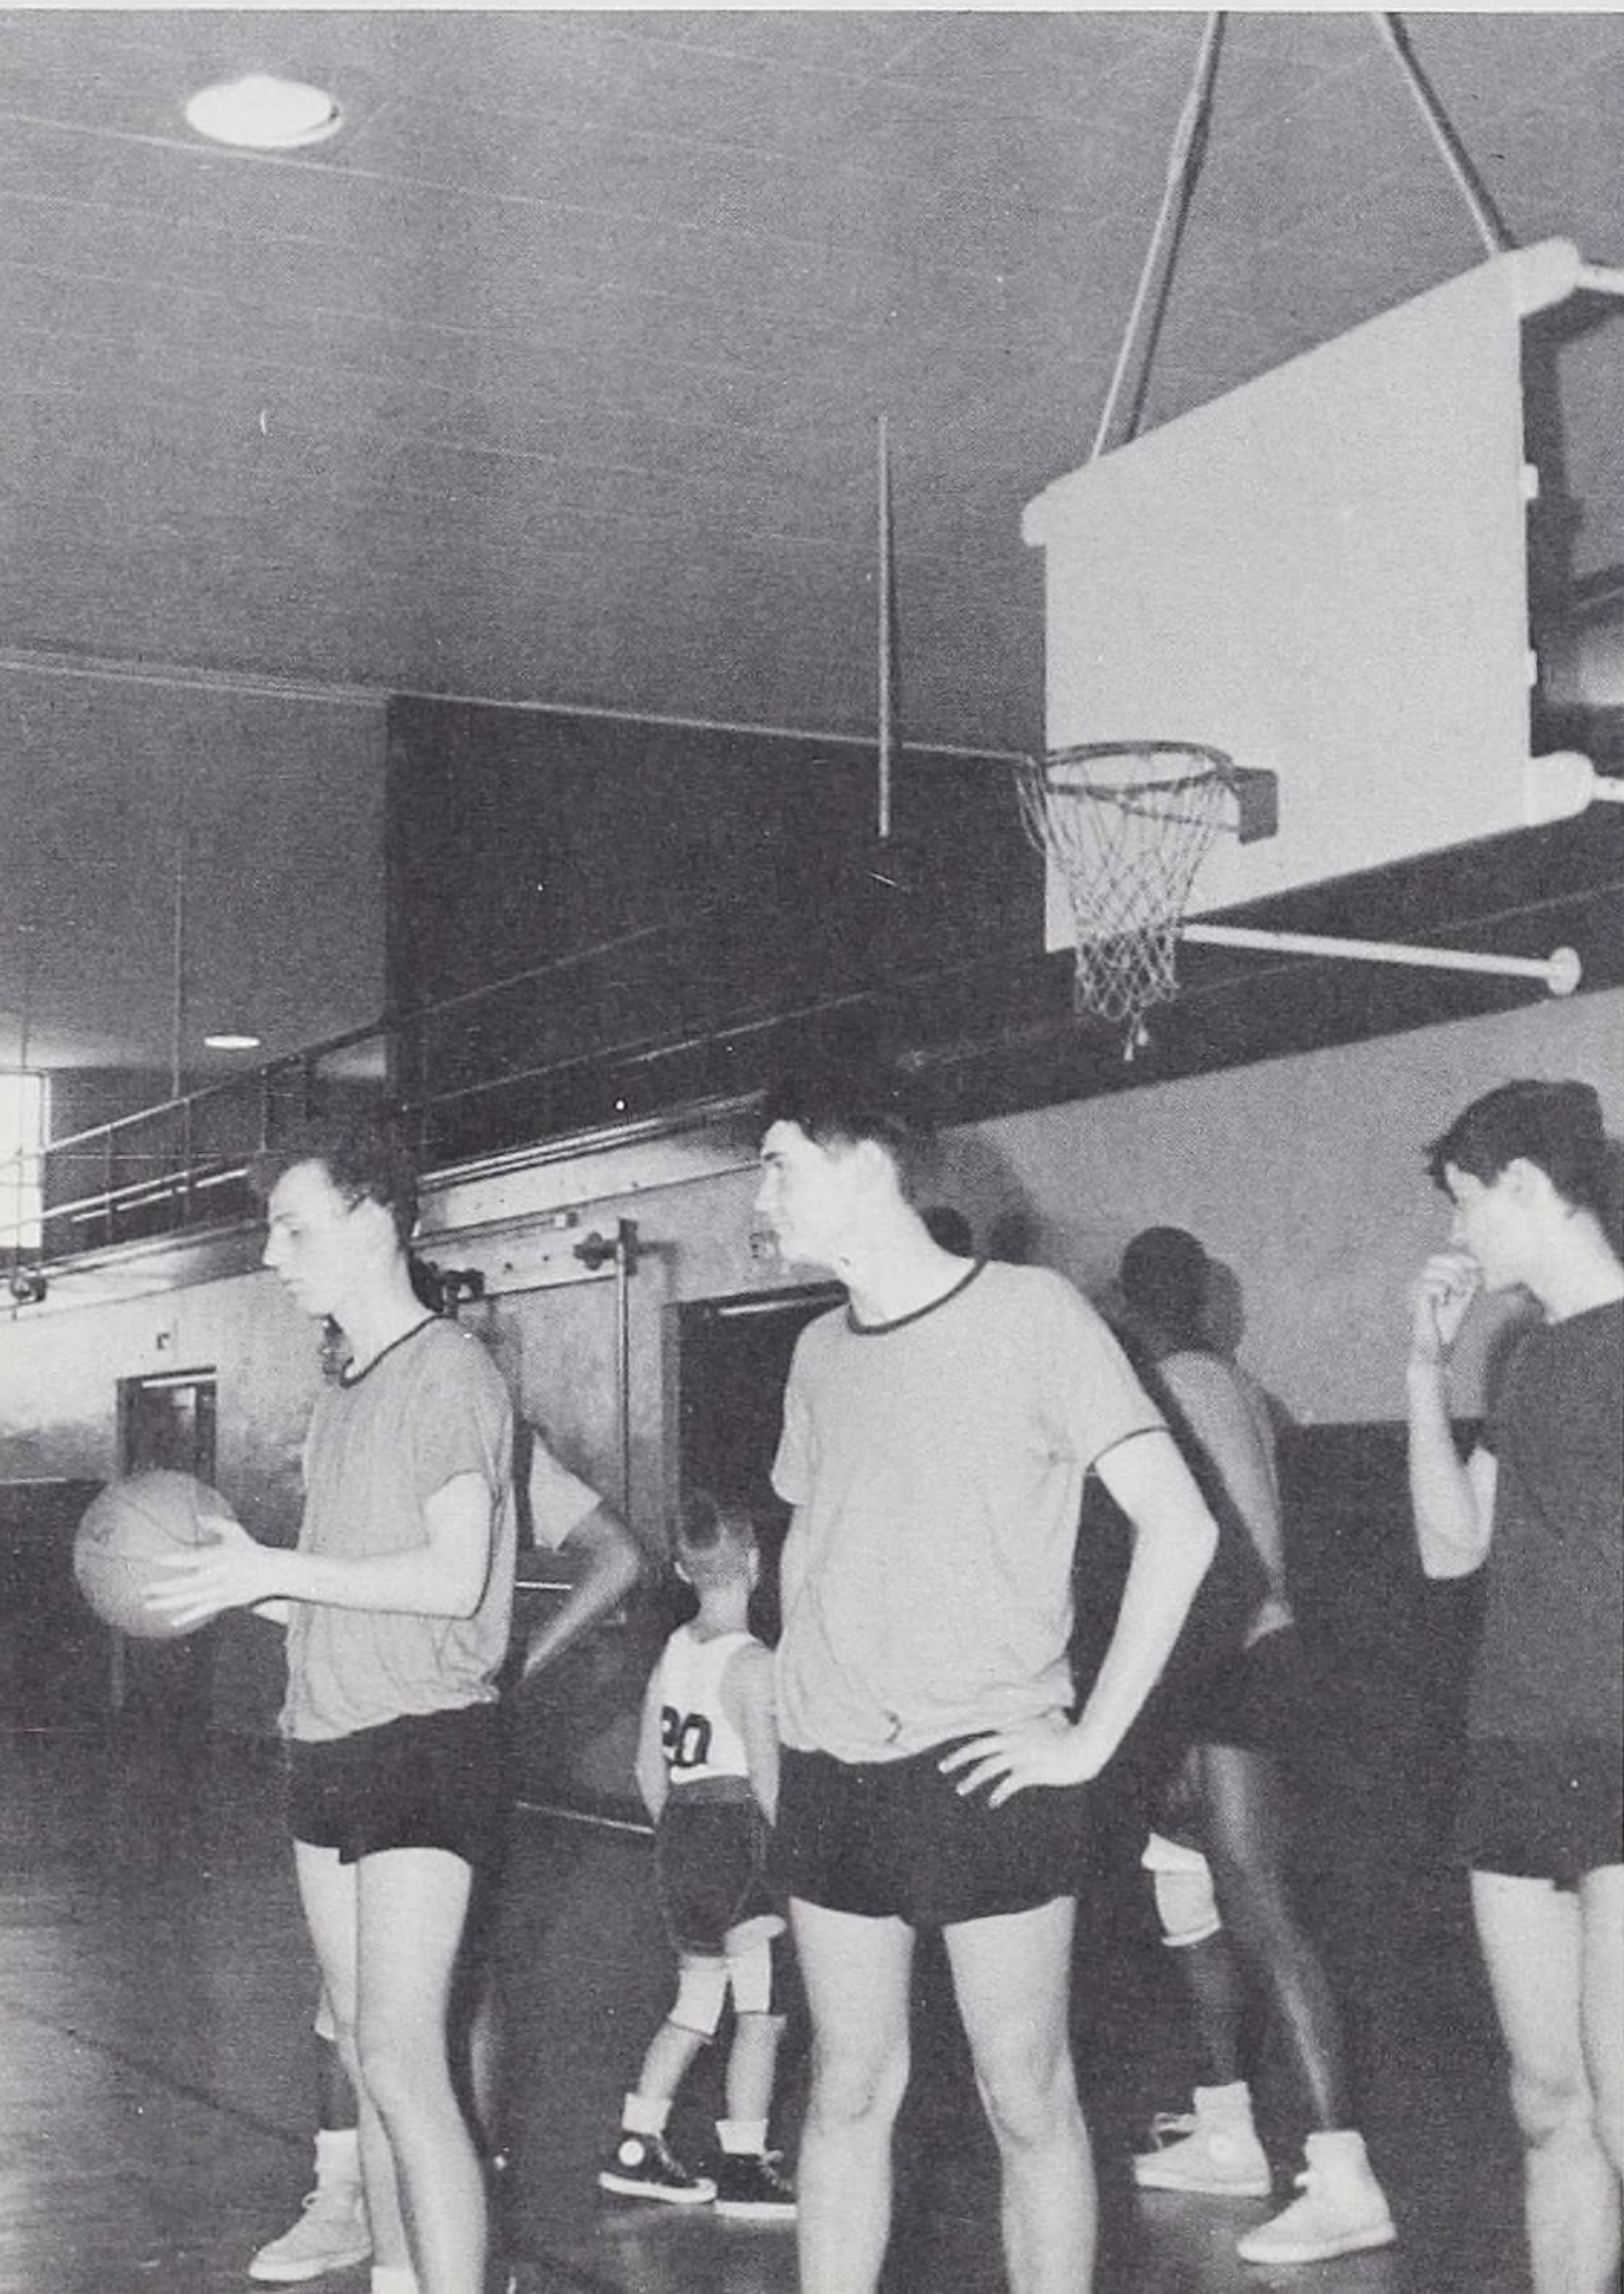

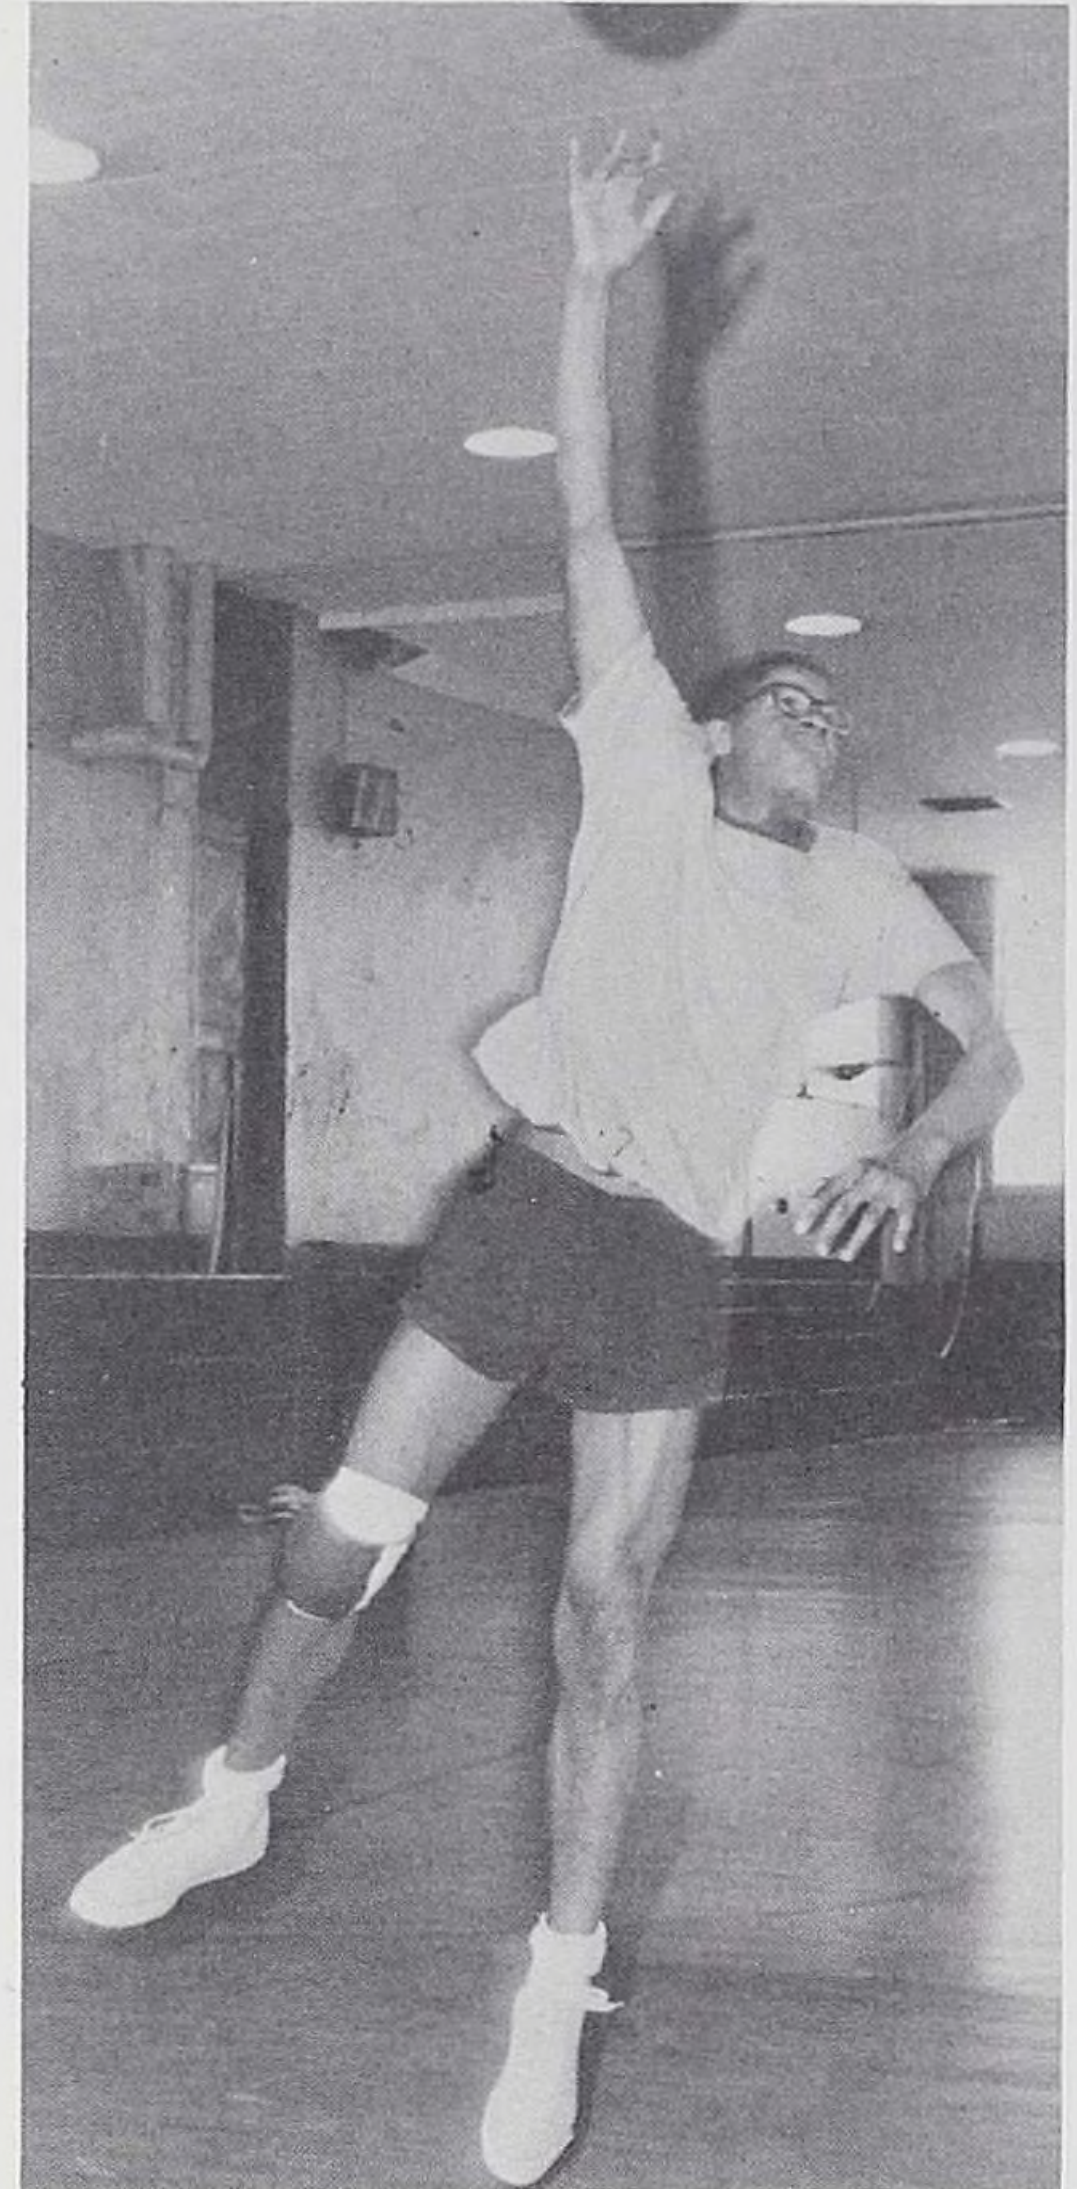

He watched anxiously and followed the moves of his boys with great concern.

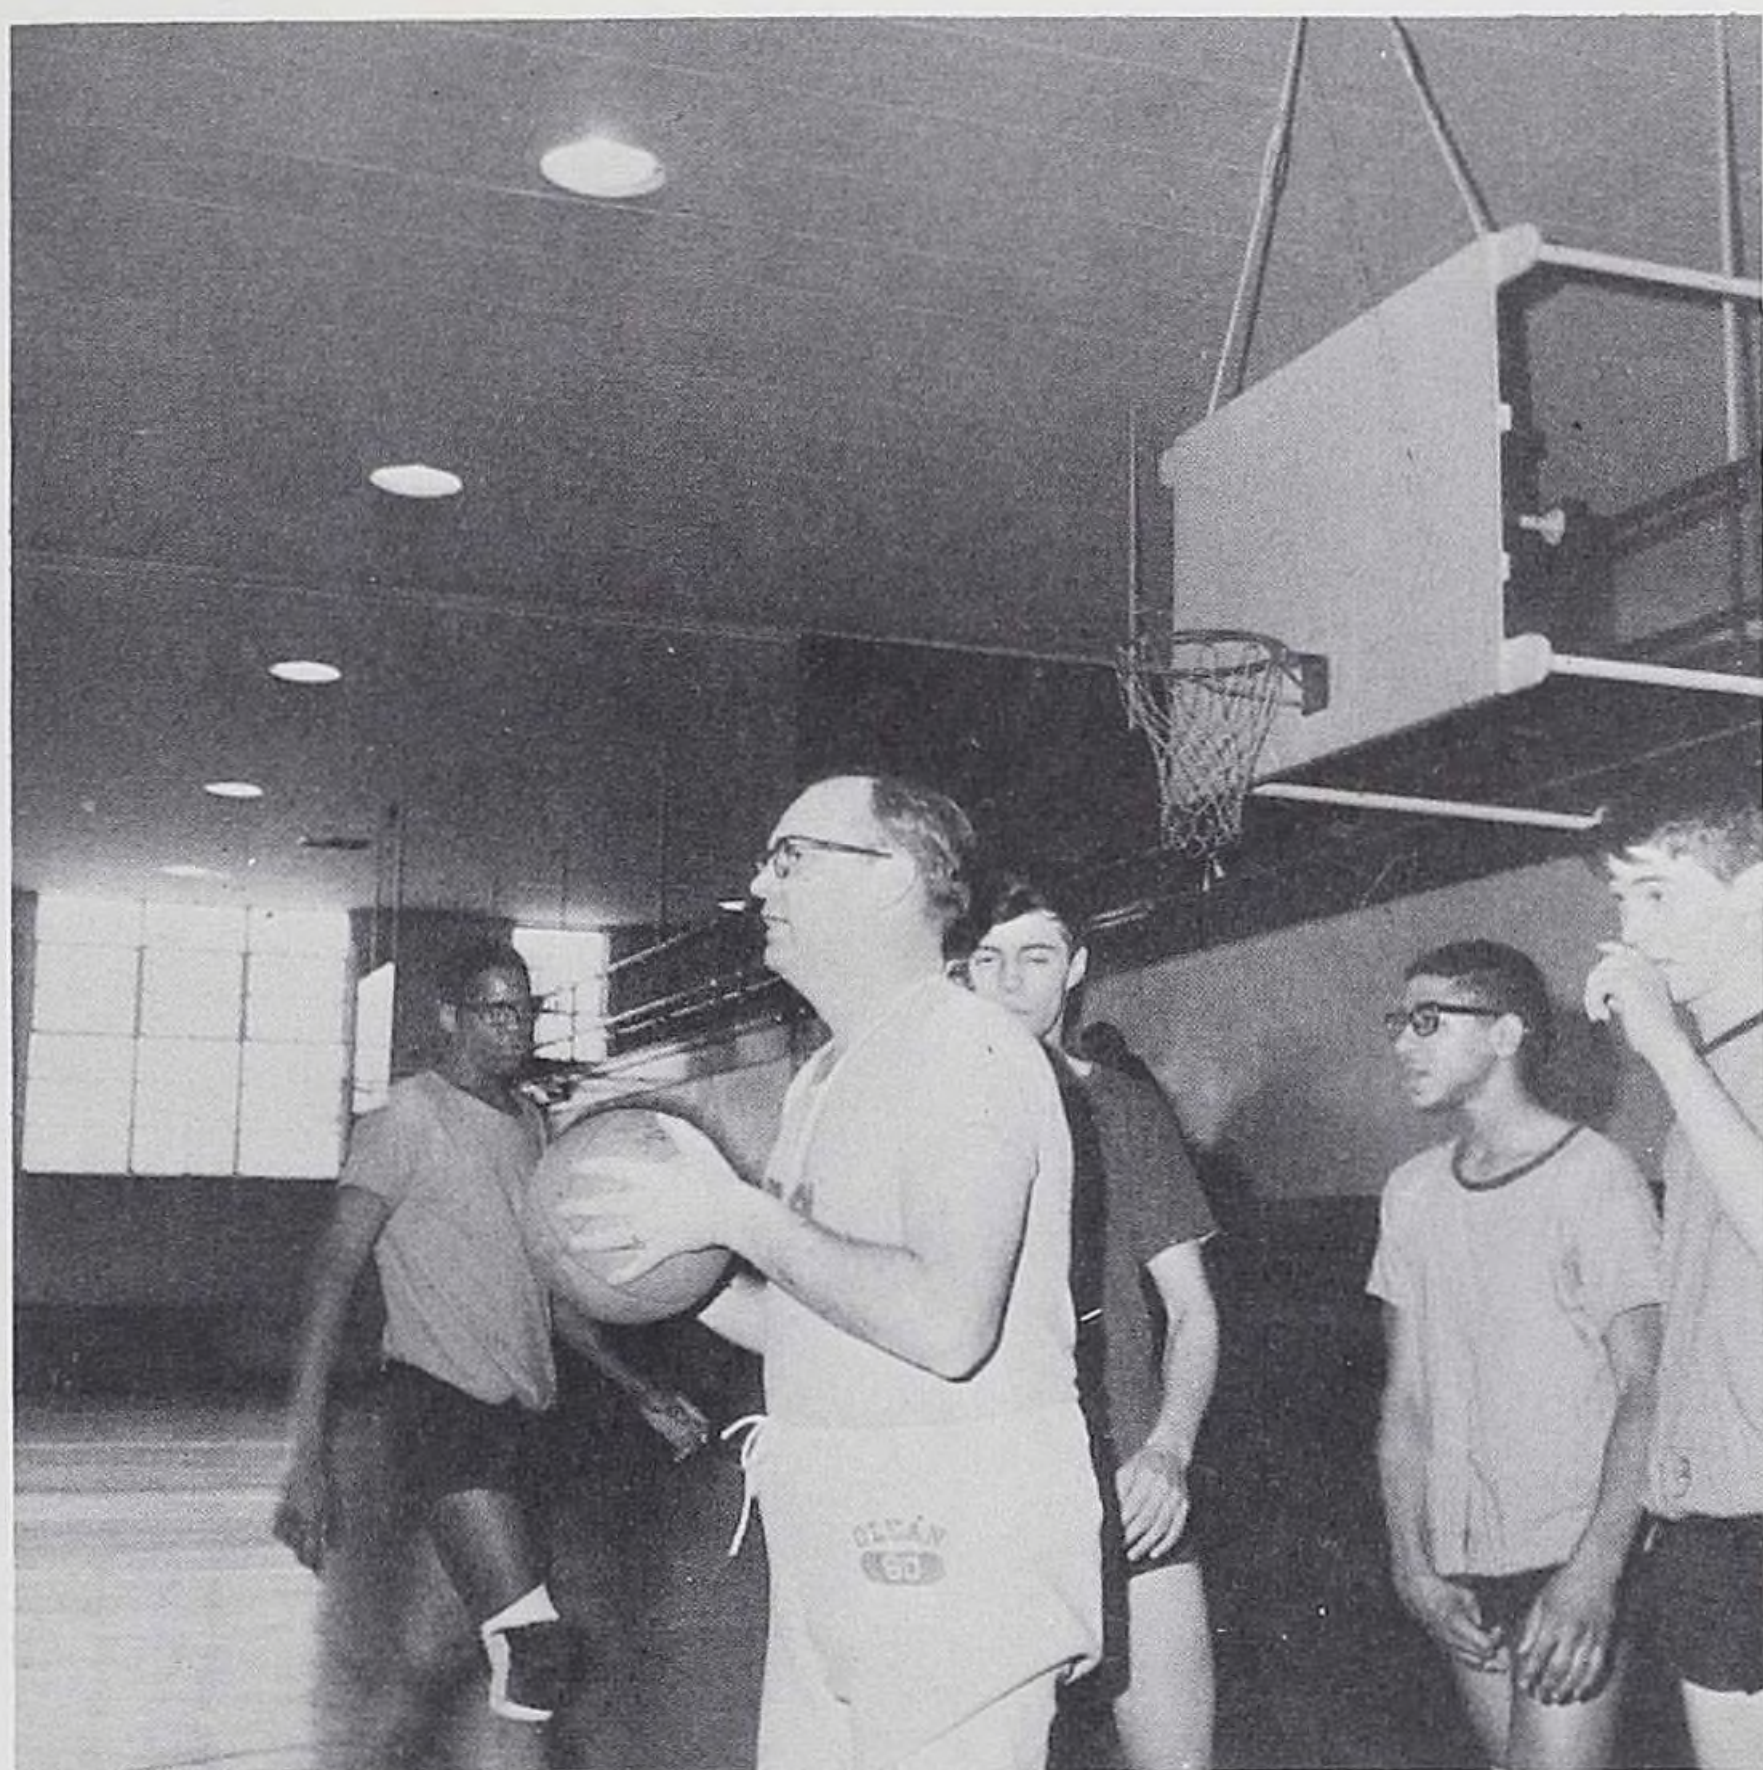

OF O.H.S.

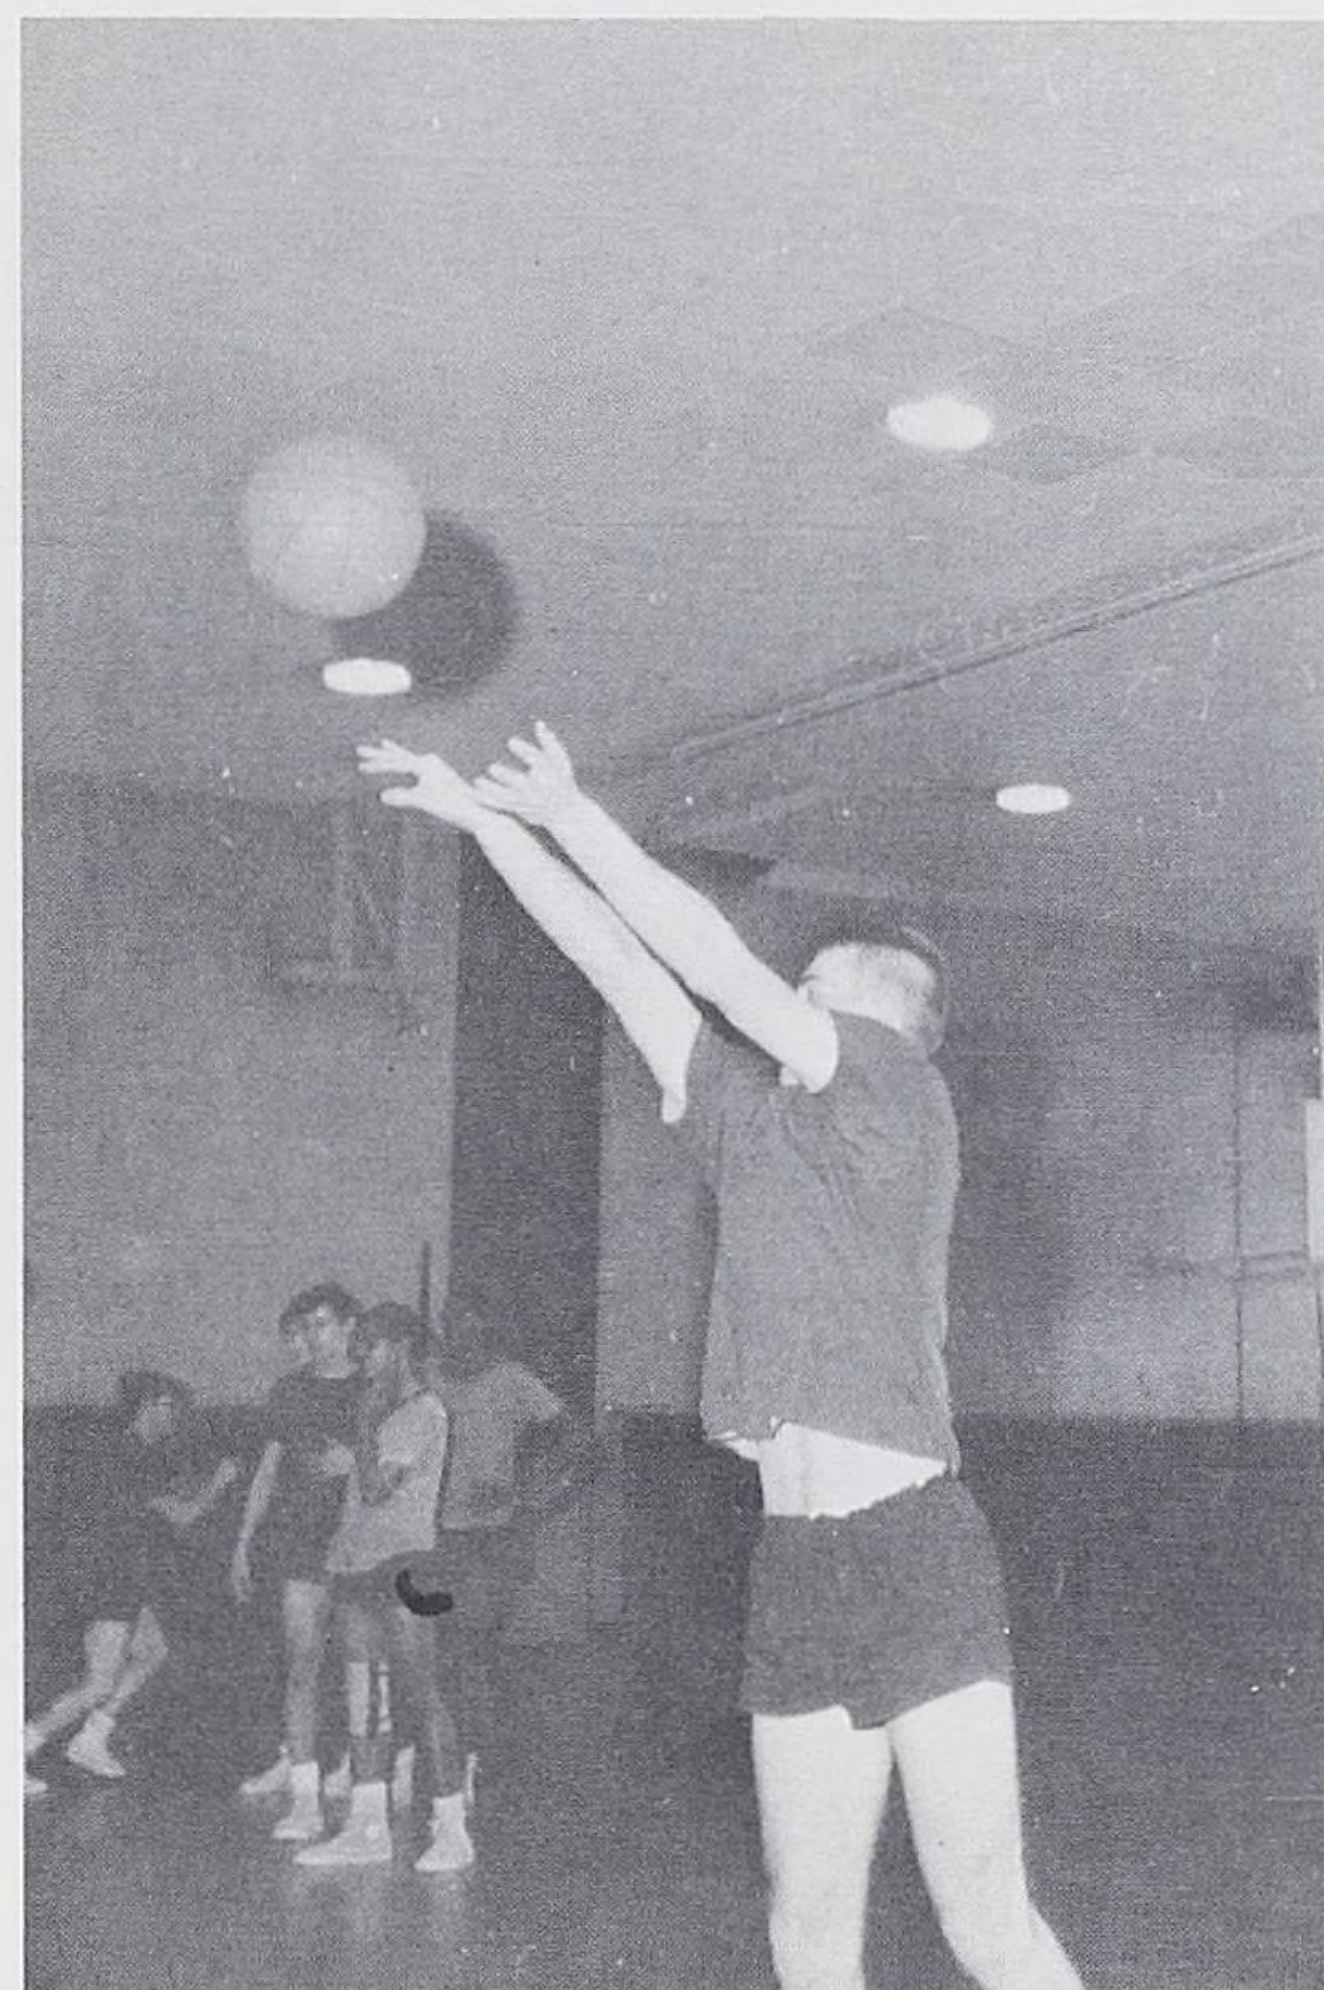

At the beginning of the basketball season Mr. Sassone took time to go over our plays, both old and new.

We practiced at the end of every school day and soon our hard work began to pay off.

We made mistakes and were shown the correct way to execute our plays.

We practiced harder.

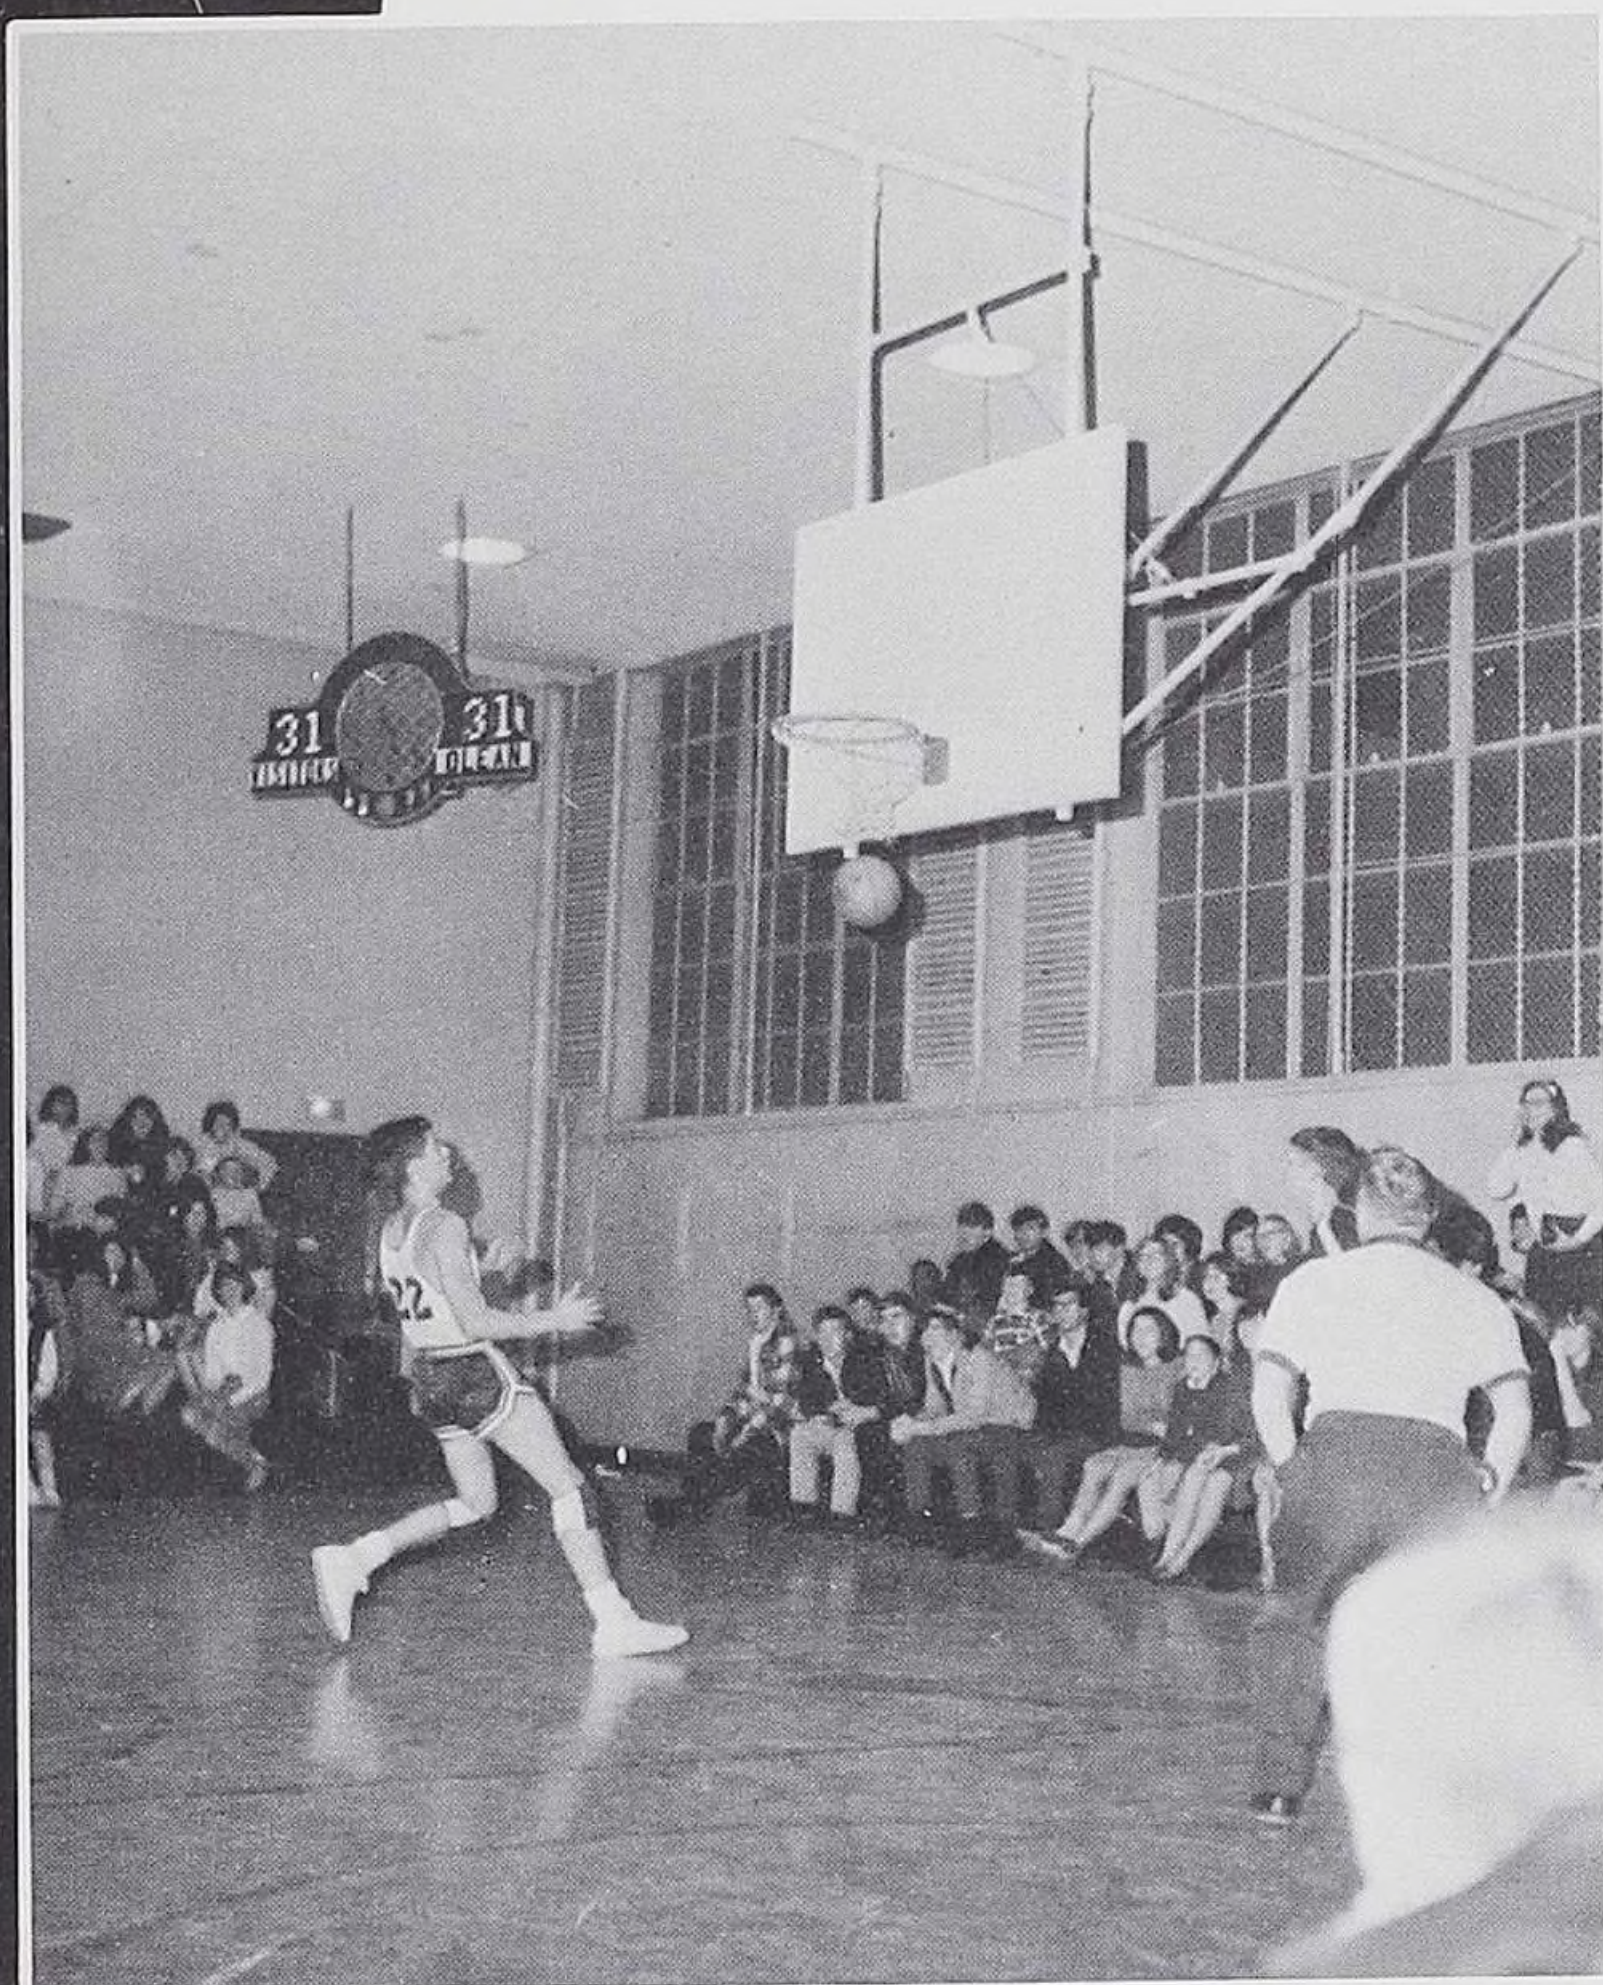

Instead of hindering us our mistakes gave us the opportunity to learn new strategies.

Practice paid off when it came to the games

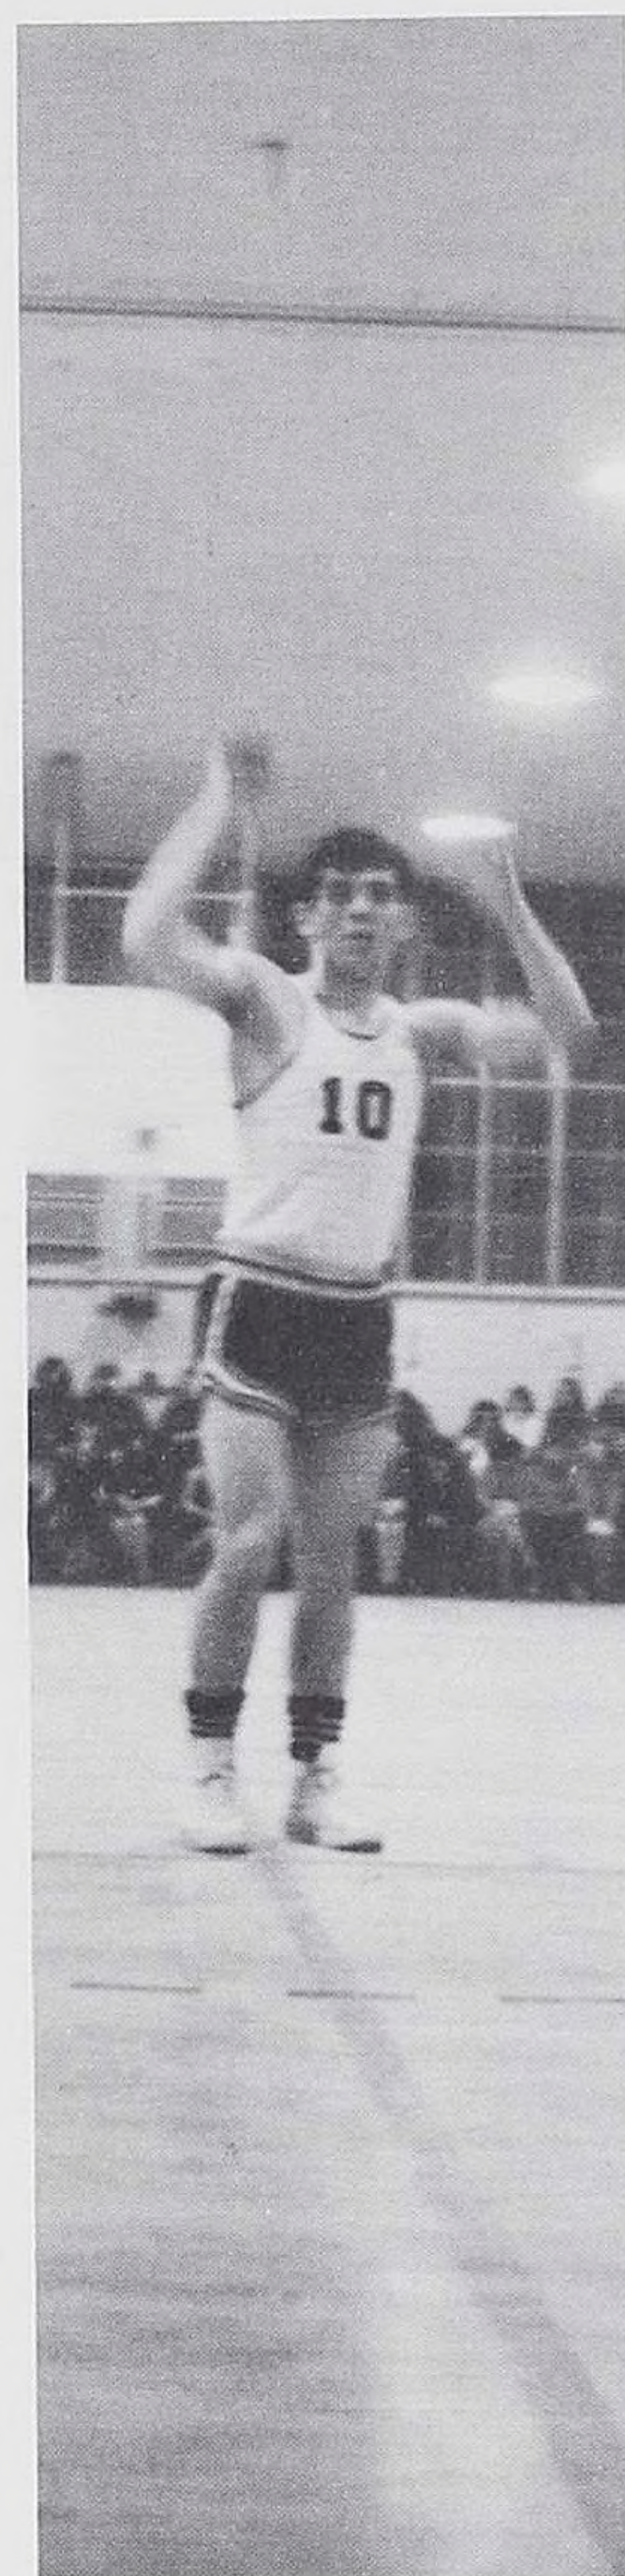

Our games were played hard and well.

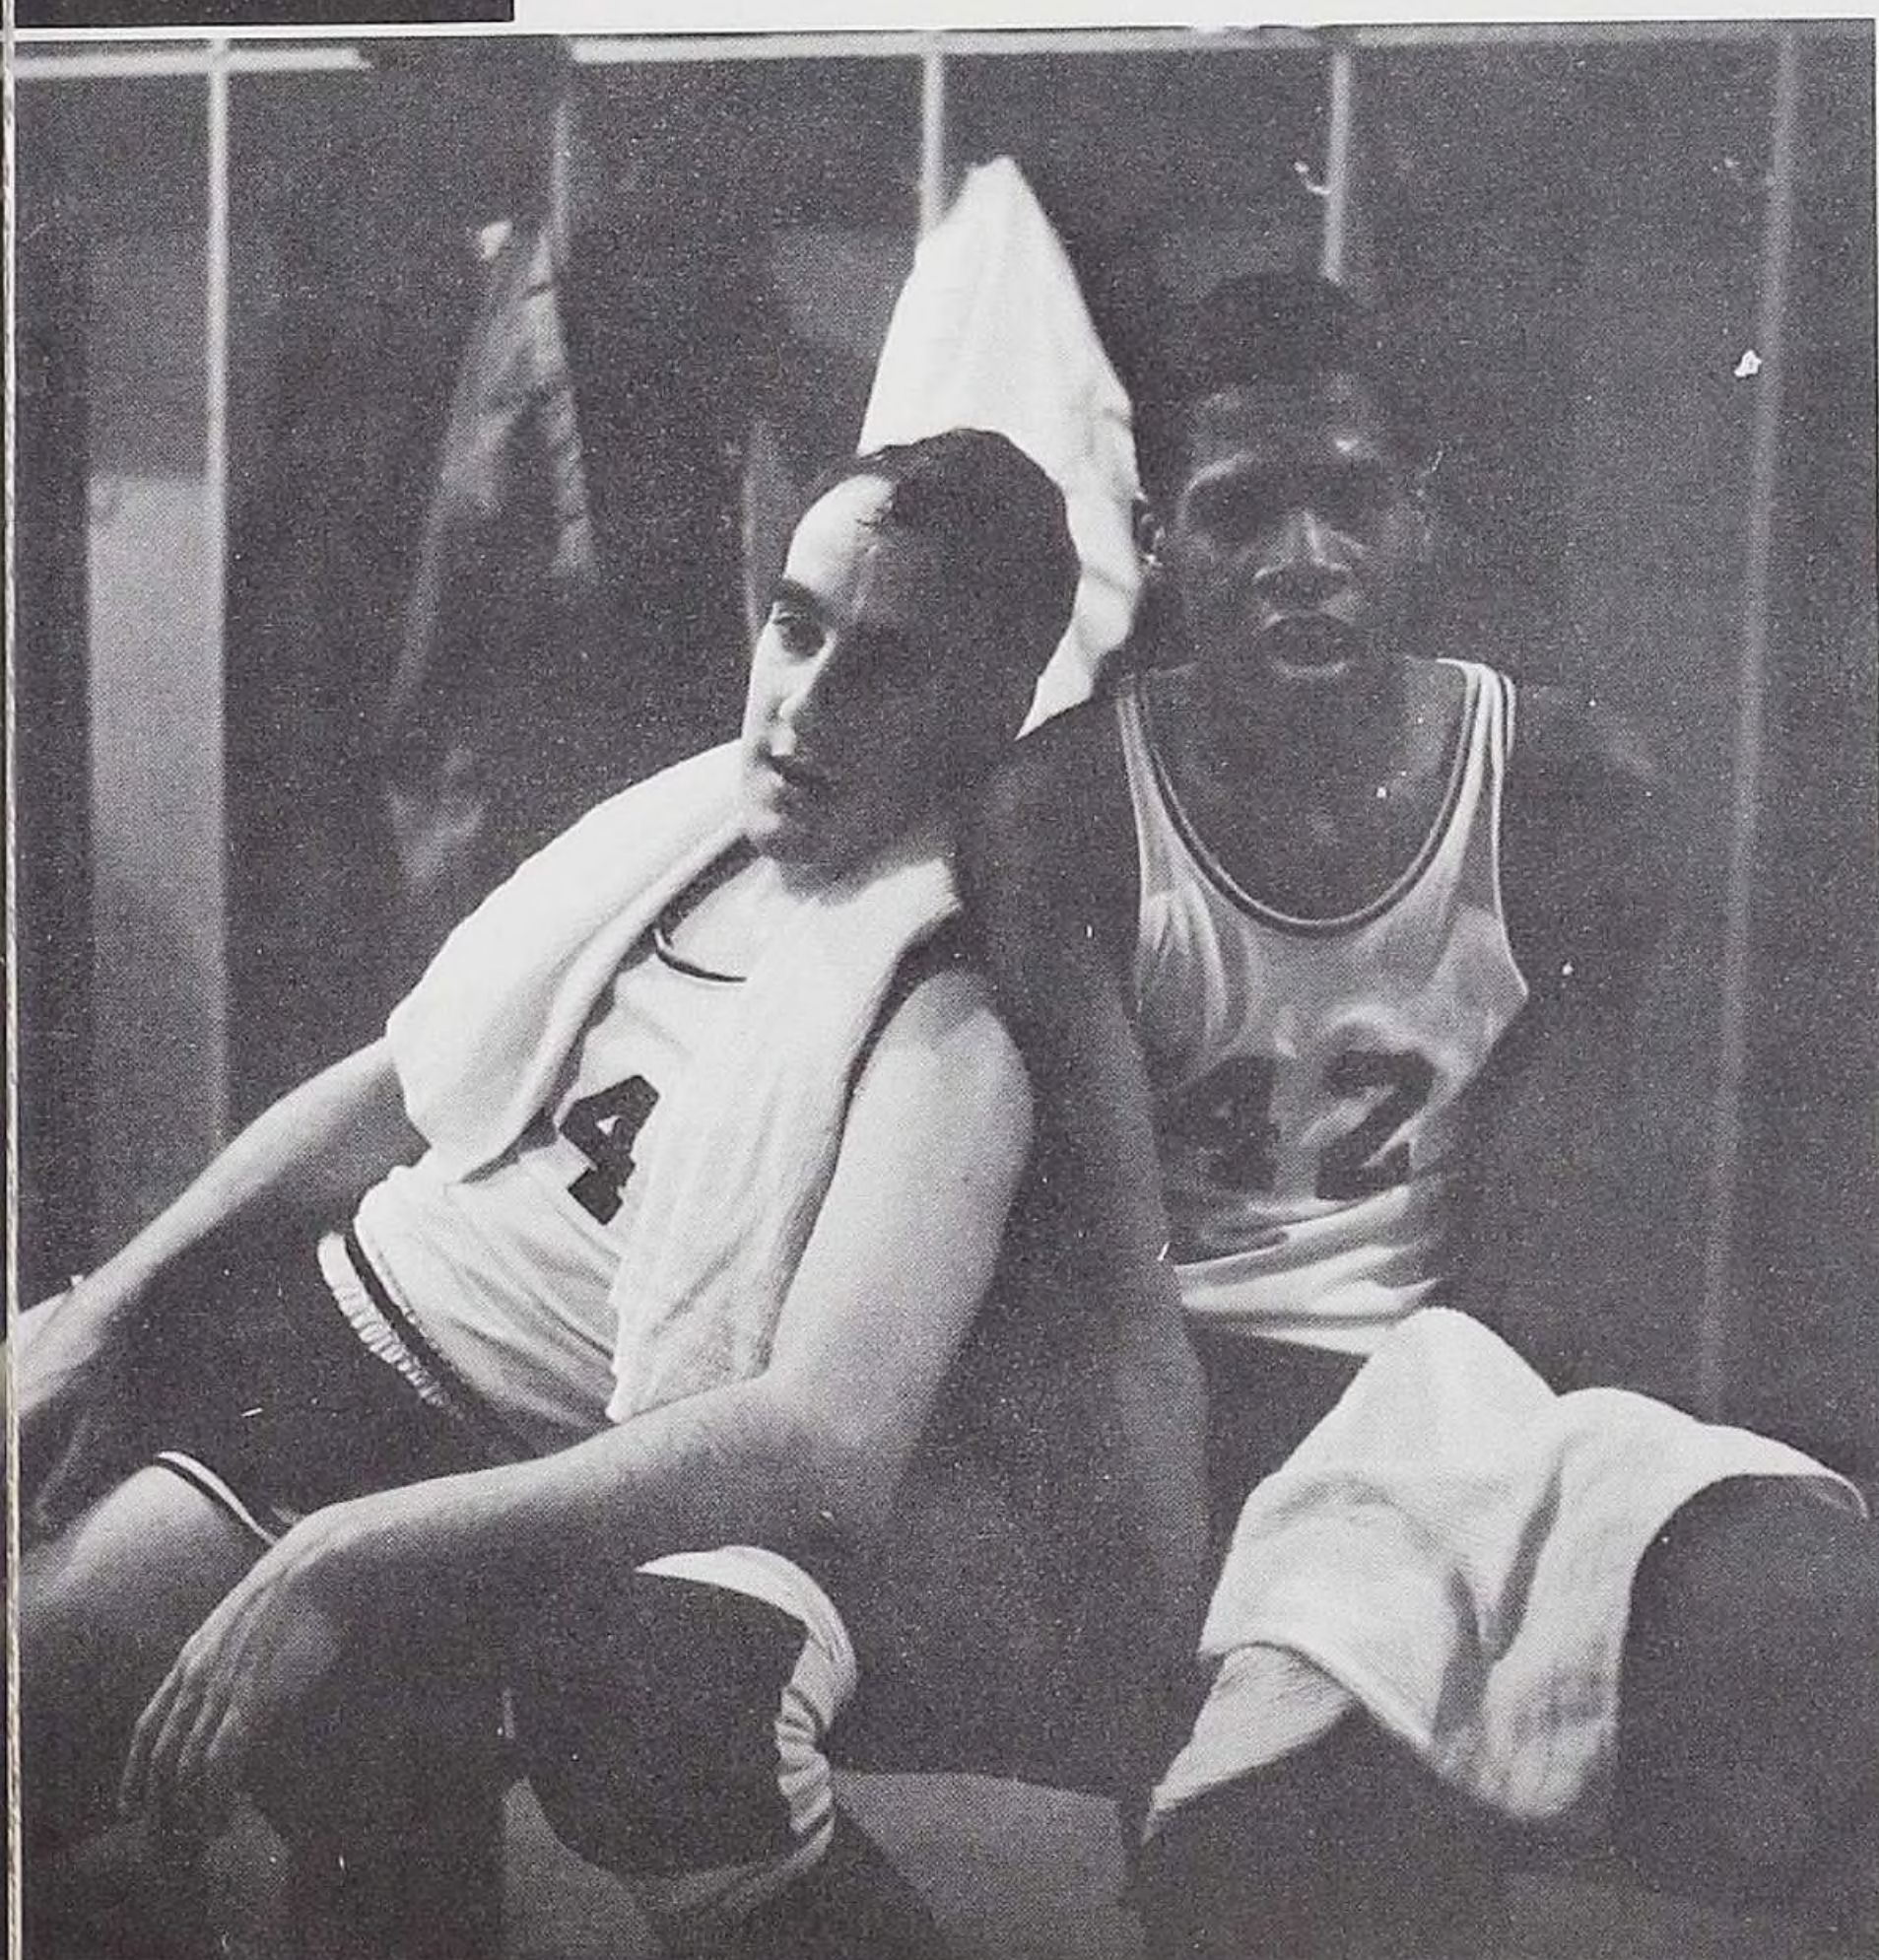

The games were tense and so was the crowd.

We were tired, but we were satisfied that we did our best.

"B-B-Boss, you've got b-b-bad b-b-breath!"

SENIOR CLASS

Senior Play? — I thought it was great.

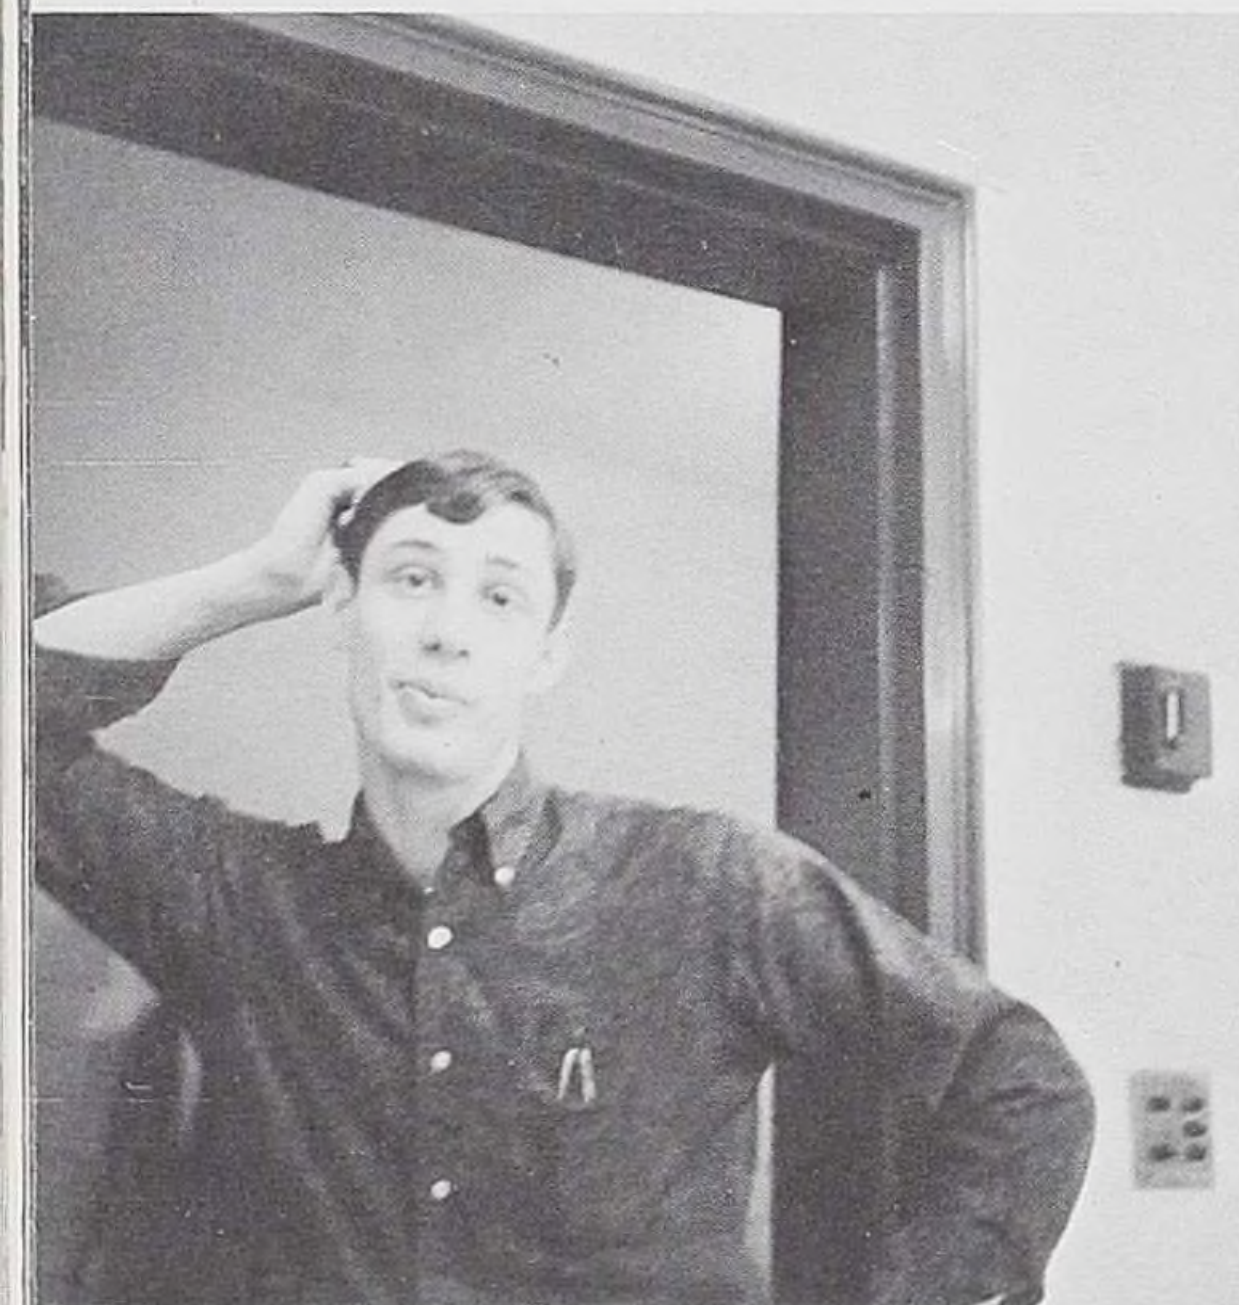

Senior Play? — Pffftt! Who me?

Shoot baby, I'm bop-pin' on over to see the Senior Play.

I'd give my dandruff to be in the Senior Play!

Move over Kathy here I come!

PLAY

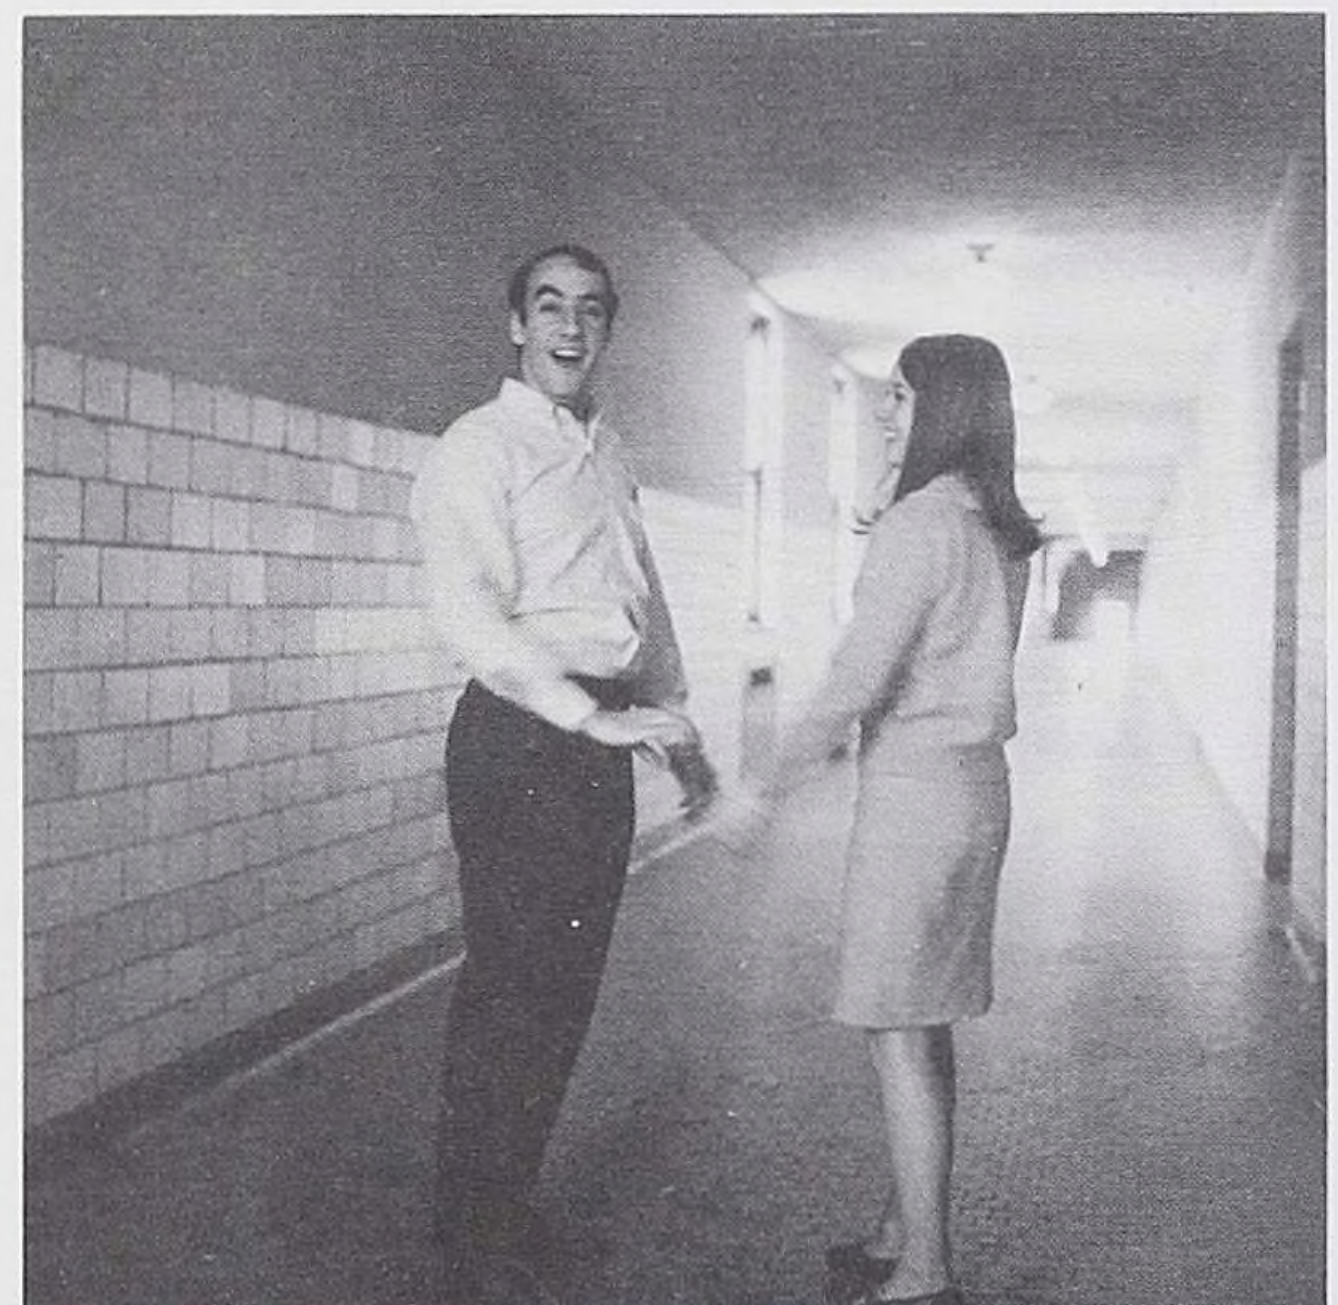

Summit meeting.

Sure I went to the Senior Play.

The second night drew an even larger crowd.

Oh darn . . . we missed the Senior Play.

The Junior Red Cross Drive was conducted in homerooms for the period of one week. Each homeroom representative collected money to put their homeroom in the lead.

Then reports were given to each homeroom over the broadcast system telling us the class leading in the amount of donations.

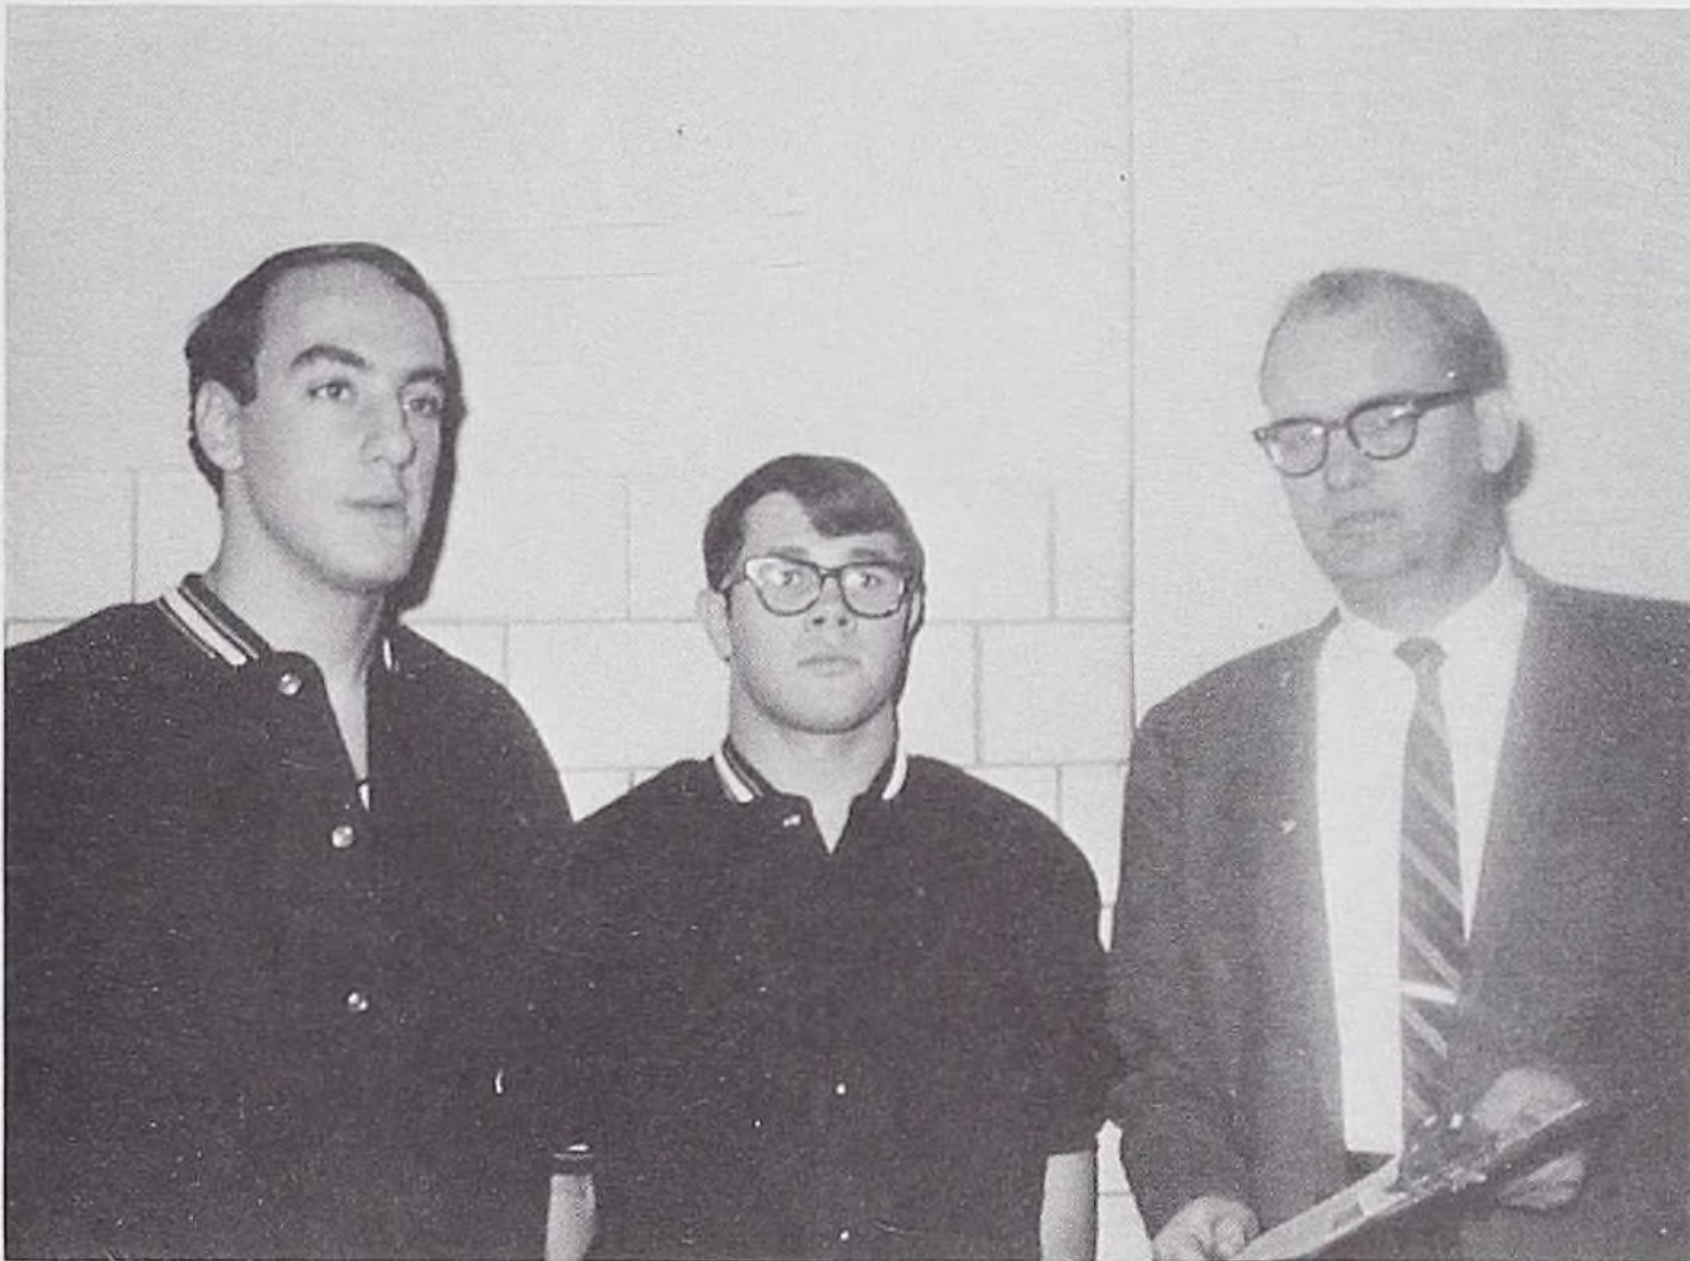

O.H.S. ASSEMBLIES

During one of our first assemblies of the year we were entertained with slides from around the world.

Mr. Paul Yearout reached out and captivated us with his lecture on the problems facing the present-day teenager.

There were several sports assemblies for both football and basketball, one of the most important being the basketball assembly before our Winter Weekend.

Our cheerleaders led the student body in cheers which urged our boys on to victory.

Ban takes the worry out of being close.

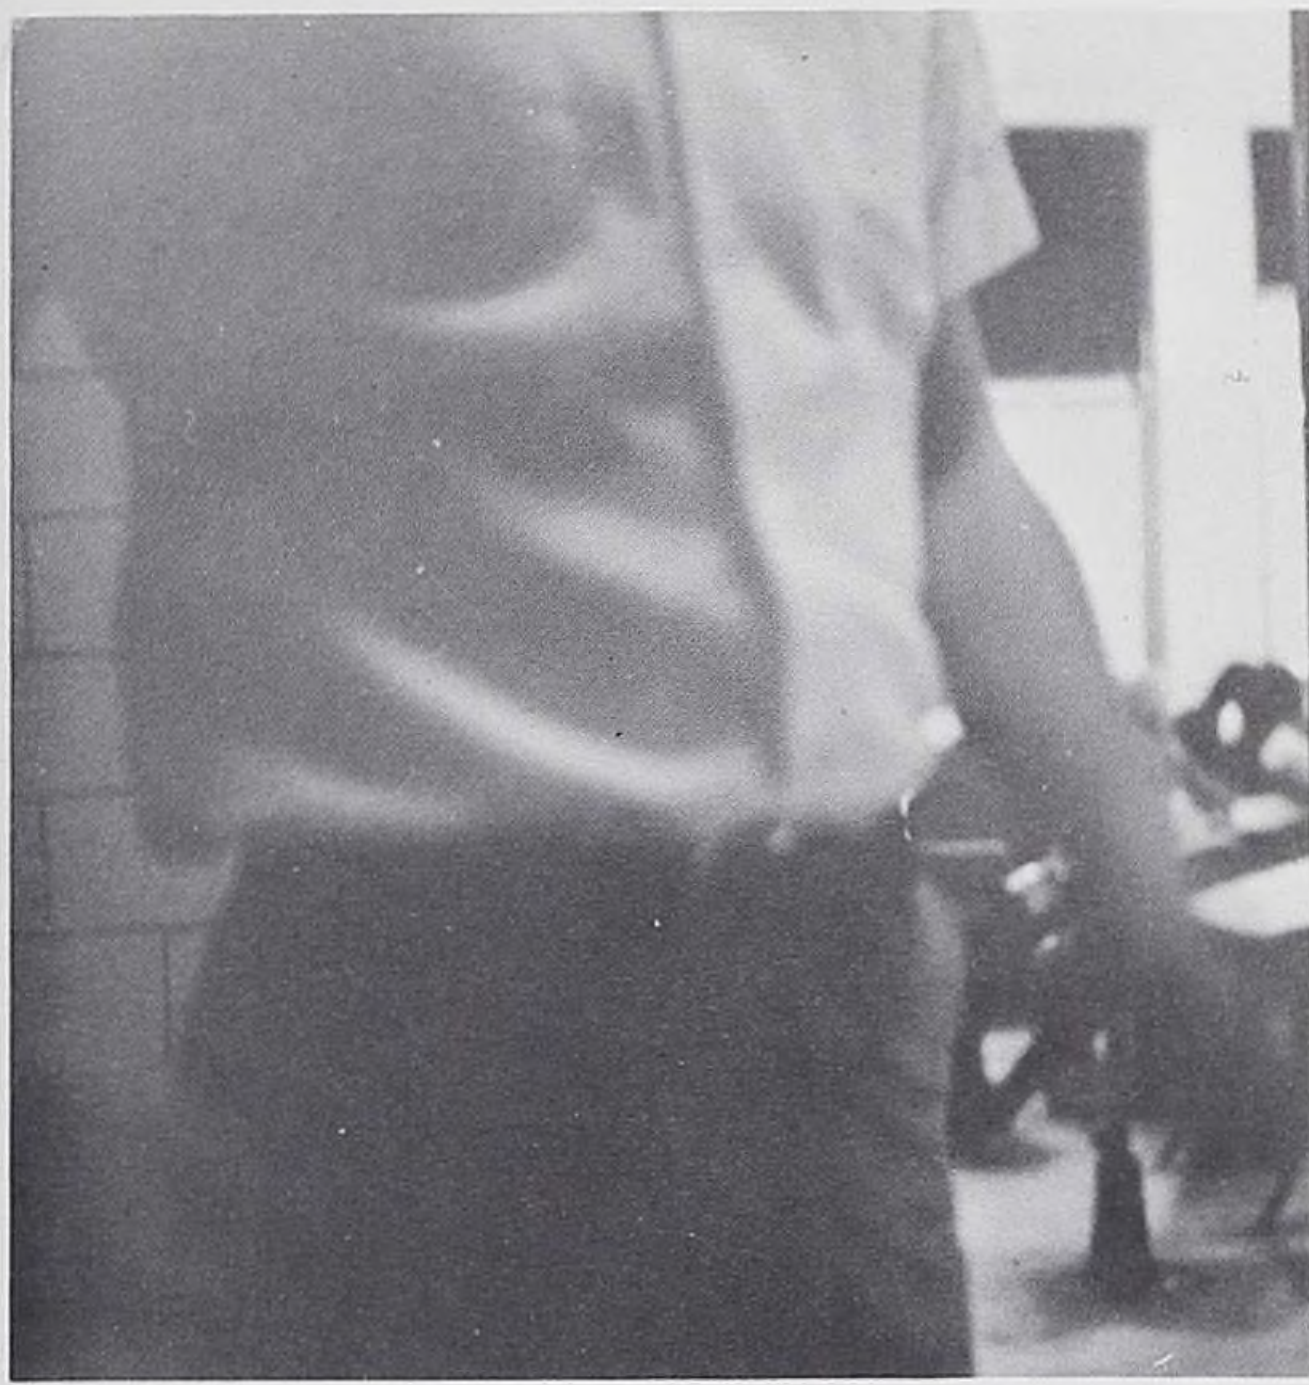

Oh-Oh!

Duh!?!?

"What did we say wrong this time?"

No matter what shape your stomach's in.

Oh, the pain!

"Give me five."

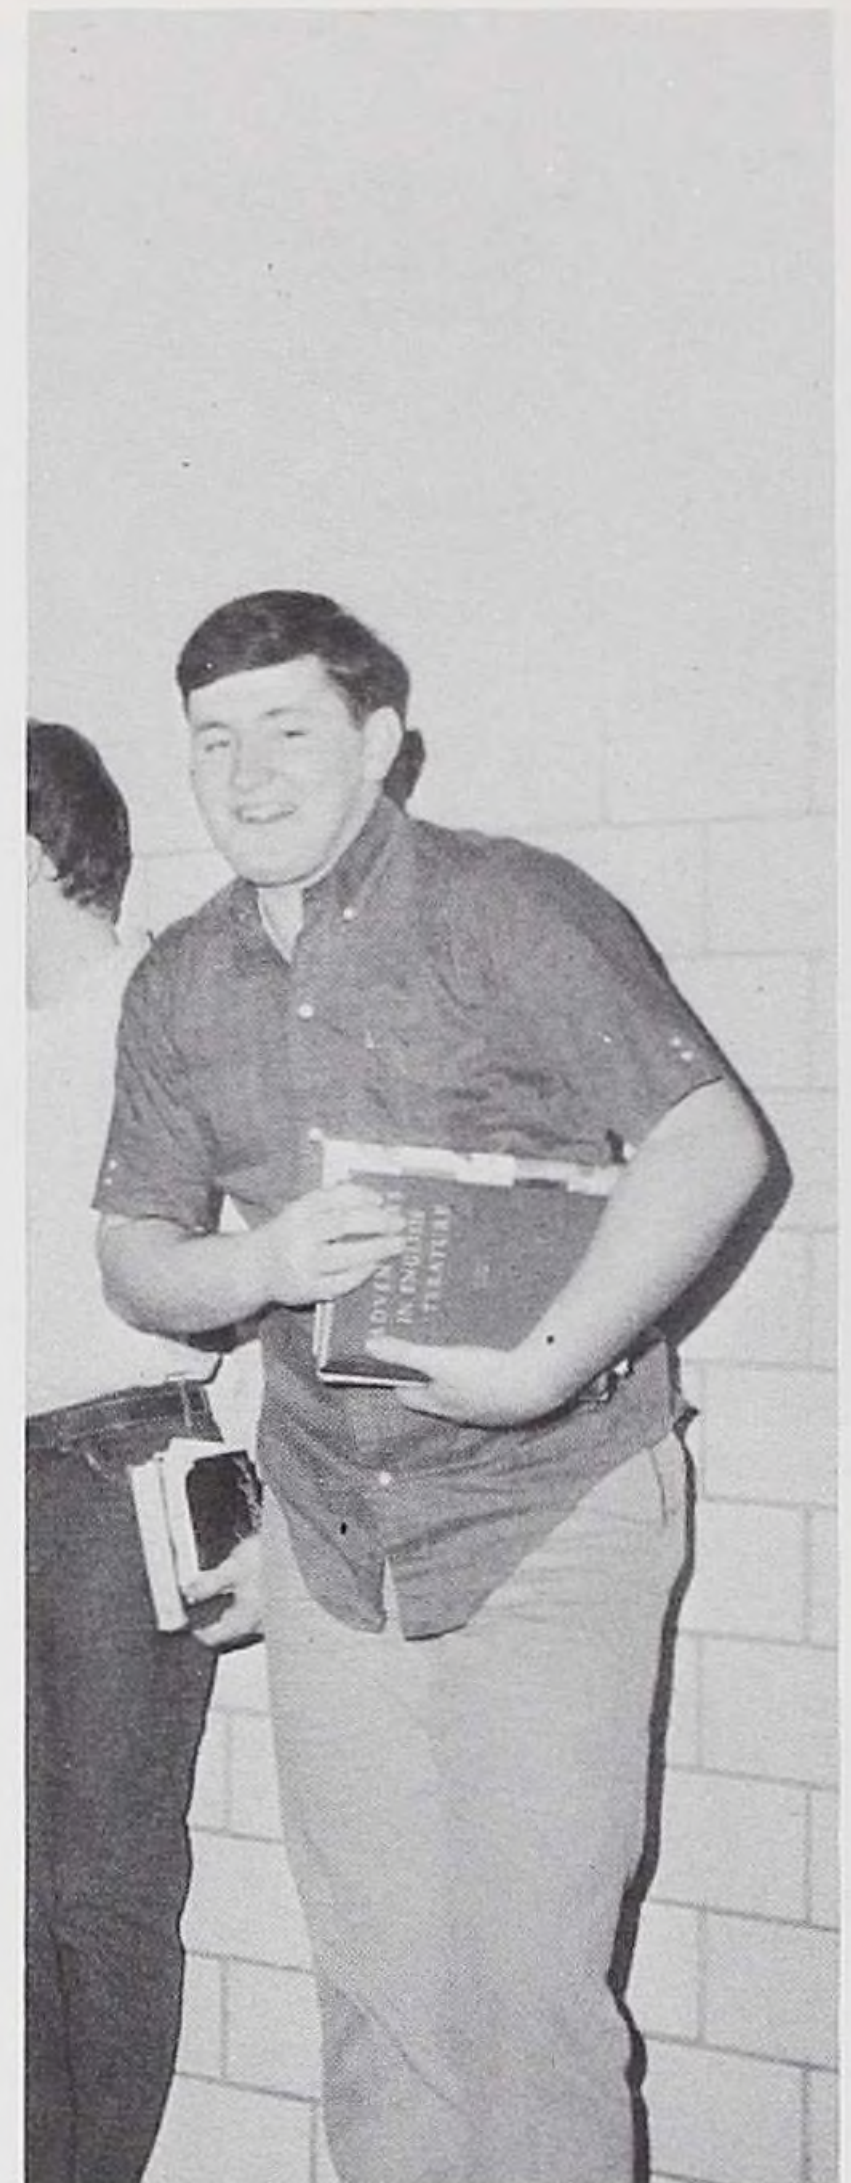

Our football team???

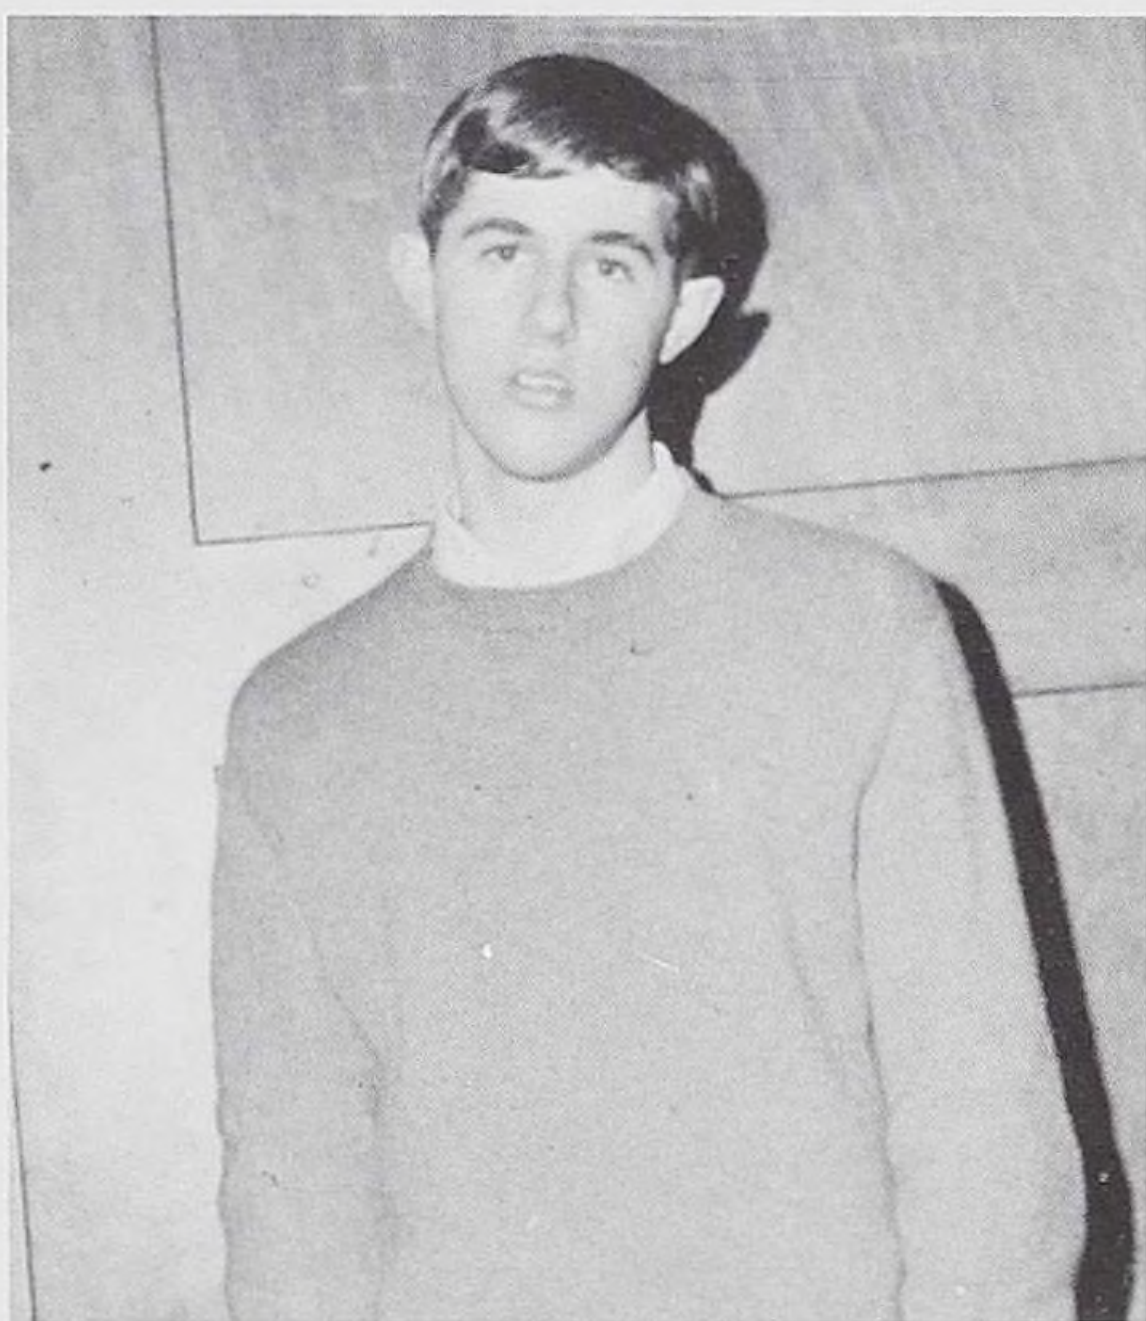

Come fly with me!

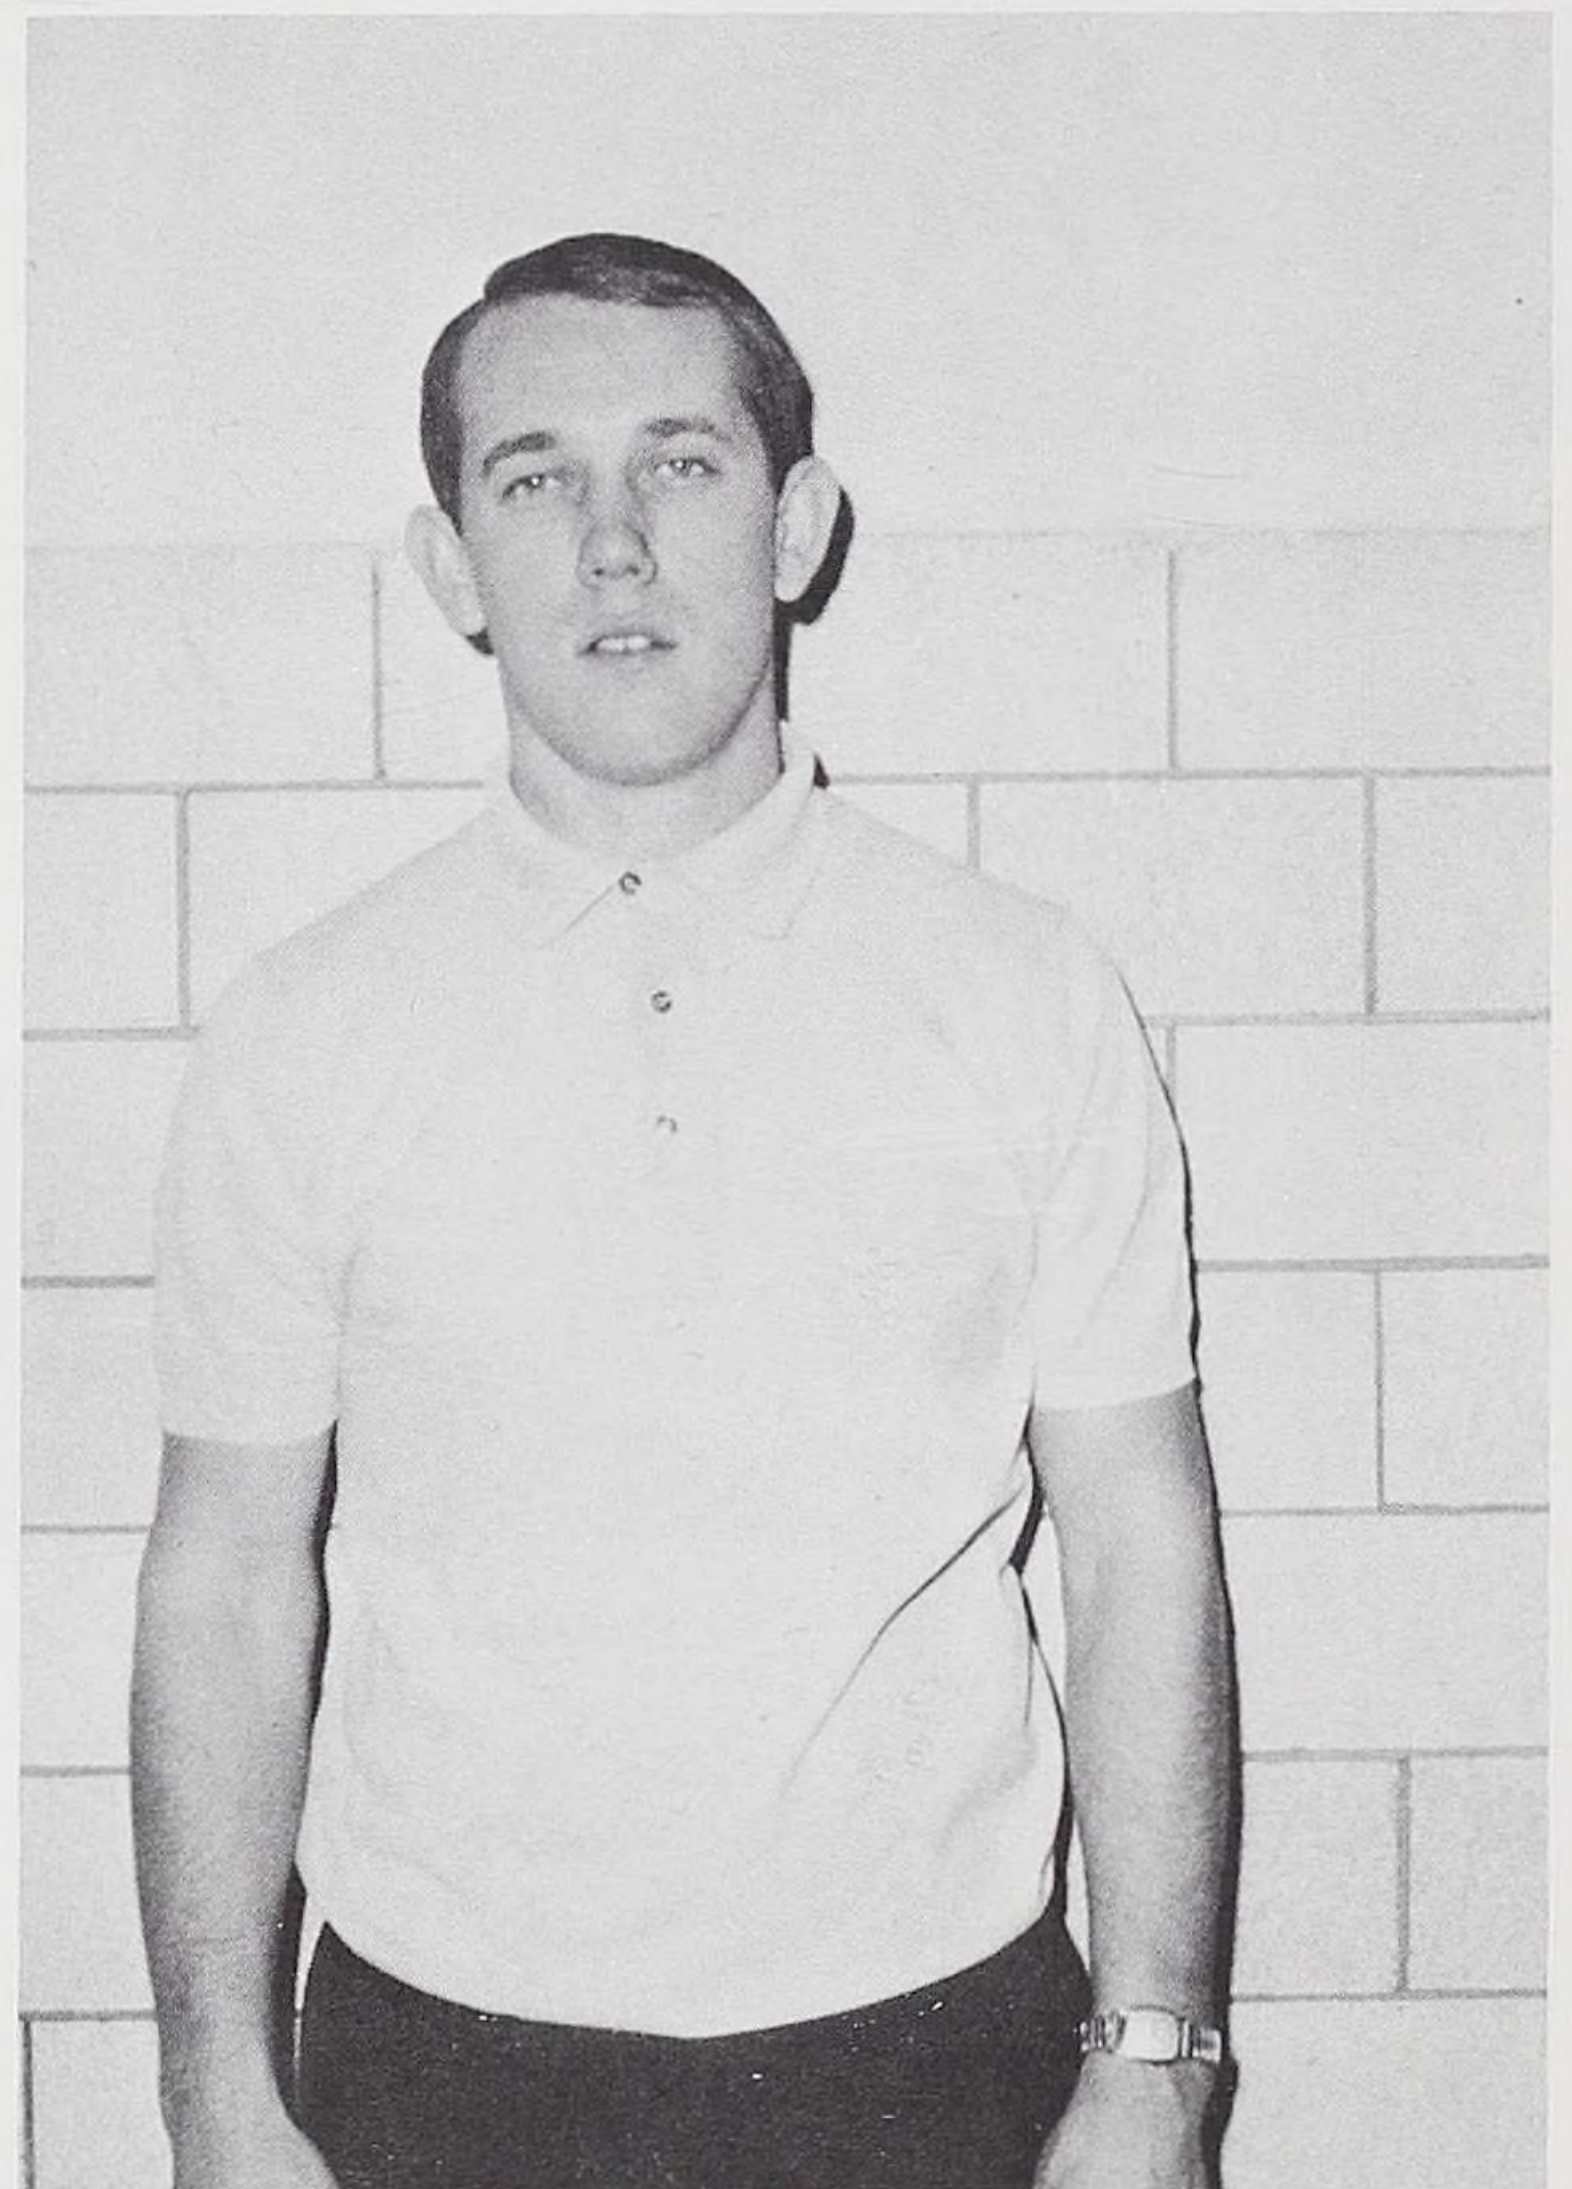

"Who's afraid of Virginia Woolf?"

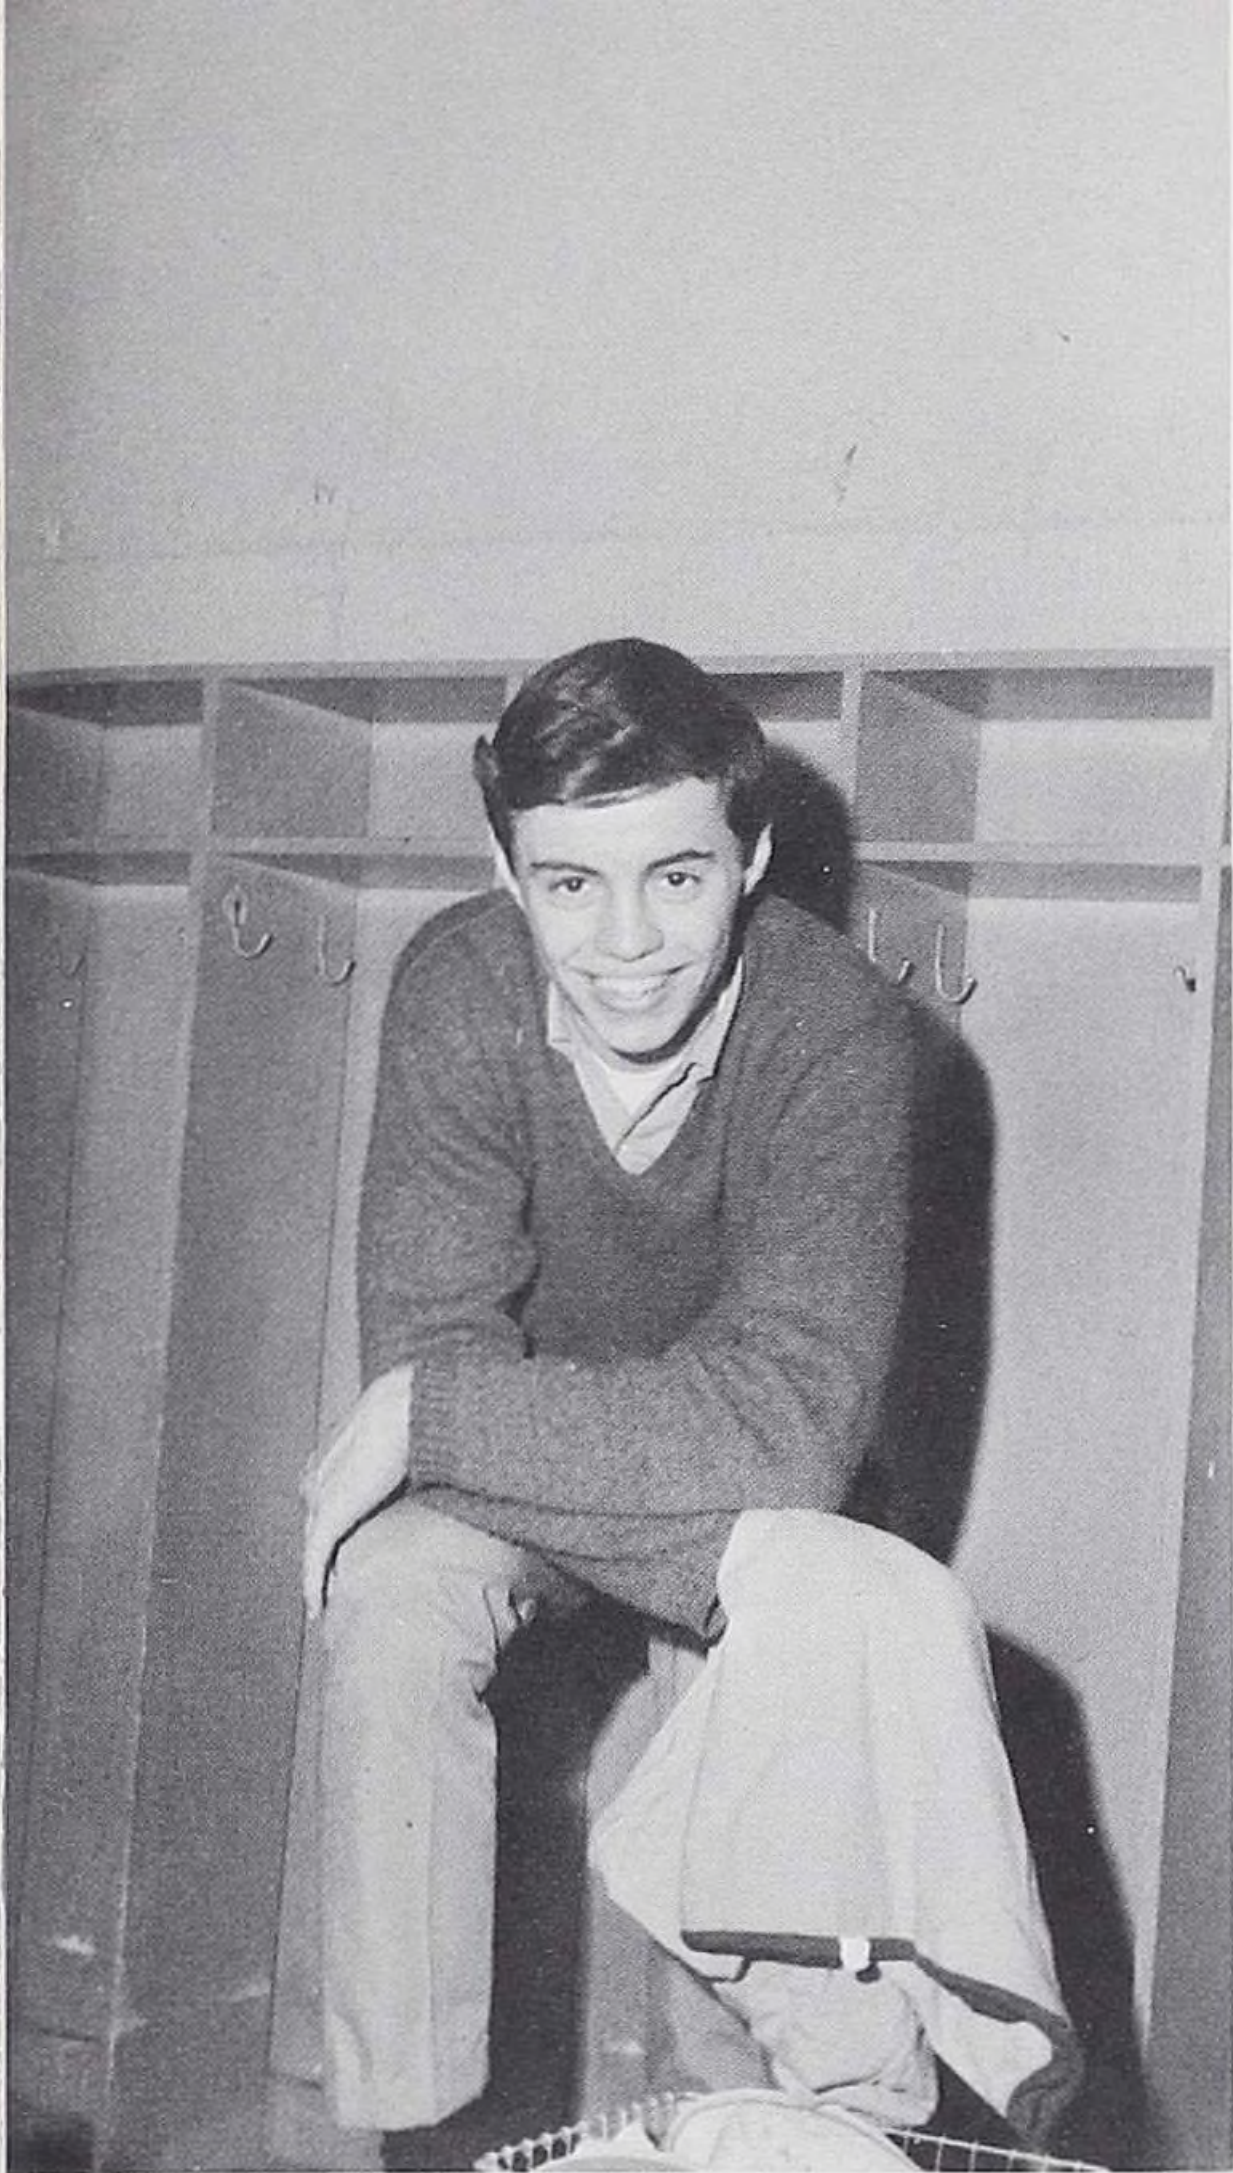

"Smile a little, frown a little, give a little grin."

"I just love to square dance."

"I will not tolerate girls in the boys locker room."

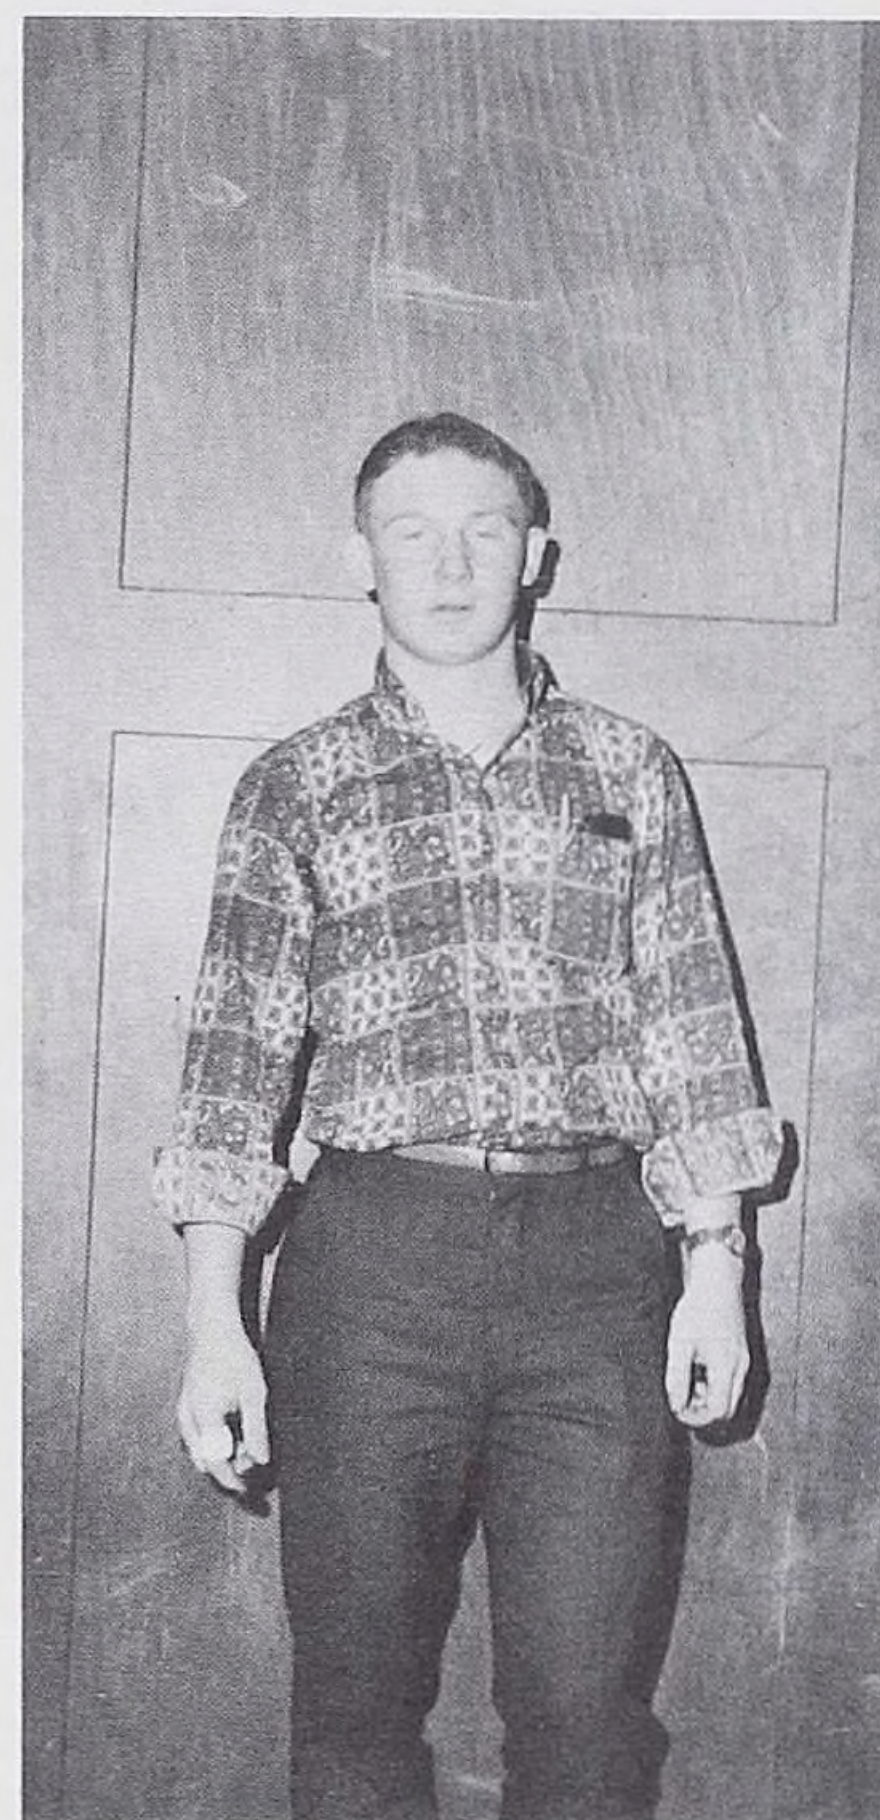

"Ever been the only boy in the girls' locker room?"

White socks?

"It's not so bad if you don't look at it."

"Another week of square dancing?"

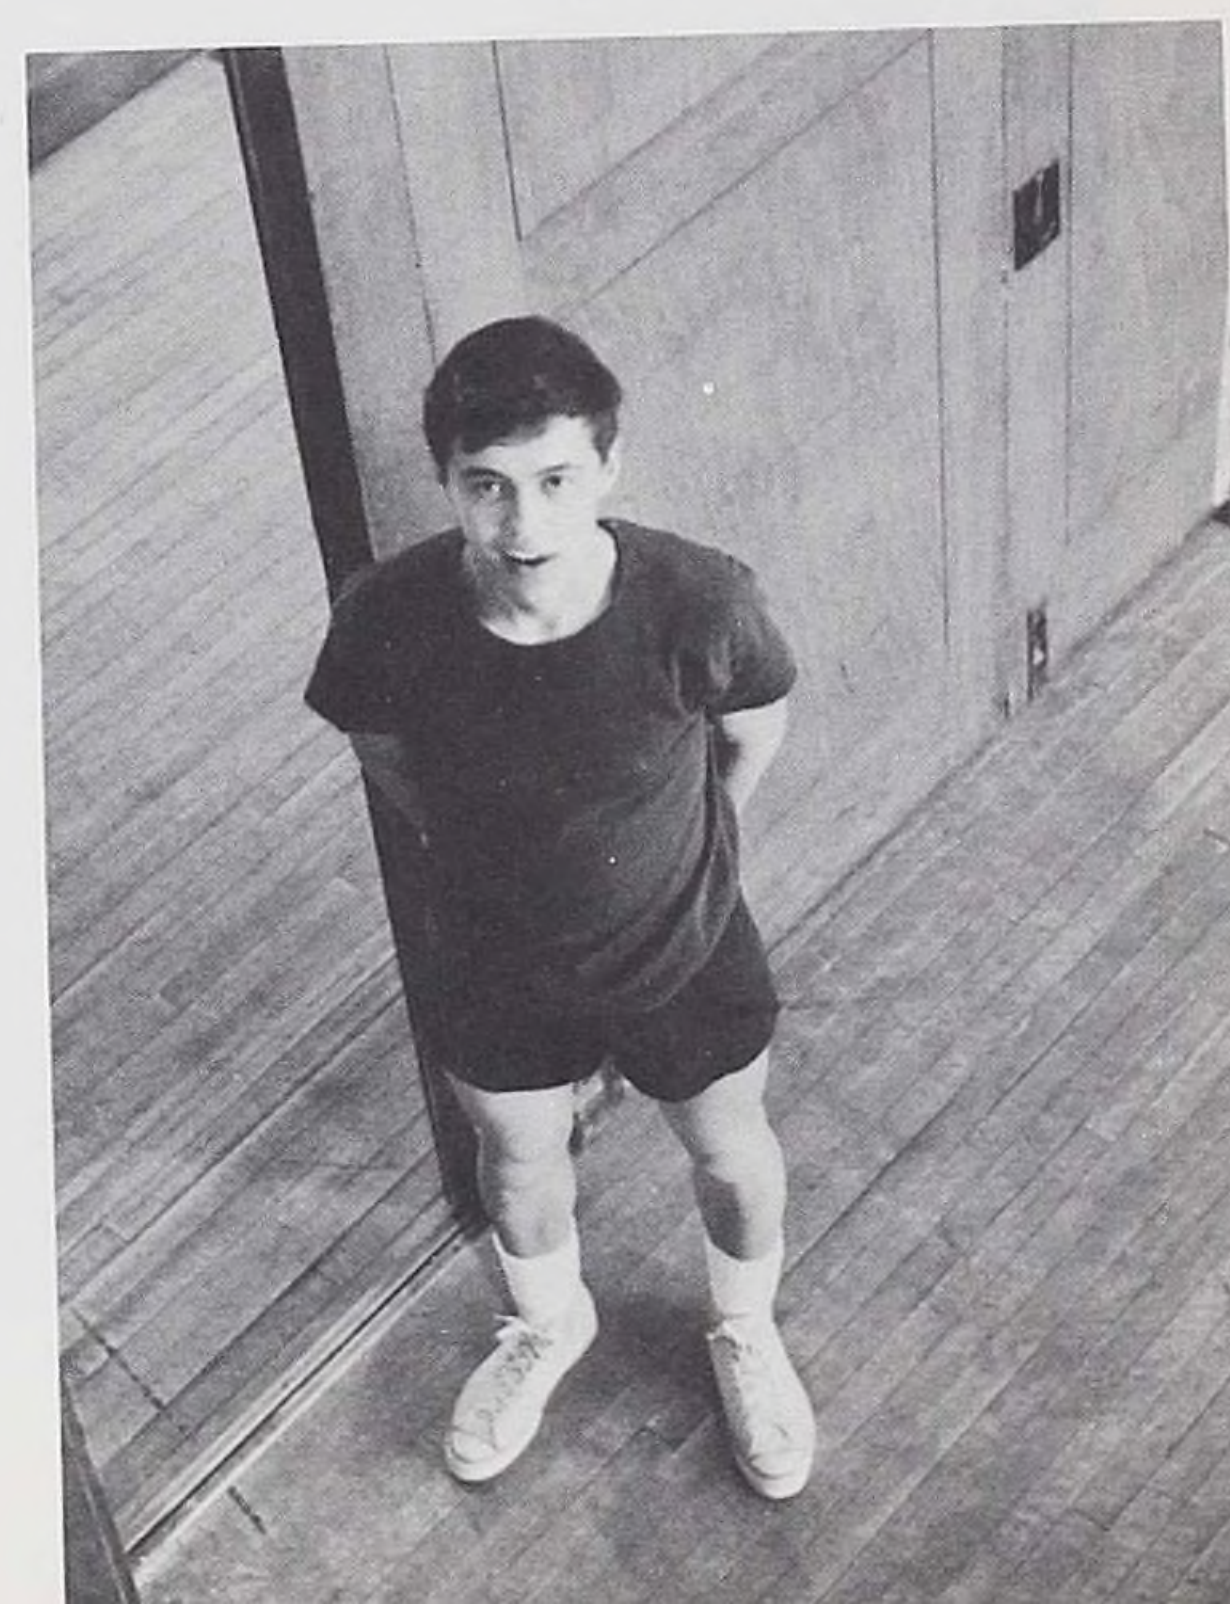

Fasten your seat belts. We're ready to take off.

Last one out is a rotten egg!

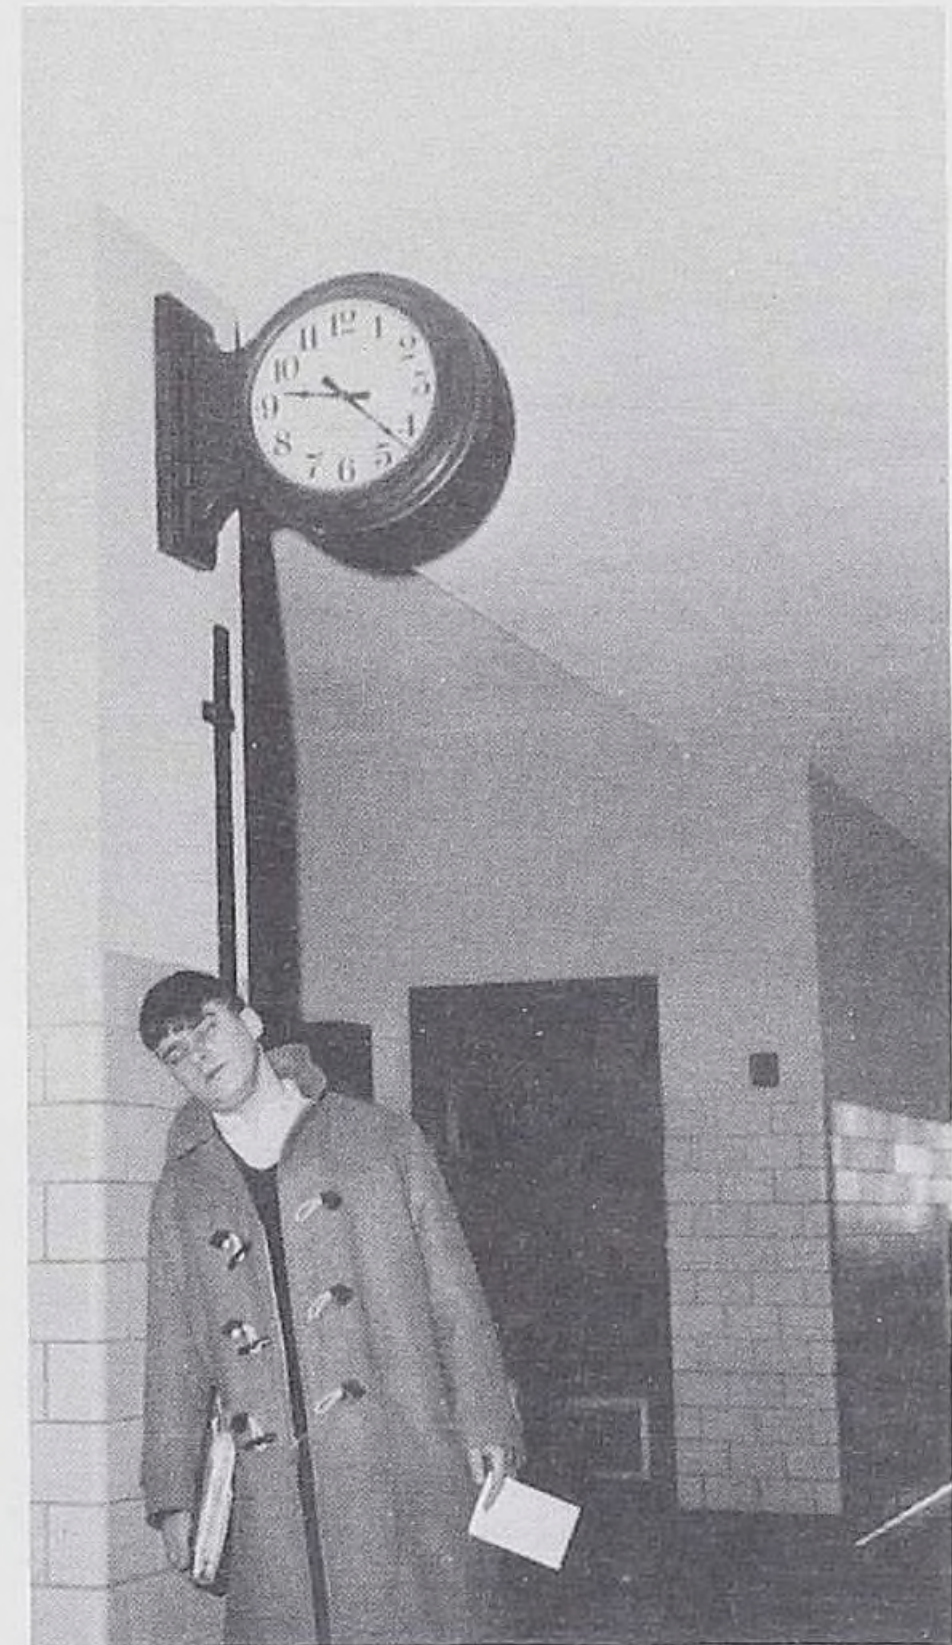

O.K. you guys, who did it?

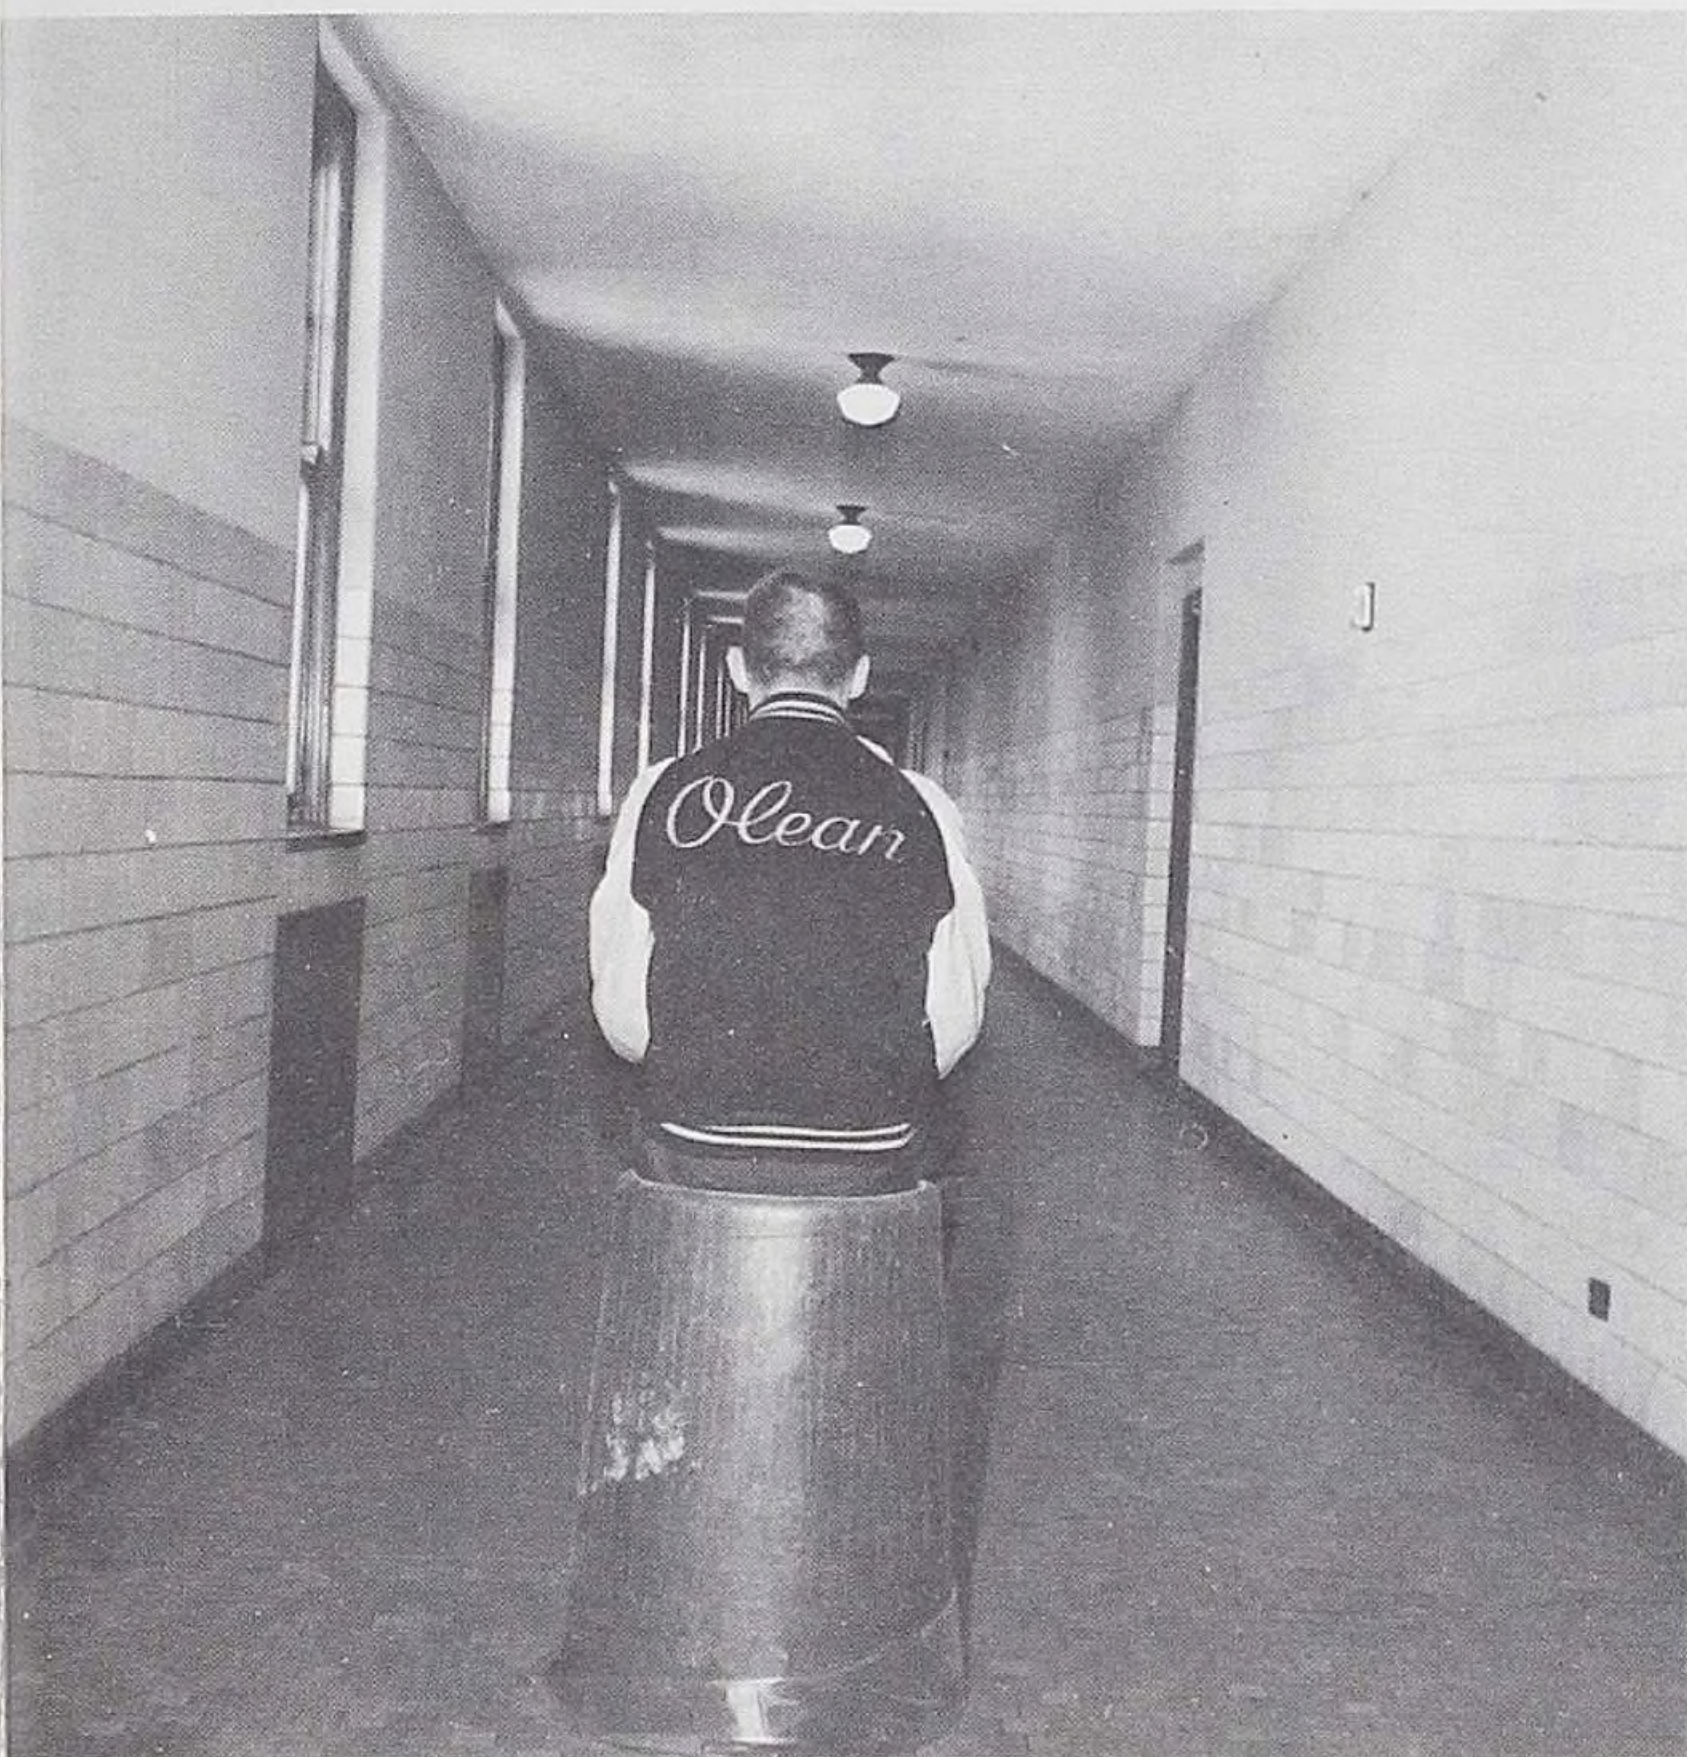

"I dare you to come down here and say that!"

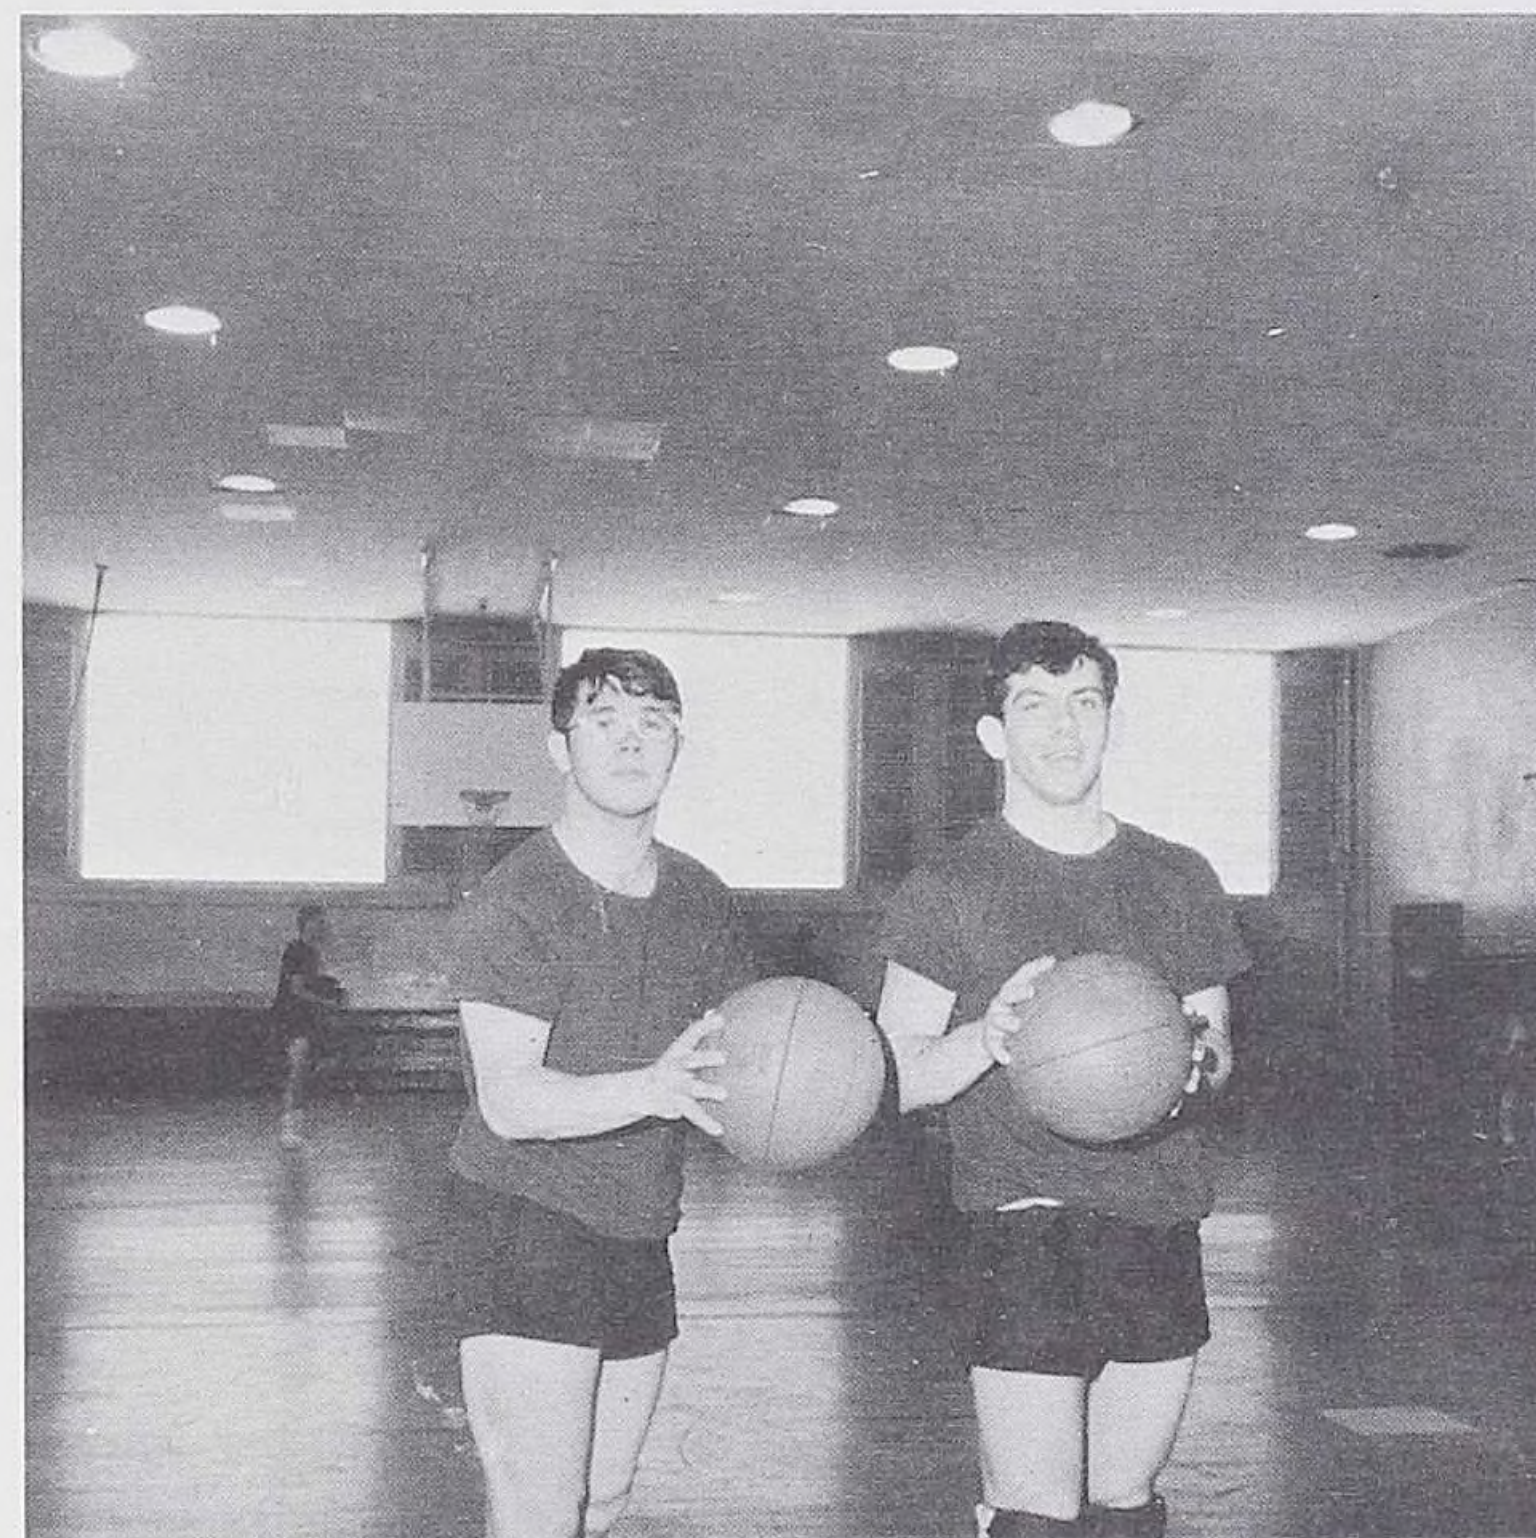

"Personally I prefer Hemingway to Chaucer."

"Better three hours too soon than a minute late."—Shakespeare

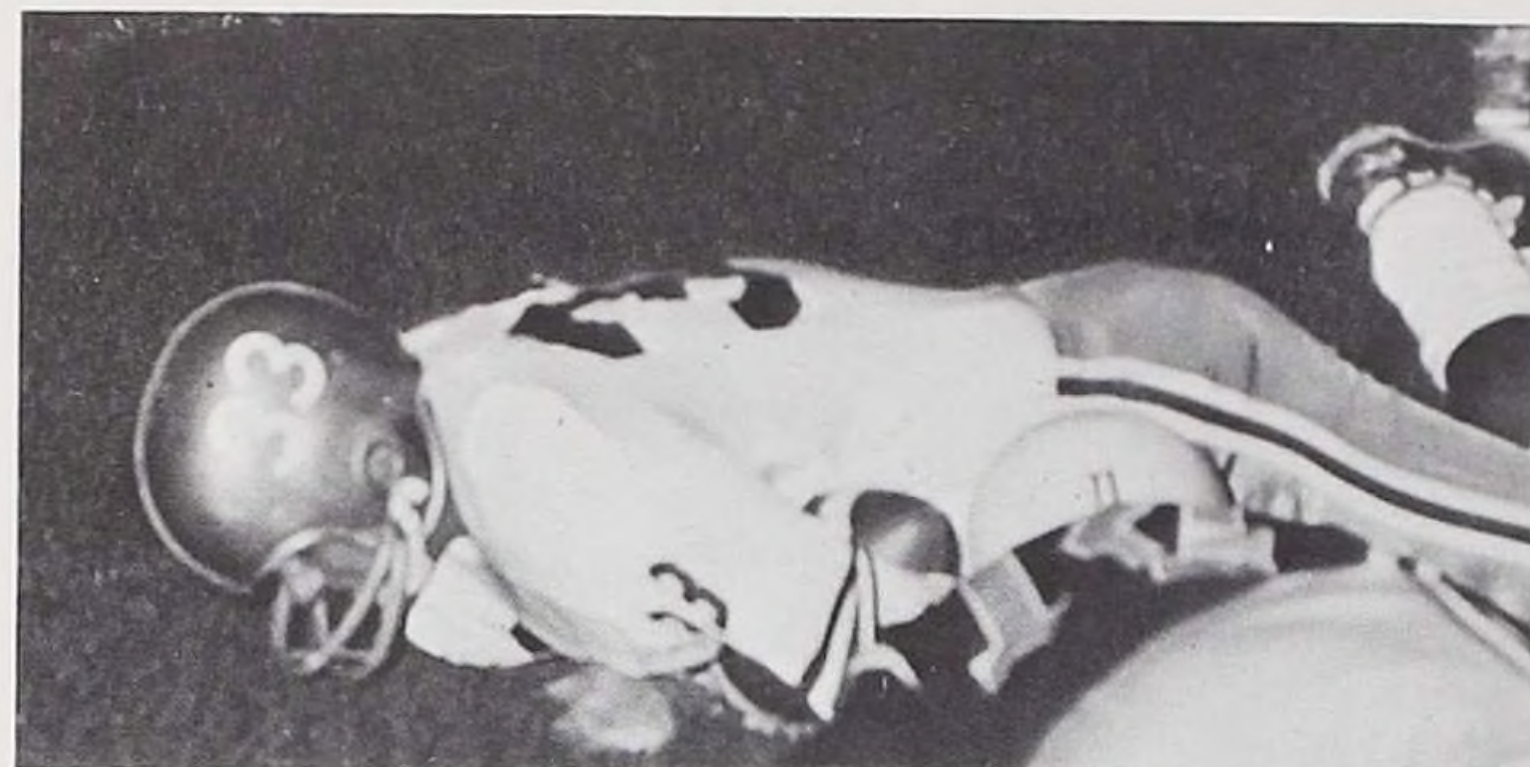

Do you ever get the feeling people are trying to tell you something?

"You mean our basket's at the other end . . . you're kidding!"

"In 22 seconds this school will go up in smoke!"

Some of us were always on the ball.

Well, it's a . . . a . . . a . . .

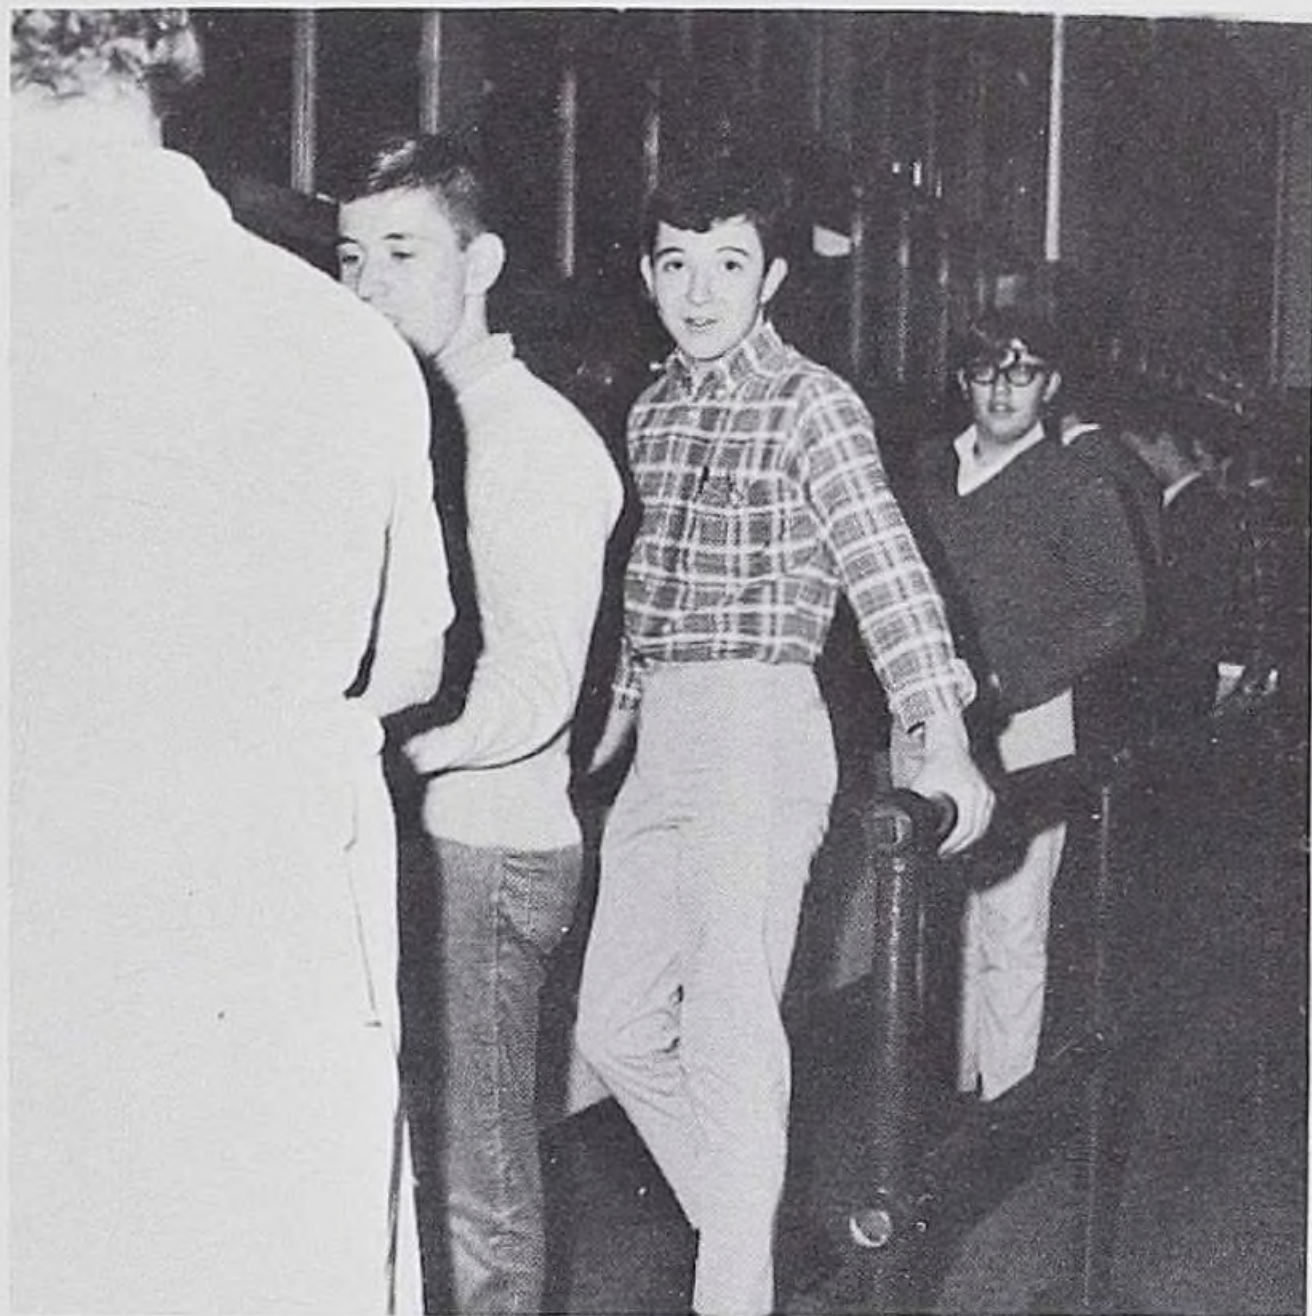

"You say there's a new girl in school?"

"Fresh!"

What's in the bag, Col?

"This must be my lucky day, I forgot my lunch money."

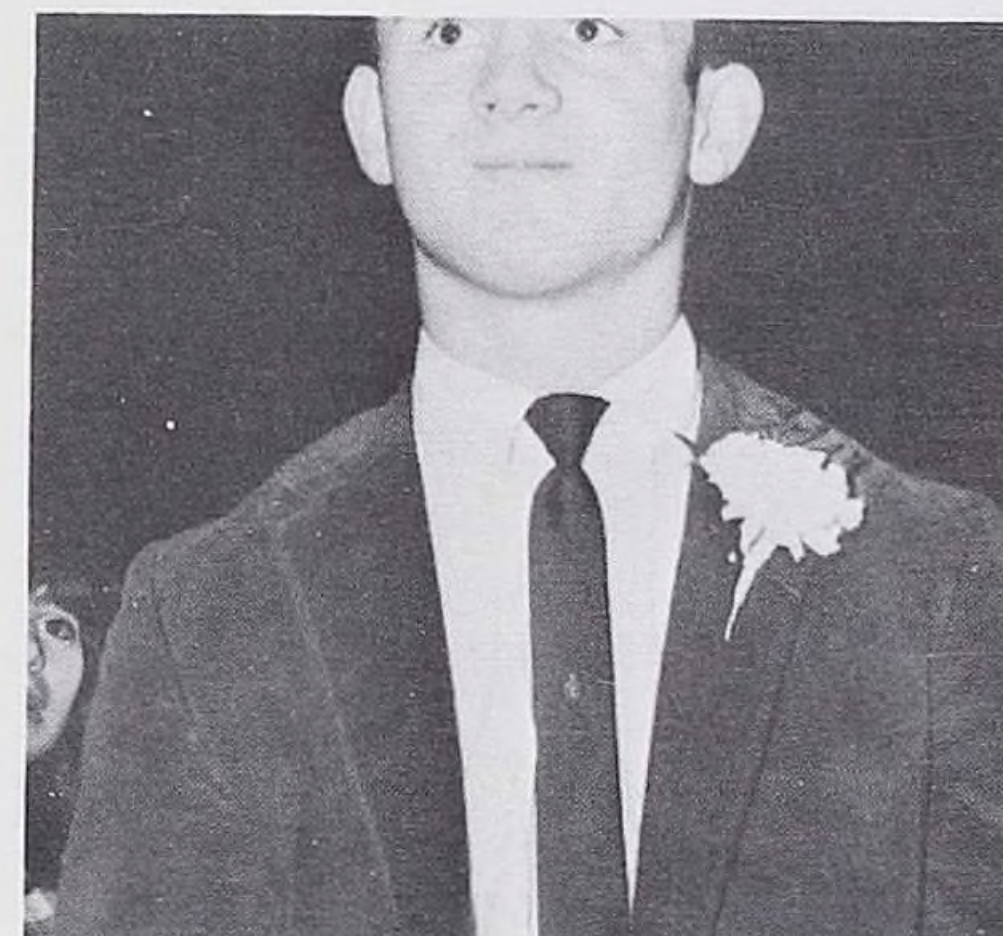

"Mother told me there'd be days like this!"

"Who me?"

Oh, Oh, Spaghetti-O's . . . and all I've got is a fork!

I've heard of haircuts, but that's ridiculous!

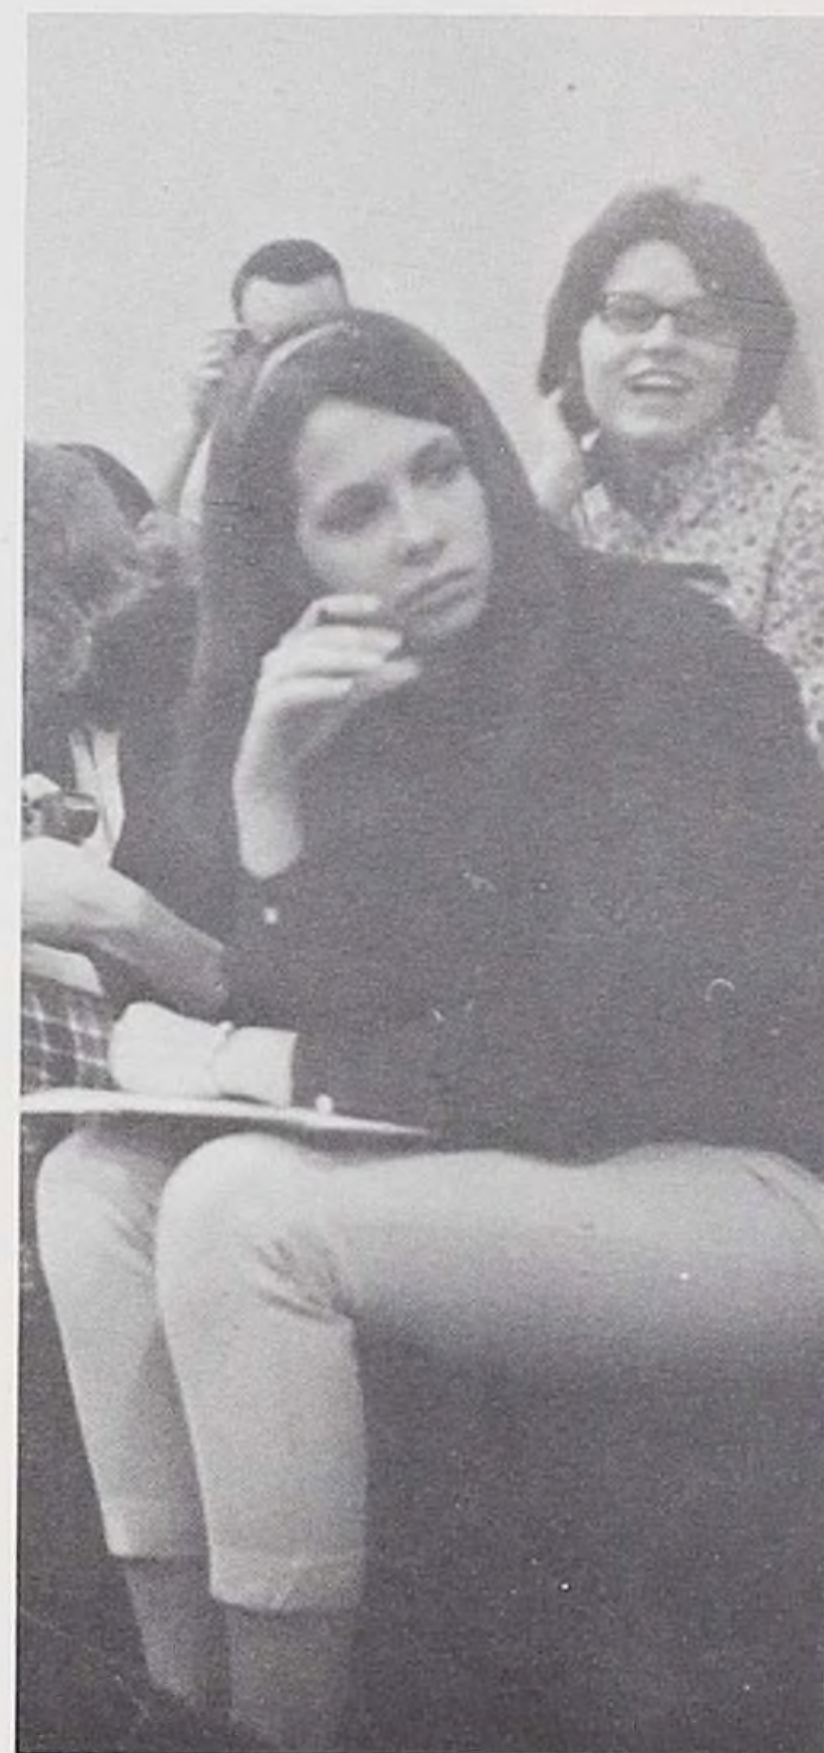

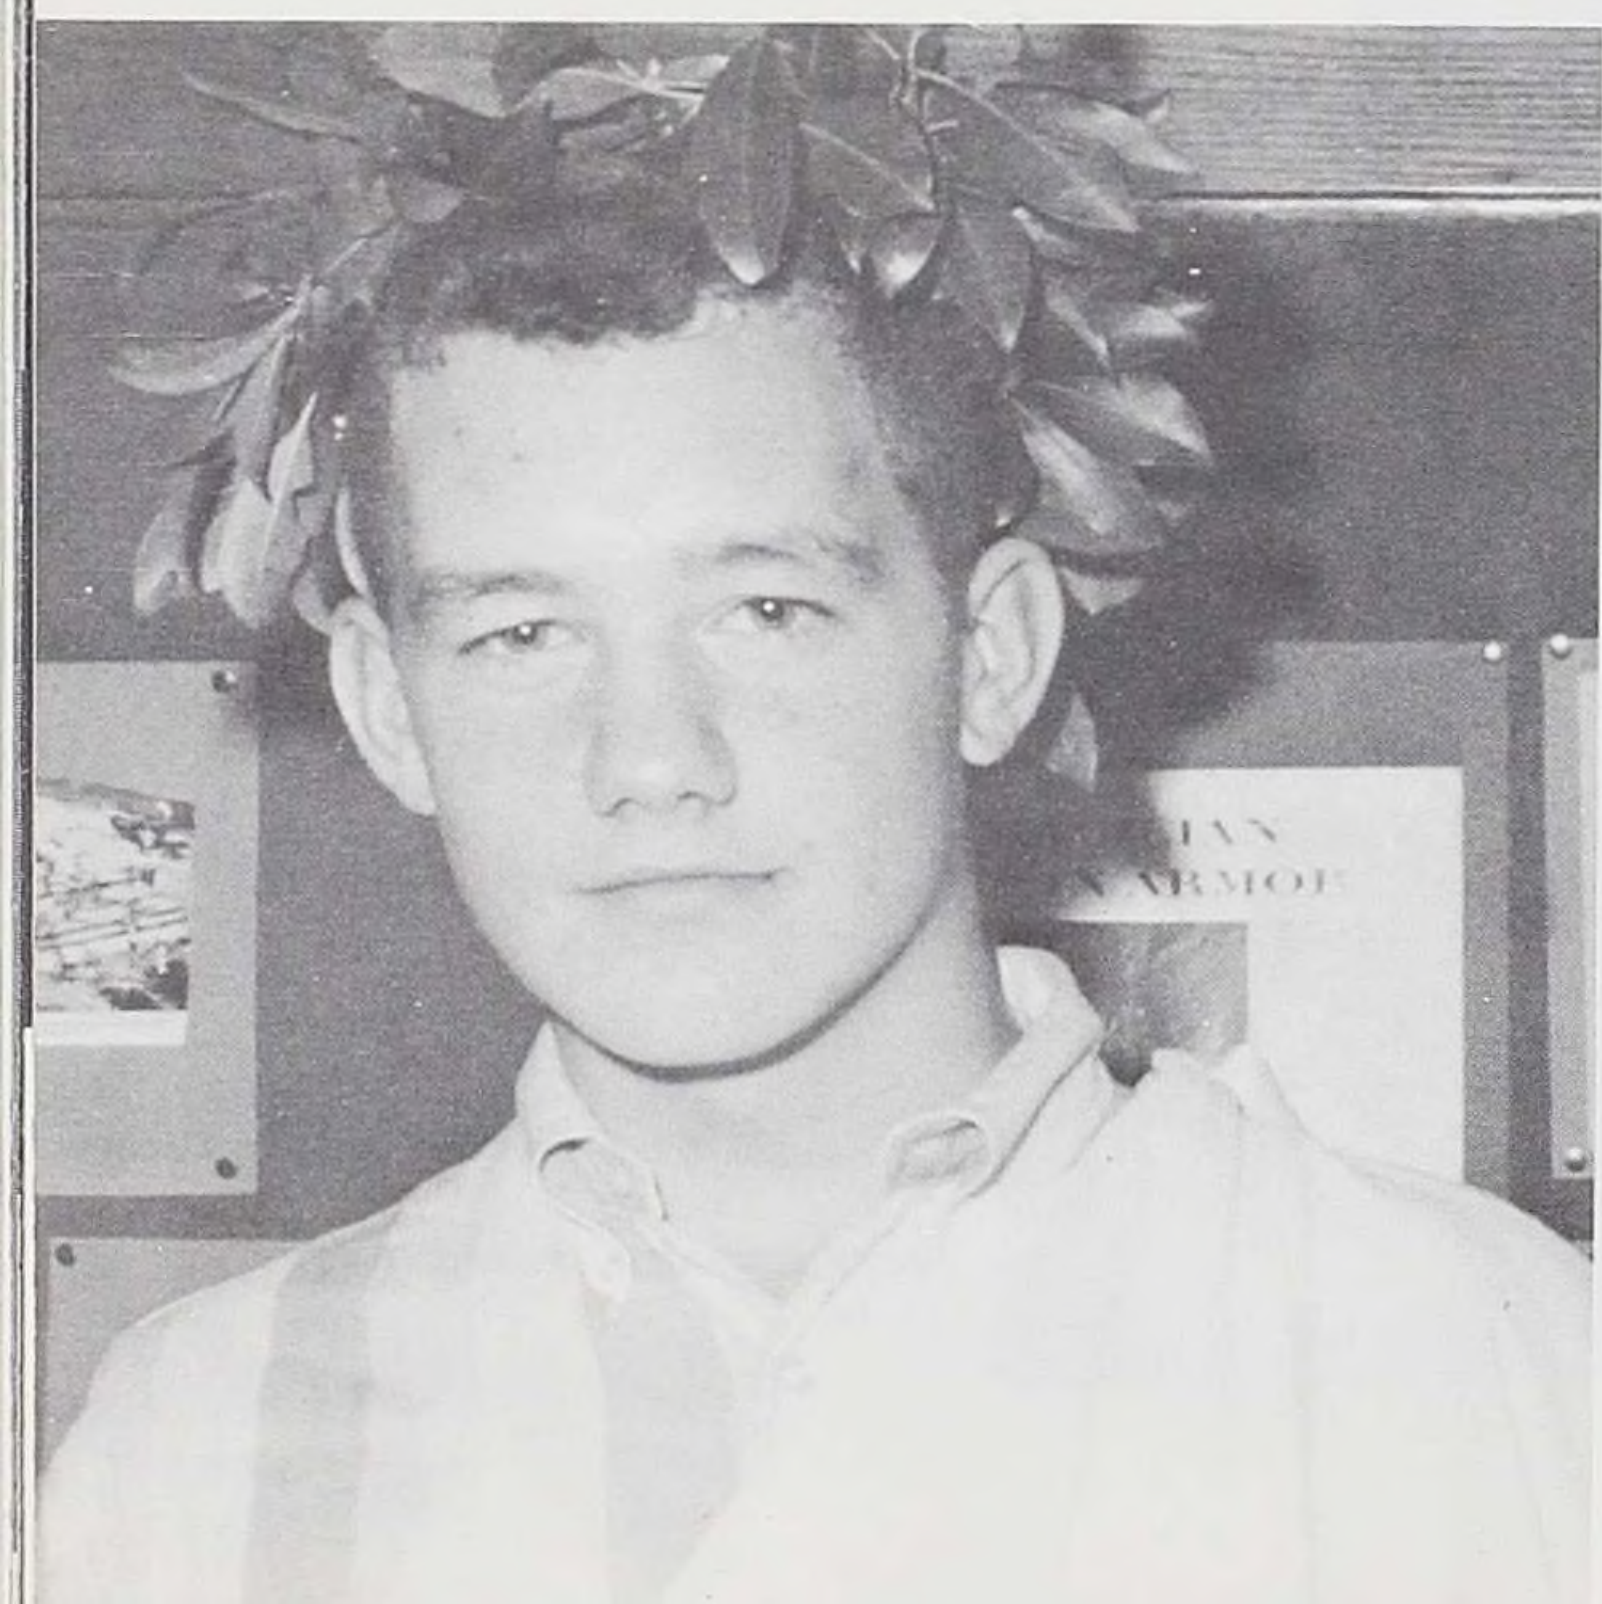

Some people you just can't ignore.

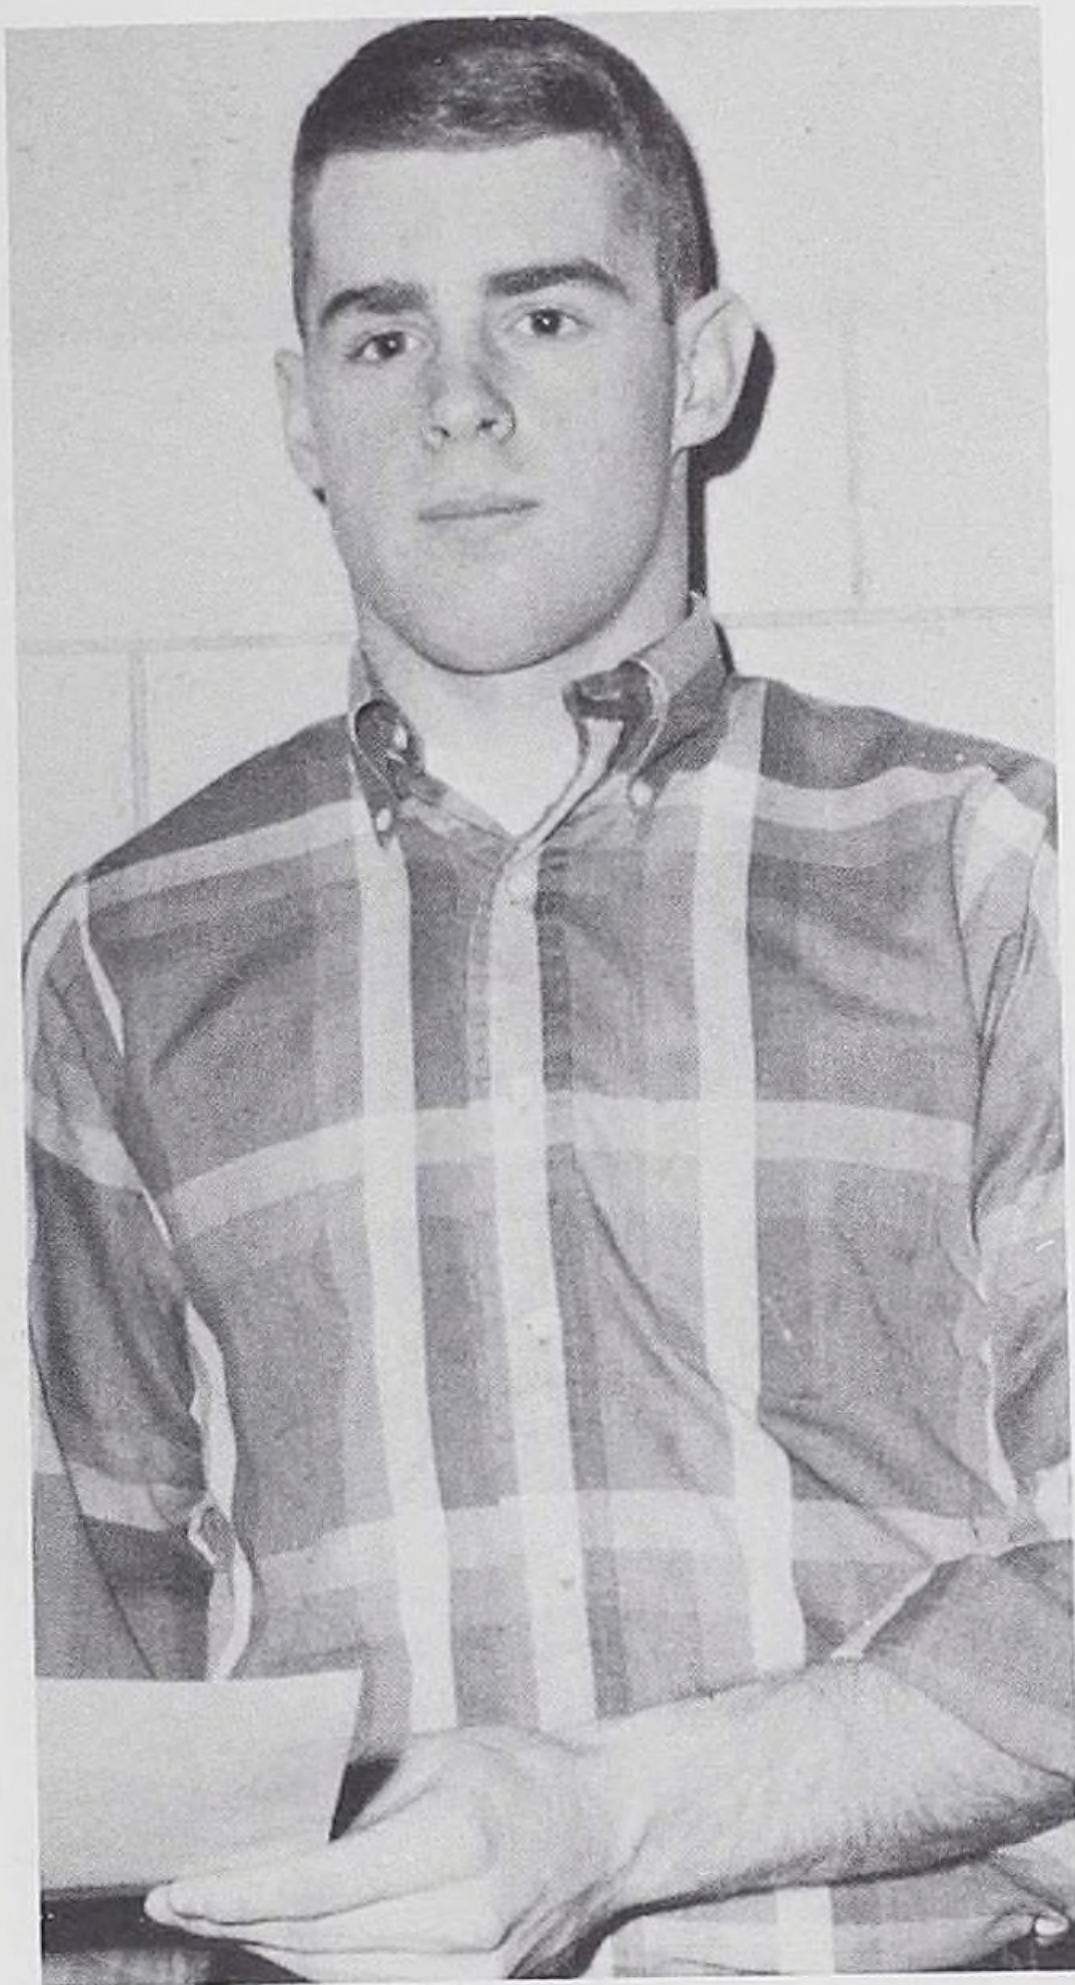

Apple Jacks will not be sold to Bullies.

A bird on the head is worth two in the hand.

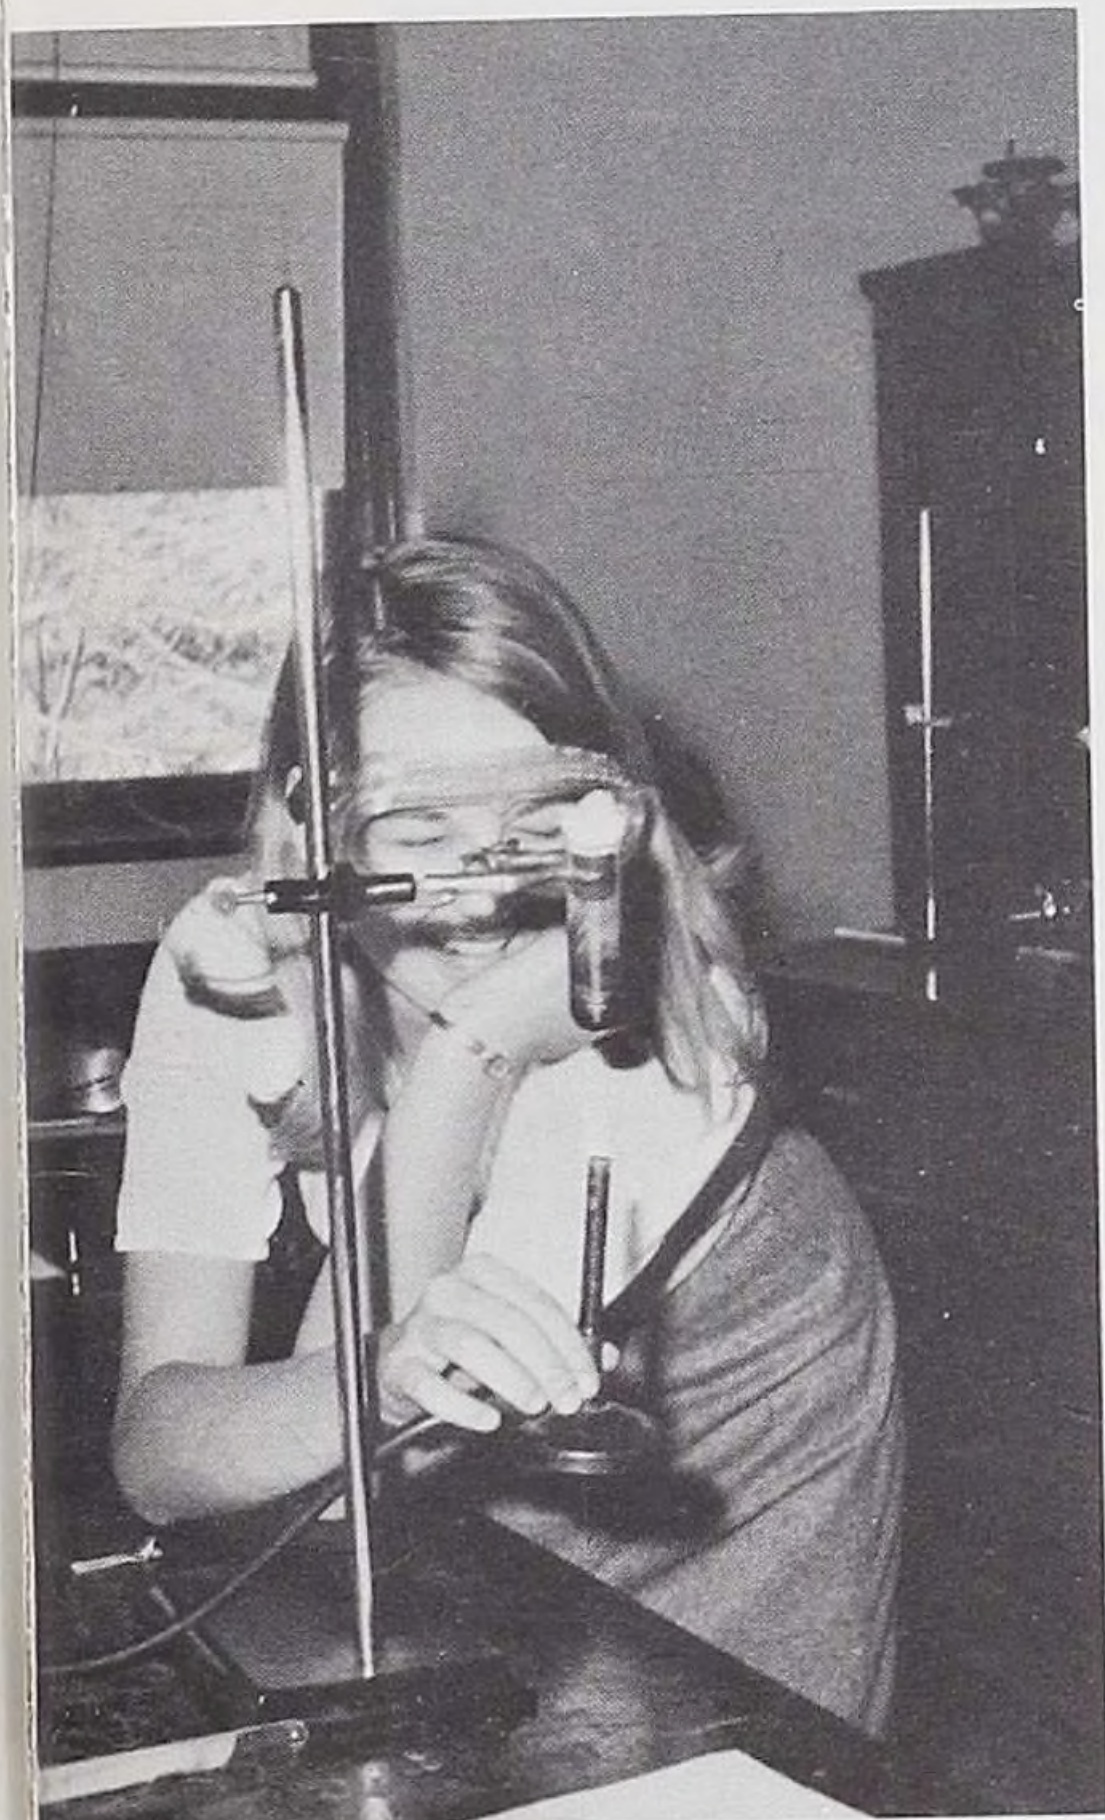

How do you tell your best friend she's got bad breath?

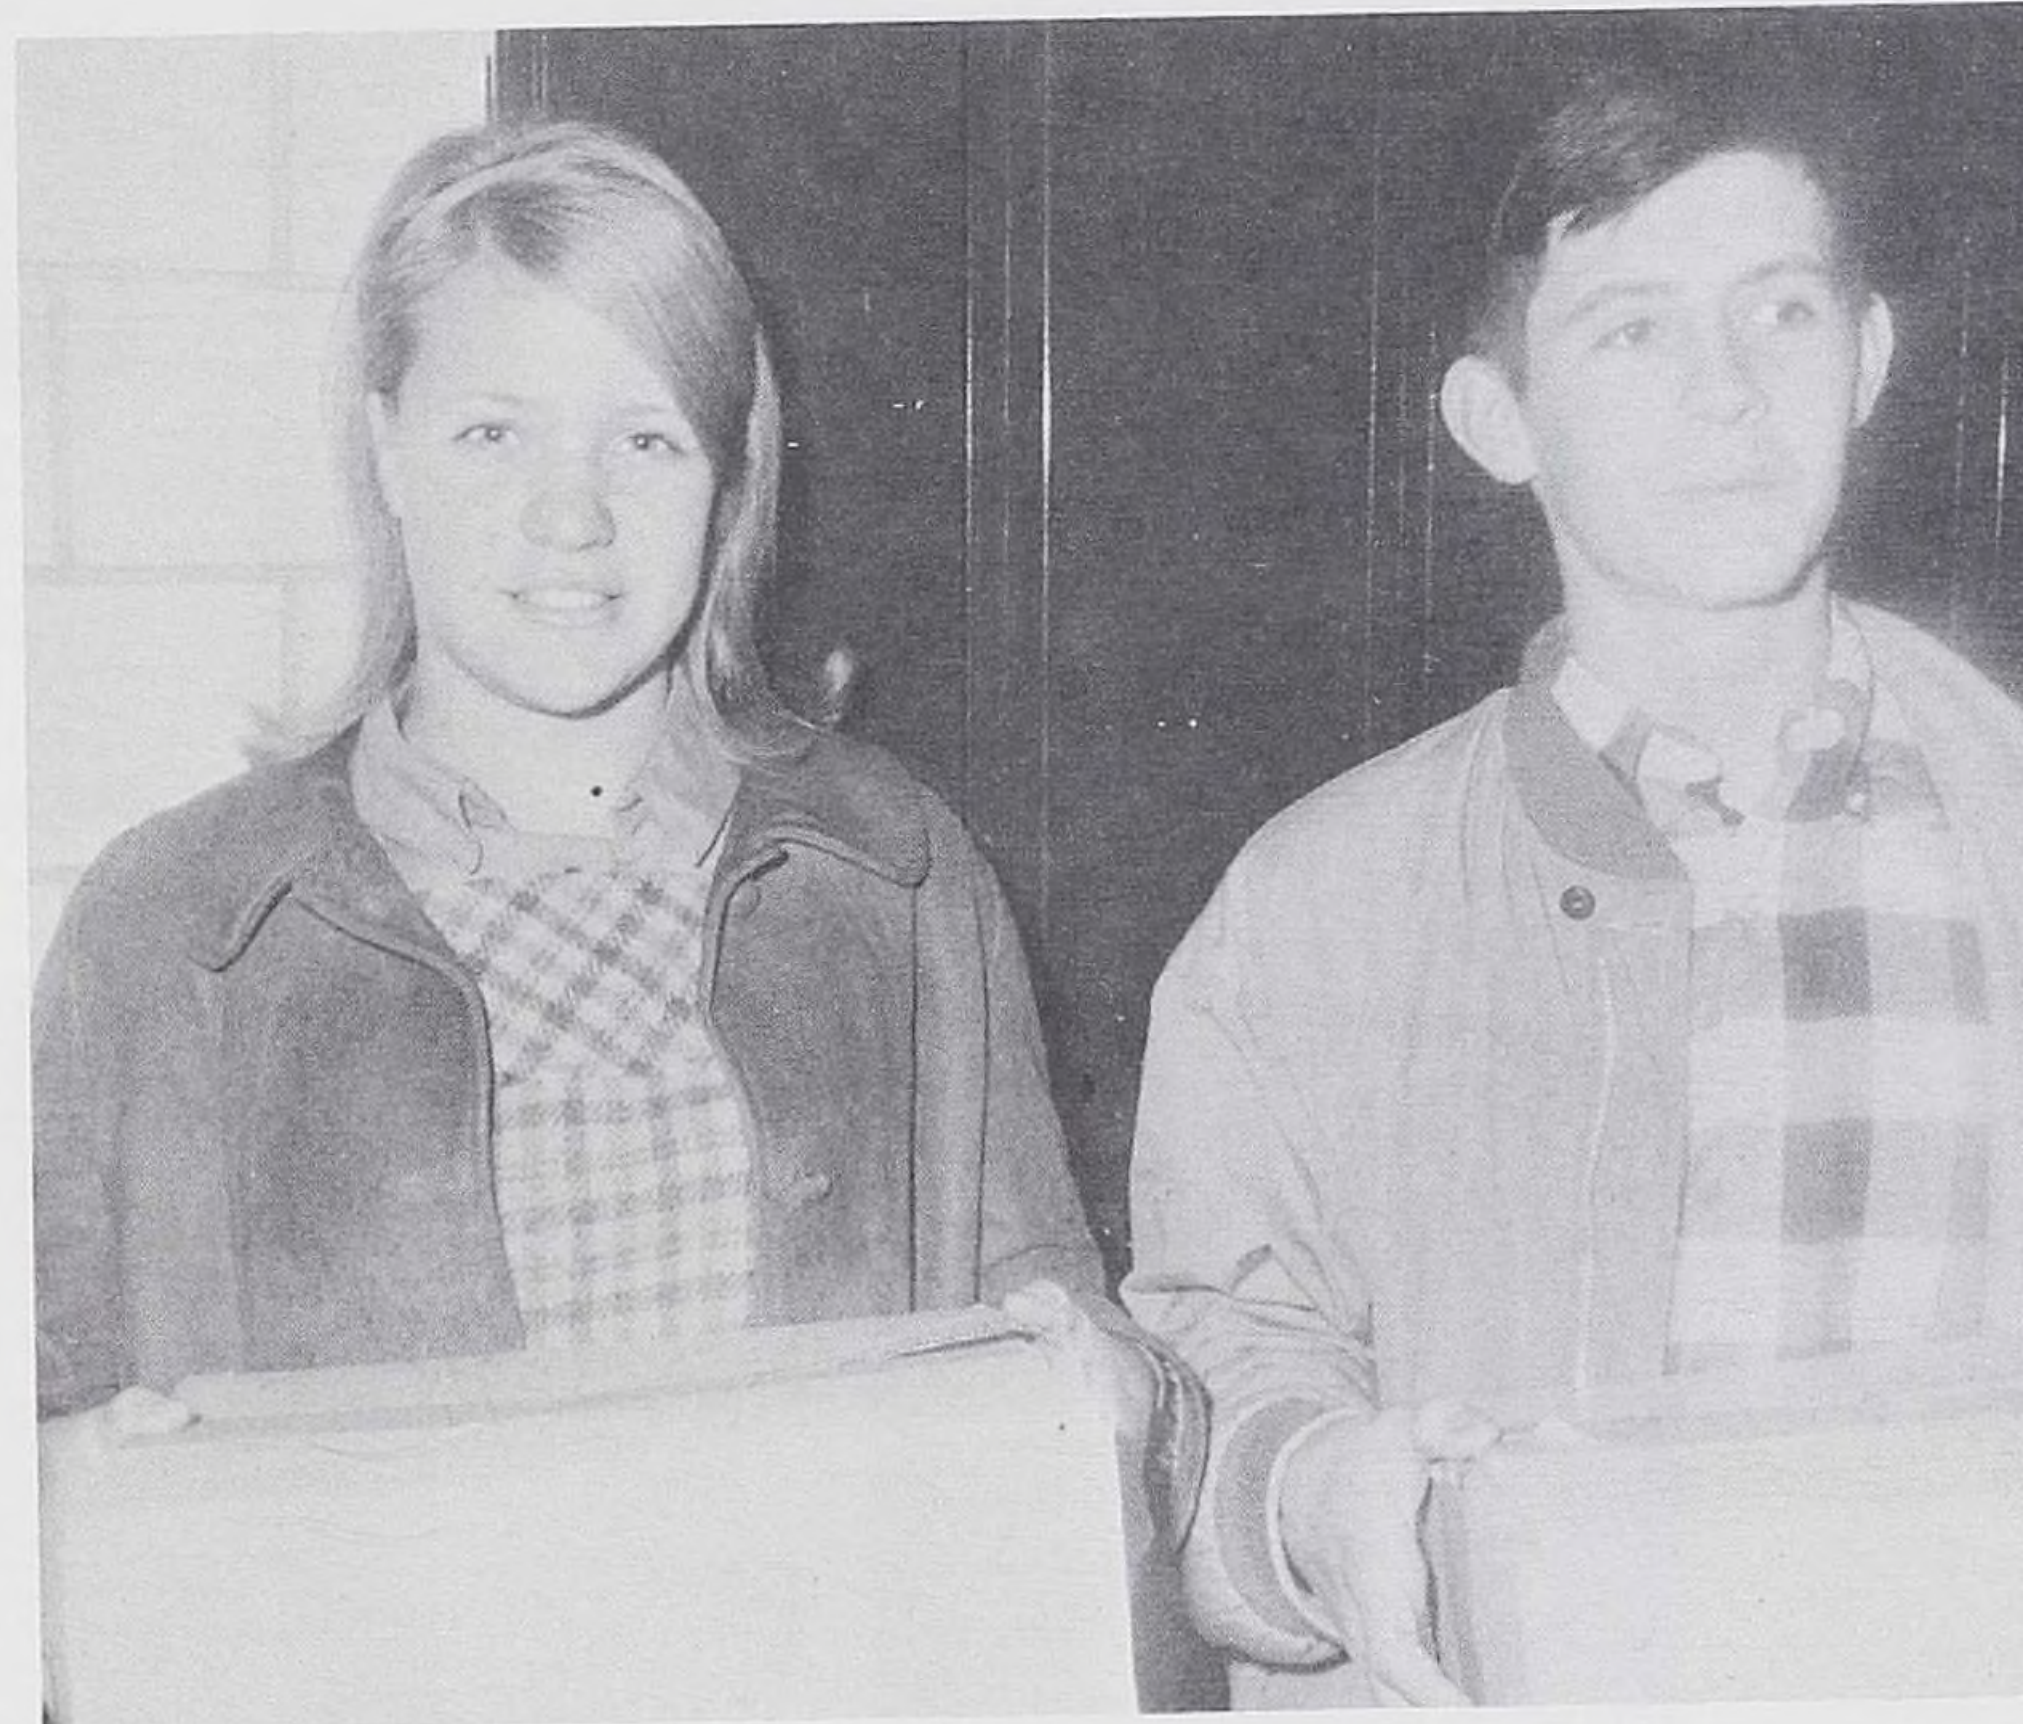

Would you believe?

Last night was my 18th birthday.

You wouldn't, would you?

I've heard of buying one pizza but 48 is ridiculous!

O.K. Mrs. Kyser, you can put the acid away, we'll wear the goggles.

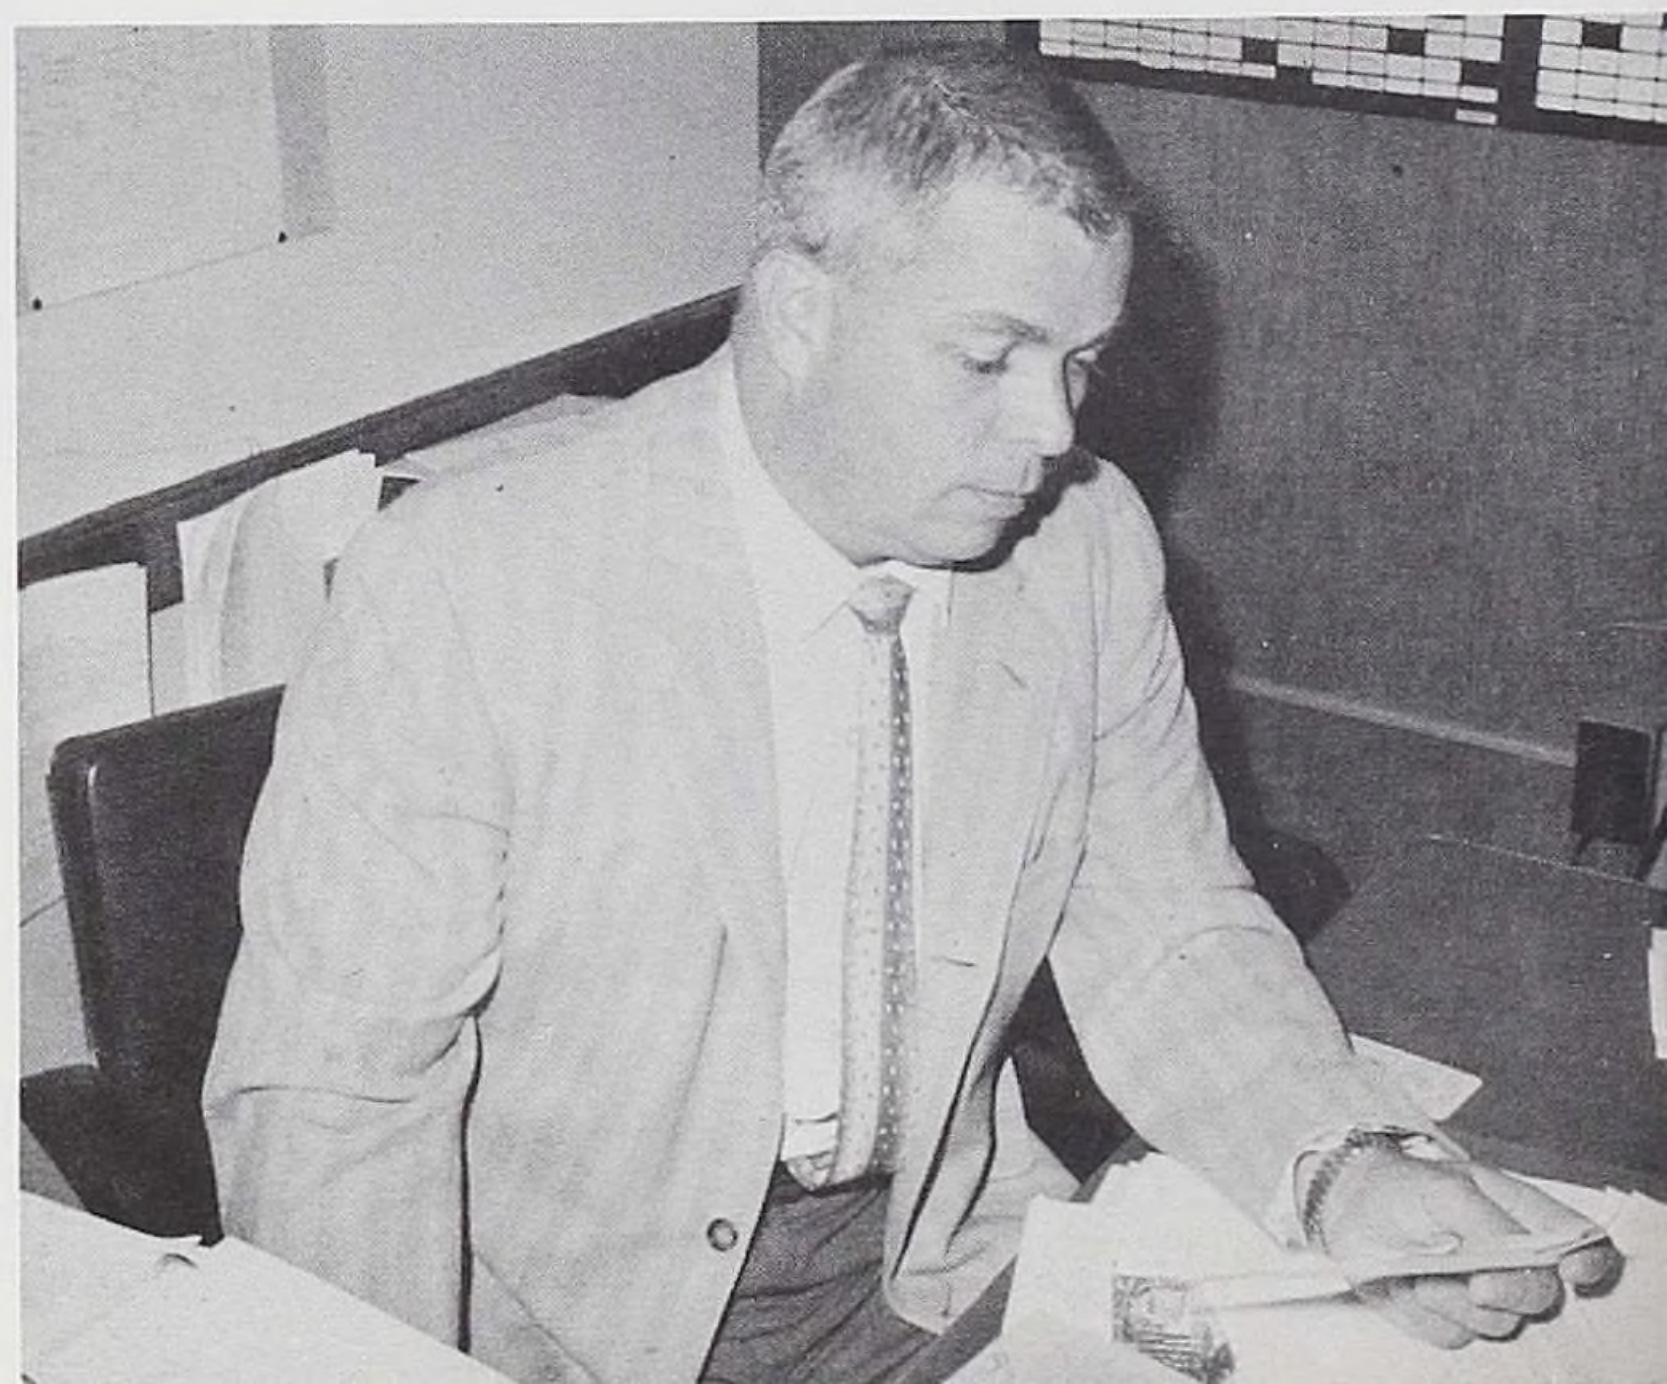

"Most Talented"

Did you ever hold hands with a cactus?

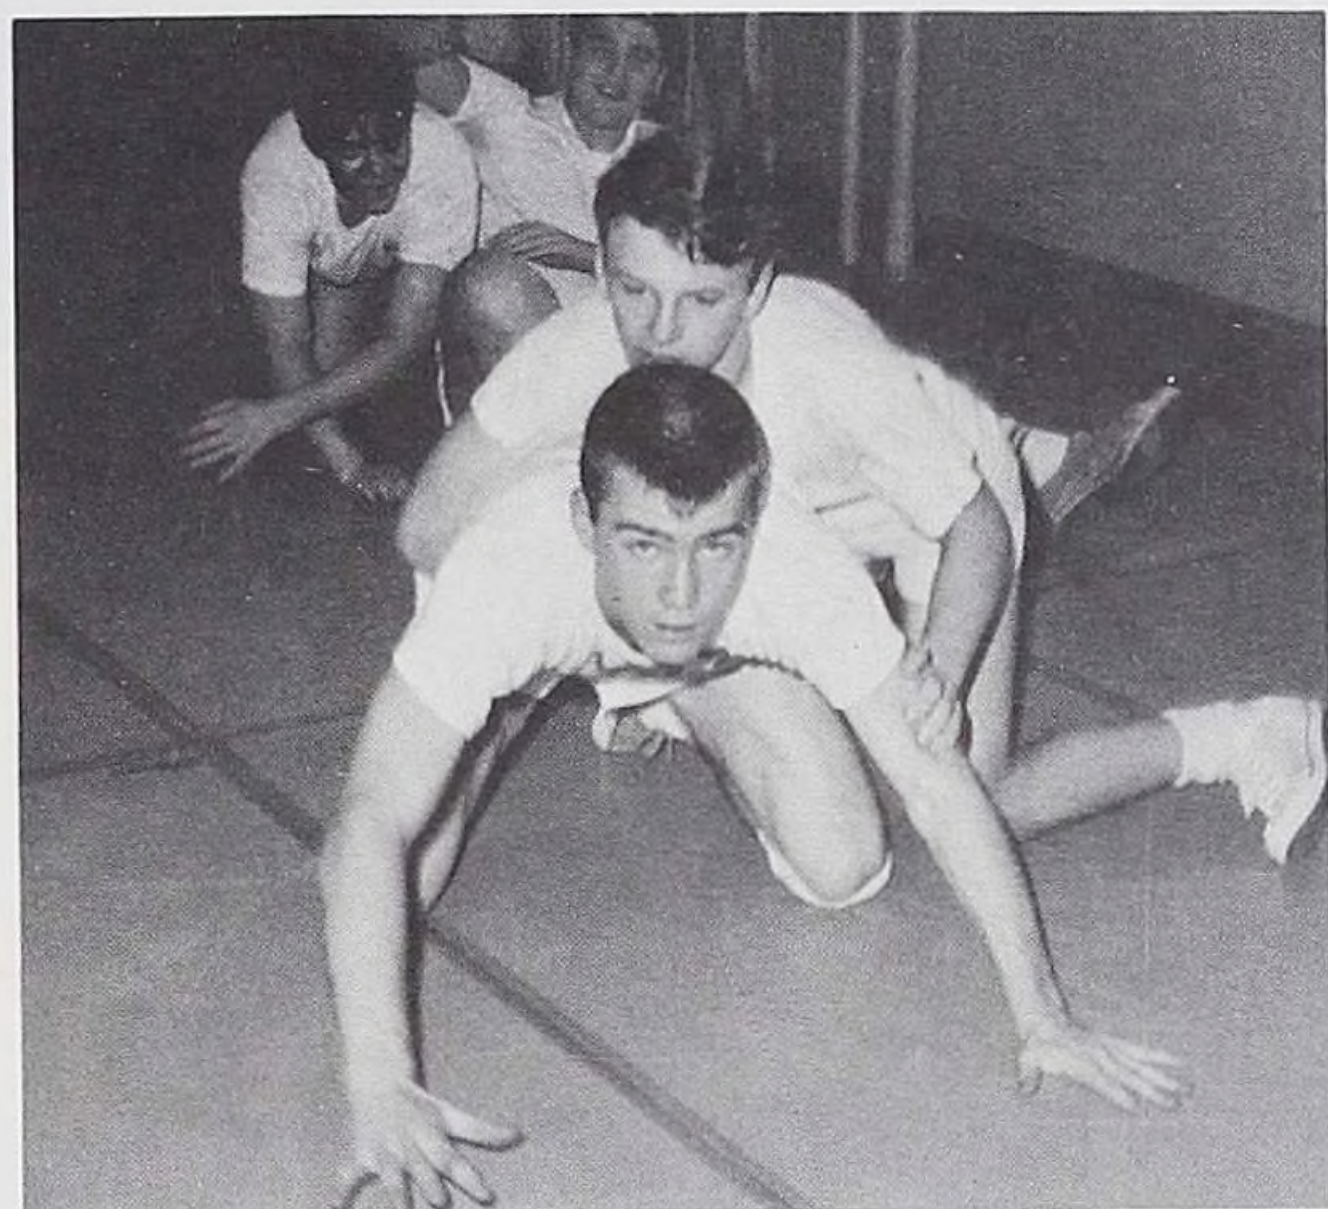

Nobody ever listens to my problems.

Junior Lounge

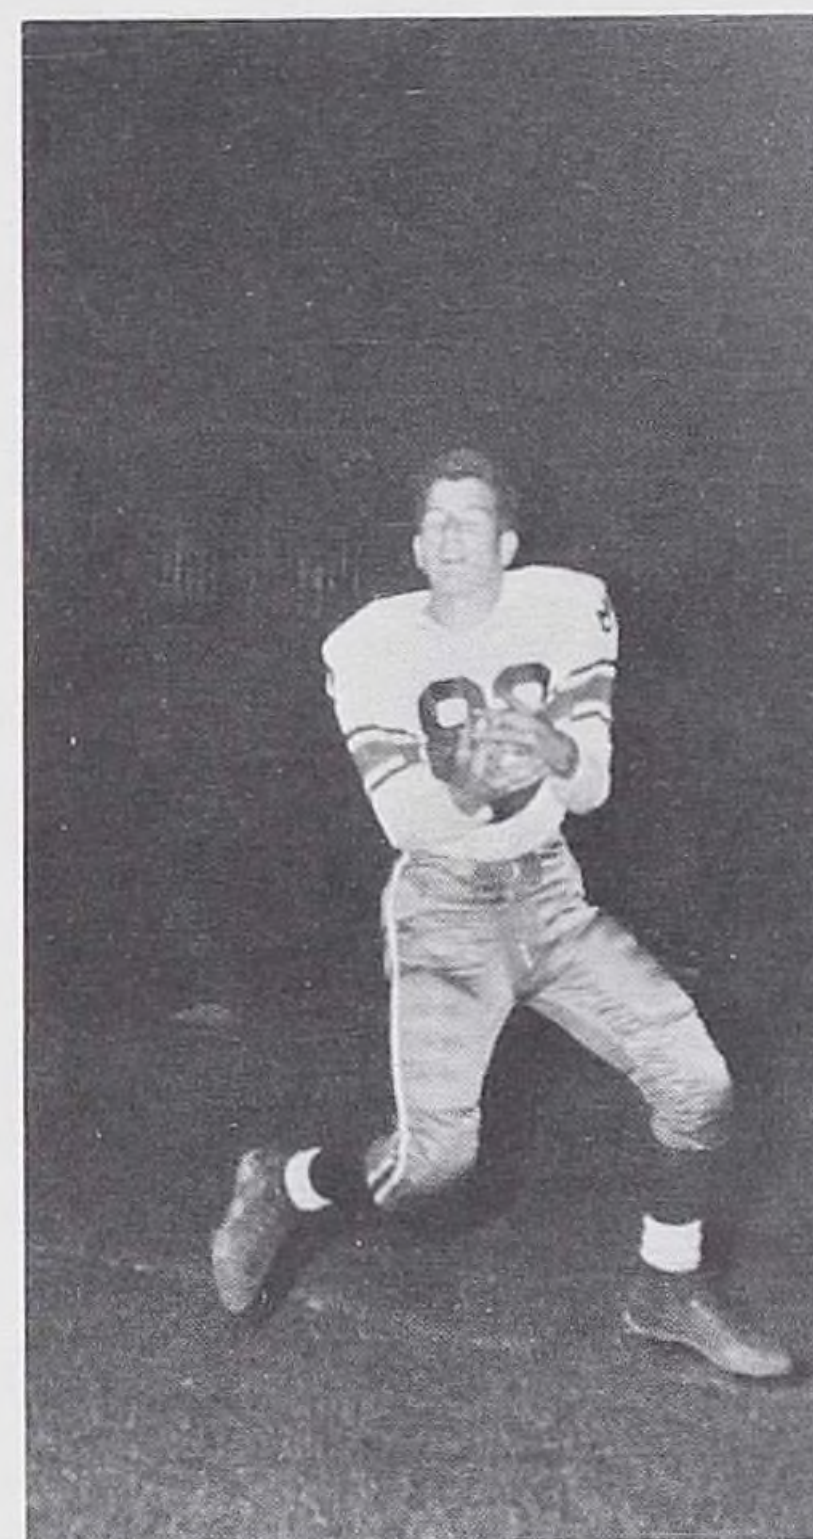

Will somebody get this silly boob off my back?

Oh my gosh! The baby's on the bottom!

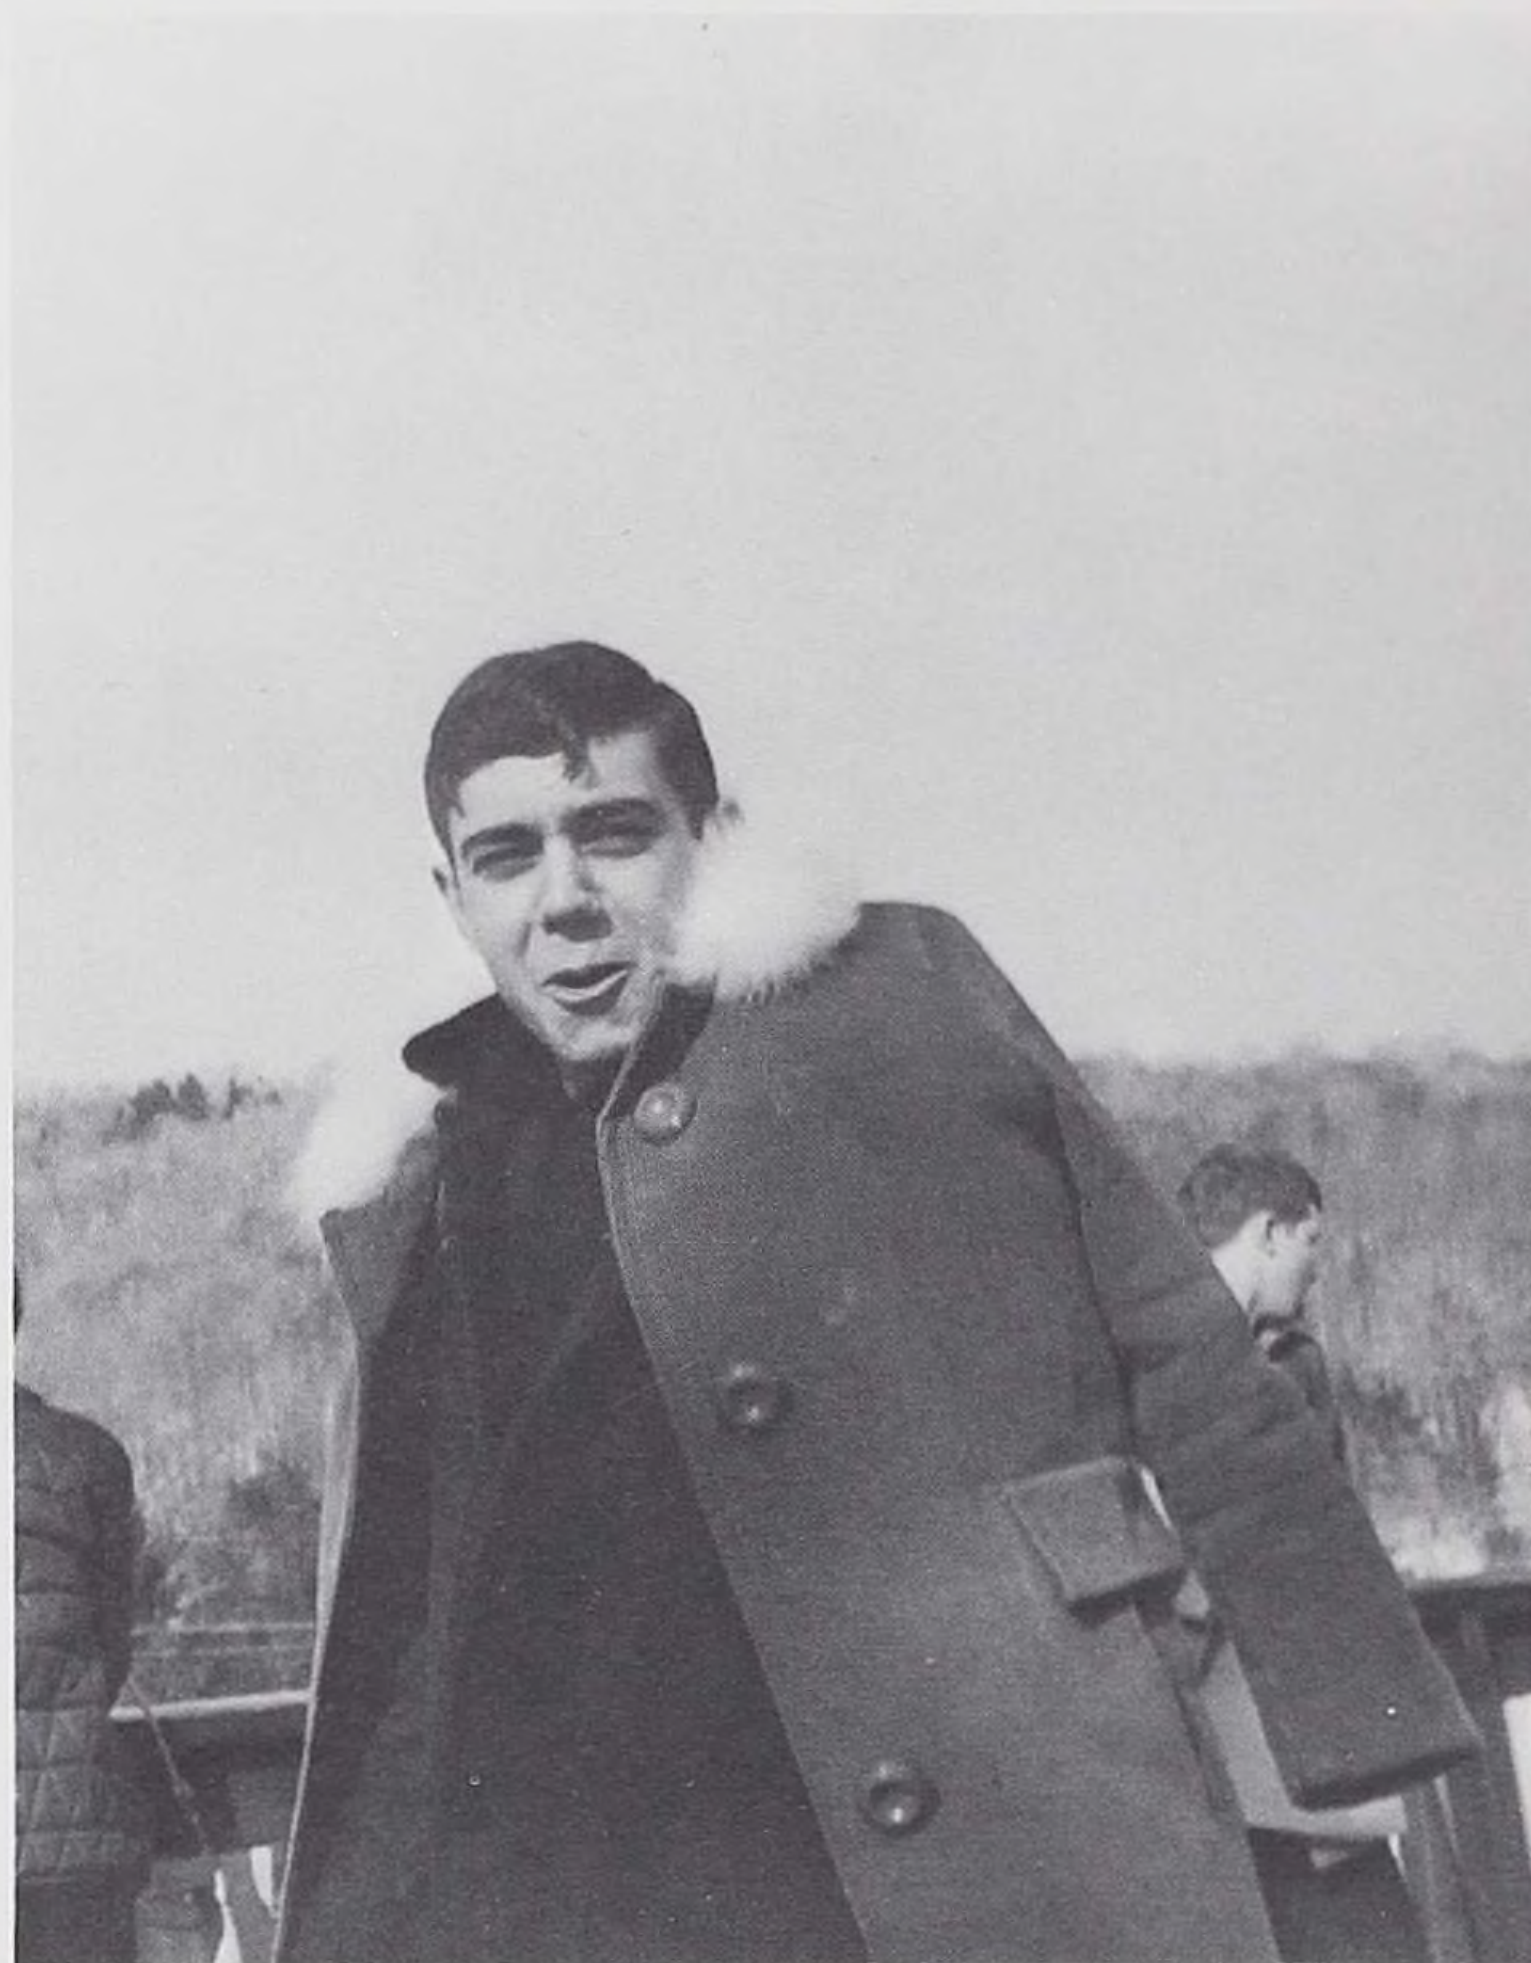

I'm just so cute and witty.

I've got it!

"Smile, are you serious?"

Oh Joey, you're so cute!

Who's on Candid Camera?

Beauties and the BEAST.
