FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

PRINCIPAL

Dear Seniors,

As a class, you have had an opportunity for a broader educational experience than any other class graduated from Olean Senior High School — such is the nature of our times. It has been difficult to select and provide you with the kind of education necessary to enter a rather troubled world, a world that needs the courage and hope of youth.

Each successive group of students graduated from our school contributes to the matrix of our stability as a country. Class of 1972, this is part of your destiny. May you be happy in the knowledge provided and may you now become creative members in a new era of hope and progress.

DIRECTOR OF SECONDARY EDUCATION

Dear Seniors,

In a rapidly changing society, it is difficult to focus upon a single issue that may be considered as the most important one. "Take care of the little things," stated a prominent statesman, "and the larger matters will resolve themselves." Before you offer your contributions to society and seek improvement it is necessary to look to your personal objectives. If you are going to be a housewife, military person, craftsman, doctor, student or whatever, be an excellent one. Be the best. The quality of this country is determined by the quality of its people. And it is the individual's drive to obtain personal satisfaction from a job well done that helps to create a better place in which we live.

My warmest congratulations to the class of 1972 and may you realize the highest degree of success in your personal endeavors.

Frank E. Kaplan

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Dear Seniors,

The purpose of a yearbook is to chronicle the activities of the Olean Senior High School, to capture something of its spirit, and to establish a means of recalling to mind life in Olean Senior High School.

To every student in high school there is an irresistible appeal about the story which these pages fill; the story of a group intensely in earnest about putting their best thought into work; the story of all phases of school life — athletic, social and scholastic.

The "Congress" presents a word and picture account of four (4) years in Olean Senior High School and is destined, therefore, to become one of your most treasured possessions.

Best wishes to the class of 1972.

The Student Council has played a very active role in the new double session system. By working closely with the Administration, it has solved many of the problems which have arisen.

Optional study halls resulting in less restricted movement, and a cafeteria which has taken on the relaxed atmosphere of a student lounge, are two of the new privileges that the Student Council has worked for this year.

The Student Council assisted in obtaining the new juke box in the cafeteria, and it has opened the Student Council Room to any student who wishes to spend time there during the school day.

A feeling of unity among the students has become apparent this year, which has resulted primarily from the hard work and inter-cooperation of the Student Council.

We finally finished it — One hundred seventy-six pages of blood, sweat, and tears. The hopes, dreams, secret wishes, and fears of your Editors are here before you. We've drawn and redrawn, typed and retyped every page in this book. We hope that in a year, or ten years, or twenty, when you look at these pages, a tear may come to your eye, or a smile may cross your face as you look at the memories here.

The CONGRESS represents many different things to many different people, but to the yearbook staff it is a product of their love, dedication, desperation, and pride. The yearbook has been the object of their passion and their profanities. There were times . . . when it seemed an endless task. The yearbook is now finished and in your hands. The endless task is now at its end and now the ultimate test is here . . . your acceptance.

Winter Weekend 1972 — "Hazy Shade of Winter" — began Wednesday, January 12, when our Huskie matmen wrestled the Franklinville Panthers to a 26-26 tie. Thursday, because of a lack of snow for snow sculptures, a movie, "The Cardinal," was shown. Friday, co-chairmen Kay Donahue and John Verbanic announced the court, with Tom Lyons and Joan Meyers reigning as King and Queen. The "Bleacher Bums" and the Senior Girls provided the entertainment for Friday's assembly, with recognition being given to the hardworking sports teams of O.H.S. Friday night a capacity crowd cheered our Huskies on to victory over the Wellsville Lions, with a score of 58-50. Following the game was a dance featuring the Hooker Family. "Hazy Shade of Winter" climaxed Saturday night with the music of the Copper Penny. The court was crowned at midnight.

"I think that we should treat our minds as innocent and ingenious children whose guardians we are, be careful what objects and what subjects we thrust on their attention."

— Henry David Thoreau

I'm a delegate . . . where's the party?

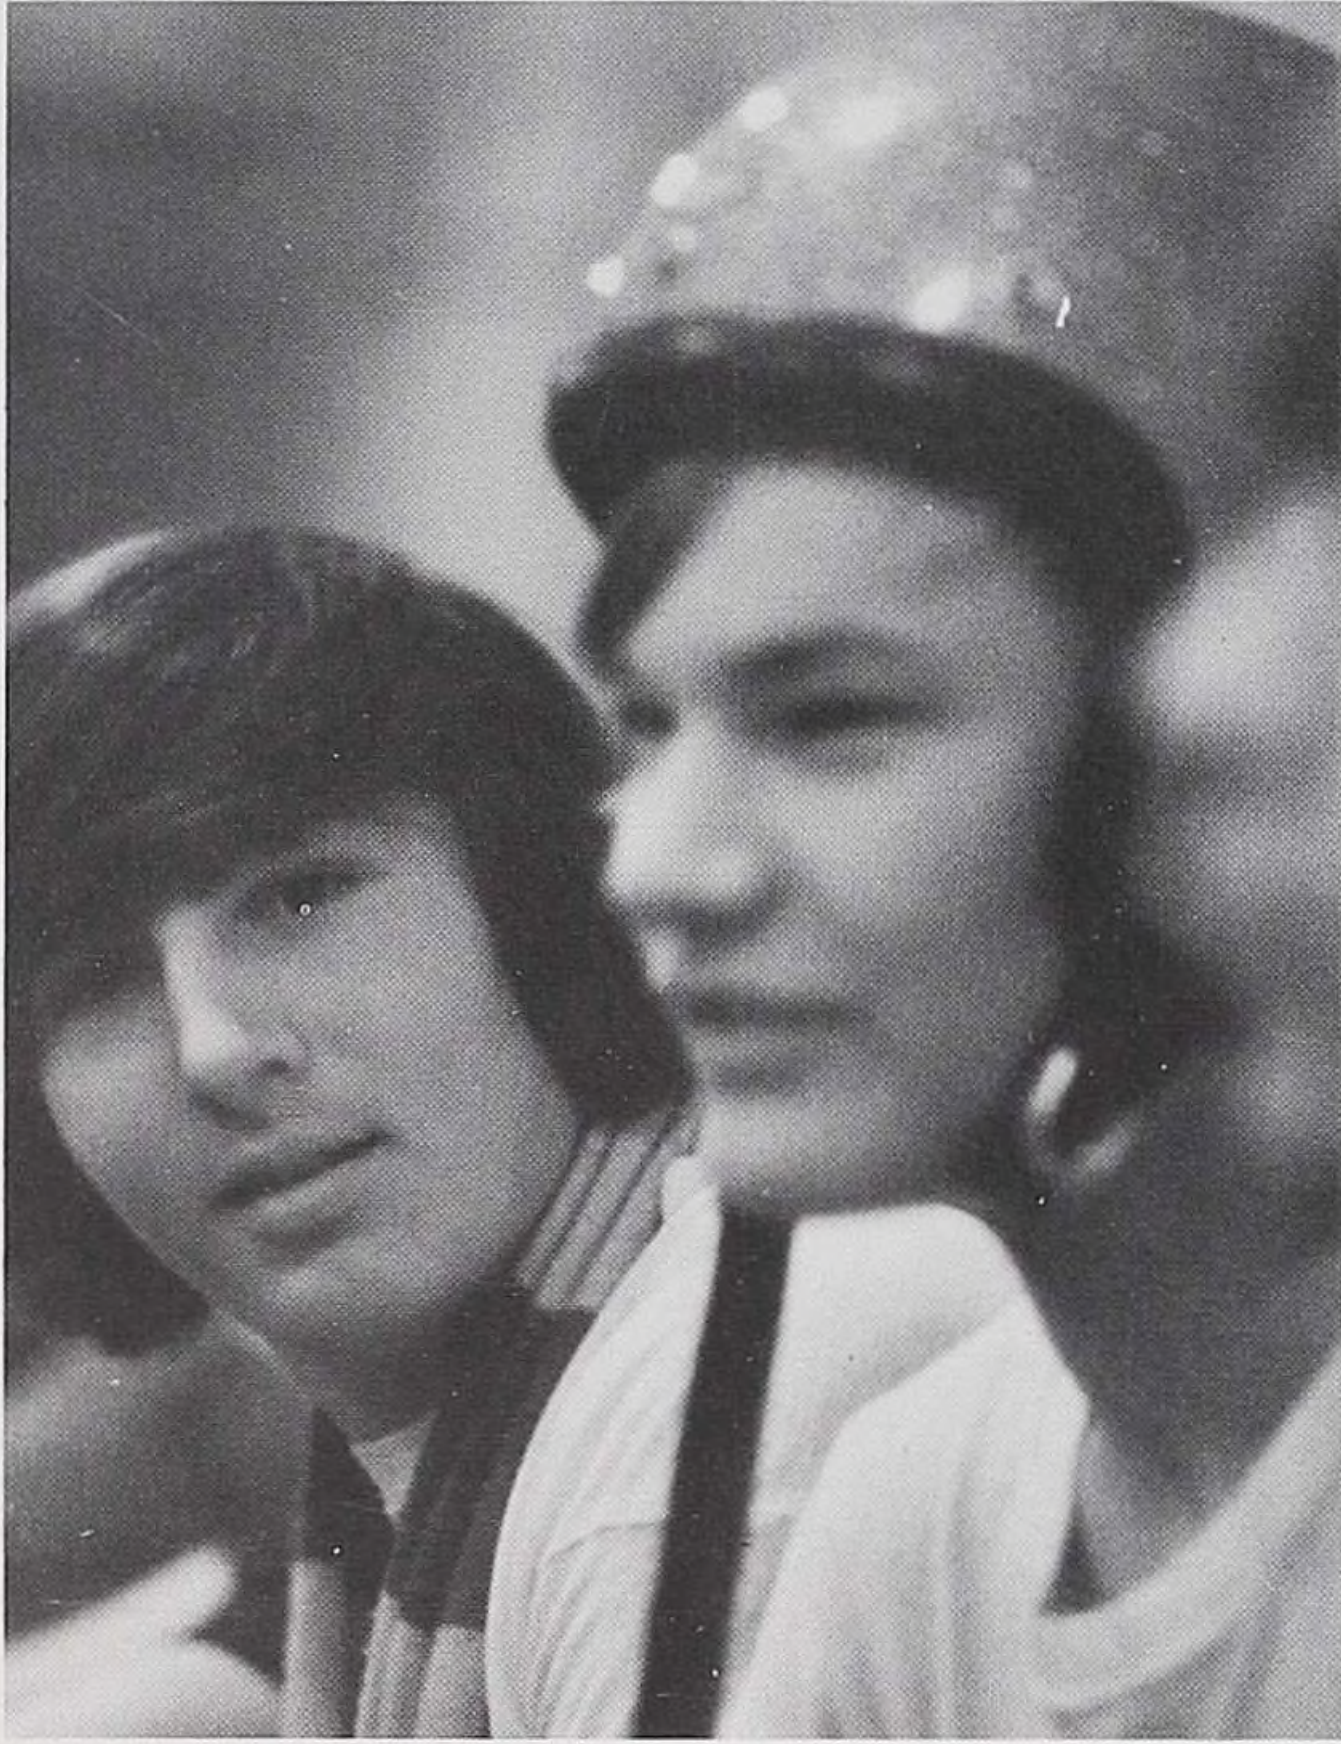

Mary, come on, we know you aren't camera shy!

Paul you know your mother told you not to gulp your food!

"The most manifest sign of wisdom is continued cheerfulness."
Michel Montaigne
Karen, continued cheerfulness??

ALMA MATER

Oh, Alma Mater, fair and true,
Thy honor we acclaim;
We rally around the Red and Gold
To laud thy noble name.
In thee we students shall renew
Our faith of days gone by,
Across the years we'll live anew
Thy spirit, Olean High.

Dear Olean, thy loving ways
And charms will ever be,
Those memories of golden days,
Those friends and hearts so free.
To thee we pledge thy honor due,
And parting, sound thy cheers
Our thoughts of you, so staunch, so true,
Will live thru all the years.

ASSEMBLIES

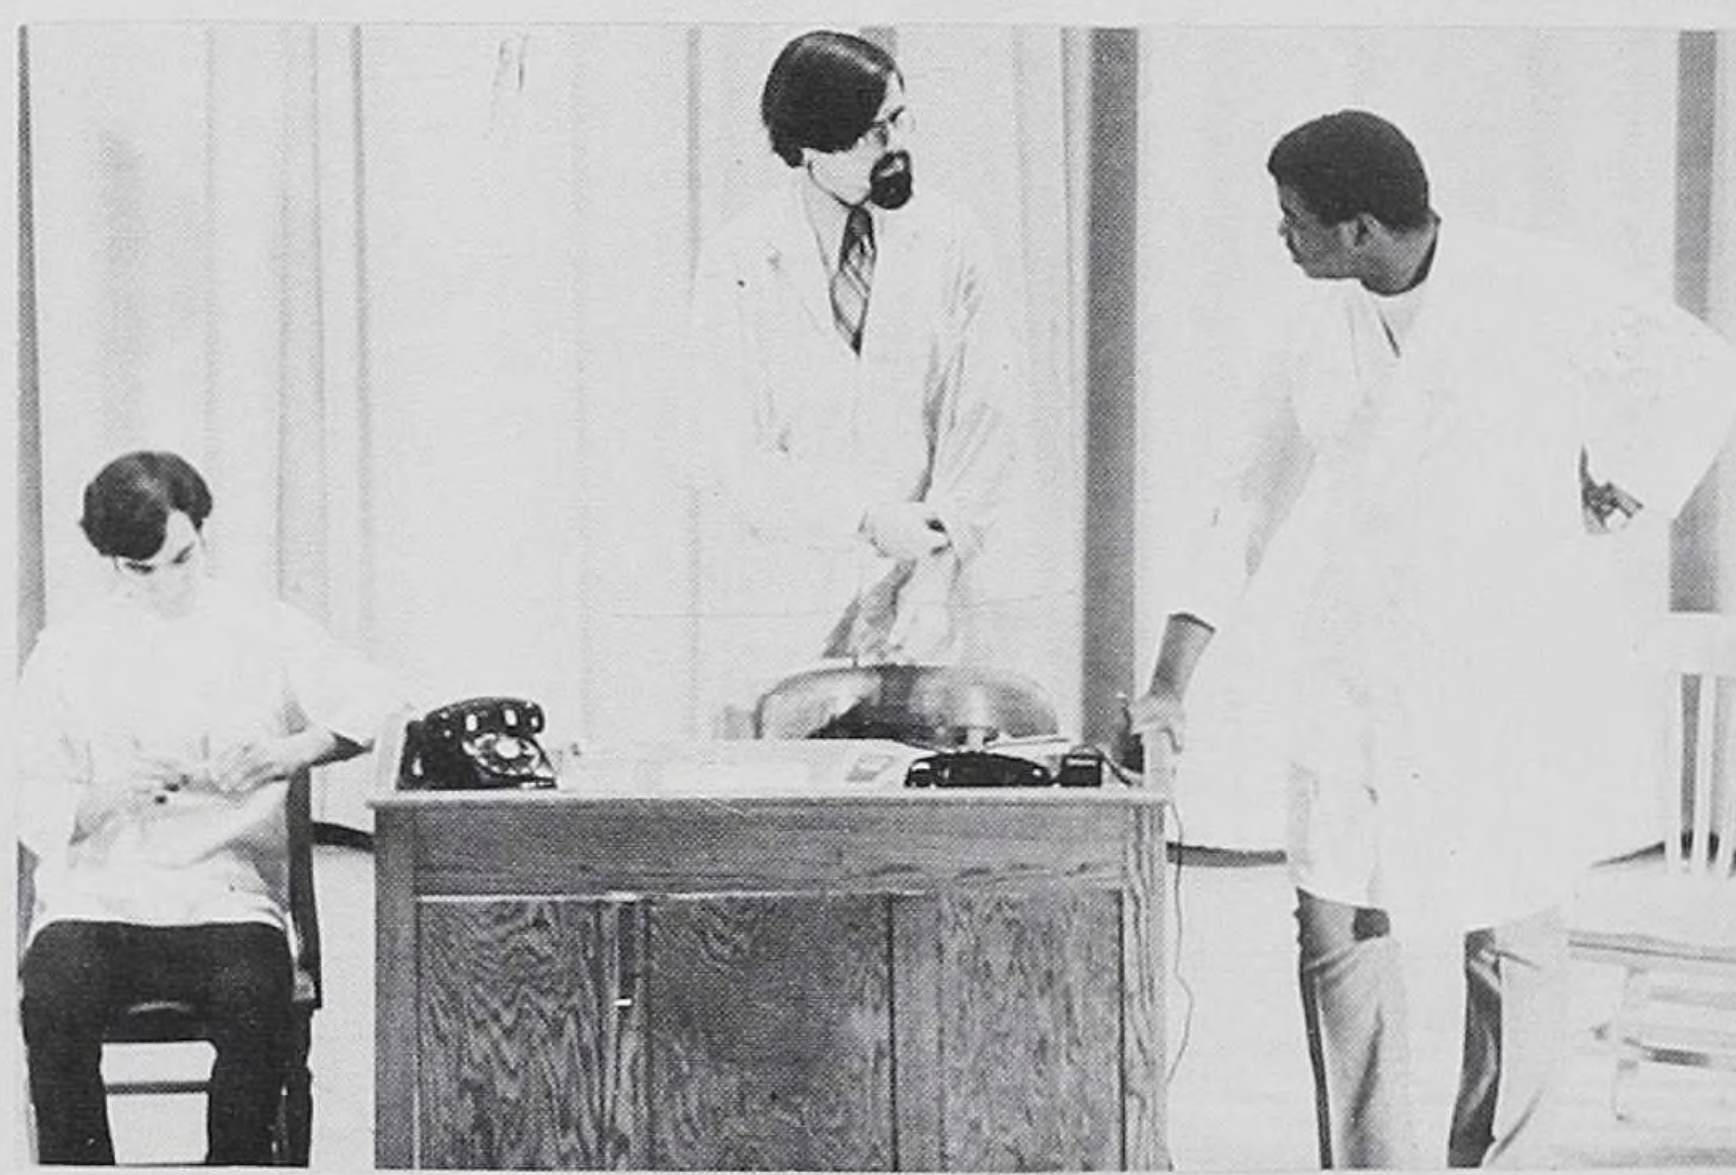

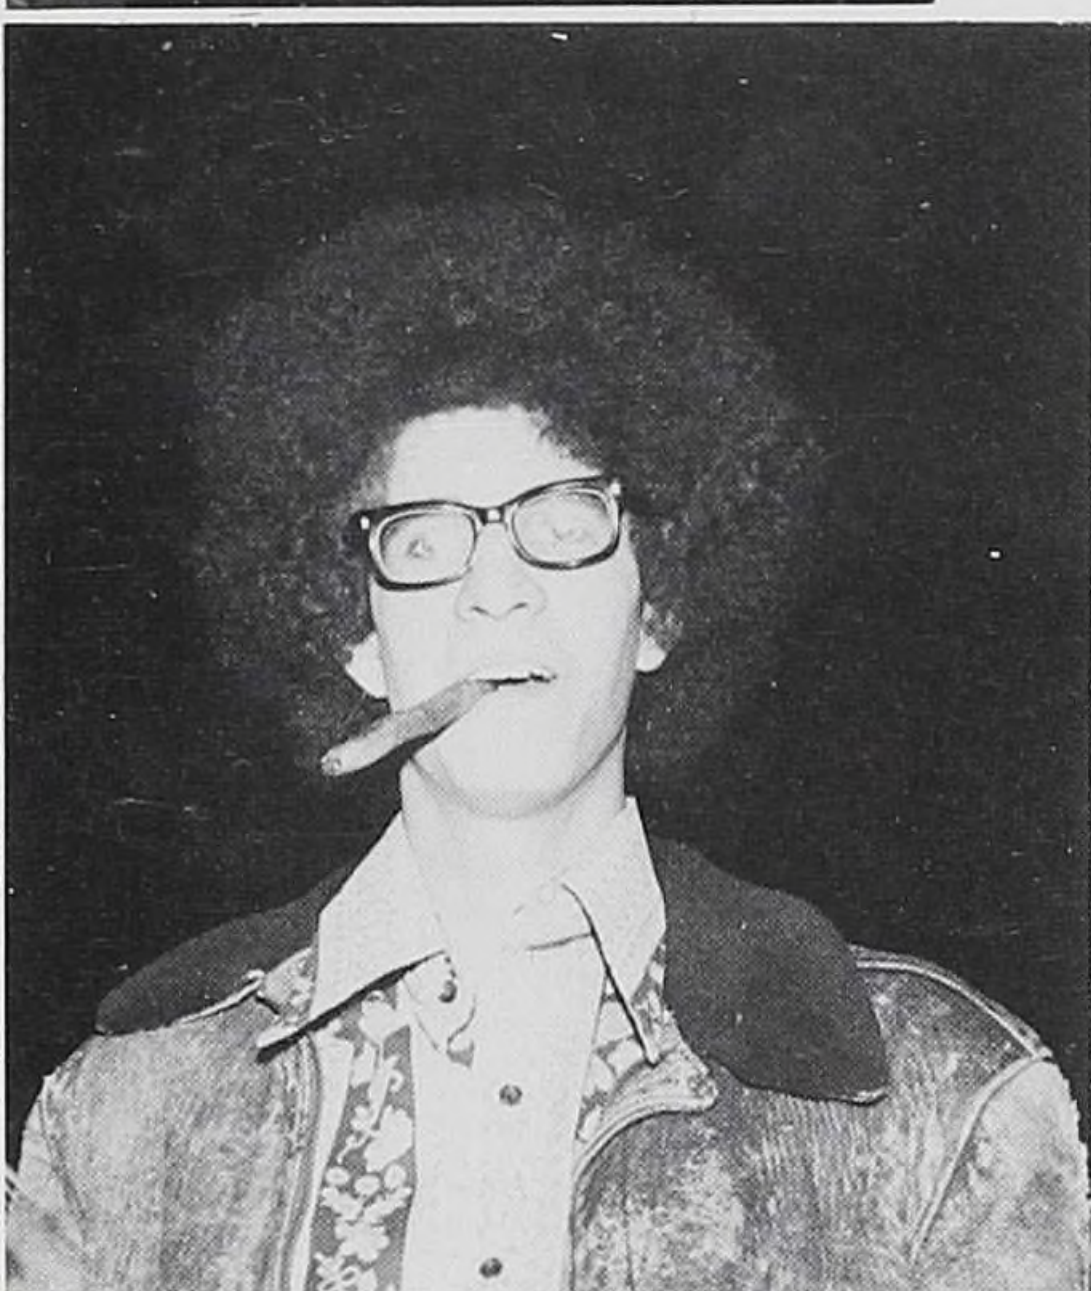

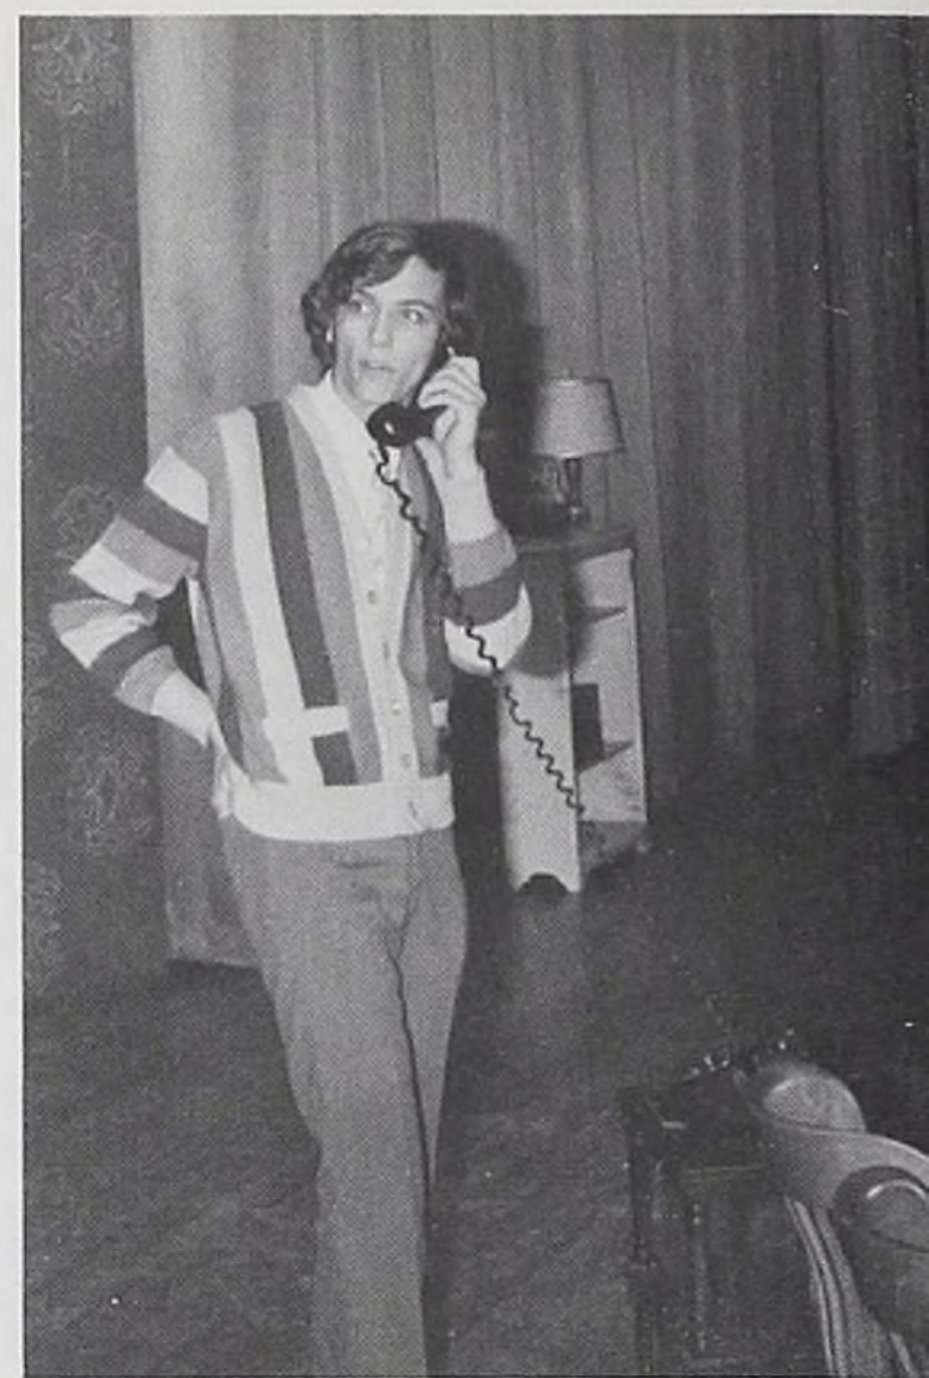

Harvey

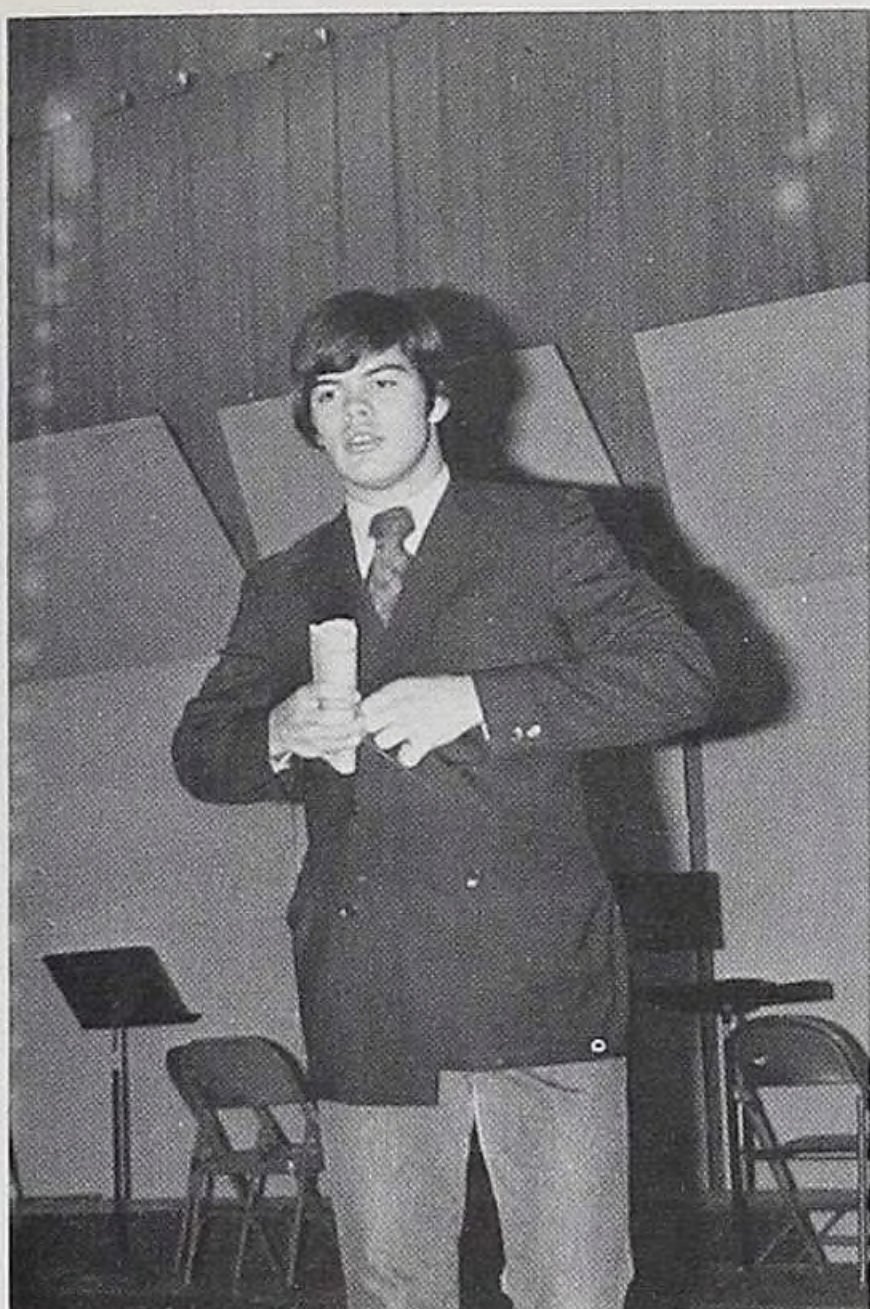

by Mary Chase

On October 22 and 23, Elwood P. Dowd (played by Patrick Vecchio) and his invisible friend Harvey visited the auditorium. Events at the Shady Rest Sanatorium began with confusion over a mistaken mental patient. Veta Louise Simmons (played by Marcy Larmon) and ended with the realization that life with a six-foot-two-inch unseen rabbit is not so bad after all.

Anastasia was presented on March 10 and 11 as the feature production of this year's Drama Festival Workshop. The story concerned the attempts of an outcast Russian prince who, to obtain the vast Romanoff fortune, tried to use a girl who said she was the last surviving heiress. The prince, portrayed by Brian McLean, and the girl, played by Harriet Penensick, as well as the rest of the cast, performed admirably, as Director Miss Kathleen Wright and Student Director Pat Vecchio continued to uphold the high quality of the All-School Plays.
