If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music he hears, however measured or far away.

- Henry David
Thoreau -

Sun and earth and sky - these are forever things, moving constantly ; living through time...

But each individual is given only a sparkle of time - a time in which he must speak his singular expression ; his alone. He must dawn and breathe a unique freshness, for this is his hour...

In the past, yearbooks have defined, described, and idealized our school. And yet, experiencing life at Olean High and life around us,
we can see how complex our existence really is.
Human feelings are frail and the ways of the world are ragged - yet, out of the masses steps you, the individual ... complex, entire and unique.

For this reason, we have chosen not to dedicate this book to one person in particular,
but to you - the individual.
Whether you are a teacher or a student,
a leader or a follower, and whether or not you are sure of just who you are and who you will become - celebrate being you.

We place no limitations on man and so this book, the 1973 CONGRESS, is dedicated to those who believe in individualism, who work to find it in others and who extend themselves toward leaving a glow at the end of their sparkle of time ...

*Out of the masses emerges the individual
 . . . all he is and all that he will become.*

*Believe it.
 You are a real find,
 a joy in someone's heart.
 You're a jewel,
 unique and priceless.
 I don't care how you feel.
 Believe it,
 God don't make no junk.*

— John Radice

*"In some ways I am like everybody else.
In some ways I am like me."
Anonymous*

*You do your thing and I'll do mine.
I am not in this World to live up to your expectations.
And you are not here to live up to mine . . .

"Olean Senior High School... Olean, New York"

Seniors

time it was,
and what a time
it was, it was...
a time of innocence,
a time of confidences.

long ago... it must be...
i have a photograph.
preserve your memories;
they're all that's left you.

Teachers

how do they make the ripples into waves . . .
waves of creativity
she has each individual for a month or for a year just enough to discern the slight ripples they make on the waters surface but each individual must reach the shore, his only boat the waves and those waves giving life and form and movement to the entire body of water must be his own whether they lap the shore or burst mature and strong onto the sand this is part of the teacher's responsibility perhaps their own waves are enough to spark creative growth

Principal

Dear Seniors:

You know, as we do, that you are graduating into a troubled world. We hope that your years in the Olean schools, and particularly at Olean Junior-Senior High School, have equipped you in some measure to cope with the problems you will face.

We will watch your progress with interest and confidence. We feel that you have developed attitudes, habits, standards, and a feeling of tolerance toward fellow man that will insure your future happiness.

Our pride in your accomplishments is a reflection of the pride of your parents, teachers, and community.

If a desire for accepting the responsibilities which you will face in our society has been instilled in you here, we will be happy. We graduate you with our very best wishes.

Superintendent of Schools

Dear Class of 1973:

The world of tomorrow will belong to you young ladies and gentlemen who are in high school today. The task of building it will require all the daring and enterprise you possess. What is a dream to us today, can become a reality under your leadership.

Make good use of your most outstanding characteristics: self-confidence, the ability to adjust to changing conditions, independence of thought and judgment, and the courage to face an unknown future with enthusiasm.

Best wishes for success in every endeavor.

ALMA MATER

Oh, Alma Mater, fair and true,
Thy honor we acclaim;
We rally around the Red and Gold
To laud thy noble name.
In thee we students shall renew
Our faith of days gone by,
Across the years we'll live anew
Thy spirit, Olean High.

Dear Olean, Thy loving ways
And charms will ever be,
Those memories of golden days,
Those friends and hearts so free.
To thee we pledge thy honor due,
And parting, sound thy cheers
Our thoughts of you, so staunch, so true,
Will live thru all the years.

Homecoming — a special time when everyone has a certain feeling of unity and enthusiasm. Weeks before preparations began, class work meetings and plans for decorations began, and Cindy Bergstrom and Don Agett, chairmen of the event, worked to insure a memorable weekend. Friday morning there was a pep assembly and, as a hush fell over the auditorium, the 1972 Homecoming court was announced, with Beth Tripodi and Kevin Hannon reigning as King and Queen. The weekend progressed — the bonfire . . . sports dance . . . parade and floats . . . Williamsville South-Olean game . . . Janet Wool and the Marvels . . . the crowning of the court at midnight.

Homecoming '72 was met with mixed emotions. For the underclassmen it was a new experience and a great introduction to what they have to look forward to. But the seniors had their last chance of experiencing a high school homecoming. For them what could have been so meaningful as the theme — "Precious and Few?"

Winter Weekend 1973 began Thursday Night with class competition in decorating the gym for Friday night's basketball game. Friday morning at the assembly the court was announced by co-chairmen Connie Ostrom and Vince Caffo with Alan Berk as King and Zita Nicoletta as Queen. The Friday game ended in a victory for the Huskies, with a score of 98-69. For the seniors, it was a special night. It was their last home game as well as their last big weekend. After the game there was a concert in the auditorium featuring "Hot Flash." Saturday, for the first time in 3 years, the classes competed in snow sculpturing with the sophomores winning first prize. That night music was provided by "Posse" at the feature dance. The weekend ended Sunday with a big toboggan-ski party at Valbella.

'Winter Memories'

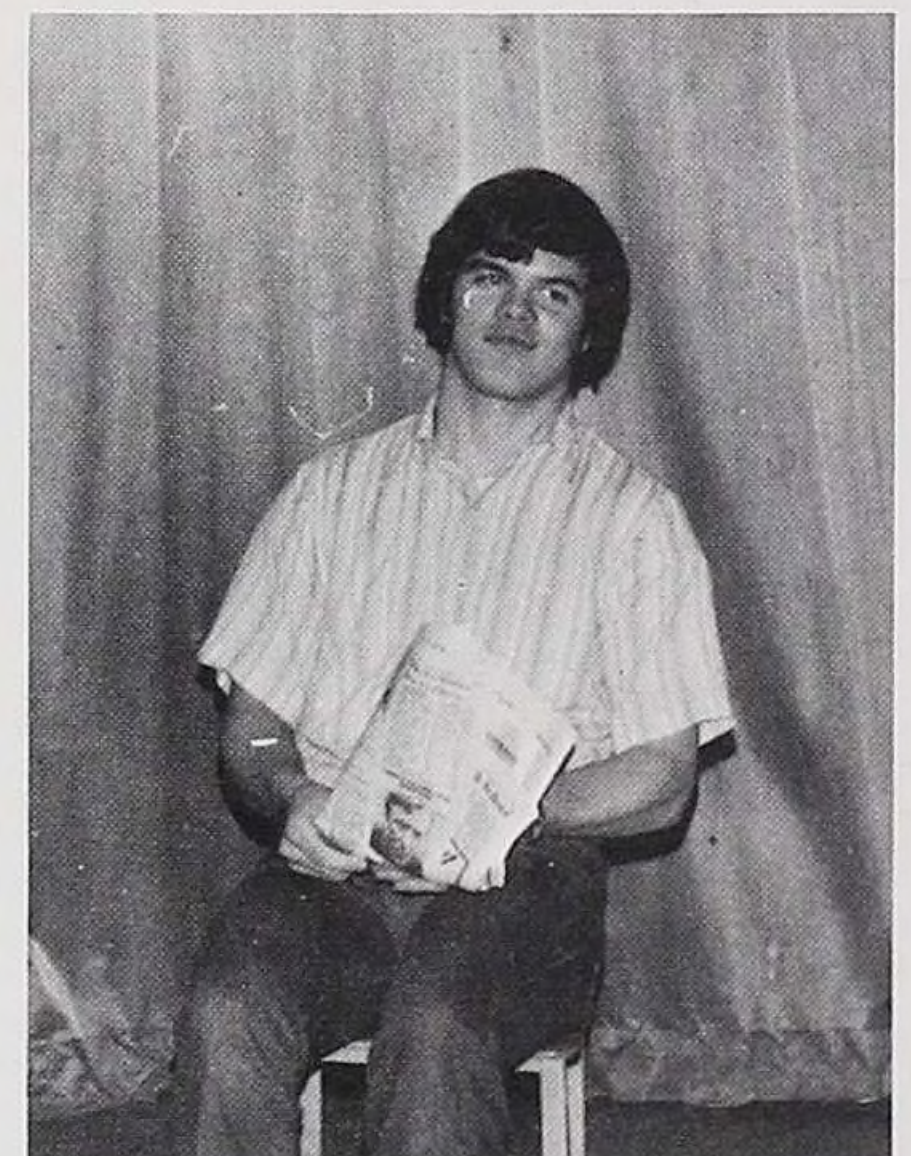

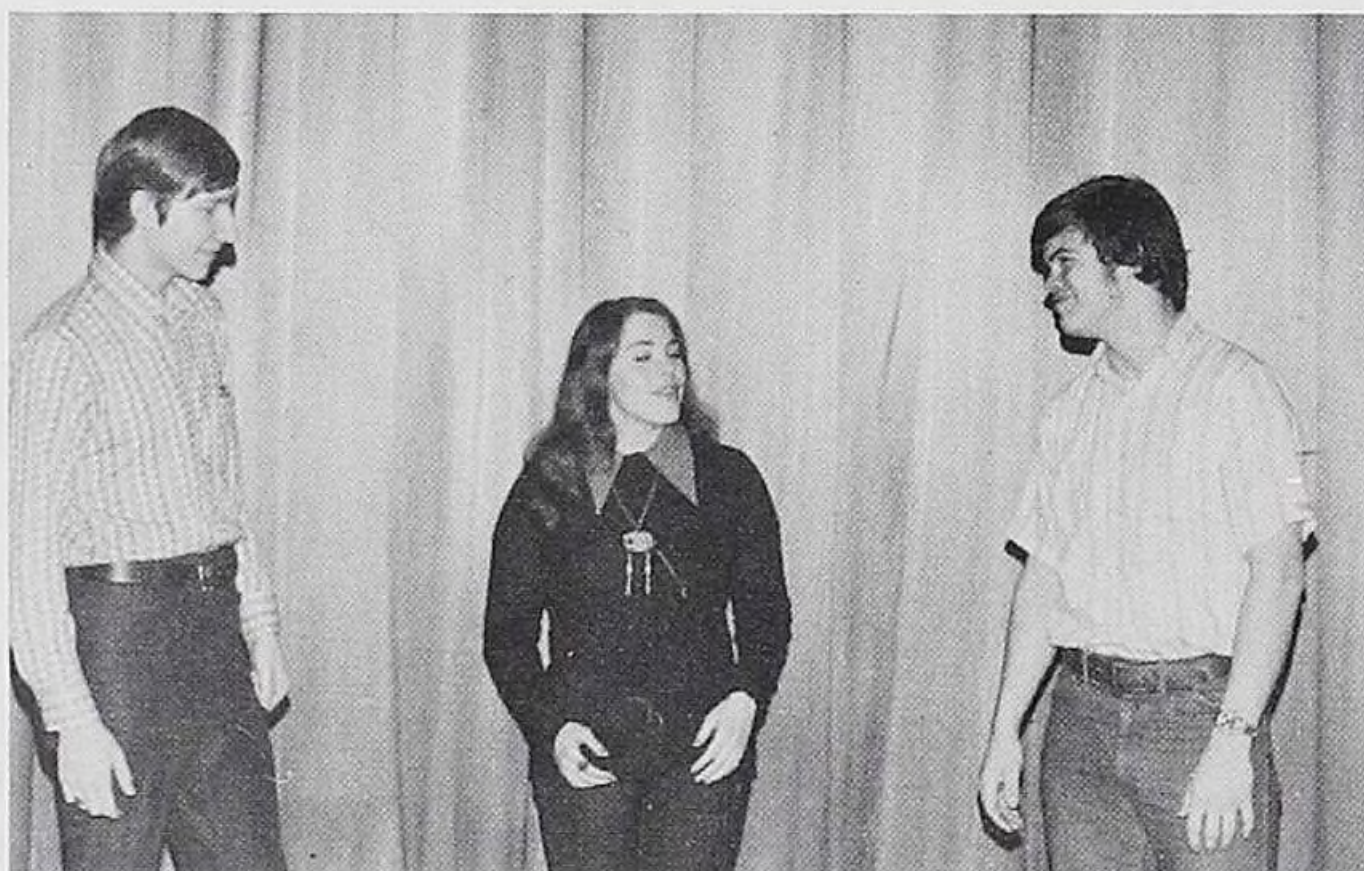

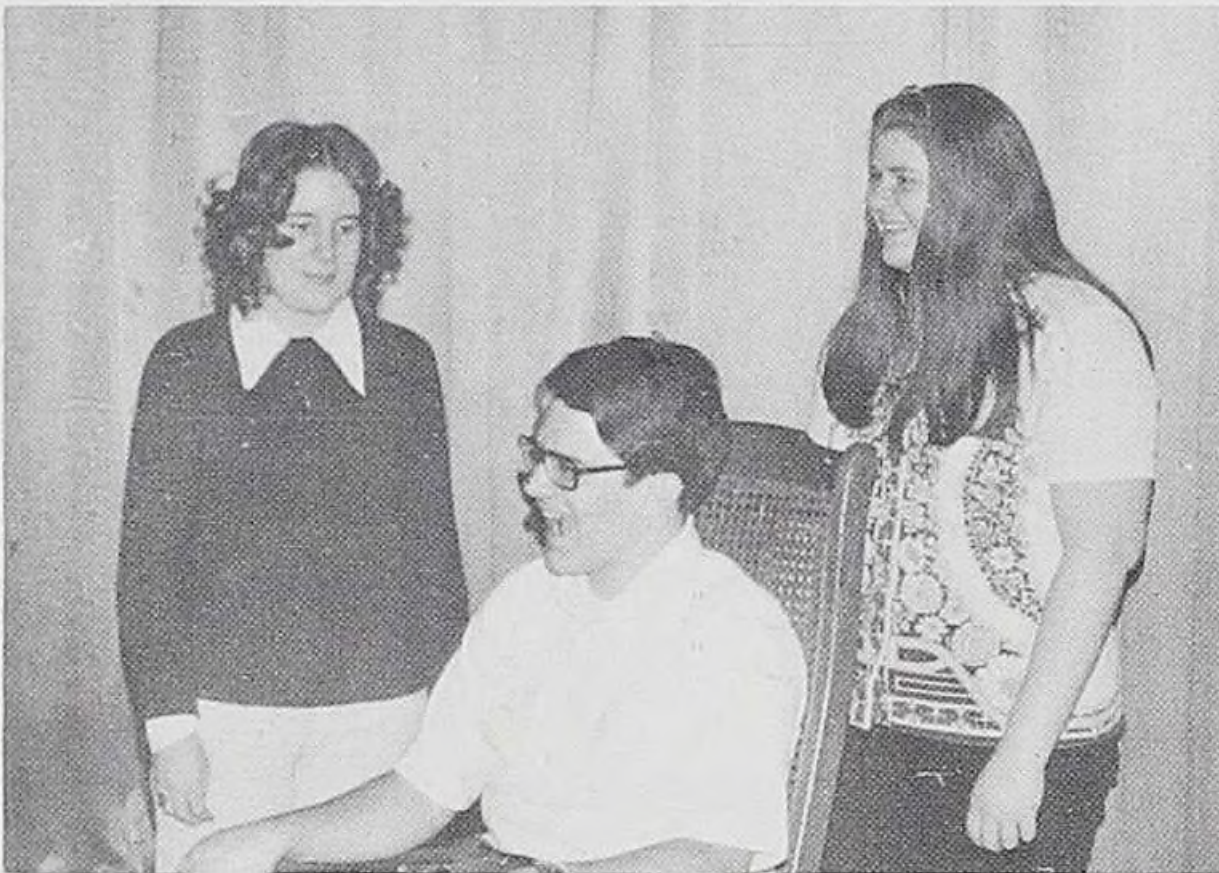

The Little Foxes

by Lillian Hellman

The Little Foxes, by Lillian Hellman, portrays the bitter struggle within a family over the profits from a factory they want to build on a former cotton plantation. Hatred, greed, and selfishness motivate the Hubbards to wrangle over money with the result that they manage to trample and destroy whatever is left of the honor and dignity of the New South.

The drama, presented April 6 and 7, featured strong characters acted by Harriet Penensick, Bob Davis, Jeff Silloway, Harry Krampf, Molly Wenke, and Diane Snyder — supported by Kay Parker, Mark Lasky, and Jeff Kline.

Directed by — Miss Kathleen Wright

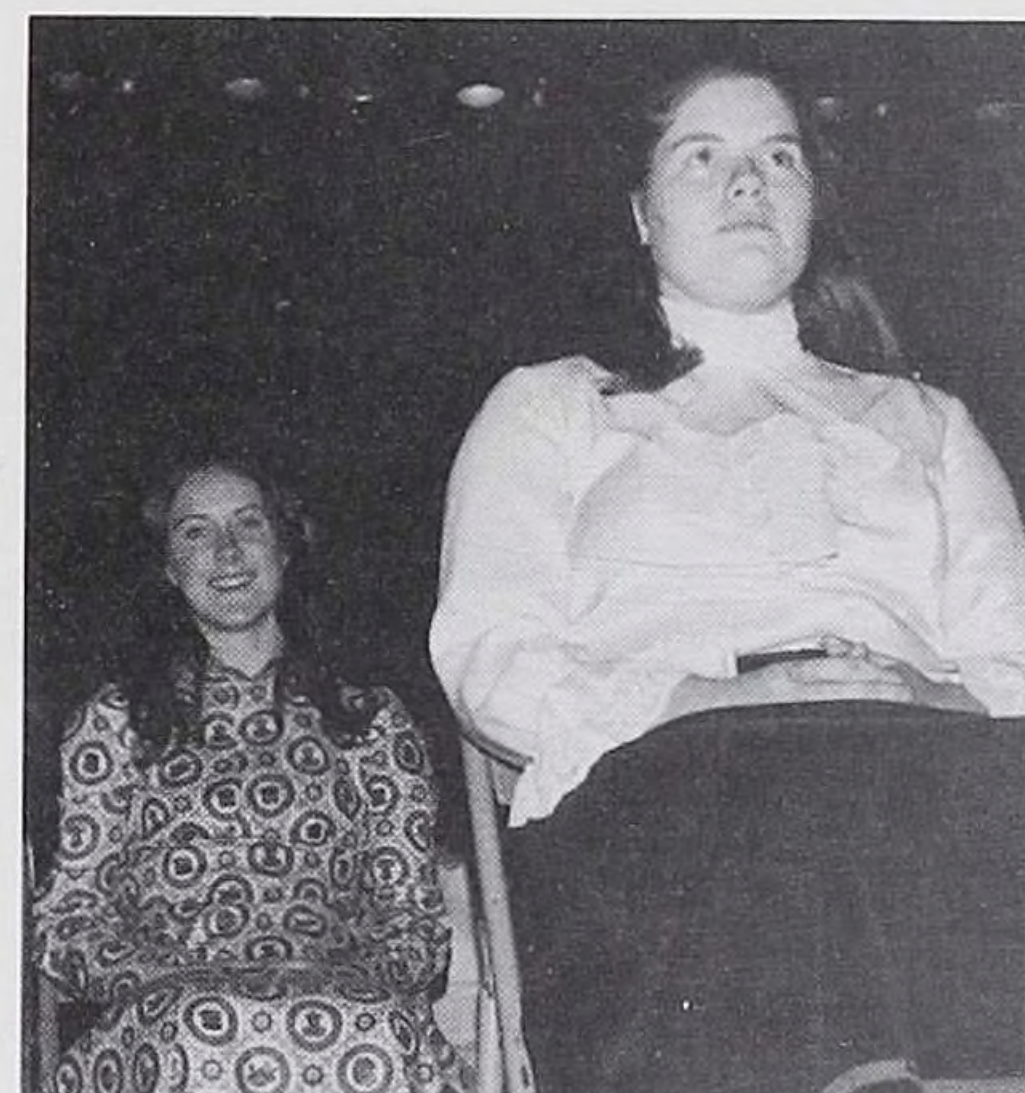

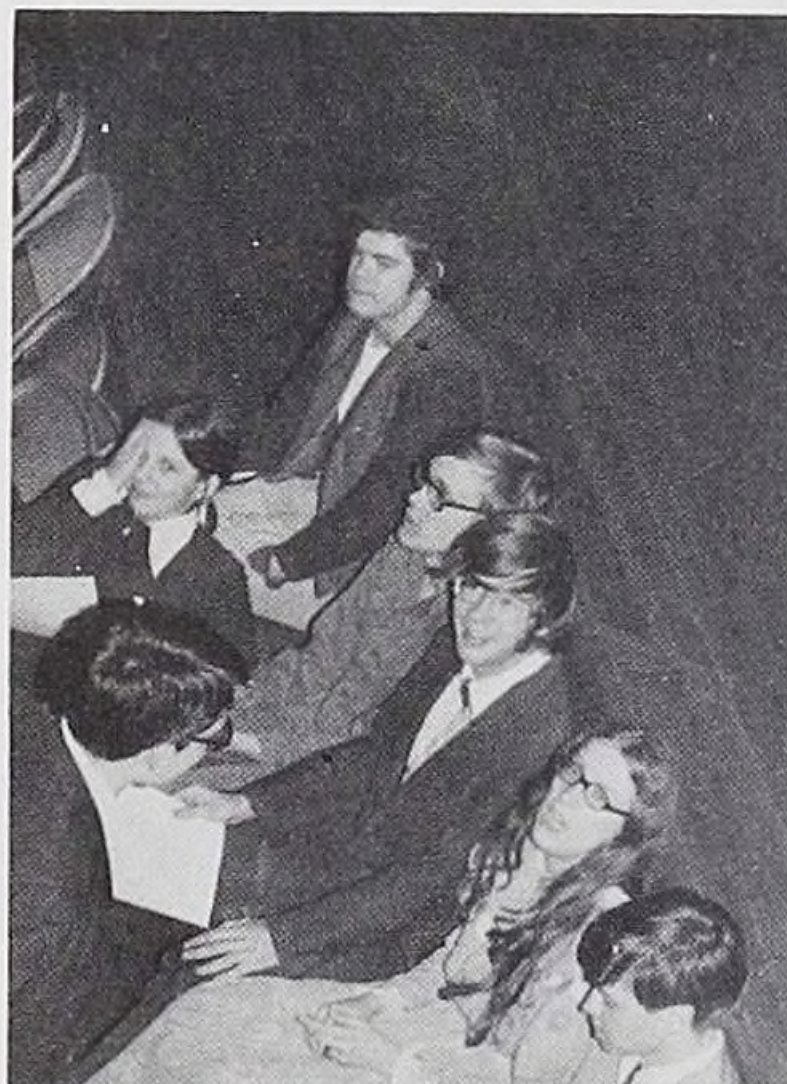

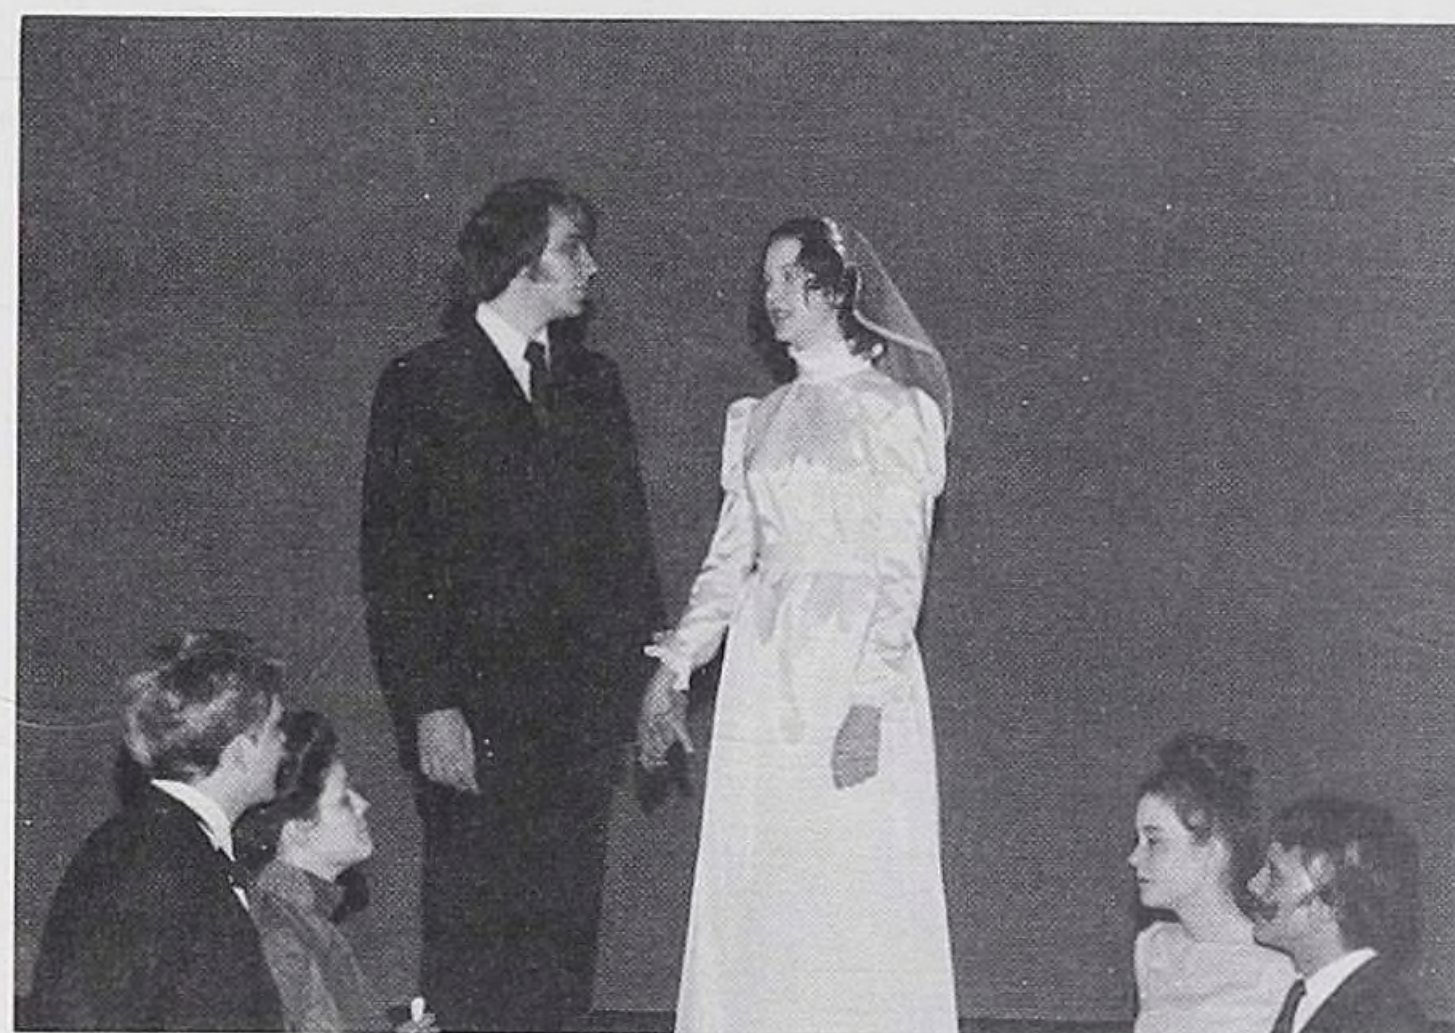

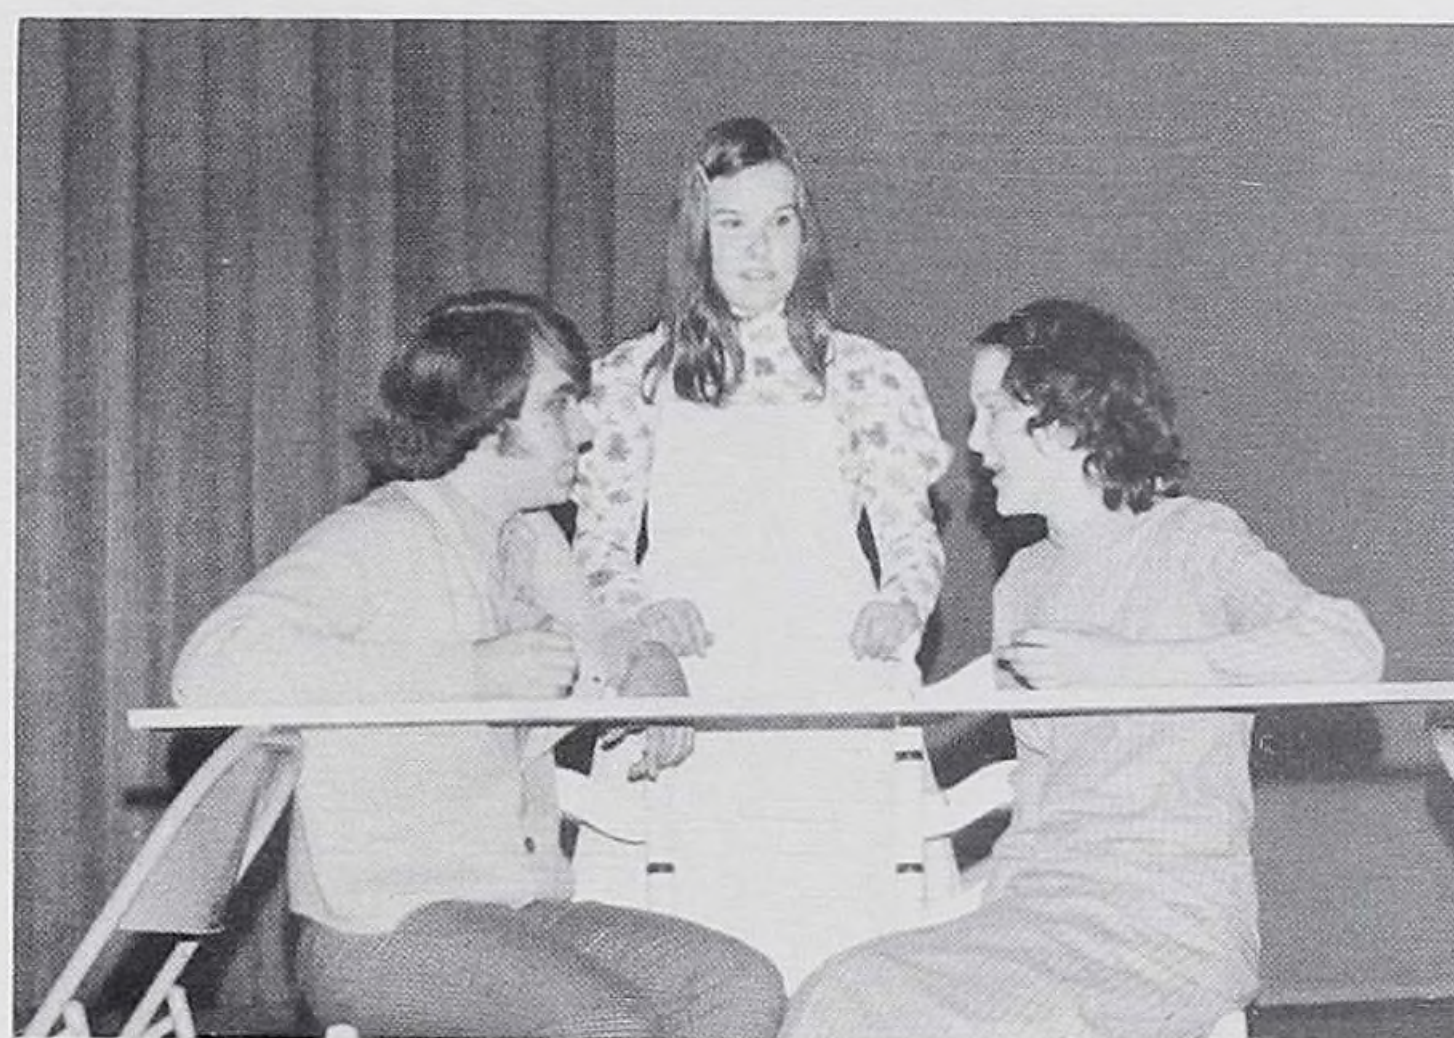

Our Town
by Thornton Wilder

On December 1 and 2, the students of O.H.S. had a chance to visit Grover's Corners, New Hampshire, when Our Town was presented. The small joys of life were realized by Emily Webb, when she returned to earth after death. She tried in vain to make George, her family, and the others in the town share her newly-found appreciation of life.

Directed by — Ron Adams, student director.

Directed by — Miss Kathleen Wright

Success is speaking words of praise,
In cheering other people's ways,
In doing just the best you can,
With every task and every plan,
It's loyalty when duty calls,
It's courage when disaster falls,
In all of life and nothing less,
We find the thing we call . . .

Success!

Involvement

Everywhere in life, the true question is not what we gain, but what we do for humanity.

Student Council

PRESIDENT — Karl Fritton
VICE-PRESIDENT — Debbie Kubiak

TREASURER — Mike Zuckerman
SECRETARY — Cara Low

This year we tried to get students more interested in their council, its activities, and their school; with the ultimate goal of a better insight on student government.

The constitution was rewritten over the summer, calling for more student representatives on the council and its committees. Our goal has not been attained yet; but a totally new Student Government set-up, which will be effective September 1, 1973, should serve the students more effectively than those Councils in the past, in a more diversified manner.

When we were chosen to be editors, we had only a slight idea of the work and time that involved the making of a yearbook. We found that it was more than sticking pictures on pages — it required putting little personal touches on our project that began as early as last summer. Congress '73 made certain demands on patience with ourselves and each other, on effort and determination when we found ourselves doing pages over and over, and on time, with the surprise that it was easy to frequently lose track of it. The most important demand was the need for plans, which could never have been straightened out and finalized without Miss Sheahan's help.

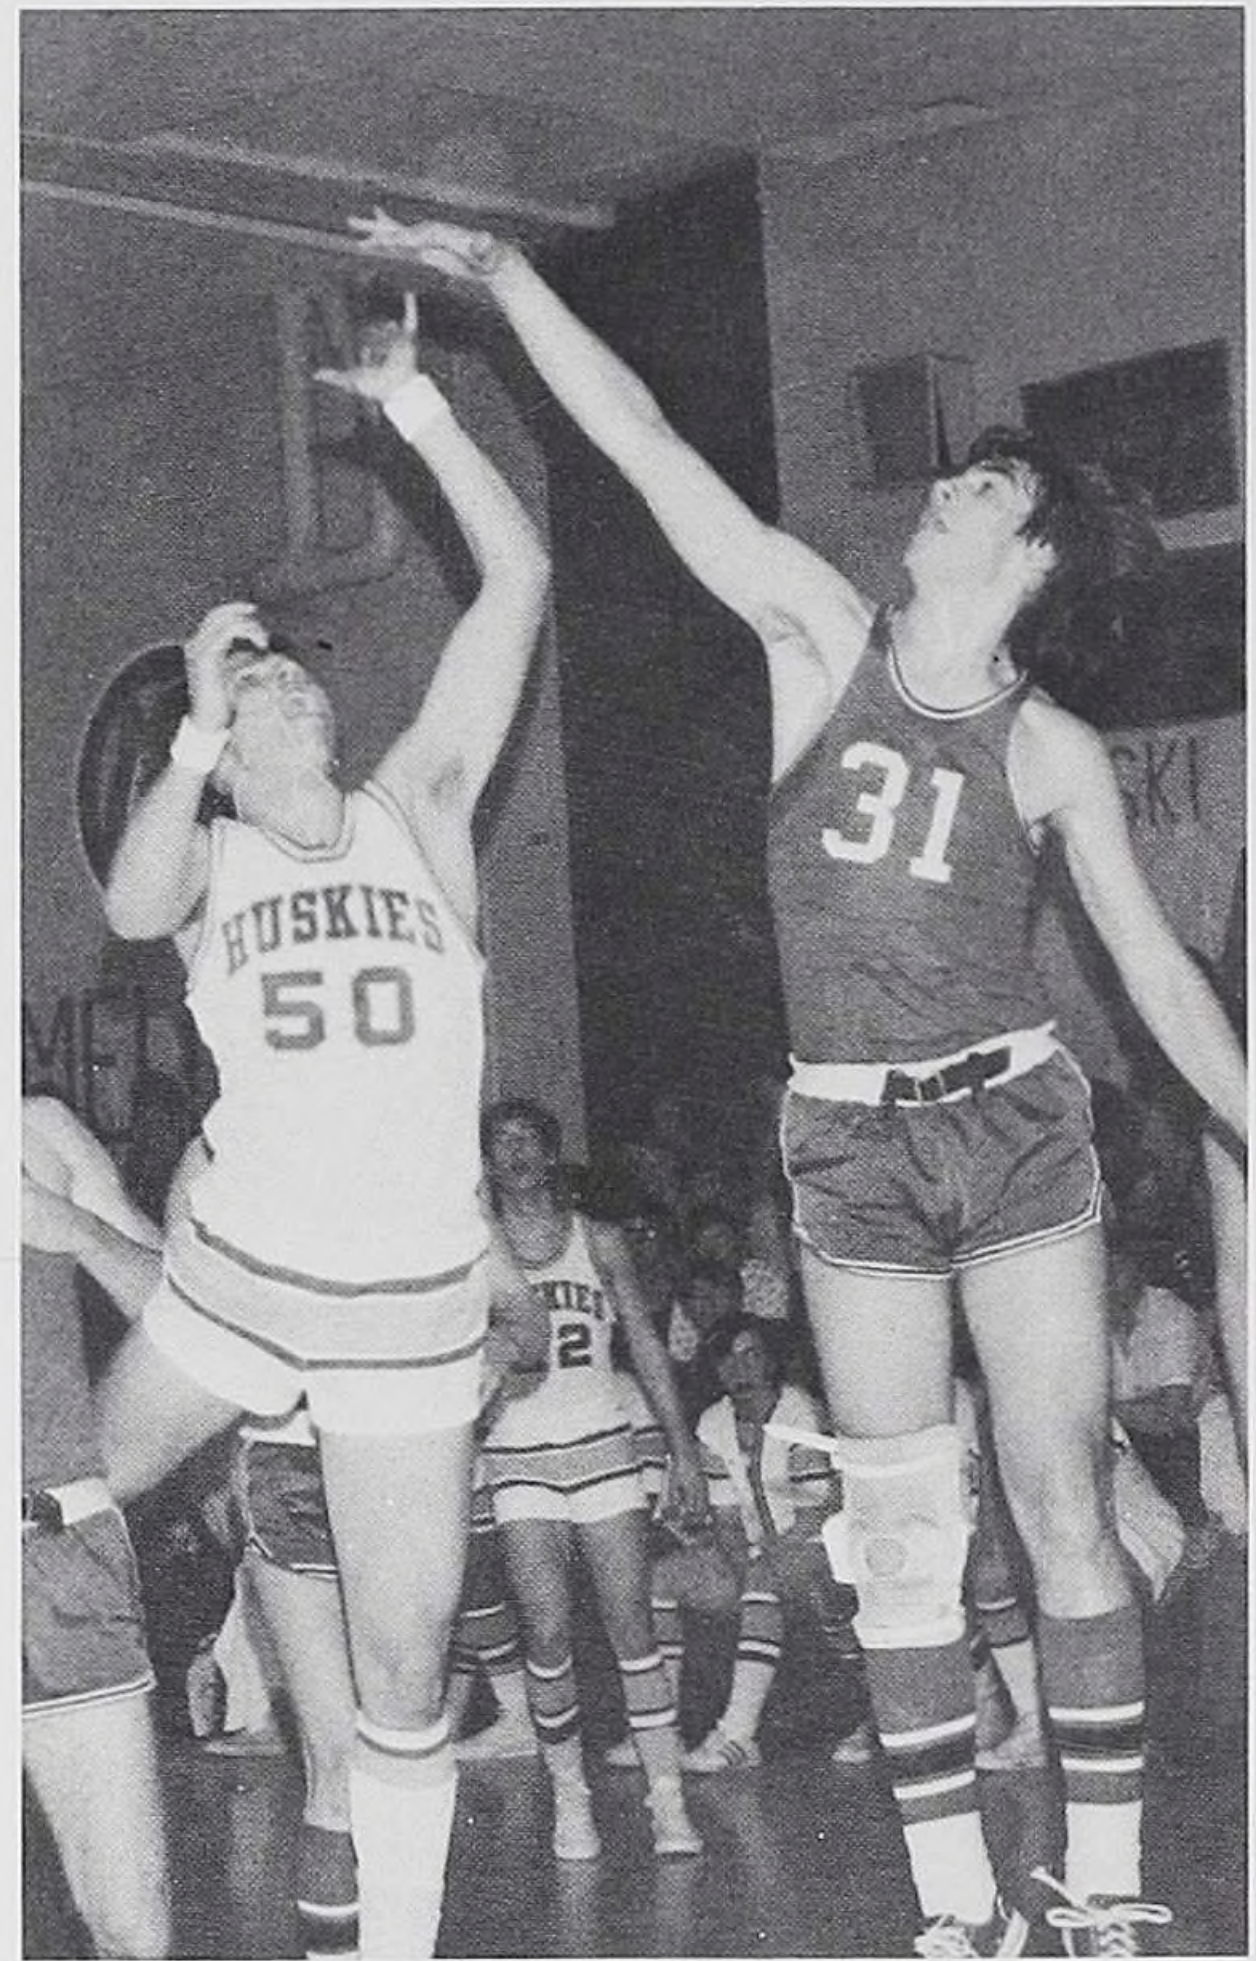

This yearbook was meant to be more than pages of class pictures that will mean something only to a chosen few. It is a collage with a message — the worth, the importance of the individual. At a time when mankind is lumped into one undistinguishable mass, the importance of a solitary person seems so vague and impossible. With Congress '73, we wish to introduce to all who turn through these pages the recognition and awareness of the individual.
