Mr. Moore

Mr. Moore's journey in Olean began with teaching ninth grade global studies in room 229. Years later, he was offered the role of assistant principal. While at Olean, Mr. Moore was always involved in student activities: coaching lacrosse and girls' soccer, supervising Ski Club, and supporting Homeless Huskies. The most memorable moment in Mr. Moore's career was when his resilient soccer team persevered through the loss of a teammate and even made it to states. Before Mr. Moore's return to Olean, he worked at Otto Eldred, Salamanca, and Belleville Henderson and even lived in Japan. Despite his experience in areas around the world, he was thrilled to come back to Olean, admitting, "Olean has always felt like a home to me." To Mr. Moore, Olean is different than any school he's worked at. Despite Olean being a small, rural school, Mr. Moore marvels at its diversity, regarding Olean as a place for "kids of different races, religions, and financial situations" to come together. He also admires Olean's unique and energetic school spirit during assemblies and spirit weeks. Additionally, Mr. Moore applauds the hardworking staff at Olean High School. Unlike most schools, Mr. Moore credits the teachers with being caring, open-minded, and understanding the kids on a more personal level. Coming back to Olean has been an opportunity for Mr. Moore to reminisce on memories and create many more.
